The Government of West Bengal by its Labour Department Order No. 667-I.R./IR/10L-25/64, dated 19th February 1964, referred to this Tribunal an industrial dispute between Messrs. Bengal Ignot Company Ltd., 5, Hide Road, Kidderpore, Calcutta (hereinsfiter referred to as the Company) and their workmen represented by Kidderpore Engineering Sramik Union, 129A, Circular Garden Reach Road, Kidderpore, Calcutta (hereinsfiter referred to as the Union) for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The issue framed in this case for adjudication runs as follows:—

Whether the dismissal of Shri Abdul Quadir, T/No. 334, is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

AWARD

The case of the Company in its written statement is that Abdul Quadir was a worker of the Company in the factory. In the night of 2(th/21st March 1963, he was working in the night-shift, i.e., from 9 p.m. to 7 a.m. After midnight Quadir was found sleeping on a wheel barrow by the night-shift Superintendent Mr. H. Ulley during his night rounds. He asked Quadir to join his work, but he did not pay any herd to it. In the morning Mr. Ulley made a report against him for sleeping during duty hours. Accordingly, Quadir was charge-sheeted for sleeping during duty hours and neglect of duty and of disobedience to lawful and reasonable order of the superior under clause 17(b) and 16(a) of the standing orders. The enquiry was held by the Personnel Officer of the Company-Sri S. B. Mitra in presence of the workman, and following the finding of the Enquiring Officer, Quadir was dismissed. In the written statement of the Union, this order of dismissal is challenged as perverse. Quadir had pain in the stomach which prevented him from work for some time in the night-shift. He complained about the pain to the night-shift Superintendent and asked for medicine, but the Superintendent did not pay heed

The Company, on the other hand, states that the charges were well founded. There had been a fair and proper enquiry against the charges levelled against Quadir and the findings of the Enquiring Officer are supported by evidence. The finding is reasonable and the order of dismissal is justified.

DECISION.

Admittedly, Quadir was an operator of a grinding machine and was working in the night-shift of 20th/21st March, 1963. The night-shift began at 9 p.m. on 20th March 1963 and terminated at 7 a.m. on 21st March 1963. Quadir joined his work as usual. He was found sleeping by the night-shift Superintendent Mr. Ulley, who awakened Quadir and asked him to go to work. But Quadir disobeyed the order of Mr. Ulley, his superior. This is the allegation against Quadir. The charge-sheet is Exhibit B/1, which states that Quadir was found sleeping on a wheel barrow by the night-shift Superintendent who asked Quadir to go to work, but he disregarded the order. Quadir was again found fast asleep at 2-45 a.m. until 4 a.m. when he woke up and took tea. Quadir slept even after taking tea up to 4.55 a.m. Quadir admittedly received a charge-theet, and he gave a reply thereto. The reply is Exhibit B. His plea is that he was feeling severe pain in the stomach and for that he was compelled to lie down, and when called by the night-alift Superintendent he reported about his illness and asked for medical aid. Quadir denied that he took tea at 4 a.m. Af aid. Quadir denied that he town was received from Quadir an enquiry was held with due notice to him which he attend The enquiry proceeding is Exhibit E and it is presed by the Enquiring Officer—Sri S. B. Mitra. The country proceeding will show that Quadir was allest the utset a few questions by the Enquiring Officer. The arned representative for the Union condemns this rocedure by saying that it was projudicial to the orkman concorned. I cannot agree with this view. t is true that a few questions were asked to Quadir, ut they were only preliminary questions on the oint as to whether he was on duty in the respective ight-shift and whether he was working on the rinding muchine. Then the Enquiring Officer asked luadir when he saw Mr. Ulley last, and Quadir gave he time. Nothing was asked with regard to the harge in those preliminary questions. The enquiry vas not therefore vitiated by putting such questions o Quadir at the beginning of the enquiry. Of course, n a domestic enquiry the first witness who should ppear, should be a witness who is competent to lepose to the facts respecting the charge on the side of the management. In the present case, however, dr. H. Ulley, who was the principal witness of the lompany, was examined just after those questions vere put to Quadir, and there was no prejudice owing o the framing of those questions to Quadir before xamination of the Company's principal witness Mr. Ulley. Mr. Ulley was examined in full and ross-examined by Quadir. Thereafter Quadir was sked whether he heard the evidence of Mr. Ulley. Quadir gave answer to reveral questions. Thereafter mother witness was examined by the Company, and le is Churamani. Churamani also was cross-examined by Quadir. Then the last witness, Shri Jitendra Nath Seal, who is a compounder in the dispensary, , was examined. In all cases the Enquiring Officer allowed Quadir to cross-examine the witnesses, and thereafter explained the evidence to him. On the adjourned date of enquiry, one Uttam Satpati was examined, and Quadir had opportunities of cross-examining this witness also. The report of the Enquiring Officer is Exhibit E/l. In this report the Enquiring Officer relied on the evidence of Mr Ulley in particular. He disbelieved the plea of Quadir that he was feeling a pain. Quadir never reported to Mr. Ulley or any one else about the pain. Enquiring Officer believed the evidence that Quadir took ton and then again he went to sleep. He received payment of some compensation amount from the night-shift Superintendent and thereafter be started his work. The Enquiring Officer accordingly came to the finding that Quadir was sleeping and disobeyed the order of Mr. Ulley. He was accordingly found guilty of the charges. Quadir was dismissed by a letter (Exihibit F) which is signed by the Works Manager. He was found guilty of serious misconduct for which the Company thought dismissal as the proper order to pass. With regard to the enquiry proceeding, the learned representative for the Union cross-examined the Enquiring Officer and slicited from him that the Enquiring Officer took into consideration some documents (Exhibits C and D) and the report of Mr. Ulley (Exhibit A/I) on the date of miquiry and his findings were influenced by those locuments, though none of those documents were made over to the accused. So far as Exhibit A/1 s concerned, it is a written statement of Mr. Ulley. The evidence of Mr. Ulley given orally before the Enquiring Officer in presence of Quadir gives all Meails of the incident, and Exhibit A/1 is nothing art a summary of that evidence. In view of the act that Mr. Utley gave oral evidence himself a presence of the workman concerned Exhibit if is no important whatsoever, and son-supply of a chy thereof is not at all projudicial to the workman.

Regarding Exhibits C. and D. these are to be look into. Exhibit D is a minute of the proceeding of the Works Committee, and it is in respect of a general complaint of sleeping by the workmen during and shift. A serious view was taken in Exhibit D of and instances. It has no particular bearing upon the incident in question. Exhibit C is a general circular to the control of the c the Company on the basis of Exhibit D warning the workmen against the habit of sleeping during night shift. Admittedly, copies of those documents not furnished to the workman Quadir and thus not, however, sealted in any prejudice to Quadir because the circular which is of a general nature to no bearing upon the specific charge against to workman concerned. Even if the Enquiring Office took into consideration those documents in the enquiry, it does not occasion any prejudice to the charge-sheeted person, because the Enquiring Office relied upon the evidence of sleeping and will negligence of lawful orders against the charge-sheeted person in coming to his conclusion. If the Enquire Officer believed the evidence of Mr. Ulley and other witnesses in full and passed a judgment, I cannot sit in appeal over that judgment. In the present case it cannot be said that the enquiry was unfair or the workman did not get proper opportunity to defeat himself. In case the enquiry was properly conducted the Tribunal will refuse to interfere unless there be

- 1. want of good faith,
- 2. victimisation and unfair labour practice,
- the management has been guilty of bus error or violation of the principles of natural justice,
- 4. where on the materials the finding is conpletely baseless and perverse.

In the instant case none of those conditions is fulfilled. Even if for the sake of argument it is accepted that since Exhibits C and D were relied upon by the Enquiring Officer, and they partially influenced in decision and as such the enquiry was unfan and principles of natural justice were violated, as the copies of those two documents were not made available to the accused, it would be quite competent for the Tribunal to enter into the merits of the action taken by the management and find for itself whether the charges are proved against the accused. I'm Company examined Mr. H. Ulley (night-shift Superintendent) to prove their case. I have no reasons intendent) to prove their case. I have no reason to disbelieve the evidence of Mr. Ulley. His positive evidence is that while he was going on night rouse at 2-30 a.m. he found Quadir sleeping on a whole barrow. Quadir used to work on the granding machine and was not found there. The night shift Superintendent woke him up and asked him to got work. He got up and again went to aleep. Its night-shift Superintendent tried to awake him, but he could not. He was found sleeping up to 4 a.m. at which time he got up and took tea, and then again fell asleep. At 5 a.m. the workman went to the Night-Shift Superintendent to Night-Shift Superintendent to receive some payment and then he joined his work, and in fact worked up to 7 a.m. Mr. Ulley made a report about this incident on the very next day and it is Exhibit A. It however a short report, but nevertheless all to relevant facts are there. The very fact that Mr. Use immediately reported the incident would go to minimediately reported the incident would go to minimediately at the bidden of the first the bidden of the bid of the Enquiring Officer he submitted a

He states to was lying down with severe stomach pain and the reported about his illiness to the night-shift printendent and that he did not take any tea. His issee before the Enquiring Oncer was however rent. He admitted that Mr. Ulley awoke him i sleep and asked him to get up and join his work, it he adds that he told Mr. Ulley about his pair. his is at pages 4 and 5 of the enquiry proceeding. The iquing Officer asked whether he reported his pain Mr. Ulley as soon as he got the pain. The answer was it as he went on sleeping during tiffin and thereafter. could not report to him. It may, however, be said it I should not rely upon the evidence recorded by Enquiring Officer if the enquiry was unfair. I am accordingly relying upon that evidence either, eridence of Quadir before me is that he developed nach pain at 12-30 a.m. If that is so, it is only to expected that he would immediately report to the ght-shift Superintendent and asked for leave to go t of the factory or get his pain properly treated. s man who was having severe stomach pain cannot expected to fall fast asteep. If I accept the plea of sair, then he was not at all sleeping. But the dence of Mr. Ulley is that Quadir was found sleepgon a wheal barrow, and though repeatedly awakened, sadir did not agree to join his work. Mr. Ulley's tidence is that Quadir did not ask for any medicine om him, and on the contrary Quadir at 4 p.m. keup and took tea. In view of the evidence Mr. Ulley the plea of severe stomach pain is phelieveable in the background of the conduct of le workman. The evidence of Mr. Ulley is sufficient prove the charges against the workman. Sleeping iring working hours must be considered as a seconduct, and it is a misconduct under the standing der of the Company as well. The workman is so guilty of disobedience to the orders of the nightift Superintendent who asked him to go to wk after he was awakened from sleep. e charges are also proved before this Tribunal. e dismissal of the workman is accordingly held to be

The Government of West Bengal by Order No. 2023-I.R./IR/11L-174/64, dated 2nd June 1984, had referred the following industrial disputable tween Messrs. Carlsbad Mineral Water Mig. Co. (P.) #### ISSUE

 Whether the dismissal of Shri S. N. Dutta is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

After the service of usual notice the Union representing the workmen and also the employer have filed written statements. In the written statement filed on behalf of the workman it has been alleged that Shri S. N. Dutta had workeld as a clerk under the company and was also a member of the Union Committee. He was illegally and arbitrarily dismissed by the company by the letter dated 18th of April 1963. He was however, later on, reinstated with back wages through the intervention of the Assistant Labour Commissioner. In about two months' time from the joining of the post by Shri Dutta, he was again served with the show cause notice dated 28th of August 1963. Shri Dutta gave his reply and had also tendered money to the cashier whole quently on 30th August 1963 Shri Dutta had sant the money amounting to Rs. 7.02P. by money order. Thereafter on 4th September 1963, the company had issued another charge-sheet.

was not guilty of any misconduct and the action of the company is wholly illegal and against the principles of natural justice and was only taken to victimise Shri Dutta who had to be taken back in service after the first dismissal order. It has been prayed that Shri Dutta might be reinstated in service with full compensation for the period of forced unemployment. At the time of hearing, however, Shri Dutta himself stated that he did not want to be reinstated in service.

The compnay in the written statement submitted that it used to manufacture mineral water in accordance with the contract with the Railway Authorities and that as there is no further contract for supplying of mineral water, the company gave up manufacturing of mineral water and is now carrying on other business. It is further stated that the company is not aware if Shri Dutta is a Shriber of the Union. It is, however, stated that Shri Dutta was in the service of the company for some years and that Shri Dutta was found guilty of gross misconduct at the time of enquiry and that the management had dismissed him. The company does not dispute that after termination of service by the letter dated 18th of April 1963, Shri Dutta was reinstated in service but says that the company only took him back at the request of the Labour Officer. It is further alleged that at that time the company was not aware of the misappropriation of money by Shri Dutta. There was subsequent scrutiny of the relevant records and it was found that Shri Dutta had committed gross misconduct on different dates in April 1963 and hence the charge-sheet was given to Shri Dutta on 26th August 1963. The amount due in respect of the chalans was not tendered by Shri Dutta on 26th August 1963 or at any time. It is further not disputed that Shri Dutta had not sent the money in money order, but it is stated that this cannot absolve Shri Dutta from the charge of misappropria-tion of the money and that in any case there was temporary misappropriation of the money by the company about Shri Dutta. There was further scrutiny and it appeared that further sum had not been deposited by Shri Dutta and hence another charge-sheet was given to Shri Dutta on 4th September 1963. Thereafter there was fair and proper enquiry and Shri Dutta was found guilty of gross misconduct and hence he was dismissed from service by the letter dated 2nd December 1963. There is no question of any ulterior motive or any victimisation and hence Shri Dutta is not entitled to be reinstated in service with full compensation for the alleged period of forced unemployment.

DECISION

There is no dispute that Shri Dutta had worked as a clerk under the company from 1944 to 1963 and that he was dismissed from service by the company on or about April 1963 and that through the intervention of the Assistant Labour Commissioner Shri Dutta was reinstated in service with back wages and had actually joined in service again on 27th June 1963. There is further no dispute that back wages had not been paid to Shri Dutta and that Re. 200 or so is still due from the company. The absention of their Butta was been accompany.

is dated 18th of April 1968. It is stated the that Shri Dutta was to collect the salary date. Shri Dutta in his evidence had stated he did not collect his dues in terms of the Exhibit No. 1. Quite obviously Shri Dutta on collect his dues after his dismissal on 1844. April 1963 because there was a pending next tion for settlement regarding the first dismissal on the collection of the of Shri Dutta. It appears to me that Shri D is quite justified in not collecting the dual terms of the letter Exhibit No. 1. I would fund point out that there is no such offer to Shri be to collect his dues by the charge-sheet Erhibs dated 26th of August 1968. As I understand learned lawyer appearing for the company not dispute that some amount is still due Shri Dutta from the company. It is not necessary for me to decide finally at this stage the amount which is due to Shri Dutta from the companion of Dutta does not want to be reinstated in service and the wages which are due to Shri Da from the company can obviously be recovered Shri Dutta by proceeding before the Authority Payment of Wages under the Payment of Wag Act.

The learned lawyer appearing for the compared aubmitted that there had been fair and proper enquiry and misconduct on the part of Shri bin had found and this Tribunal cannot interfer set aside the finding of the enquiring officer at it domestic enquiry. The law regarding the juntation of the Tribunal in matters of domestic enquiry is fairly well settled. It has been held the in cases of dismissal for misconduct the Tribunal can case a court of appeal and will all substitute its own judgment for that of the magement, and that in case of dismissal after a quiry by the domestic Tribunal. Industrial is bunal can interfere for such action of the magement only on the following grounds—

- (1) Where there is want of good faith:
- (2) Where there is victimisation or units labour practice;
- (3) Where the management is guilty of being error or violation of the principles of natural justice; and
- (4) Where on the materials the finding sompletely baseless and perverse.

Regarding the perversity of the sing, it has been held in the ruling reported in 1962 II, L.L.J. 772—Hamdard Dawakhana versus workmen, that it must be finding not supposed by any evidence or is entirely opposed to whole evidence adduced. I think reference should also be made to the ruling reported in 1960 Il. L.L.J. 39 (Bangalore W.E. and S. Mills oversus B. Dasappaa) in which it has been that if a Tribunal or a Labour Court is satisfant that the action of management was not bons or the priniciples of natural justice had which the management came to a consideration of the stiff and the same could not justify any management in an interest of the same could not justify any management came to a consideration.

all now proceed to discuss the facts and stances in the light of the legal principles med above. I shall first of all mention the sheet dated 26th August 1963 (Exhibit, he substance of that charge-sheet is that by numbers LC/4963 dated 5th April 1963, 64 dated 5th April 1968, LC/4988 dated pril 1963 and LC/4033 dated 16th April the sums of Rs. 2.20nP., Rs. 1.30nP., 40nP., and Rs. 2.40 nP. including sales tax been received from the customers by Shri but he did not credit the amounts in the acs of the company and had misappropriated ams. The charge therefore is of misapproon of the amounts mentioned above which sent the value of the company's products to the customers. I am told by the learned er appearing for the company that the chalan are maintained in triplicate and that one is made over to the customer and one remain to the chalan books. The chalan books been marked Exhibit Nos. I and I(1), and the sales of lemonade and soda water to Hooghly Docking and Engineering Company alkia at Howrah. It may be pointed out at stage also that Prosecution Witness No. 1, Dutta has not disputed in his evidence that nums mentioned above had been collected by In the reply (Exhibit B) Shri Dutta also not deny that he had collected the amounts. had stated therein that the matter had been into before the Conciliation Officer and the many cannot raise this question, as he has reinstated at the intervention of the Labour ... suoner before whom the matter had gone it details and that he had stated several that he never had any intention not to pay ues which might be adjusted against his alary. The reply therefore shows that Shri had stated that he had no intention of distly misappropriating the sums collected by Whether rightly or wrongly he wanted the nts due to the company to be set off against wn salary or wages from the company is er matter. There is another charge-sheet 4th September 1963 (Exhibit No. A1). referring to the charge-sheet dated 26th st 1963, it is stated that Shri Dutta had col-| sums of Rs. 2.22nP., .28nP., Rs. 2.10nP., .12nP., and Rs. 1.30nP., by the cash memos IR Nos. M 4026 to M/4030 and that he had redited the aforesaid amounts received under aforesaid cash memos with the cashier and misappropriated the sums for his personal The reply to this charge-sheet is Exhibit B(1). It is stated therein that the total sum s. 7.02nP. in respect of cash memos referred as not accepted by the cashier and therefore Dutta had no other alternative but to send mount by money order receipt No. 3436, 130th August 1963, from the Sealdah Post 2. The money order receipt is Exhibit No. 7. Nows that this amount of Rs. 7.02nP. had been from the Sealdah Post from the Sealdah Post Office on 30th August and had been refused by some one in the on 5th September 1963. Incidentally it may ointed out that this sending of the money by Dutta and the refusal of the money order are deputed. I shall now discuss the finding of figuring Officer, negating the two charges had been resulting the two charges proceedings. Exhibit J shows that Shri G. Sukla who is the cashier, Hazir Hossain who is the despatch sardar, Agnu Keot and Nizamuddin who is the cooly, were examined and cross-examined and Shri S. N. Dutta was also examined denied and cross-examined. Shri Sukla had having received any amount from Sri Dutta regarding chalans and carl memos. He had added that the sum of Rs. 7.02nP. was sent by money order but he had not accepted the amount, as Shri Dutta had temporarily misappropriated the amount and as there was no instruction to receive the amount from the management. Shri Hazir Hossain has spoken about the giving of chalans and the delivery of goods and had further stated that some of the customers had come with the cash memos and asked goods to be delivered. He had also stated that he does not know whether the amounts regarding the chalans and cash memos had really been deposited with the company. Agnu Keot had stated regarding chalans he had handed over and made over the amounts to Shri Dutta. Nazimuddin had stated that he had delivered the company's products to the Hooghly Docking and Engineering Company by one chalan and had subsequently made over the money to Shri Dutta in presence of Hasir Hossain. The finding of the Enquiring Officer is that with regard to the chalans, the amounts involved were not made over to the cashier and were therefore misappropriated by Shri S. N. Dutta. The Enquiring Officer had pointed other that the explanation of Shri Dutta that the matter had been settled during the conciliation pro-ceedings cannot be accepted in view of the fact that he could not produce any document in sup-port of that contention. With regard to the other charge-sheet, the Enquiring Officer had found that Sri Dutta, after collecting the amounts, had not deposited the same to the cashier and therefore had misappropriated it. The Enquiring Officer had noticed that some money was sent by money order on 30th August 1963 but had observed that in any case, the act of Shri Dutta amounted to temporary misappropriation. He had therefore come to the conclusion that Shri Dutta was guilty of gross misconduct and accordingly he had recommended his dismissal. By the letter dated 2nd of December 1963, Shri Dutta was dismissed by the Director who had agreed with the findings of the Enquiring Officer.

Shri Pathak appearing on behalf of the workman had submitted that there had been a great delay in taking action regarding the alleged misappropriation of the sums collected in April 1963 and there was no enquiry regarding the alleged misappropriation before 16th of August 1968. It was next submitted that there had actually been no dishonesty on the part of Shri Dutta who had wanted the amounts, due to the company, to be set off against his salary. It was last contended that really this is a case of victimisation of Shri Dutta as the company had to take him hack in service through the intervention of the Assistant Labour Commissioner. The learned advocate appearing for the company had submitted that there was evidence before the Enquiring Officer from which he could come to the conclusion regarding the misappropriation of amounts mentioned in the chalms, and the salary and the sa set aside that finding. The learned lawyer further submitted that even if the Tribunal comes to the conclusion that the conclusion of the Enquiring Officer is wrong, still the Tribunal cannot interfere. It was also submitted that there are no standing orders of the company and therefore, reference has to be made with the model standing orders. It appears that in the model standing orders, there is nothing regarding misappropriation but the learned lawyer had submitted in the circumstances of this case that it ought to be held that there was theft, fraud or dishonesty in connection with the employer's business and property as mentioned in the explanation (ii), Rule 14(b) of the model standing order.

I shall, first of all, consider the last submission made by the learned lawyer appearing on behalf of the company. I am unable to agree that the charge of misappropriation of the money belong-ing to the company can be regarded to be the same as the charge of theft or fraud or dishonesty in connection with the employer's business or property. The charge of misappropriation really means dishonest conversion of the employer's money to the use of the employee. Dishonesty therefore, is an essential element in the charge of misappropriation. The Enquiring Officer himself did not come to the conclusion regarding the question of dishonesty. He appears to have overlooked that in the reply to the first charge-sheet, the employee not only stated that because of the reinstatement the question cannot be raised but also stated that he wanted the dues of the company to be adjusted against the wages payable by the company to him. He has also overlooked that the first charge-sheet was given more than four months after the alleged dates of collection of the amounts by Shri Dutta from the customers. Regarding the second charge-sheet, there is evidence of the cashier before the Enquiring Officer that the money order for Rs. 7.02nP. was received but this amount was not received pending instruc-tions of the Management. The amounts therefore, were sent soon after the collection by the employee. Of course, in the report, it has been stated that at least that would amount to temporary misappropriation. But even with regard to temporary misappropriation, there has to be a finding regarding the dishonesty of the employee in converting the money of the employer to his own use. There is no such finding by the Enquiring Officer. It appears to me that the conclusion of the Enquiring Officer is perverse and that the materials are not such as would justify reasonable man in coming to that conclusion. There is of course another criticism regarding the dismisal inasmuch as it has stated that really Shri Dutta had been victimised because the company was forced to take him back due to the intervention of the Assistant Labour Commissioner. It is an undisputed fact that Shri Dutta was dismissed on 18th April 1963 and had been reinstated in service with continuity of service and back wages and that Shri Dutta had joined on 27th of June 1963. There is further undisputed fact that the first charge-sheet was submitted on 26th August 1963, that is to say, just about two months after thir Dutta had already joined his service after reinstatement. Of course Shri Dutta had stated at the time of avidence that he had been victimized against he had been victimized by the statement of the the Manager. This cannot be found in the statement filed by Shri Dutta. I do not accept evidence of Shri Dutta that there was an tion between him and the Manager regarding payment of over time wages. The Manage posite Party Witness No. 1) had desied that any altercation with Shri Dutta over time wages. There has been no cruse nation on this point on behalf of the work But even though this evidence of Shri Dutar not be accepted, it appears to me that the gement bore animus against Shri Dutta Management had taken him back due to the tervention of the Assistant Labour Communication I would point out that the Manager (On Party Witness No. 1) had not stated and as to whether the allegation of victimists correct or not. The company was represented a very senior lawyer and there is no adequate son why no question was put to Opposite he Witness No. 1 regarding the question of regation. There is also the further fact that alleged misappropriation regarding the angular property of the state of realised in April 1963 was only mentioned ut charge-sheet dated 26th August 1963. The dence of Opposite Party Witness No. 1 itself in that the collection of a month must be credited thin the month and that he would know in he the full collection of the month of April had he duly deposited. Opposite Party Witness & has sought to explain the delay by saving that was on leave for some days. Even if this is a there is absolutely no reason why the matter non-deposit was not discovered in the early p of May, 1963. The Accountant who has to m entries on the basis of chalans and cash men had not been examined in this case. To my untion Opposite Party Witness No. 1 had that that Shri P. C. Roy of the Accounts Department. told him in the month of August 1963 that amount had not been credited. It has been fund stated in paragraph 5(a) of the written statem of the company that after some time, on a small of the relevant record, it was found that Dutta committed gross misconducts on differ dates in April 1963. The person who made a scrutiny had not been examined. I am not fied from the evidence, facts and circumstance the case which I have mentioned above that there was any cogent explanation why the allest misa repriations would not be discovered lier than about the middle of August 1981 stated by Opposite Party Witness No. 1. In opinion, the facts and circumstances mental above indicated the statement of the sta above indicate that there had been victimized on the part of the Management. In view of above conclusions, I do not think, the record the finding of the Enquiring Officer can be cepted.

I shall now turn shortly to discuss whether alleged misconducts on the part of Shri had been really established by the evidence adduced before the Tribunal. Of course it is disputed that the sums as per the chalant cash memos mentioned above, had been redited by Shri Dutta and had not been credited it accounts of the company. The learned laws pearing for the company had submitted very fact that the amounts had not been credited, would be the company that there were fact that the amounts had not been credited.

non, of the amounts which Shri Dutta had rted I am unable to agree with the learned er on this point. As I have mentioned earlier, nesty is a material element in bringing the charge of misappropriation. In the precase, there is no cogent evidence regarding lishonesty on the part of Shri Dutta. Regard-the amounts mentioned in the first chargedated 26th August 1963, Prosecution Wit-No. 1 had stated that he had gone on 26th st 1963 to the cashier for the purpose of demg the collection but the cashier had refused rept the money saying that without the of the employer he cannot accept the at and therefore, he had sent the money by y order It is undisputed that money order sent by Shri Dutta after the refusal by the her It is quite clear that Shri Dutta had sent money by money order when he found that plea of adjustment against his dues from the many was not acceptable to the company. This n have been made clear to Shri Dutta after submission of the charge-sheet by the comt The evidence of the cashier (Opposite ty Witness No. 2) is that Shri Dutta came to with the money on the 27th of August 1963 that he had refused to accept the amount on ground that the charge-sheet had already a given to him. In the circumstances, I do not it that it can be said that so far as the unts mentioned in the chalans are considered, ; were really misappropriated by Shri Dutta. arding the other amounts mentioned in the memos, I have already mentioned about the my order of Shri Dutta. In my opinion, the buct of Shri Dutta in offering the amount on 1 or 27th of August 1963 and in sending the r amounts by the money order on the 30th of sust 1963 is in consistent with the alleged disest intention of Shri Dutta regarding the unts collected by him. In my opinion, the ge of misappropriation regarding the amounts not been estabilshed at all. As Shri Dutta self does not want to be reinstated in service, · not necessary to give the order for reinstaent. It appears to me that it would be sufficient hri Dutta is given compensation to the tune hree months' wages less the total sum of 15.32P, which had been collected by him. amount in question should be paid by the lover within one month of the date of publion of this award in the Calcutta Gazette. his is the award.

AWARD

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. The applicant is Dayaram Singh. The company's opposite party is M/s. Bombay Steel Rolling Mills Ltd. Grievance of the applicant as adumberated in the application under section 33A was that he was not paid his wages and subsistence allowance for the period from 26th February up to 23rd June 1963. The company in its written statement denied that the applicant was entitled to any such relief. The company also challanged the maintainability of the application preferred under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. My predecessor in office Shri M. K. Roy heard the case on some preliminary points, recorded deposition in part on 23rd July 1964. Thereafter the case was fixed by me on 16th March 1965 for final hearing. I find it a great pleasure to note that on the aforesaid date representative of both parties after having some discussions with each other in presence of this Court arrived at a settlement amongst themselves. With the methat a joint petition for compromise was field at very date, during hearing at the trial. The commisse petition filed speaks for itself. I would therefore dilate upon the contents recorded the lit is sufficient for the present purpose to state in that joint petition both parties requested this was to pass a "no-dispute" award. For myself it satisfied that the dispute between the parties since been dissolved and that it does exist no me In the result, I pass a "no-dispute" award as deal by both sides.

The above dispute over the issues given in the Order of Reference and reproduced below was referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 1253-I.R./IR/10L-71/63, dated the 26th March 1964.

Issues

- (1) Incentive Bonus Scheme.
- (2) Gratuity.
- (3) Whether the workers are entitled to wages for 11th March 1963?

AWARD

After service of notices on the parties they appeared and filed their respective written statements in due course. After necessary preliminary proceedings the case was finally fixed for hearing on 11th February 1965. On that date, the parties filed three joint petitions of compromise with three memoranda of Settlements embodying the terms upon which the dispute had been amicably settled in respect of workmen employed in the Company's

- (1) Extrusion Works and Head Office
- (2) Cable Works and
- (3) Casting Works

and praying for an award in terms of the settlements and further stating that no other or further dispute between the parties subsisted for adjudication by the Tribunal.

I have considered the terms of settlements. It appears that there has been a comprehensive settlement in respect of all matters in dispute between the parties. The terms appear to be quite fair and lawful. I am satisfied that there has been a bona fide settlement of all outstanding disputes between the parties and covered by the issues referred for adjuication on the terms contained in the Memoranda of settlements. Accordingly the case is to be disposed of by a compromise award in terms of the Memoranda of Settlements which together with the joint petitions shall form part of the award.

In the result, I make a compromise award in the case in terms of the Memoranda of Settlements filed with the joint petitions of compromise. Copies of the joint petitions and Memoranda of Settlements are made part of the award as annexures 'A', 'B' and 'C'.

Short recital of the case: The Management and the Union representing the workmen held series of negotiations with a view to arriving at an amicable settlement on the issues referred for adjudication under order of reference No. 1253-1.R./IR-10L-71/63, dated 26th March 1964. The parties have now come to a settlement outside the Tribunal on the issues as follows:

I. Incentive Bonus Scheme (Efficiency Reward)

- 1. It is agreed between the parties that there is sufficient scope for increased productivity in the works and that the productivity of the works as a whole may be increased by offering suitable reward to the workmen.
- 2. The Management with a view to encouraging the workmen to achieve higher productivity and better performance agree to distribute an "Efficiency Reward" in addition amongst all the eligible workmen on the roll of the works in accordance with the Scheme detailed in the following paragraphs.
- 3. The total reward that will be available for distribution for the aforesaid purpose in respect of a given calendar month will be related to the production achieved during the same calendar month and the graphs annexed hereto and marked "C" and "D" show the amounts of rewards that the company has agreed to pay for various quantum of production per calendar month.
- 4. It is understood that although the Company has agreed to pay rewards even for quantum of production specified in Annexures (C and D) such quantum shall never be construed as the normal monthly production achievable in this works which are much higher and that the rewards will be payable for such specified quantum of production only with a view to encouraging the workmen to increase their efficiency and better their performance.
- 5. There will be no reward for any production below the minimum quantum shown in the aforesaid graphs (Annexures C and D). If the target for the production of ground wire, earth wire and guy wire, etc., for any particular calendar month is set at a quantum below the minimum shown in annexure 'D' by the Company in view of lack of raw material and if the workmen produce such low quantum within the planned time the minimum reward for this item as shown in annexure D will be made available for distribution to the workmen.
- 6. The production figures referred to in Annexures C and D will be such production as finally released and passed by the Inspection/quality control department of our works. Any finished/semi-finished product procured from outside and processed in the works will also not be considered.

- 7. For the purpose of distribution of the total rewards payable for any particular quantum of production in respect of a given month, the workmen will be divided into various groups on the basis of their basic wages and into various categories on the basis of their nature of work and a figure of units (of reward) will be allotted against every such group and category (in accordance with the table annexed hereto and marked "E"). The value of one unit of reward for a given month will be calculated by dividing the "total reward" payable by the total number of units available to the workmen eligible for participation in the reward for the given month. If the workman has not been categorised on the basis of the nature of work, the management will decide its category on the basis of the nature of work, the management will decide its category as and when necessary.
- 8. The Company will notify the names of the workmen to be included in the various categories shown in Annexure E for the purpose of distribution of the reward and such categorisation will be subject to revision if there will be any change in the nature of work carried on by any workman.

Representing the employers: L. C. Bansal, Production Manager.

Representing the workmen: P. K. Bose, Secretary, E. M. C. Mazdoor Union.

Short recital of the case: The Management and the Union representing the workmen held series of negotiations with a view to arriving at an amicable settlement on the issues referred for adjudication under order of reference No. 1253-I.R./IR-10L-71/ 63. dated 26th March 1964. The parties have now Tribunal on the come to a settlement outside the issues as follows:

I. Incentive Bonus Scheme (Efficiency Reward)

- 1. It is agreed between the parties that there is sufficient scope for increased productivity in the works and that the productivity of the works as a whole may be increased by offering suitable reward to the workmen.
- The management with a view to encouraging the workmen to achieve higher productivity and better persormance agree to distribute an "Efficiency Reward" in addition amongst all the eligible workmen on the roll of the works in accordance with the Scheme detailed in the following paragraphs:
- 3. The total reward that will be available for distribution for the aforesaid purpose in respect of a given calendar month will be related to the production achieved during the same calendar month and the graphs annexed hereto and marked "C" and "B" show the amounts of rewards that the Company has agreed to pay for various quantum of production per calendar month.
- 4. It is understood that although the Company has agreed to pay rewards even for quantum of production specified in Annexures (C and D) such quantum shall never be construed as the normal monthly production achievable in this works which are higher and that the rewards will be payable for such specified quantum of production only with view to encouraging the workmen to increase their efficiency and better their performance.

- 5. There will be no reward for any production below the minimum quantums shown in the aforesaid graphs (Annexures C and D). If the target for the production of Billets for any particular calendar month is set at a quantum below the minimum shown in Annexure D by the Company in view of lack of raw material and if the workmen produce such low quantum within the planned time the minimum reward for this item as shown in Annexure 'D' will be made available for distribution to the workmen.
- 6. The production figures referred to in Annexures C and D will be such production as finally released and passed by the Inspection/Quality Control Department of the works. Any finished/semi-finished product procured from outside and processed in the works will also not be considered.
- 7. For the purpose of distribution of the total reward payable for any particular quantum of production in respect of a given month, the workmen will be divided into various groups on the basis of their basic wages and into various categories on the basis of their nature of work and a figure of units (of reward) will be allotted against every such group and category (in accordance with the table annexed hereto and marked "E"). The value of one unit of reward for a given month will be calculated by dividing the "total reward" payable by the total number of units available to the workmen eligible for participation in the reward for the given month. If any workman has not been categorised on the basis of his nature of work, the management will decide its category as and when necessary.
- 8. The Company will notify the names of the workmen to be included in the various categories shown in Annexure E for the purpose of distribution of the reward and such categorisation will be subject to revision if there will be any change in the nature of work carried on by any workmen.
- 9. The efficiency reward payable in accordance with the scheme will be calculated on the monthly basis but actual payments will be made at such intervals as may be notified by the Company from time to time.
- 10. In the first instance a reward period will correspond to each quarter of a calendar year, i.e.

This industrial dispute between Messrs. River Steam Navigation Co. Ltd. and their workmen has been referred to this Tribunal under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by Government Order No. 4602-I.R./IR/4L-18(B)/64, dated the 3rd October 1964, for adjudication upon the following issues:

- (1) Whether Shri Mauji Singh is entitled to anv compensation for losing officiating chances to work as a Tindal on account of his transfer for the period from 21st May 1960 to 11th December 1963? If so, what should be the amount of such compensation? Is he entitled to promotion to the post of a Tindal?
- (2) Whether the transfer of Shri Dwarka Singh from Jagannath Ghat to Jetty No. 4 is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

After receipt of the reference from the Government on 7th October 1964, usual notices were issued to the parties concerned fixing 19th November 1964 for their appearance and filing of the written statement by the Union. The Union filed its written statement on 7th December 1964, but no written statement was filed by the Company although several adjournments were taken by it for the purpose. On 25th February 1965 the parties filed a joint petition of compromise stating therein that the dispute between them had been amicably settled on terms set forth in the petition of compromise and prayed that an award might be passed accordingly. The two workmen who are concerned in the dispute have been identified by the Advocate on behalf of the Company, and they have stated that there had been an amicable settlement of the dispute with the Company. The terms of compromise appear to be fair and reasonable, and I am satisfied that there has been a bona fide settlement of the dispute between the parties, and there is no subsisting dispute between them for adjudication. As the two works men who are interested in the dispute have amicably settled their dispute with the Company, I accept the petition of compromise and pass a "no dispute" award in terms of the joint petition of compromise. The petition of compromise do form part of the award as Annexure "A."

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an application filed by Shri Sudhir Kumar Mondal and 67 others under section 33A against their common employer Messrs. Dhur Tin Factory, 1 Sarat Chandra Dhur Road, Calcutta-36, in connection with G.O. No. 1992-I.R., dated 3rd May 1960. (Case No. 265/60, under section 33A.)

Shri J. N. MANDAL, Judge.

AWARD

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, filed by Shri Sudhir Kumar Mandal and 67 others, who were said to be workmen of the opposite party Messrs. Dhur Tin Factory, complaining of contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

Their case is that the payment of Puja Bonus is a condition of service but the opposite party has not paid any Puja Bonus for the year 1960. The O.P. by its conduct of failure of payment of Puja Bonus to the workmen, has altered the conditions of service applicable to the workmen and that breach of condition of service has been made without obtaining the express permission of the Tribunal.

The Company O.P. did not appear. The applicants also did not take any step whatsoever since after the filing of the application. There is no material on the record to establish the alleged complaint or to prove that payment of Puja Bonus was a condition of service. Long time has elapsed. It is no use to drag the case any further. So I dismiss the application for default and for want of proper prosecution.

AWARD

The establishment of this Company is included within the Omnibus Reference under G.O. No. 3537-1.R., dated 6th August 1962 (serial No. 163). The issues referred for adjudication are as follows:

- 1. Wages.
- 2. Holidays and leave—Festival holidays, sick leave, casual leave and privilege leave.

The Company prayed for exemption from the scope of the reference by a petition filed on 24th May 1963 urging that both the issues of the present reference were referred for adjudication to the Second Labour Court by G.O. No. 3971-I.R., dated the 18th September 1958, and that reference was disposed of by a compromise award, published in the "Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary," dated the 30th April 1959, and that award still holds good and there was another subsequent reference regarding certain disputes relating to the same issues by the Government to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal and that Tribunal made an award, which was published in the "Calcutta Gazette", dated the 15th September 1960, holding that reference was barred by principles analogous to res judicata, in view of the previous award of the Second Labour Court. No written objection has been filed against the Company's application. At the hearing, another application purporting to be signed by all the workmen of the Company and the Company's representative was filed stating that in view of the previous awards of 1959-60, there was no subsisting dispute between the employer and the workmen of this establishment and accordingly praying for a "no dispute" award. No workman appeared to oppose the application for a "no dispute" award. Shri N. D. Srimani, representative of the Federation of Metal Engineering Workers' Union (No. 2 of list III in the Order of Reference) appeared and challenged the "no dispute" application. Shri R. Moulik, Works Manager of the Company, was examined on behalf of the Company. He was cross-examined by Shri Srimani. No witness was examined on behalf of the workman. StMoulik has proved that there are, at present, only seven employees in this Company and they have all signed the "no dispute" petition. I accept his statement. Accordingly, I accept the "no dispute" petition and hold that the case in respect of this establishment should be disposed of by a "no dispute" award.

In the result, I make a "no dispute" award in respect of this establishment.

National Insulated Cable Company of India Limited, Shyamnagar, and their workmen represented by the A.I.D. Shyamnagar Works Union, Shyamnagar, for adjudication regarding the issue contained therein.

Issue:

Whether the dismissal of Shri Harmoni Majhi and Shri Misrilal is justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act. It was received by the Tribunal on 22nd January 1964 and notices were issued to the parties for appearance and filing of written statements. Both the Union and the Company filed their respective written statements and after the steps were taken by the parties the case was fixed for hearing on 10th February 1965. Both parties examined witnesses and exhibited their respective documents. The hearing was concluded and argument heard on 24th February 1965.

The Union alleges that Sarvasri Harmoni Majhi and Misrilal were employees of the Company and they were dismissed from service by letter, dated 21st October 1962. They were found guilty of major misdemeanour under the Standing Orders of the Company. Their dismissal is challenged as not justified. The Company filed a written statement to say that the two workmen in question were convicted of criminal offence in a court of law and such conviction constitutes major misdemeanour in terms of the Standing Orders of the Company. The Company relies upon clause 35 of section 2 of Appendix "D" of the certified Standing Orders of the Company as certified on 10th day of February 1956. The workmen in question were served with charge-sheets and they replied to the same. Thereafter after due notification to the workmen enquiry was held in respect of the charge-sheets and it was proved to the satisfaction of the management that the workmen were guilty of the charge as they were convicted of criminal offence. The management relied upon the judgment of the Munsif Magistrate, Barrackpore, as well as the Appellate Judgment of the Sessions Judge, Alipore. The enquiry was fair and the dismissal is also justified on merits.

The issue has already been set forth, pany issued charge-sheets to both the Sarvasri Harmoni Majhi and Misrilal on ruary 1962. Both the charge-sheets were language; it is Ext. From the said certification a pre-can be drawn that the Standing Orders tilled after due compliance with the provithe Act. The Union's argument that the laid down in section 5 or for the matter ection 10 were not followed cannot stand in that presumption without proof on the side laion to the contrary. By the said certifica-Standing Orders of 1956 are made applicable te workmen. The workmen cannot plead in or ignorance of the Standing Orders certirding to that. The learned representative of on has placed before me the case of Guest illiams (P.) Ltd. versus P. J. Sterling report-I.R., Volume XIV, page 415. I do not think decision helps the case of the Union. This where Their Lordships. decision helps the case of the Union. This where Their Lordships of the Supreme ield that even though Standing Orders of a had been duly certified the workmen can can industrial dispute as to the terms conthe the Standing Orders and Industrial Tribudhave jurisdiction to deal with the reference a dispute on the merits.

I hold that the certified Standing Orders of 1956 Ext. F has application to these workmen and the management proceeded on the footing of this Standing Orders very rightly.

As the enquiry was not challenged as unfair, the decision of the management should not be interfered with because it is supported by evidence and the finding cannot be characterised as perverse. Exhibits C and D are the judgments which go conclusively to prove that both the workmen were convicted of criminal offence in the Court of Law. Since such conviction is a major misdemeanour according to the Standing Orders of 1956 the workmen were rightly proceeded against and the order of dismissal cannot be impugned as unjustified. I hold that the dismissals of the two workmen mentioned in the order of reference are justified. This is my award.

Taken at my dictation and corrected by me.

After the service of usual notices, the workmen represented by the Union and the employer had filed the written statements. In the written statement filed on behalf of the Union it has been stated that the Company is a highly prosperous concern employing about 240 workmen, that there are about 16 departments in the Company, and that the Company by notices, dated 8th September 1963 and 19th September 1963, had laid-off 43 workmen belonging to the Tunnel Kiln and Glazing Department on false, frivolous, filmsy and mala fide pretext and did not pay them wages for the same. It is further stated that the notices were served and there were no circumstances justifying the laying-off the workmen, that till 1956 the workmen used to be paid double wages for any work at whether it was a paid holiday or an unput and that if it was paid holiday in works and that it it was paid included the works get three times the wages. Since 1956 to had taken the position that if the day of holiday with pay, the workmen should double the wages including his holiday without and a day of holiday with a day of holiday without and a day of holiday with the work on a day of holiday without possible wage. The workers, he entitled, on the ground of equity and social get three times the wage if they are to we holidays, and twice the wage if they are h unpaid holidays. For the year 1963, the had declared six days unpaid holidays and paid holidays including the Biswakarma on 17th September 1963 which was a pure that the paid holidays including the Biswakarma on 17th September 1963 which was a pure day is was a pure day is was a pure day is was a pure day is was a pure day is was a pure day is was a pure day is was a pure day is was a pure day is was a pure day is was a pure day is was a pure day in the pure day. Biswakarma Puja day is considered sacred day by industrial workers who do on that day. Accordingly on 17th Septem the workers did not come for the purpose ing. When they reported for dut, a September 1963 they were not given a though the work could be given to all as the Kiln was kept hot and going by the of supervisors. The lay-off on 18th and completely unjustified and there was also by the workers. The dispute regarding the wages for work on festival holiday and the wages of workmen laid-off on 18th 1 September 1963 had been referred to this for adjudication. The workmen pray that it be awarded three paid holidays and twice the wage for wo unpaid holidays and they may also be awar wages for 18th September 1963 and 19th Se 1963.

In the written statement filed by the G the allegations made by the workmen are and it is said that the question regarding t of wages to be paid on paid or unpaid holds question affecting all types of workers who work on emergent occasion or on account nature of work for which they were employ accordance with the Factories Act. 1946. governs the Company, the Company grant with wages according to the provisions of The Company also grants 12 days feet national holidays out of which six days are and six days are without pay. It is next stall owing to the exigency of business and as work to be done in the Kiln, the Company some of the workers of the Kiln department is on festival holidays and used to pay normal for working on that day and additionally wages if the festival holiday was the day of with pay, and if the festival holiday was a holiday without pay, then no additional paid. This practice and rule have been it since long ago. The work on festival holder an overtime work as contemplated in section the Factories Act, 1948, and hence the demandation overtime rate for working on the said day is a legal nor justified. Thereafter, the Company is written statement had referred to two awards a lute Mill award and another Textile which it had been laid down that the required to work on a delegated feating holidary. required to work on a declared festival holiday be entitled, in addition to holiday pay, wages and dearness allowance for that day, stated that this practice had been followed all industries in West Bengal, if not India Tannel Kiln Department of the Company is ed, it is said that some of the workmen of partment must attend to work even on holidays, paid or unpaid, and naturally the saked the workmen to work on those days them according to system mentioned it is accordingly prayed that the workmen Tunnel Kiln department who would be to work on festival holidays would get his wages for the actual work done on that day, and above the holiday pay, if payable on to fee the day being a paid holiday, but would whis normal wages for his actual work and not get any additional wages for the work a unpaid holiday.

regard to the other question, the Company sted that in the Tunnel Kiln, potteries are hat the Kiln is roughly divided into three viz., (1) Pre-heating zone, (2) Firing zone and oling zone, that green potteries are at first cars and the filled cars are sent to the Prezone and thereafter they are pushed inside ing zone for proper heating, that in the Firing there are six sets of firing boxes kept in temperature from 800°C, to 1240°C, and r proper heating, it is essential that the sture is maintained in proper state in each of tes and the cars filled with potteries should rough each of them at stated intervals and ereafter the cars should pass to the Cooling It is further alleged that if the Tunnel Kiln own it would take 24 hours to bring it back proper working temperature and therefore. ential to keep it running continuously for 24 Consequently, while only one shift is working other departments, three shifts work is done Tunnel Kiln department, and for this very ason, a skeleton staff is detained for working 1 festival and other holidays. If this conti-work in the Tunnel Kiln is stopped either by g the shift or stopping work on any holiday, y the manufacturing operation of the Tunnel ould be affected but the works of the other tents would also be affected. On 17th tent 1963 the Company, therefore, according usual practice, by notice, dated 16th per 1963, directed 18 workers to attend to rk on 17th September 1963, but the workers attend as directed. Therefore, the Company mpelled to close the Tunnel Kiln on 17th er 1963 and was therefore unable to provide r a number of workmen on 18th September id 19th September 1963. Those workmen therefore, laid-off by notices, dated 18th per 1963 and 19th September 1963. It is also that the workers refused to do the work on ptember 1963 under a common understandthey would not work on holidays unless; paid at the rate demanded by them. and e, they had struck work. The workmen, e, are not entitled to get any lay-off sation under section 25E(iii) of the Industrial 5 Act.

Decision

I first of all take up for consideration the to. (1), which has been referred to this I for adjudication. It does not appear that d been any previous award regarding the working on paid and unpaid holidays in a for making potteries. The learned lawyer for the Company had, however, referred me to the Jute Mills award which has been published in the "Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary", dated 12th November 1951, at pages 1687 and 1688, and to the Textile award which has been published in the "Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary", dated 10th June 1956, at pages 2089 and 2090. It would appear that in the latter award, the learned Judge, Shri M. C. Banerjee had followed the earlier award by certain learned Judges including Shri Banerjee himself. In both these awards, nine days' festival holidays had both these awards, nine days' festival holidays had been granted to the workmen concerned and it has been laid down in paragraph 9(6)(v) of the earlier award and paragraph 11(9)(v) of the latter award that a workman required to work on a declared festival holiday will be entitled, in addition to holiday pay, to the basic wages and dearness allowance for the whole of that day. Therefore, even with regard to the bigger industrial establishments, a workman required to work on a declared festival holiday will be entitled to the basic wage and dearness allowance for the whole of that day, in addition to the holiday pay of that day. There is no clear provision in these awards as to what would happen if the holiday was without pay, but if for holiday with pay the workman is only to get basic wage and dearness allowance and also the holiday pay for that day, then for an unpaid holiday, a workman can only get the basic wage and dearness allowance for that day. The provisions of these awards, therefore, tend to support the contention of the Comany that the workmen are not entitled to get three times the wage for working on paid holidays and twice the wage for working on unpaid holidays. The learned lawyer appearing for the, workmen in course of his argument did not refer to the question whether the workmen are entitled to get overtime pay, if they are required to work on holidays with or without pay, though this has been hinted in paragraphs 9 and 10 of the written statement filed on behalf of the Union. As the learned lawyer for the workmen did not himself refer to the question of overtime pay, it is not necessary for me to discuss that question. I would only refer to the provisions of section 59 of the Factories Act, 1948. It has been laid down therein that the workers are entitled to get overtime pay if they are required to work more than 48 hours of work or nine hours a day, and that the overtime rate would be twice the ordinary rate. On behalf of the workmen, however, it has been contended that so far as the Company is concerned, it was the prevalent practice till 1956 to give thrice the wage for working on paid holiday and twice the wage for working on unpaid holiday and that this practice had been stopped since 1956. I do not think that there is any reliable evidence that the Company had paid at the rates stated on behalf of the workmen before 1956. In the first place, even in the First Jute Mills award, there was the direction to pay basic wages and dearness allowance in addition to holiday pay for working on a day which was a day of holiday with pay. I do not think that even though the award was pronounced sometime in 1951, an industrial establishment carrying on with the business of making potteries would go on making payments at the rates mentioned by the workmen till 1955. Incidentally, it may be mentioned here that the learned lawyer for the workmen had lso not argued about the prevalent practice of the Company to pay at the rates mentioned by the work von. I shall presently refer to the sole contentions of the learned lawyer for the workmen for making the award for thrice the wage for working on paid holidays and twice the wage for working on unpaid holidays, but before I do so, it is necessary to refer to the evidence regarding the alleged practice of the Company before 1956. P.W. 1 Ram Balak who only works in the unloading section of the Kiln department, had no doubt stated, that in respect of paid holidays, the workmen used to get thrice the normal wage and in respect of unpaid holidays the workmen used to get double the normal wage up to 1956, but at the time of cross-examination P.W. I had said that whenever they worked on Biswakarma Puja day, they had received thrice the amount of wages and that they had not worked at all on holidays after 1956. Ram Balak himself belongs to group No. 18 which includes workers engaged in loading and unloading work. It would appear that none of the other workers who, according to the evidence of P.W. 1, affixed thumb impressions on the pay-sheets after taking money, had been examined in this case. I should have expected that at least some of the workmen belonging to group No. 19 should have been examined to prove that they at least had received thrice the wages for working on paid holidays. It may be stated here that after the close of the evidence and on the date of the argument, the learned lawyer appearing for the Company wanted to produce the attendance register of the adult workers for 25th August 1963 to 16th November 1963, the wage register of Glazing and Sagar Loader, etc., from 1st October 1963 to 30th November 1963 and also the pay register of all workers maintained under the Payment of Wages Act for November 1963. I intimated to the learned lawyer that I was not prepared to accept those documents at that stage. Accordingly the documents were not filed on the date of the argument. Subsequently after hearing the argument, a petition had been filed praying for acceptance of those documents. It appears to me that the documents could not be accepted at that stage. There is no sufficient explanation why the documents were not produced on the first date of hearing, or at least on the date when the evidence was heard. It appears to me that Ram Balak could have been confronted with certain entries in those registers. As this could not be done after the close of the argument, I had refused to accept those documents. Whatever that might be, it appears to me that there is really no reliable evidence on the side of the workmen to show that really the workmen were paid thrice the wages for working on paid holidays, and twice the wages for working on unpaid holidays before 1956. O.P.W. 1 Shri Ahluwallia has denied that the workmen were paid thrice the wages for working on paid holidays and twice the wages for working on unpaid holidays before 1956. There has been no cross-examination of O.P.W. 1 on this point. I am accordingly of opinion that the alleged practice of the Company to pay thrice the wages for paid holidays and twice the wages for unpaid holidays has not been substantiated. Incidentally I would also mention that if there was the alleged practice, then it would be a condition of service of the workmen and no dispute was raised in 1956 for changing in the service condition of the workmen. The workmen do not appear to be entitled to get the wages at the rates claimed on the ground of prior prevalent practice. The learned lawyer appearing for the workmen contended that unless there was some incentive, the workmen should not be expected to work on holidays, paid or unpaid. It was pointed out by the learned lawyer for the works besides the holiday pay, the workmen now the Company the wage and the dearness of that particular day and also the extra Rs. 1.25 nP. If the extra amount of Rs. 1 is only paid by way of incentive to the work working on holidays, I do not see how this ] can award that something ought to be paid of incentive to the workmen for working in h Though this Tribunal cannot direct that cent of money should be paid by way of incenting workmen for working on holiday, I think the of paying the extra amount of Rs. 1.25 np continue, but apart from the question of in it appears to me that the workmen are only to get the basic wage and dearness allowa working on holiday and also the holiday the day is a paid holiday day. This is my with regard to issue No. 1.

Issue No. 2.

With regard to the other issue, the learned for the workmen had referred me to the reported in A.I.R. 1962, S.C., 1533 = 1962 (1) 382 (Tata Foundry Co. vs. their workmen), at (1) L.L.J., 358 (S.C.) (workers of Dewan Tea vs. their management). In the first case, the men were laid-off on account of shortage of m and were paid the statutory lay-off compe under section 25C of the Industrial Disput The dispute which was referred to was as to v the lay-off was justified. It was held that lay-off was justified and if it satisfied the requi of the definition under section 2(kkk), the w can only get compensation under section 25C Act. If the lay-off is mala fide in the sense t employer has deliberately and maliciously tabout the situation where lay-off became no then it would not be a lay-off justified und tion 2(kkk), and the compensation under section is not the only relief to which the worke entitled. The position would be the same, lay-off had been declared to victimise the w or for some ulterior purpose. In that ca Tribunal found that there was no mala fide part of the management in laying off the wo but still awarded some enhanced compensat the workmen on the ground that better ment would have avoided the lay-off. Their ships of Supreme Court held that the Tribun not justified in granting the enhanced compet after finding that there was no mala fide to part of the management in laying-off the wor It would appear, therefore, that unless ther mala fide on the part of the management, or there was victimisation or some ulterior purp laying-off the workmen, the workmen laids only entitled to the statutory compensation section 25C of the Act. In the other cal standing orders of the Company provided for off and the manner of compensation. In the also, their Lordships of the Supreme Court hel the compensation under section 25C is to be only where there is lay-off as defined in 5 2(kkk), but the standing orders must satisfied requirements of section 2(kkk). It was feeld that section 25C of the Act does not reconstruct the standing orders. a common law of right to lay-off for reasons than mentioned in the standing orders. case, the reason for lay-off was the diffici raising financial assistance to run the bu on was not mentioned in the standing their Lordships said with the inability or to raise the financial additance to run the does not come within the expression of supply mentioned in the standing within the expression "other causes control" which is also mentioned in the orders. It was also observed by their orders it was also observed by their that in the circumstances of that case, the were entitled to full wages for the entire lay-off. It is necessary to refer to sech) which was introduced in the Industrial act on 24th October 1953 by Act 43 of that section to refer only to the relevant "lay-off" refusal or inability of an employer on of shortage of coal, power or raw materials ecumulations of stocks or the breakdown nery, or for any other reason to give int to a workman whose name is borne on it roll of his industrial establishment and not been retrenched. For the present purnot necessary to refer to the explanation two provisos to section 2(kkk). The for any other reason" has been by their Lordships of the Supreme Court

ing reported in A.I.R., 1960, S.C., 893 =

1.L.J., 275 (Khair Betta Estate, Kotagiri, Manikam) to be reasons similar to those dearlier It was held that the expression n other reason must be interpreted on generis principle. This case was also to in the ruling reported in 1964 (I) L.L.J., their Lordships of the Supreme Court did ess any final opinion on that occasion. It appear, therefore, that if the lay-off is then the workmen are entitled to get 50 of the total basic wages and Dearness and Dearness under section 25C(1) of the Act. If, the lay-off is unjustified, then the workld be entitled to get full wages and dearness for the entire period of lay-off. The lawyer appearing for the Company had, referred me to section 25E(iii) of the Act argued that the compensation is not payhe lay-off was due to strike on the part of men in another part of the establishment. the Act, where the expression "strike" has efined. Section 2(q) of the Act says that means cessasion of work by a body of employed in any industry acting in combinaa concerted refusal or refusal under a understanding of any number of persons or have been so employed to continue to to accept employment. My attention has r to accept employment. My attention has awn by the learned lawyer for the Company ruling reported in 1953 L.A.C., 210 = A.I.R., C., 47 In that case, their Lordships of the Court had held that the cessasion of work men acting in combination or a concerted by them to resume work is a strike under 2(q), even if it is for a few hours in a day. ntion has further been drawn to paragraph e written statement on behalf of the Union. stion whether there was really any strike orkmen will no doubt have to be considered here was really any strike as defined in secof the Act, a further question will arise the workmen would be entitled to get any ation for the period of lay-off, but before this question, it is necessary to consider the other question raised by the learned lawyer appearing for the workmen. It was submitted that there was really no justifiable reason for the lay-off and therefore the workmen are entitled in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court referred to the above, to get full wages for the 18th and 19th of September 1963.

Regarding the question whether the lay-off was justified or not, I would point that in the lay-off notices (Exts. B, B-1 and B-2) it has been stated that as the workers who were asked to come on duty on 17th September 1963, did not come, the management had no other alternative but to close down the Tunnel Klin and, therefore, the workmen as per list had been laid-off. This is the substantial reason for the lay-off as mentioned in the notices. Let us first of all see whether the allegation mentioned in the lay-off notices regarding the reasons for lay-off had been substantiated or not. As I understand the learned lawyer appearing for the workmen, he did not dispute the process mentioned in the Company's written the process mentioned in the Company's written the substantial than the company's written the substantial than the company's written the substantial than the substa tioned in the Company's written statement regarding the manufacture of potteries. The evidence of P.W. 1—Ram Balak—also substantially corroborates the case of the Company in this regard. The argument of the learned lawyer, however, was that though the process might be continuous one and though the required temperature must be maintained, work should have been given to the workers on 18th September 1963, as the Kiln might have been kept sufficient hot by the supervisors and the officers of the Company. It was urged that the alleged notice, dated 16th September 1963 (Ext. A). which is alleged to have been sent to the Regional Inspector of Factories and which is also alleged to have been affixed to the notice board of the Company did not at all come to the notice of the workmen concerned who, therefore, did not know that they were to report for duty on 17th September 1963. I shall consider the last argument at first.

Exhibit A shows that certain workmen belonging to group Nos. 17, 18 and 19 were required to report for duty on 17th September 1963. Regarding this notice, it was pointed out by the learned lawyer for the workmen that the notice is in English and that under section 108(2) of the Factories Act, the notices are to be given in English and also in the language understood by majority of the workers. In the present case, the evidence of O.P.W. 1 shows that most of the workers are Beharies and that there are workers coming from different places. I agree with the learned lawyer that the notices ought to have been given not only in English, but also in Hindusthani or Hindi. The notice is no doubt defective but the question is whether the workers whose names appear in Ext. A did or did not know that they were required to report for duty on 17th September 1963 which was a holiday with pay. On this point, P.W. 1 had said that on 17th September 1963 the workers did not do any work as it was a holiday and that on the Biswakarma Puja day, they had never worked previously. At the time of crossexamination, P.W. 1 had said that whenever they had worked on Biswakarma Puja day, they had received thrice the amount of wages and that none at al! had worked on holidays after 1956. From the side of the Company O.P.W. 1 had not said in his evidence that the workers came on duty on Biswakarma Puja day in 1962 and that previously similar notice was given in English. Of course, I accept his evidence that a copy of the notice (Ext. A) was affixed to the notice board, but as the copy was in English and as the workers or at least majority of them do not understand English, it is not possible for the workers to understand the purport of the notice. O.P.W. 1 admits that most of the workers of the Company do not know Engilsh. It is further admitted by him that for keeping the Kiln hot for the purpose of working on holiday, the Company requires the services of 22 to 24 workers. If this is so, I do not see why only 18 workers as per notice (Ext. A) were directed to come on 17th September 1963. It further appears from the cross-examination of O.P.W. 1 that there was a talk sometime before 17th September 1963 at the office of the Labour Officer regarding the demand of the workers for payment of thrice the wages if they had to work on the holiday. Therefore, the management had clear notice that the workers were not willing to work on holidays unless of course their demand regarding wages was conceded to. If this is so, then it is only probable that if the management wanted the workers to work on 17th September 1963, they would give them individual notice for coming to the place of work on 17th September 1963. Of course, O.P.W. 1 has denied the suggestion that previously individual notices were given to the workers when they were required to work on a holiday. But I think, it is very probable that in view of the dispute and the demand made by the workers for payment of thrice the wages for working on a holiday, the Company should give them individual notice for coming to work on 17th September 1963 which was a holiday with pay. It is also the case of the workers that they had never worked on Biswakarma Puja day which is considered to be an auspicious and sacred day for the workers. Considering the evidence and circumstances, I am of opinion that the workers did not in fact know that they were required to work on 17th September 1963. Incidentally, I would point out that it is not mentioned in Ext. A that they were the workers mentioned them in Ext. A that unless the workers mentioned therein work on 17th September 1963, there would be no work for the workers on 18th September 1963 and 19th September 1963. Of course, the workers know that unless the Kiln is kept sufficiently hot, there might be no work Kiln is kept sufficiently hot, there might be no work on the following day, It was, however, urged that the evidence of O.P.W. I itself shows that on some previous occasions, the officers and the supervisors have kept the Kiln sufficiently hot. It is also the positive case of the workmen in paragraph 14 of the written statement of the Union that the Kiln was kept hot and going by the officers and supervisors. There is no specific denial by O.P.W. I visors. There is no specific denial by O.P.W. I. O.P.W. I also does not say that, in fact, there was no work for the workers who had been laid-off on 18th. September 1963 and 19th September 1963 by the lay-off notice. In this connection, I would also point out that the temperature chart showing the required temperature either on 17th September 1963 or 18th September 1963 or 19th September 1963 had not been produced by the Company. This temperature chart would have certainly shown whether, in fact, the Kiln was sufficiently hot for the purpose of giving work to the workmen on 18th September 1963 and 19th September 1963 or not. For the non-production of the temperature chart, an adverse inference can be drawn against the Company and it can be inferred that if the temperature September 1963 and 1963 had been produced. charts 17th of September they would have shown that there was the required temperature in the Kiln. In this conner reference may also be made to the O.P.W. September 1963 and 19th September hence the Company was compelled to la the workers. I do not understand wh of the workers had to be laid-off. If 1 on behalf of the Company is corre would be completely stopped and necessary to lay-off all the workers. I at least there were 120 or 125 workers of them only 43 workers had been learned lawyer appearing for the C unable to explain why only some of the to be laid-off.

I shall now turn to discuss the craised by the learned lawyer appearing pany. It was argued that as the worl turn up on 17th September 1963 and struck work on that day, they are no get any compensation in view of secti the Industrial Disputes Act. I do r argument can be accepted. It appear if the workers did not do any wor individually decided not to come to September 1963 which was a paid ht is no evidence that the workers had any combination or that there was refusal to continue to work. The n some 24 workmen did not come on 17 1963 certainly does not show that th had acted in combination or that ther certed refusal to continue to work. evidence of P.W. 1 shows that the won for the purpose of working on 18th Se but was not given any work. I am, opinion that section 25E(iii) of the applicable in the facts and circumst present case. Government of West Bengal, by Order No. R./IR/11L-27(A)/64, dated the 18th March had referred the following disputes between a Calcutta Paper Industries, 194A Manicktola Road, Calcutta, and 121 Chittaranjan Avenue, ta-7, and their workmen represented by

- 1. Wages.
- 2. Dearness Allowance.
- 3. Festival Holidays.
- 4. Puja bonus for the year 1963.

After the service of the usual notices, the workmen represented by the Union and also the employer had filed the written statements. The workmen in their written statement had alleged that the employer had been carrying on business of printing and manufacturing card board boxes for a long time and had been earning substantial profits. It does not, however, give additional facilities to the workmen and pays very low wages and does not grant increments. Though the Company earns sufficient profits, it does not give bonus to the workmen. The Union presented a charter of demands for getting fair wages, dearness allowance, holidays, etc., and subsequently an application was made to the Labour Commissioner who started a conciliation proceeding. This conciliation proceeding, however, failed due to the adamant attitude of the employer. It is also stated that for workmen drawing less than Rs. 50 per month should be granted the minimum wage of Rs. 50, that the workmen whose basic salary is more than Rs. 50 but less than Rs. 100 should be granted an increment at the flat rate of Rs. 15, that the workmen drawing basic salary of Rs. 101 and above, should be granted increment at the flat rate of Rs. 20, that the workmen drawing basic salary up to Rs. 50 should be allowed Rs. 35 as dearness allowance, that the workmen drawing salary between Rs. 51 to Rs. 100 should be allowed D. A. of Rs. 45 and that for the workmen drawing Rs. 101 and above should be allowed D. A. Rs. 50. So far as the leave and holidays are concerned, it is said that 18 days' festival holidavs should be granted and so far as the bonus is concerned, it is said that two months' Puja bonus for 1963 should be allowed. Lastly, it is said that the grades for unskilled workers should be from Rs. 50 to Rs. 80, the grades for semi-skilled workers should be from Rs. 70 to Rs. 120 and that for the skilled workers, the grades should be from Rs. 90 to 150.

In the written statement filed on behalf of the Company, it is stated that the workers belonging to the establishment had declared that they had or have no dispute with the Company and had or have no connection with the Calcutta Paper Industries Mazdoor Union and had never authorised the said Union to represent their case before this Tribunal or elsewhere. The Company has generally denied all the allegations made in the written statement filed by the Union. It is, inter alia, stated that there is an acute market competition, that the margin of profit is practically nil, that the wage rate prevalent in the establishment compare very favourably with those obtaining in establishments of similar standing and nature, that the Company had been granting ad hoc increments to the workmen from time to time depending on their efficiency and individual merits, that the Company grants consolidated wage and does not grant wage and D. A. separately, and that the Company had not earned sufficient profits to pay any bonus to the employees. With regard to festival holidays, it is stated that the Company grants 17 festival holidays in a calender year with pay subject to the conditions that only those who have worked on working day preceeding and succeeding such holidays get such payment and that when the workmen are required to work on such festival-holidays, they are paid their normal wages for the work done and also the festival holiday wage. With regard to the bonus, it is said that there is no custom or practice for the payment of Puja bonus and it is also not the implied term and condition of service and that the Company's present financial position does not permit the payment of any bonus. In the circumstances, it is alleged that the reference is bad in law and not maintainable and that the workmen are not entitled to any of the reliefs sought for.

The Union after the submission of the written statement had not taken any steps and had not filed any documents including the charter of demands given to the Company. I had directed the copy of the last order, dated 11th February 1965, to be served on the Union and the order has been received by someone on behalf of the Union on 18th February 1965. The Union, in spite of the notice, has not appeared today, though I had waited till 12-20 p.m. It may also be pointed out that Shri Moni Mukherjee who is the General Secretary of the Calcutta Paper Industries Mazdoor Union has himself received the copy of the written statement filed on behalf of the Company which contained the objections which I have mentioned above. In the circumstances, it appears to me that the Union is no longer interested in the dispute which has been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. Moreover, if really the workmen employed by Messrs. Calcutta Paper Industries have no dispute with the Company, and have also no connection with the Calcutta Paper Industries Mazdoor Union, the reference at the instance of that Union does not appear to be maintainable. Whatever that might be I am of opinion that the union is no longer interested in the dispute. In the circumstances I pass a "no dispute" award. This is my award.

The present proceeding arises out of an appliance under section 33A of the Industrial Disputs 1947, filed by Akkas Ali, a workman employed Budge Budge Jute Mills Ltd., alleging violation provisions of section 33 of the Industrial [Act by his employer.]

The petitioner is employed as a hexan we the Budge Budge Jute Mills Co. Ltd. and shortly put, is that up to 14th February worked in A shift as usual up to 9-30 p.m.

Decision

etitioner is working as a hesian weaver in Budge Budge Jute Mills Co. Ltd. and his for wages for two hours daily for the period h February 1964 to 26th February 1964 be weekly off day on the 24th. It is an admitted fact that the work in the Weaving Department from 16th February 1964 to 26th February 1964 was stopped between 6-30 p.m. and 8-30 p.m. due to non-supply of electricity in the mill. By an order, dated 30th March 1963, the Government of West Bengal directed that on and from the 1st of April 1963 and until further orders no jute mill shall without prior sanction in writing from the State Government, use electrical energy for operating its Weaving Department between the hours of 6-30 p.m. and 8-30 p.m. on any day. A copy of the order has been marked Ext. A. The workmen in the B shift, including the petitioner, worked from 8-30 p.m. to 11-30 p.m. for the period from 5th April 1963 to 16th January 1964. Subsequently the working hours were changed from 6-30 p.m. to 9-30 p.m. for the period from 17th January 1964 to 14th February 1964, 15th February 1964 was a holiday on account of Id-ul-fitr and the working hours in the second half of the B shift were changed from 8-30 p.m. to 11-30 p.m. for the period from 16th February 1964 to 26th February 1964. It is not disputed that from 16th February 1964 to 26th February 1964 there was no supply of electricity in the Weaving Department of the Company between 6-30 p.m. and 8-30 p.m. as notified by the order of the State Government on 30th. March 1963. The petitioner has also admitted in paragraph 7 of the written statement that the current supply in the Weaving Department of the Company was discontinued for 10 days from the 16th Febru-February every day 26th the 6-30 from p.m. to 8-30 p.m. for unspecified and undeclared reason, or at least for reasons beyond the control of the petitioner. In paragraph 10 of the written statement it is also stated that the current supply in the Weaving Department had been suddenly stopped at 6-30 p.m. on 16th February 1964 and it was restored only at-8-30 p.m. It is thus clear that the working of the Weaving Department was stopped from 6-30 p.m. to 8-30 p.m. for the period from 16th February 1964 to 26th February 1964 due to non-supply of electricity to the Company. This fact also has not been challenged, and the Company cannot, in any way, be held responsible for the stoppage of work from 6-30 p.m. to 8-30 p.m. during this period. The evidence of the petitioner is that the workmen of the weaving department worked for one hour from 8-30 p.m. to 9-30 p.m., from 16th February 1964 to 26th February 1964, and got wages for one hour. He has further stated that they had no notice beforehand that work in the Weaving Department would begin from 8-30 p.m. with effect from 16th February 1964, and in the first week of March 1964 he came to know that work in the Weaving Department would not start at 6-30 p.m. from 16th February 1964 to 26th February 1964 on account of some irregularity in the supply of electricity. According to this witness, it was made known to the workers that from 16th February 1964 work in the Weaving Department would star' at 8-30 p.m., and no notice was also given to the workmen to this effect. P. W. 2 Sheik Darbee!, who is an old employee of the mill, and war for some time the Secretary of the Works Comunttee, has admitted that when he reported for duty at 6-30 p.m. on 16th February 1964, he was told that the work in the Weaving Department would not start at 6-30 p.m. because of a Government order. It is admitted by this witness that on 17th February 1964 hc was again informed by the Labour Officar that the work in the Weaving Department would not start at 6-30 p.m. on account of a Government order. It is therefore clear that it was made known to the workmen on 16th February 1964 that the work in the Weaving Department would start at 8-30 p.m. on account of some restriction in the use of electricity imposed by the Government in the mill. The workmen reported for duty at 6-30 p.m. during the period from 16th February 1964 to 26th February 1964 although they were informed that the work in the Weaving Department would start at 8-30 p.m. They worked only for one hour from 8-30 p.m. to 9-30 p.m. and then left the factory. It is no doubt true that no notice of the change of the working hours from 8-30 p.m. to 11-30 p.m. was issued to the workmen in accordance with the Standing Orders of the Company. But there cannot be any doubt that the reason for the change in the working hours was made known to the workmen on 16th February 1964, and there was no justification for the workmen in refusing to work from 8-30 p.m. to 11-30 p.m. for the period from 16th February 1964 to 26th February 1964 when this change in the working hours was due to the imposition of restriction on the use of electricity in the jute mills between 6-30 p.m. and 8-30 p.m. The bona fides of the Company also appears from the notice, dated 19th February 1964, issued to the workmen. In this notice, which has been characterised by the Union as a notice of threat held out to the workmen, it is clearly stated that the change in the working hours as noted in the notice had to be introduced on account of restriction imposed by the Government on the use of electricity, and the workmen of the Weaving Department were given opportunity to resume their work. But, in spite of this notice, the workmen did not work from 8-30 p.m. to 11-30 p.m. The conduct of the workmen in refusing to work from 8-30 p.m. to 11-30 p.m. cannot be justified. The members of the Works Committee also considered this conduct of the workmen in their meeting held on 21st February 1964, and they were unanimous that the move on the part of the B shift workers of the Weaving Department was unjustified. The workmen deliberately refused to work from 8-30 p.m. to 11-30 p.m. and worked for only one hour, viz., from 8-30 p.m. to 9-30 p.m. during the period from 16th February 1964 to 26th February 1964 without any justifiable reason, and the action of the Company in not paying wages for two hours daily from 16th February 1964 to 26th February 1964 is fully justified. There is also another aspect of the matter, and it is this, that a dispute was raised by the workmen, and that dispute was pending for adjudication when the workmen resorted to a concerted action in refusing to work from 8-30 p.m. to 11-30 p.m. although they were informed about the reason for the change in the working hours. This concerted action on the part of the workmen of the Weaving Department, during the pendency of a dispute before this Tribunal, amounted to illegal strike, and in this view of the matter also, the petitioner is not entitled to get wages for 2 hours daily from 16th February 1964 to 26th February 1964. as claimed by him.

It is now well settled that a mere contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act by an employer does not entitle an employee to any relief unless it is shown that the action of the Company is not otherwise justified. In other words, it is open to the employer to justify its action even if it is proved that there has been contraventon proved that there has of the Industrial by It is nowhere specifically stated in the pa the particular provision of section 33 which is said to have been contravened ment in paragraph 15 seems to suggest on of section 33(1)(a) of the Act, but the the petitioner, as appears from the petitioner the change in the working hours has no in accordance with the Standing Order, in of a notice under the Standing Orders of pany. It is no doubt true that the Start provide for issue of a notice in case of the working hours. The notice contemplate standing order IV has not been issued to men, and there has thus been a technic section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act the petitioner a right to file an application tion 33A. The fact that previously the accepted change in the working hours, previous notice, does not absolve the Co its responsibility under the Standing Ond a notice to the workmen regarding any d working hours. As the Company, in their has been able to establish that its action i the petitioner his wages for two hours d period from 16th February 1964 to 26 1964 is bona fide and justified, the me there has been a breach of section 33 inasmuch as no notice of the change in hours was issued to the workmen, does the workman any relief as claimed by h

Shri R. BHATTACHARYA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act. The parties are Messrs. Chiaya Cinema, 122 Upper Circular Road, Calcutta-6, and their workmen represented by the Bengal Motion Picture Employees' Union, 126A Dharamtala Street, Calcutta-13. The issue is as follows:

Whether the workmen are entitled to any additional quantum as bonus for the years 1962 and 1963?

Both the parties appeared in this case and submitted their written statements. The case was fixed for hearing today. The parties have not appeared for hearing. No sufficient cause has been shown by the parties for their non-appearance. It appears that the parties are not keen to follow up this matter. In the circumstances of this case, I presume that the dispute in question is no longer in existence. An award is passed accordingly.

ion in its written statement alleges the lacts: Messrs. Imperial Chemical Indusi) Private Ltd. is a prosperous organisation in its stability second to none in any industry. The general staff of the Company working lown enjoy the privilege of an allowance iwen to the godown staff by the Company pril 1960. The subordinate staff, namely, Jamadars, Coolies, Carpenters, etc., in the reference as sub-staff do not enjoy though they are working in the godown. In gondition in the godown is more an that in the office, and that is why the conceded a special godown allowance to staff working in the godown. The Union acception to the arbitrary exclusion of the rout the said benefit. By a letter, dated ber 1963, the Union made a demand for extending the said benefit to the sub-staff working in the godown, and contends that Company's objections in this respect are not tenable.

The Company has filed a written statement challenging the claim of the Union. A preliminary objection is raised as to the maintainability of the reference, on the ground that the godowns of the Company are under the Calcutta Regional Office, and as such the reference is bad inasmuch as it is made in the name of the Company with Head Office address. On merits, the Company's case is that when the members of the general staff are transferred from the head office to the godown, they undergo some changes in the working hours, and that is why the employees so transferred from the head office to the godown are given the benefit of godown allowance. The sub-staff employed in the godown are not liable to be transferred to the office, and as such they are employees of the godown from the time of their appointment, and so they are not entitled to any special allowance for working in the godown. The claim of godown allowance by the sub-staff cannot therefore be maintained.

Decision

First of all, I will deal with the preliminary objection as raised by the Company. In the present reference, the dispute has been mentioned as between the sub-staff working in the godown and Messrs, Imperial Chemical Industries (India) Private Ltd., I.C.I. House, 34 Chowringhee, Calcutta-16. It is now contended on behalf of the Company that the godowns are under the Calcutta Regional Office, and as such the reference is bad. The objection is undoubtedly a technical one without any substance. The Calcutta Regional Office is subordinate to the Head Office of the Company, and the godowns are the godowns of the Company, namely, Messrs. Imperial Chemical Industries (India) Private Ltd. The dispute is therefore between the workmen and the employer Messrs. Imperial Chemical Industries (India) Private Ltd. I find no defect with the reference as made. The preliminary objection stands overruled.

Now I will take up the case on merits. It is an admitted fact that the Company gives godown allowance to the general staff, namely, all categories of clerks working in the godown. The Company's letter (Ext. 1A) shows that this godown allowance had been given to different categories of general staff, namely, Grade B, Grade C and Grade D at Rs. 25, Rs. 20 and Rs. 15 per month respectively with effect from 1st April 1960. In this circular it is not stated as to why this godown allowance had been given. There is no record of the Company to show the consideration which weighed with; the Company for giving this godown allowance to the general staff working in the godown. In the Company's letter (Ext. 6) it is stated that the clerical staff were required to work both in the office and in the godown. Since the condition of service in the godown was more arduous than that in the office, the management decided to grant godown allowance to the clerical staff working in the godown. Unlike clerical staff, the sub-staff working in the godown were recruited specially for the godown, and as such they are not transferable, and this is the contention of the Company for conceding godown allowance to the general staff working in the godown. The position obviously is that the working condition in the godown is worse and the godown workers are required to work three hours extra and as such an allowance was given to the general staff working in the godown. Now if this is the reason for granting godown allowance to the general staff, I see no reason why the subordinate staff working in the godown should be denied the benefit of the said allowance. It is however conceded by the Company that godown allowance is given to the general staff who had been even recruited for the godown and had been working there all along. The Company's representative argues that this was done by mistake. I am unable to accept the plea of mistake. If the clerks working in the godown from the beginning are entitled to godown allowance because of arduous nature of work and extra working hours in the godown, I feel compelled to say that the subordinate staff working in the godown should also enjoy the privilege. The subordinate staff also works three hours extra in the godown. The Company wants to resist the claim on the plea that the substaff of the godown are not transferable to office, and while appointing them in the godown and fixing their remuneration, the nature of their work had been taken into consideration. But that is not borne out by evidence. There is no different scale of pay for the godown sub-staff. The sub-staff both in the office and in the godown are on the same scale of pay. That being so, extra hours of work was not taken into consideration while fixing the remuneration for the godown sub-staff. Social justice and sense of equity demand that the sub-staff in the godown should also enjoy similar privilege in a modified form. When the Company accepts the principle of godown allowance for extra work in the godown, they should not deny the said allowance to a particular section of workers working in the godown. I therefore consider that the claim for godown allowance by the sub-staff is justified.

The next question is what should be the amount of godown allowance for the sub-staff. The claim is Rs. 10 per month. The learned representative for the Company says that the amount claimed is excessive. The clerks of the lowest category get godown allowance of Rs. 15 per month. The sub-staff working in the godown should at least get half of it. I accordingly award Rs. 7.50 as godown allowance per head per month for the sub-staff working in the godown.

The Union claims that this allowance should be from 1st April 1960. There is no justification of the said claim. The Union claimed godown allowance in writing in respect of the godown sub-staff on 15th October 1963 for the first time. In that context, I should not allow any arrear allowance. The godown allowance for the sub-staff as contemplated in this award will be effective from 1st March 1965.

This is my award and it is to be implemented within one month of its publication in the "Calcutta Gazette".

Whether the employees are entitle increase in salary? If so, what quantum?

The case of the Union may shortly follows: Messrs. Sinclair, Murray & (hereinafter referred to as the Compa and prosperous concern engaged in the jute broking, salvage operating, and surveying of loss in relation to Fi Insurance. The Head Office of the located in Calcutta and it also run Cossipore for reconditioning salvage Company employs about 60 works clerical and subordinate staff. The final of the Company is sound, but the wo Company are not being given increme in spite of a considerable rise in the index. The workmen, through their Unincrease in their wages in view of the increment was given to them since I management agreed to increase the cent. with effect from April 1964. A dispute alsed, and conciliation proceedings were d. It was agreed at the conciliation proceedings the workmen would accept the 5 per cent. It was seen wages with effect from the 1st April 1964, the question whether they would be entitled to half for adjudication. The workmen have a further increase of wages not less than a cent. on their existing wages.

Decision

tuce was duly served on the Company, and the gang Director of the Company, one Mr. Donald Watson, appeared in person on 11th November The Union filed its written statement on 30th mber 1964, but none appeared on behalf of the pany, and no written statement was also filed The Company was given notice about the ng of this case and, in spite of service of notice, appeared on behalf of the Company. The pany was given sufficient opportunity to contest case, but the Company did not appear at the ng of the case, and the case was ultimately 1 ur for ex-parte hearing. On behalf of the n Snri Sukumar Paul, an employee in the unts Department of the Company, has been uned. His evidence is that the Company paid s and dearness allowance separately to its men up to May 1959 but since June 1959 less allowance, which was paid according to the al Chamber of Commerce scale, was merged in usic wages. He has further stated that at the the dearness allowance was merged in basic s, Rs. 140 was paid as dearness allowance to workmen on the first rupees one hundred, and blidded wages were fixed accordingly. But 1959 the employees did not get any increment. fact that since 1959 there has been a conable rise in the cost of living index justify the of the workmen for an increase in their wages ct, of course, to the financial capacity of the oyer. The Company also, by giving an increase per cent. on the existing wages of the workmen, admitted that the workmen are entitled to an ase in wages. It is now well settled that ase in wages can only be made after a conation of the financial capacity of the Company ar the increase, and after the Tribunal has come e conclusion upon the evidence before it that company has the capacity to bear this increase. financial position of the Company is thus an trant and relevant factor in considering the of the workmen for an increase in wages. ds the financial position of the Company the ace of P.W. 1 is that the financial position of ompany is good, and the Company earns profit year. In support of his statement he has produced and proved the balance-sheets and profit and loss accounts of the Company for the years 1958, 1959, 1960, 1962 and 1963. It appears from the balance-sheets, Exts. 3 to 3(d), that in all these years the Company earned profits though the amount of profits earned varied each year. The Company earned a profit of Rs. 85,000 and odd in 1958, Rs. 1 lakh and 60 thousand in 1959, Rs. 38 thousand and odd in 1960, Rs. 51 thousand and odd in 1962 and Rs. 1 lakh, 77 thousand and odd in 1963. The financial position of the Company, therefore, appears to be sound and satisfactory, and the Company is in a position to bear additional burden of a reasonable increase in the wages of the workmen. The cost of living index at the time D.A. was married in the living index at the time D.A. was merged in the wages of the workmen in 1959, was between 451-460 and the amount of D.A. paid to the workmen according to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scale at that time was Rs. 140 on the first rupces one hundred. The cost of living index in 1964 was between 521-530, taking the base at 100 in 1939 and those workmen who were getting Rs. 140 as D.A. in 1959 are now entitled to get Rs. 175 as D.A. on account of the rise in the cost of ilving index. The scale of D.A. under the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scale is, however, too generous, and it is not feasible and not proper also that D.A. should be given to the workmen for full neutralisation in the cost of living index. The claim of the Union for an increase of another 20 per cent, on the existing wages appears to be high in view of the fluctuation in the profits earned by the Company during the last few years. I, therefore, hold that the workmen drawing salary up to Rs. 100 will get a further increase of 12 per cent. on their existing wages; those drawing wages between Rs. 101 and Rs. 200 will get an increase of 10 per cent. on the existing wages, and those drawing wages from Rs. 201 and above per month will get an increase of 8 per cent. on their existing wages. The Company employs about 60 workmen, and the proposed increase in the existing wages of the workmen will not be beyond the capacity of the Company to bear upon. increase in wages is to take effect from 1st April 1964.

This is my award.

AWARD

The establishment of this Company is included within the Omnibus Reference under G.O. No. 3537-I.R., dated 6th August 1962 (serial No. 548). The issues referred for adjudication are as follows:

- 1. Wages.
- Holidays and leave—Festival holidays, sick leave, casual leave and privilege leave.

The Company has claimed exemption from this reference in respect of both the issues and a "no dispute" award on the basis of an amicable settlement between the Company and its workmen, dated 7th October 1964. Two Memoranda of Settlements both dated 7th October 1964—one between the Company and its six staff members and the other between the Company and its other workmen who appointed five representatives specifically for the purpose of the settlement,—have been produced. The document whereby these five representatives were authorised, has also been produced. The aforesaid three documents have been marked Exts. 1, 1(a) and 2 respectively.

Union No. 3 of list III in the order of reference opposes the Company's prayer. This Union has challenged the agreement as not bona fide and binding upon all the workmen of the Company.

Both the parties were allowed to adduce evidence in support of their respective cases. Shri P. C. Chowdhury, the Factory Manager of the Company, gave evidence on behalf of the Company, and Shri Durjoy Kumar Jana, a workman, gave evidence on behalf of the opposing Union. Shri P. C. Chowdhary proved the two agreements, Exts. 1 and 1(a). Exhibit 2, the document of authorisation in favour of the five representatives of the workers, was proved by the testimony of the worker witness, Shri Durjoy Kumar Jana. He admitted his signature in this document. The only suggestion made to Shri P. C. Chowdhury in respect of documents, Exts. 1 and 1(a), was that the Company got the workmen to sign the documents without letting them know the contents thereof and by threat and coercion. This suggestion was denied. In his evidence, the worker witness, Shri Durjoy Kumar Jana, admitted having signed workers' agreement, Ext. 1(a), but stated that he signed it for increment and the contents of the document were not explained to him and other workers. Shri P. C. Chowdhury, the Company's witness, has categorically stated that the agreement

AWARD

This is a joint application of six workmen under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act against the employer Company Messrs. Howrah Engineering Concern (P) Ltd., 153-154 Madhusudan Pal Chowdhury Lane, Howrah, for their wrongful termination of service. In the petition, it is alleged that they were dismissed during the pendency of a reference in respect of retrenchment of two other workmen (vide G. O. No. 2390-I.R., dated 15th June 1963). In that reference a joint petition was filed, whereunder the present six workmen also received compensation along with the two workmen concerned in that reference. Those documents are filed to oppose the present application as not maintainable. The relevant vouchers also have been filed to show that these six workmen received compensation and settled their dispute with the Company. In view of the said settlement, the present applicants under section 33A are not entitled to any further relief.

This is my award.

AWARD

The above dispute over the issues given in the order of reference and reproduced below was referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 4830-I.R./IR/10L-72(A)/63, dated 30th November 1963.

Issues

- 1. Permanency of workmen.
- 2. Retiring benefit.

After receipt of the reference the Tribunal issued notices to both parties by registered post. The Company's notice was duly served and it appeared on the very first date through its representative. The notice issued to the Union was returned unserved. The Tribunal then wrote to the Government for furnishing correct address of the Union. No reply was received from the Government for a long time. In the circumstances the Tribunal issued another notice to the Union at the address given in the order of reference by registered post. This notice was served upon the Union and acknowledgment signed by a representative of the Union was duly received back. Thereafter a corrigendum No. 100-I.R., dated 11th

January 1965, was received from the Consumer was amended according the original order was amended accordi Tribunal issued another notice to this free This notice was returned un-served with the "not claimed". No appearance was made a of the Union after service of the first note original address. Considering all the above circumstances I am to hold that the Union served with the notice of this reference, nor ing that the second notice issued to the address was returned unserved as not class is significant to note that in spite of the the first notice at the original address the on union did not take any interest in the can case is now more than a year old. The facts above clearly indicate that the Union is not any interest in the dispute and is not pure dispute for adjudication. As the Union did any written statement in support of its did Company has not filed any written statement is not also taking any interest in the case the conduct of the parties indicated by the facts and circumstances it is clear that the de not being pursued for adjudication and it has for the purpose of the present reference. In cumstances there is no other alternative but i pose of the case by a "no dispute" award.

In the result, I make a "no dispute" await basis that the dispute has been given up by parties and it has thereby ceased to exist.

is an application under section 33A of the d Disputes Act filed by Shri Ajit Kumar ainst the employer Company Messrs. Albert to 5.11 D Gupta Lane, Calcutta-50, for agful dismissial from service during the pena dispute referred under G. O. No. 69-I.R., h January 1962, to this Tribunal for adjudi-Shri Basu in his complaint states that he employee of Calcutta. He was transferred to He wanted transfer in December 1962. o Calcutta, and he was trying for it since %3. He was working properly at Gauhati. 28th June 1963 he received a chargesheet lakutta saying that he was guilty of negli-the performance of his duties and vilificathe management in various ways. He subreply to the chargesheet. Then an enquiry d in Calcutta, but it was not fair. At the he got no opportunity to cross-examine the s examined by the Company. He was also opportunities to adduce evidence at the As a result of such an unfair enquiry he simissed from service. The dismissal order accordingly justified. The Company also did approval of the Tribunal in dismissing Shri hough a reference as mentioned above was ; before the Tribunal.

Company filed a written statement opposing gattons made in the petition of the workman. side of the Company it was stated that the li had no jurisdiction to entertain the applicaceause it was a matter affecting the Gauhati of the Company. It was further contended in Basu is not a workman concerned in the dispute under reference before the Tribunal, and as such the provisions of section 33 of the Act cannot be attracted, and so it was not necessary for the Company to obtain prior approval of the Tribunal before dismissing him from service. On merits, the Company's case is that a chargesheet was issued against the workman and he was given every opportunity of meeting the charges. An enquiry was properly held, and on the recommendations of the Enquiring Officer he was dismissed, and the dismissal is justified.

Decision

I will first of all dispose of the preliminary objection regarding jurisdiction. The reference which is pending before the Tribunal is in respect of retrenchment of several workmen of the Company, and the workmen include the category of clerks as well. Shri Basu is a clerk who belonged to the Calcutta Office. He was transferred to Gauhati in December 1962. A chargesheet was issued to him from Calcutta, and the enquiry also was held in Calcutta. Shri Basu enjoyed dearness allowance and other privileges available to the employees in the Calcutta Office.
The Tribunal has accordingly jurisdiction over the present application of Shri Basu who being a clerk must be considered to be a workman concerned in the dispute of retrenchment which is pending before this Tribunal. I accordingly over-rule the Company's objection, and uphold the workman's contention that he is a workman concerned in the dispute of the retrenched workmen which has been referred to this Tribunal. The provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act would accordingly apply.

Admittedly, the Company did not make an application for approval of the action taken by them under section 33(2)(b) of the Act. In the absence of such approval, the conclusion is irrestible that the employer contravened the provisions of section 33 of the Act, and as such the workman concerned has a right to apply under section 33A of the Act.

The contravention having been proved. I will proceed to adjudicate upon the merits of the complaint. The scope of section 33A is almost as wide as a reference under section 10 of the Act. The principles are well-settled. The jurisdiction of the Tribunal is limited to the enquiry as to whether a prima facie case has been made out by the employer against the employee, or in other words, whether on the evidence led it was possible for the Enquiring Officer to arrive at the conclusion in question. If the employer had made a proper enquiry into the alleged misconduct and if there had been no victimisation or unfair labour practice, the Tribunal would not interfere. In the present case, Sri Basu has been dismissed. The Tribunal can interfere with the order of dismissal only in the following four cases:

- 1. when there had been want of good faith.
- when there has been victimisation or unfair labour practice,
- 3. when the management is guilty of basic error or violation of the principles of natural justice,
- 4. when, on the materials, the finding is completely baseless and perverse.

The order of dismissal of Shri Basu is impugned by the workman on the ground that the principles of natural justice had been violated, and the materials before the Enquiring Officer did not justify his finding which was perverse. I will now take up the case on merits. Shri Basu was transferred from Calcutta to Gauhati, and there he was working in the Accounts Department. He was working under the Accounts Manager Shri Jones. He went on leave admittedly for the period from 1st May 1963 to 21st May 1963. He (Shri Basu) wanted to come back to Calcutta and made a move in this respect in April 1963. He received a chargesheet, dated 28th June 1963, from Calcutta, and that chargesheet is Ext. 3. The chargesheet mentions the following points: Since the middle of May 1963 Shri Basu had been doing acts of insubordination and disobedience, he was not doing the work allotted by the Branch Manager, he had been vilifying the management since he joined Gauhati and on 10th June 1963 he threatened the Branch Manager by saying that he (Shri Basu) would not accept his advice of not preaching against the management. This is the substance of the charge against Shri Basu. Before this chargesheet was issued, a letter was addressed to Shri Basu on 17th June 1963 (Ext. 4), in which it was mentioned that he was guilty of insubordination. On that very date he was asked to appear before an Enquiry Committee at Calcutta. So far as Ext. 4 is concerned, it is absolutely vague, and it shows that the Enquiry Committee was formed even before the formal chargesheet was handed over to Shri Basu. The chargesheet is Ext. 3, dated 28th June 1963, to which I have already referred. Shri Basu gave a reply to the chargesheet by Ext. 7. There he characterises the charges as vague. He also denied the charges. He clearly stated that the chargesheet did not mention any instance of insubordination. Thereafter, an enquiry was held on 2nd August 1963 by Shri S. C. Bhattacharya, Accountant of the Company. The only witness examined by Shri Bhattacharya is Shri B. N. Chakrabarty, who is the Branch Manager of Gauhati. The enquiry proceeding is Ext. B. Shri Bhattacharya asked questions to the Branch Manager, and the Branch Manager gave answers to the same. At the very outset, I should mention that the charges are absolutely vague. Shri Basu was charged with disobedience of orders, but not a single instance was quoted. He was charged that he was vilifying the management, but no categorical incident was cited. The only incident which I find in the chargesheet is an incident, dated 10th June 1963, with the Branch Manager himself. The workman Shri Basu complained that the charges were vague, but no attempt was made by the management to clarify the charges. On the date of enquiry, the Enquiring Officer asked questions of his own initiative to the Branch Manager, and the framing of the questions clearly indi-cates that the Enquiring Officer was relying upon matters which were not there in the chargesheet and which were not brought before the Enquiring Officer by the management. The Enquiring Officer asked Shri Basu about a criminal case of Madras, and that is also not mentioned in the chargesheet. In giving answer, the Branch Manager does not, however, describe what was the criminal case of Madras. I have sone through the proceedings of the enquiry, and I find that the evidence given by the Branch Manager is vague, and most part of it is hearsay. He speaks about reports from others. Not a single instance was cited as to when Shri Basu flouted the orders of the Branch Manager or canvassed against the Branch Manager or convenient against the before the customers. The only instance is of the date of 10th June 1963. The heard Christian C Manager says that he heard Shri Bass propaganda against the Company before In cross-examination the witness however he made a report to the Head Office as Basu, and that was in the last part of He does not speak about any other reput larly about the incident, dated 10th June in report of the Branch Manager was not before the Tribunal. If the Branch Manager was made in the last part of April 1963, 1 that the charge speaks about nefanous and Shri Basu since after the middle of May in Branch Manager himself admitted that was on leave from 1st May 1963 to 21st May If Shri Basu was on leave in the middle of M he could not indulge in nefarious activities the said period. As to neglect of duty, would speak the truth. But the Company produce the same at the domestic enquiry an the Tribunal, though on the side of the work application supported by an affidavit was a production of the same. On 2nd August enquiry was held, and on the next day Su writes to the Enquiring Officer a letter (Ext plaining that he was not given opportunities examine the Branch Manager at the enquir, request for production of certain document acceded to. This letter must be construed at since it was written on the day following the enquiry. That the Company received this is appear from the accompanying endorsement Company does not in fact deny that this let received by them. Those documents if pr would have gone to show that the charge of of duty was not substantiated. On the each record, I hold that the Enquiring Officer d keep the request of Shri Basu for product certain documents. By those documents & could have proved that that he was not guily charge of neglect of duty or disobedience worders of the Branch Manager. I therefor a that Shri Basu was not given reasonable and opportunities of meeting the charges against The enquiry proceeding shows that the El Officer asked Shri Basu as to whether he wo to produce any witness in defence, and the ! Shri Basu was that he was not prepared to If that is so, the Enquiring Officer ought I given opportunities to Shri Basu to give of On the side of the workman it is argued the Enquiring Officer did not allow time to She I prepare himself for cross-examination of the Manager, and also a copy of the evidence Branch Manager was not supplied to him asked for. Since the charge was vague, it improper for Shri Basu to ask for a copy of the copy evidence of the Branch Manager before he cross-examine him. Reasonable opportunities be given to the accused. In the circumstance case, I think, Shri Basu was not given opportunities of cross-examining the Boundary of for cross-examining the Branch Manager, of evidence the entire charge was going to real Enquiring Officer mentioned in his report the Basu was examined and his statement had bet appropriately the statement had bet appropriate the statement had better the sta recorded, but unfortunately no such statement Shri Basu appears on the record. Shri Bast Vice-President of the Union and his Union a nown to the Branch Manager. From the discremistances which I have considered, it table to come to the finding that Shri Basu to given proper opportunities to meet the levelled against him. I further hold that the are vague and indefinite. The enquiry was fair, and as such it is incumbent upon the rent to prove before this Tribunal that Shri been dismissed for gross misconduct. But use Tribunal, no evidence was produced by an agement to prove the charge. Thus the of the domestic enquiry being opposed to the less of natural justice and perverse, the Tribunuld interfere.

the result I hold that the dismissal of Shri Ajit was not justified, and he is entitled to reinstate with all back wages from the date of his order mussal till the date of his reinstatement.

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri R. BHATTACHARYA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri A. Das Chowdhury, Advocate. For the Company: Shri P. Ghosh, Advocate.

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act over some disputes between Messrs. Asoka Printing and Commercial Co., 16J Canal Street, Entally, Calcutta-14, and their workmen represented by the Press Employees' Association, 249 Bowbazar Street (1st floor), Calcutta-12, arising out of Government of West Bengal, Labour Department. Order No. 1687-I.R./IR/13L-16/64, dated the 30th April 1964. The issues for adjudication are as follows:

- Whether the lock-out declared by the management since 15th October 1963 is justified?
   To what relief, if any, are the workmen entitled?
- 2. Is the refusal of employment to the following workmen justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?
  - (i) Shri P. K. Chakraborty, (ii) Shri Ashanullah, (iii) Shri Maiful Khan, (iv) Shri Neemai Chatterjee, (v) Shri Nooral Islam, (vi) Shri Nazoo Mohammad, (vii) Shri Mati Mia, (viii) Shri Tafzul Khan.
- 3. Bonus payable in 1963.

Both the parties appeared in this case and mitted their respective written statements. Two witnesses have been examined on the side of the Press Employees. Association (hereinafter described as the Union), and Messrs. Asoka Printing and Commercial Co. (hereinafter described as the Company) has examined only one witness on its side. Some documents have also been exhibited on both the sides.

The Company has not challenged before me at the time of hearing the nature of the dispute. From the facts and circumstances I hold that the present dispute is an industrial dispute. The first issue relates to the lock-out declared by the Company on 15th October 1963. The question is whether the lock-out is justified and if it is not justified, the Tribunal is to consider about the relief to be given to the workmen. On this issue the case of the Union is that the workmen are entitled to Puja bonus every year and the Company used to declare the amount of bonus on the day following Viswakarma Puja. In the year 1963 the company did not make any declaration regarding bonus in spite of repeated demands. On 14th October 1963 the workmen approached the management to know its decision but as the workmen were threatened, they decided to observe one-day token strike on 14th October 1963 very peace-fully to vindicate their reasonable grievances. The workmen observed peaceful stay-in strike on that day but the Company vindictively declared lock-out on 15th October 1963 by a notice. This lock-out is still continuing and the case of the workmen is that this lock-out was mala fide and unjustified.

The Company, on the other hand, has stated that the allegations made by the union are all false. Bonus was never announced immediately after the Viswakarma Puja on any day. It was never linked up with the Viswakarma Puja. In previous years bonus was announced immediately before the Durga The company has further stated in paragraph 12 of the written statement that the company duly intimated the concerned workmen that bonus would be announced immediately before the Durga Pujas, and that before such announcement the work-men resorted to an illegal and unjustified stay-in strike on 14th October 1963 without any reasonable cause. It has been further added by the Company that a meeting was due to be held on 15th October 1963 to discuss about the question of bonus but the workmen were impatient. On 14th October 1963 the workmen remained sitting doing nothing. manager of the Company asked them to do their duties but the workmen refused to comply with the request. Some workmen demanded immediately payment of bonus. It has been further alleged that the workmen hidden away type-set-ups and locked up machines in such a way that a mechanic would be needed to resume operation. The Labour Officer of the Government was informed. The workmen had no mind to speak to the Labour Officer. The workmen went on sitting without doing any work in an attitude of utter insubordination and defiance. While the workmen left the Press, they threatened the Manager that if no bonus was declared on the following day, the Company would have to face dire con-sequences. According to the Company a lock-out had to be declared on 15th October 1963 for the best interest and protection of the Company's properties. P.W.1 is Shri Nimai Chand Chatterjee. He has stated that the workmen of this Company are members of the Union, that the Company paid Puja bonus every year before the Durga Pujas, that in September 1963, the Company was asked to make payment of Puja bonus and that the Manager Shri Goswami assured that bonus would be paid before the Pujas when payment of Puja bonus would be made in the other sister concern, viz., Adding Machine Co. (P) Ltd. The witness has further stated that in the other sister concern Puja bonus was paid on 8th or 9th October 1963. The witness therefore approached the Company for bonus on 12th October 1963. On 14th October 1963, the witness has further stated, the Manager stated that he would not pay any bonus. We also get from this witness that the employees remained sitting at their respective duty place up to 5-30 p.m. doing no work and without misbehaving in any way. The evidence of P.W.1 is that on the following day when the workmen went to attend their duties, they found the notice about the lock-out. During the cross-examination a suggestion was put to this witness that the lock-out was declared because the workerm materials but the suggestion has been denied.

some materials but the suggestion has been denied. P.W.2 is Shri Provat Kumar Chakraborty, an employee of the Company. He says that the workmen held this strike on 14th October 1963 very peacefully without any disturbance,

Shri Goswami was the Manager of the is O.P.W.1. He has stated that in or the second week of September 1963 the work him about the Puja bonus and being man him about the ruja contas and being man Mr. Ball, the General Manager, he inform workmen that the decision about bonus made near about the time of Pujas. He fu formed the workmen that there would be a tion about the Puja bonus on 15th Octobe Shri Goswami has denied the case of the he refused any bonus. His evidence is that October 1963 he came to the Press and there through-out the day. The workmen, a to him, were not doing any work. He them to do their duties but they refused. fore had a contact with Mr. Ball and the Officer of the Government over phone. I the Labour Officer wanted to speak with the men, the latter refused to speak with him Goswami has further stated that after 5-30 workmen left the place and that after the he did not find any type-set-up and that the did not work in spite of switching. On the day, the witness went to the Press and found machines were not working. Under the in of Mr. Ball through phone the witness got: nic. According to the witness, certain m made loose and therefore the machines could The witness then had a talk with Mr. Ball phone and the latter stated that he would lock-out notice. In between 10-30 a.m. and the notice was sent to Shri Goswamı and hung up. Shri Goswami did not find any on that day. According to the witness the of the workmen was unruly during the penc strike and thereafter.

Exhibit AA is the copy of a letter, dat October 1963, written to the Labour Office Manager regarding the strike. In this let Goswami does not say anything to indicate workers during the strike were unruly or Shri Goswami gave evidence at the enquir question of strike. In his evidence there has ay that on the day of strike the workers were Several charges were framed against the who participated in the strike. It is to be a there was no charge regarding the theft of any type-set-up or tampering with any many the chargesheets were dated 22nd October on the evidence of O.P.W.1 given before not find any convincing and definite evidence the unruly or violent behaviour of the state of the st

"On account of the sudden strike by t men, the Press is closed indefinite today."

No justifiable reason has been assigned by ral Manager for the lock-out. From the everence of and the circumstances of this case, I vinced that the workers in order to vinding grievances and to assert their claim resorted day stay-in strike on 14th October 1963 by the Press without creating any disturbance out causing disorder in the machineries any type-set-up. The story about the univiour of the strikers or hiding any type-set-up.

This is a sort of or oppression. This practice is very unsufficient into the matter. This control is shown that he did not find the ry grave, and that he did not find the ry grave, and that he did not apprehend to the properties of the Press. I have Roy, the learned Advocate for the Company to declare lock-out. Shri Roy has befessed that sudden strike is sufficient for shrift the lock-out was declared because the was very grave. I have already found that the does not show that there was any grave for the Company to declare lock-out. I have already found that the Company to say that the strike Admittedly, the Press is not an industry with any public utility service. Section 23 general prohibition of strike and lock-out. no evidence regarding the service conditions hess. There is no evidence also to prove workmen of the Press went on strike in any contract. In the present case I cannot the strike resorted to by the workmen on ober 1963 was illegal or unjustified accorde section 23 of the Industrial Disputes Act. eac further shows that for some time past id been tussles between the Press and the ner the demands made by the workmen. Mr Ball has not been examined before has not ventured to come forward and to lence regarding the circumstances in which ed the lock-out. I should, rather, say that ten purposely withheld. Anyway, in view e circumstances and facts, I hold that the declared by the company was highly improunjustified. It was, rather, a mala fide lock-nection with the issue No. 1, I am to cone No. 2 relating to the refusal of the employthe eight workers named in the order of The case of the Company is that there clusal of employment by the Company to men concerned, that the Company had allared lock-out and that the persons conere suspended pending domestic enquiry at conduct of eight persons who had already respected was to be considered. It has ber alleged by the Company that the work-ig been legally dismissed by the Company mutled to any relief in this case. It has d that the charges levelled against them duly proved at the enquiry. The case of nen, on the other hand, is that the work-luestion were chargesheeted maliciously on ations, that the enquiries held by the Com-: illegal and mala fide and that the workunjustly punished by the Company by retinisation and unfair labour practice. he chargesheeted workmen have been examined the chargesheeted workmen have been examined the chargesheeted workmen have been examined to the control of the chargesheeted workmen have been examined to the chargesheeted workmen have been examined to the chargesheeted workmen have been examined to the chargest and the cha he evidence is that they behaved peacefully te strike on 14th October 1963 and that after the lock-out they did not go to the Press on 21st or 22nd October 1963. The Manager of the Press, Shri Goswami, has been examined as O.P.W.1. No other material witness has been examined to support him on the side of the Company. Exhibit 21 is the copy of the chargesheet served on the eight workmen named in the order of reference. There are as many as six charges. Four charges relate to the 14th of October 1963, one charge is in respect of 21st October 1963 and the remaining charge relates to the 22nd day of October 1963. chargesheet is dated 22nd October 1963. The chargesheeted persons replied to the chargesheet denying the allegations. At first one enquiry was held by Shri Goswami. The Company found the chargesheeted persons guilty and an application under section 33(1) of the Industrial Disputes Act was filed before the Labour Officer. The Labour Officer, however, refused permission to dismiss the workmen. Exhibit Z/16 is the copy of the letter of the Labour Officer. The letter is dated 6th March 1964. O.P.W.1. has admitted that the Company received this letter on 12th March 1964. On 16th March 1964 the Vice President of the union wrote a letter to the Manager complaining that the charge-sheeted workmen were not allowed to resume work after the refusal of permission to dismiss them. In this letter the Manager was requested to inform when the workmen would report for duty. The copy of the letter is Exhibit Z/18. The General Manager by a letter, dated 18th March 1964, informed the workmen that a fresh enquiry would be held on 26th March 1964 and the workmen were asked to attend the enquiry. The copy of the letter, dated 18th March 1964, is marked by a letter, dated 23rd March 1964, informed the General Manager that the fresh enquiry was illegal and mala fide and that the workmen would not participate in any such motivated enquiry. The second enquiry was held ex-parte by one Mr. Howse. The records of the enquiry submitted by the Company are collectively marked Exhibit AF. According to the reports of the enquiring officer the workmen were found guilty on three charges out of six. They were found guilty of staging a stay-in strike without notice, of obstructing and threatening Shri Goswami on 21st October 1963 and of obstructing and shutting in Shri Goswami on 22nd October 1963. According to the records of the enquiry Shri Goswami himself gave evidence at the enquiry and submitted one statement in writing. One Maheswar Nayak, durwan, who was a material witness was also examined. O.P.W.1. Shri Goswami himself has admitted that he did not submit any written statement of his at the second enquiry. According to this evidence, therefore, the report of Mr. Howse that Shri Goswami had submitted one written statement cannot be accepted as correct. Shri Goswami has further submitted before me that Mr. Howse wrote out the enquiry proceeding himself and thereafter Mr. Howse typed out the records on the basis of those writings. It is to be noted that the original records of the proceedings in the hand-writing of Mr. Howse have not been produced before me. No reason has been assigned as to why those original records of the proceedings have not been submitted before this Tribunal. Mr. Howse has not been examined before this Tribusal. Mr. Howse has not been examined before this Tribusal either. I have also persued the records of the proceedings containing the evidence of Shri Goswami and I find that there was no evidence before the enquiring officer to prove that notice was required to be given by the workmen before any stay-in strike either according to the service conditions or according to the Sianding Orders of the Company. Before me also there is no evidence to prove that strike without notice was illegal or improvement. per. In spite of the fact Mr. Howse found the workmen guilty of the charge, namely, staging a stay-in strike without notice. According to the chargesheet the allegation was that there was the strike in defiance of discipline and rules of the Company. There is no material in the records of the proceedings to substantiate this charge. Similarly, with regard to the incident of 21st and 22nd October 1963 Shri Goswami did not specifically mention the names of all the eight persons during the statements made before the enquiring officer. Still the delinquents were found guilty. Exhibit AF/1 is the order of Mr. Ball, the General Manager, dismissing the wokrmen. He has stated in this order that he read the report of Mr. Howse and that on that basis the workmen were dismissed. Mr. Ball does not say in Exhibit AF/1 that he considered other records of the enquiry including the evidence and other materials before passing the order of dismissal. As I have already stated Mr. Ball has not been examined before me to say that he considered the entire records of the proceedings and the report of Mr. Howse and that he was convinced about the guilt of the workmen. Any way, I cannot accept the records of the proceedings filed before me as genuine and authentic. Moreover, considering the reports and the materials gathered at the enquiry, I find that the findings of the enquiring officer are not reasonable. They appear to be perverse. Of course, I am aware that I am not sitting in appeal to consider the decision of the enquiring officer but the Tribunal is entitled to see if finding of the enquiring officer is perverse on the very face of the records. In this case, however, the original records of the enquiry in the hand-writing of Mr. Howse have not been produced. This conduct on the part of the Company is suspicious. My finding, therefore, is that the second enquiry held by Mr. Howse was also improper and unacceptable.

In view of my findings in the earlier paragraphs, I am to see whether there has been sufficient evidence adduced before me to prove the charges against the workmen. I have indicated earlier that the evidence of Shri Goswami regarding the incidents on 14th October 1963, 21st October 1963 and 22nd October 1963 cannot be accepted. On consideration of the evidence of witnesses of both the sides, I hold that the strike on 14th October 1963 was peaceful and that the workmen did not go to the Press or cause any disturbance as alleged on 21st October 1963 and 22nd October 1963. The circumstances and the facts of this case also support the conclusion that the charges framed against the eight workmen were mala fide and were meant to victimise the workmen. It is clear therefore that after the genuine strike of the workmen on 14th October 1963, the Company declared a mala fide lock-out and afterwards framed some false charges against the workmen to get rid of them by hook or by crock. The order of suspension along with the chargesheet was likewise mala fide. This was adopted by the Company in order to refuse employment to the workmen in question in addition to the declared lock-out. My finding, therefore, is that the refusal of employment to the eight workmen named in the issue No. 2 was mak justified.

In view of my findings above, the issue 2 are decided against the Company and the workmen. On the question of religion these two issues the inevitable order all the workmen of the Company lee 15th October 1963 including the expensioned in issue No. 2 must be a their wages from 15th October 1963 on as their services are not terminated acc

I shall now take up the question of t in 1963 as stated in issue No. 3. In simple one. Q.P.W.1 Shri Goswami h up to 1962 the Company had been bonus to the workmen all along, that the bonus was not, however, the same e that the Puja bonus was paid to the w year of profit as well as in the year Company has also submitted a states paid previously. It is Exhibit Z/22. the maximum amount of bonus was pa 1957-58. It amounted to one and onewages. The minimum amount of bonu 1955-56 and it was to the extent of half month. However, in most case wages were paid towards Puja bonus t man. In these circumstances, I am no bonus after due calculation of the Company to arrive at any profit bon of the workmen is that each workman get Puja bonus as customary or acci terms of service. The evidence is th of profit and loss the Company had be along Puja bonus to the workmen. I bonus was not invariable. According of this case, I hold that the workmen get Puja bonus for the year 1963 as to the implied and accepted condition however, fix the amount of bonus pa workman at the amount of his wages In this connection I should, however. amount of Puja bonus is certainly pa month before the Durga Pujas so that may without any difficulty fix their Pi

AWARD

This is an application under section 33A of the lastrial Disputes Act. It has been preferred by 13 was who were all workers of Messrs. Universal up Manufacturing Co. (P) Ltd. of 93B Ripon set, Calcutta-16. What happened is as follows:

An industrial dispute covered by G. O. No. 5663-I.R. | IR. | 10L-68|61, dated 25th September 1961, was pending between Messrs. Universal Lamp Manufacturing Co. (P) Ltd. versus its workers in the year 1962. Sometimes in May 1962 the Company dismissed all the 13 applicants to their great prejudice and violating the prohibitory enactment contained in the section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. Being aggrieved thereby the applicants filed the present application under section 33A of the Act with a prayer for an award directing the Company to reinstate the petitioners with full compensation. The application was seriously opposed by the Company. The Company filed its written statement denying that there was any violation of any provision enacted in section 33 of the Act. It would transpire from the order sheet, dated the 10th April 1964, that my predecessor in office Shri M. K. Roy desire to hear the case on merits on 21st May 1964. On 21st May 1964 a prayer for adjournment was moved by the learned Advocate appearing for the workmen. That prayer was allowed. It would further appear from the order sheet that on 20th July 1964, 24th August 1964, 16th September 1964, 28th November 1964, 24th December 1964 and on 6th February 1965, the Union either prayed for adjournment or did not care to appear before this court for some reason or other. However, I fixed the case for hearing on 23rd February 1965. On this date too the Company came ready with its witnesses. None however, appeared for the Union. In the aforesaid circumstances I had no other alternative than to go on with the case exparte. I recorded the deposition of the Company's Personnel Officer Shri S. N. Chatterjee. From his deposition it would appear that the applicants are no more interested to proceed with the instant application, they having already realised all their dues from the Company. This would be clear from the M.O. coupons vide (Ext. 1 series) and the vouchers vide (Ext. 2 series) filed by the Company. In view of all that has been stated so far it is quite clear that the dispute between the parties has since been dissolved and that at present the dispute is quite non-existent.

In the result, I pass a "no dispute" award in this case.

The Government of West Bengal by its Labour Department Order No. 3672-1.R./1R/11L-274/64. dated 20th August 1964, referred to this Tribunal an industrial dispute between Messrs. Talkie Show House, 13A Sibdas Bhaduri Street, Calcutta-4 (hereinafter referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by Bengal Motion Picture Employees Union, 126A Dharamtala Street, Calcutta-13 (hereinafter referred to as the Union), for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The issue framed in this case for adjudication runs as follows:

Whether the dismissal of Shri Kamal Ranjan Acharjee is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

AWARD

Both parties adduced oral and documentary evidence at the hearing of the reference and argued their respective cases at length, and Lawyers represented both the sides. It is a case over the dismissal of Shri Kamal Ranjan Acharjee, who was an employee of the Company. In the written statement, the Union alleges that this was an act of victimisation and unfair labour practice. The workman Kamal fell ill and applied for three weeks' leave with effect from 5th February 1964. The application for leave was submitted on 11th February 1964 supported by a medical certificate. He was suffering from pain in the gall bladdar. That leave application was replied to by the management on 24th February 1964. In that reply the workman was directed to appear before one Dr. Pal of Keshab Sen Street in Central Calcutta. The workman was a resident of South Sinthi Road in the northern suburbs of Calcutta. The main still continued to be ill and he filed another at tion for leave on 25th February 1964. The was got himself treated at Sir Nilratan Sarkar to College Hospital. The workman was charged on 23rd March 1964 and a reply was given by A fake enquiry was held, and in consequence of enquiry the action of dismissal was taken again workman. The order of dismissal is quite and a clear act of victimisation.

The Company submitted a written sta wherein the workman Kamal was described habitual absentee. He absented from duty leave from 5th February 1964. He submitted application on 11th February 1964 with a certificate. On 24th February 1964 he was at appear before Dr. B. K. Pal and get himself by him. The workman applied for further law another leave application, dated 25th February II enclosing a medical certificate, dated 24th February 1964.

By a letter, dated 27th February 1964. Management asked him to get himself admitted a recognised hospital with the previous approval Management. The medical certificates were beneved by the Management. Thereafter a de sheet was issued to the workman on 23rd 14 1964 and he was charged under three heads explanation was furnished by the workman date of enquiry was notified to him. 11th / 1964 was fixed as the date of enquiry. On that the workman appeared at the commencement of enquiry, but gave out that he had nothing to besides the letters he had written to the Manage The enquiry was, however, adjourned till the day, i.e., 12th April 1964. On that date the en was held and it was concluded. The word retused to sign the enquiry proceedings. Manager held the enquiry. By a letter, dated April 1964, the management dismissed the worl from service which was to take effect from April 1964. The management denies that it actuated by any unfair labour practice in dismi the workman. He was found guilty of the de and so he was dismissed.

Decision

The question arises as to whether the disma Shri Kamal Ranjan Acharjee is justified. It is settled principle of law that if there had be domestic enquiry and it was conducted fairly properly, the Tribunal will refuse to interfere in the following cases:

- 1. When there had been want of good fait
- 2. When there had been victimisation or labour practice.
- When the management is guilty of basis or violation of the principles of I justice.
- 4. Whether on the materials, the finding i pletely baseless and perverse.

This is the burden of decision of various § Court cases (vide '963 F.L.R., Vol. 7. page First of all, let up see whether there had be enquiry and whether the enquiry that was con is fair. The charges against the workman

On 12th April 1964, according to the v, the enquiry was held in presence of the The workman, however, denies that ad been any such enquiry. The first point in be decided is whether in fact there had enquiry. From the evidence of witnesses his Tribunal - particularly the evidence of Shri antı Mitra (O.P.W. 2) and Dr. K. K. Ganguly W. 4), I may safely come to the conclusion re had been an enquiry in presence of the

It is true that the in did not sign the enquiry proceedings, but rence can be made conclusively from that me that Kamal in fact did not participate in next question is whether the enquiry had been i proper. It is true that the written statement Union describes the enquiry as fake, and of go further to add categorically that the was conducted in an unfair manner. I think e written statement describing the enquiry as would certainly entitle the workman to ge the conduct of the enquiry as unfair before bunal. Whether the enquiry was conducted in not is a matter which is to be judged by the alfrom the manner and conduct of the enquiry ther attending circumstances. It is the duty Company to prove that a fair and impartial had been conducted in respect of the charges against the workman. I will now turn, to occeding of the enquiry (Ext. A/3). This was written by Shri Arun Kanti Mitra, who is an outsider and a friend of the proprietor. The Enquiring Officer is the Manager Shri Gaur Hari Dey (O. P. W. 3). The Manager does not write the proceedings, but he got the proceedings written by Shri Mitra. The reason ascribed is that the Manager does not know English sufficiently well. The evidence, however, discloses that the Manager put questions in Bengali and the answers were also given by the workman in Bengali. But those questions and answers are not there in the record. Instead, the record appears to be in English. This is not a proper procedure. The questions and answers may be taken in Bengali or in English. Nevertheless, the record should be the true replica of the proceedings. At the outset, the workman Kamal was examined and the Enquiring Officer subjected him to cross-examination from the beginning. The Manager himself (O.P.W. 3) admits before this Tribunal that he examined and crossexamined Kamal first and then he called the Company's witnesses. This procedure is viewed with disfavour by the Supreme Court. It is significant to note that Kamal was examined and cross-examined at the commencement of the enquiry. In this connection, I will refer to the case reported in 1963 L.L.J. II, page 396. The relevant portion of the judgment which is to be looked into appears in the second paragraph at page 400, and it runs thus:

"The other infirmity in the present proceedings flows from the fact that the enquiry has commenced with a close examination of Malak Ram himself. Some of the questions put to Malak Ram clearly sound as questions in crossexamination. It is necessary to emphasise that in domestic enquiries the employer should take steps first to lead evidence against the workman charged, give an opportunity to the workman to cross-examine the said evidence and then should the workman be asked whether he wants to give any explanation about the evidence led against him. It seems to us that it is not fair in domestic enquiries against industrial employees that at the very commencement of the enquiry, the employee should be closely cross-examined even before any other evidence is led against him. dealing with domestic enquiries held in such industrial matters, we cannot overlook the fact that in a large majority of cases, employees are likely to be ignorant, and so it is necessary not to expose them to the risk of crossexamination in the manner adopted in the present enquiry proceedings. Therefore, we are satisfied that Mr. Sule is right in contending that the present enquiry proceedings by which Malak Ram was elaborately crossexamined at the outset constitutes another infirmity in this enquiry."

On the above observations of the Supreme Court, I hold that the procedure adopted by the Enquiring Officer in the present case suffers from a great infirmity.

Another challenge to the conduct of the enquiry is that the workman was not given proper opportunities of defending himself. The charge against the workman Kamal can be summarised thus: He was absent without leave for over 14 days from 5th February 1964. He neglected to appear before a particular Doctor named by the Management on a particular date. Thirdly, he made an attempt to obtain leave on false pretext of illness, though he was not really ill. This is the summary of the charges against the workman. The workman Kamal, as a matter of fact, absented from 5th February 1964, but he put in an application for leave on the ground of illness within 14 days of the commencement of his absence. The application for leave was made on 11th February 1964 supported by a medical certificate. Thereafter he was asked to appear before one Dr. Pal at his chamber on 26th February 1964. The workman by a letter expressed his physical inability to appear at the chamber of the said doctor and requested the management for his examination at his residence. The management instead of doing that asked the workman to get himself admitted in a hospital to be previously approved by them. workman got himself treated at the outdoor of Sir Nilratan Sarkar Medical College Hospital. The workman insisted upon his point that the medical certificates and the out-door ticket should not be disbelieved by the management, and those doctors were the most material witnesses. The workman filed documents showing that he had been treated in the Sir Nilratan Sarkar Medical College Hospital, and they are Exts. A/36 to A/40. His application for leave was accompanied by a medical certificate, dated 11th February 1964 (Ext. A/83). He put in a second application for further leave on 25th February 1964 duly supported by a medical certificate of the same That application for leave is Ext. A/79 and the medical certificate is A/78. From the two medical certificates of Dr. L. M. Ghosh, a registered Medical Practitioner, it emerges that the workman Kamal was suffering from gall bladdar pain and other complications and he was advised to take leave. The question is whether the management would believe those certificates or disbelieve them holding them to be false. The same comment applies in respect of outdoor tickets showing that Kamal was attended at the Sir Nilratan Medical College Hospital on 19th March 1964 and 25th March 1964. Before the enquiry Kamal insisted that those doctors should be summoned as they were the most material witnesses. In this connection, I may refer to his letter, dated 5th April 1964 (Ext. A/34). In the second paragraph of that letter he insisted that no enquiry could be held without the presence of the Doctors. He further added that it was the responsibility and duty of the management to secure their presence. It is true that the letter (Ex. A/34) is rather angrily worded, and a note of annoyance of the workman is writ large upon it. But nevertheless, the workman led the management understand that since the medical certificates and the records of the hospital were most material documents, it would be incumbent upon the management to give him opportunities of producing those evidence. It was accordingly the duty of the Enquiring Officer to take note of this letter and summon the Doctors named in the certificates or in the hospital record. If the management felt that it was not their duty, but it was the duty and responsibility of the workmen himself, the Enquiring Officer ought to have told specifically the workman at the enquiry that it was open to the workman to summon those Doctors in support of his case that he was really ill and give him opportunities for doing so. The enquiry proceeding is silent on this point. The management should have told the workman beforehand, and the Enquiring Officer ought to have told the workman at the enquiry that since ment was not willing to summon those p enquiry, it would be the duty of the examine them on his behalf. Since done, it tantamounts to denying the wo opportunities of proving his case of i was particularly necessary when the Eng was going to disbelieve the genuineness records and medical certificates gran registered medical practitioner. In the the enquiry proceeding is signally silent After the workman Kamal was examine examined at the outset, the examined two witnesse K. F Ganguli and Nanda Kishore Iha 2 the enquiry then and there. There is a record to show that the workman w he should examine the Doctor who gra medical certificates or prove the rec Nilratan Sarkar Medical College Hospi by him. This is opposed to the princip justice, and in my judgment it would condemn the proceedings as not proper

On top of all, the findings of the Enq is erroneous and perverse. The charge that the workman Kamal absented from leave for 14 days and it was wilful abs tedly, the award of the Omnibus Tribuna Sarkar, Judge, is applicable to the cin-This charge refers to clause XVII, subclause VII sick leave is provided. is evidence is believed it cannot be said that all was not at all ill tharing the long period wen 5th February 1964 to 27th March 1964. The wen is not thoroughly inconsistent with the care is not thoroughly inconsistent with the of illness disabling Kamal from attending his is in the cinema house. The next witness is add Kishore Jha. He said that one day he went its residence of Kamal and this was sometime in reary and March 1964. But he could not give chact date. Jha stated in his evidence that he Kamal manufacturing toys in his residence. But revidence of Jha does not disprove the plea of mess of Kamal. Even if the evidence of Jha that went to the house of Kamal one day between many and March 1964 and saw him manufacturation is believed it does not containly proved the toys is believed, it does not certainly prove that wis perfectly fit to join his duty in the cinema be. The Enquiring Officer relied upon the evilo of Dr. K. K. Ganguli and Nanda Kishore Jha in ning to his conclusion that Kamal was not ill but i malingering illness. I am constrained to say the evidence before the Enquiring Officer did not mant the finding that Kamal was not ill during the want period but was making false pretext of ill-, and was wilfully absent from duty without leave over 14 days and neglected to comply with the er of the management to appear before a named in all practitioner on 26th February 1964. The ling of the Enquiring Officer are not only perse, but also self-contradictory. In addition to the we two charges, there is a third charge, namely, Kamal by his letters, dated 11th, 25th and 26th on that pretext he attempted to take leave. It is retuilly an attempt to deceive the Company. h regard to thus charge, the Enquiring Officer e Kamal the benefit of doubt. But that benefit given only in respect of the first part of the rge No. 3. Now if the first part of the charge I goes, then the false pretext on which the rec was framed would fall to the ground. finding is self-contradictory. With regard to rge No. 1. the finding of the Enquiring Officer is supported by any evidence, in view of the fact t Kamal did not actually absent from duty for re than 14 days without leave. He applied for on 11th February 1964 while he absented from February 1964, and the application was accomied by a medical certificate.

ince I have held that the conduct of the enquiry not fair, the matter is open before the Tribunal coming to a decision on merits. I will now con-* whether on the evidence before me, the charges proved. I will deal with the charges seriatim. ing No. 1 states that Kamal was wilfully absent hout leave for over 14 days from 5th February The learned Counsel for the Company has and before me the award of the Omnibus Tribunal sided over by Shri P. K. Sarkar. Clause VII of appendix prescribes sick leave and the provision thus: Application for sick leave must be made hie three days from the commencement of the management may at discretion demand medical certificate from a htered medical practitioner, in which case the icant would be bound to furnish such certificate. will turn to clause XVII defining misconduct. relevant sub-clause is (r) which deals with habitual absence without leave or wilful absence without leave for 14 days. In the instant case, the absence commenced on 5th March 1964, but the application for leave was made on 11th February 1964 supported by a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner. Since the application had been made within 14 days of the leave, charge No. 1 cannot stand. The workman was not absenting without leave.

Now I will turn to charge No. 2. By a letter, dated 24th February 1964 (Ext. A/8), the management asked Kamal to appear before Dr. Pal on 26th Februare 1964. In that letter it was observed that the medical certificate filed was not satisfactory. workman did not appear before Dr. Pal on that date. Instead, he writes to the management on 27th February 1964 stating the reasons as to why he could not appear before Dr. Pal. He invited the management to request Dr. Pal to examine him at his residence, and that letter is Ext. A/75. There is no evidence on the side of the management to prove that Kamal war physically fit to attend the chamber of Dr. Pal on 26th February 1964. This charge cannot, therefore, be sustained, because he pleaded very cogently that as he was ill and could not appear before Dr. Pal, he would be glad if Dr. Pal attended him at his residence. But the management did not make arrangement for examination of Kamal at his residence by Dr. Pal. Instead, the management asked him to get himself admitted at a hospital. In fact, Kamal got himself treated at Sir Nilratan Sarkar Medical College Hospital, and this will appear from the records filed by him. Charge No. 3 accordingly fails, because there was nothing to show that Kamal was making false pretext.

It is the duty of the management to prove before the Tribunal that the workman was not really ill and that he flouted the orders of the management deliberately on 26th February 1964 and that he made false applications for leave. The evidence before the Tribunal in this respect is not only unsatisfactory, but it also does not go any length to prove the case of the man gement. The evidence of Dr. Ganguli and Nanda Kishore Iha that they saw Kamal some day in February and March 1964 looking rather fit, will not prove that the applications for leave supported by medical certificates made by the workman are false. For the foregoing reasons, I conclude that the dismissal of Kamal is unjustified, and he is entitled to reinstatement with back wages and continuity of service.

This is my award, and it will come into operation within one month of its publication in the "Calcutta Gazette".

reference under section 10 of the Industrial is Act arises out of Government of West. Labour Department, Order No. 6432-I.R./-173'64, dated 2nd December 1964. The are Messrs, Shankar Talkies, P.O. Burnpur, an, and their workmen represented by Bengal Pictures Employees' Union, Asansol Branch, nriti Bhawan'', Subhas Pally, P.O. Burnpur, an. The issue is as follows:

ether the retrenchment of Shri Shee Pukar Jado and Shri Dukhan Ram is justified? What relief, if any, are they entitled to?

notices the parties entered appearances in ase and submitted their written statements. se of the Union is that the services of Shribukar Jado and Shri Dukhan Ram were terd without any justification and without giving portunity to them for their self-defence. The orkmen, according to the Union, were removed service with ulterior motive and by way of labour practice.

case of Shankar Talkies is that the present ts not an industrial dispute, that the Bengal Pictures Employees' Union has no locus to represent the workmen and that the employees are not connected with this dispute.

It has been further added that the services of two workmen in question have been duly terminated according to law.

Before the date of hearing an application was filed on behalf of Shankar Talkies asking for a direction upon the Union to produce certain documents relating to the membership of the Union, the minutes books of the Union and the constitution of the Union. The Union was directed to file those documents but, in spite of the order, the Union did not produce the said documents. 26th March 1965 was fixed for hearing. The Union did not appear on that day but the management of Shankar Talkies prayed for adjournment. Today was fixed for hearing.

In spite of call, nobody is found present on behalf of the Union or workmen of Shankar Talkies. The management is ready with witnesses. The case is taken up for ex-parte hearing. Messrs Shankar Talkies examines one Rakhal Chandra Paul as O.P.W. 1. His evidence is that the employees of Shankar Talkies are not members of any Union, that the services of Shri Shee Pukar Jado and Shri Dukhan Ram were terminated by notice, that their case has not been taken up by any other employee of Shankar Talkies and that Shri Jado and Shri Ram have received all their dues in full satisfaction of their claims after their termination of service.

I have also considered the argument advanced on behalf of Shankar Talkies. On consideration of the evidence and circumstances of the case, I find that the present dispute is not an industrial dispute and that other employees of Shankar Talkies have not espoused the cause of Shri Jado and Shri Ram. I am also satisfied that Shri Jado and Shri Ram received their dues in full satisfaction all their claims after accepting their termination of service.

In the result, this Tribunal has no jurisdiction to adjudicate upon the issue in question. The workmen are not entitled to any relief.

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act filed by Shri Ranghu Sah, 22 Abhay Guha Road, Lillooah, Howrah, against the employer Company Messrs. Bharat Plastics Limited, 4 Duffer Street, Lillooah, Howrah, alleging his wrongful termination of service during the pendency of a dispute between the Company and its workmen referred under G.O. No. 4843-I.R., dated 30th November 1963, to this Tribunal for adjudication. The present complaint was made on 1st December 1964 by the applicant. It appears that the reference quoted above out of which this application arose, had been disposed of in an award published in the "Calcutta Gazette" on 28th January 1965 wherein I came to the conclusion that the reference was bad in law and the dispute that was referred was not at all an industrial dispute, but an individual dispute. The reasons have been given in the award. In that view of the matter, there was no valid reference and for the matter of that the present application under section 33A does not lie. Such application can only be made during the pendency of a dispute referred to the Tribunal. Since in the eye of law there was no such proceeding before the Tribunal at any point of time, the present application must be held to be untenable. In this view I am supported by the decision of Mysore High Court reported tories Journal, Vol. XXV, page 244. I am hold that the present application under seem is not maintainable. The only way open workman is to come to the Tribunal under 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

AWARD

are 10 applications under section 33A of ustrial Disputes Act filed by Shri Banchaisra and nine others represented by Albert imployees Union, 22/1 Kali Charan Ghose Calcutta-50, against the employer Company Albert David Ltd., 5/11 D. Gupta Lane, 1-50, for wrongful termination of their during the pendency of a dispute between Company and its workmen referred under 69.1.R., dated 6th January 1962, to this for adjudication. The services of the 10 workmen were terminated by with effect from 1st July 1964. The issue in the original reference, on the strength of these applications were filed, was renchment of 60 workmen listed in the order rence was justified. None of these workmen under section 33A are included in the list tion. In these applications under section e workmen complained that the termination r service was in contravention of the proviof section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, for termination is not bona fide. All the tuons under section 33A are similar in nature.

Company filed a written statement separately h case and contended, inter alia, that the is did not lie under section 33A of the Act is of the fact that the workmen are not the ned workmen within the meaning of section if the provisions of section 33 are not therefore to to the alleged termination complained of workmen.

Decision

stedly, a reference is pending before the all as already mentioned. The issue before ibunal is not also in controversy. The initial ton on the side of the Company is that the ats are not the concerned workmen in the which is pending before this Tribunal. I able to accept this in view of the fact that over retrenchment which is pending before a matter in which all other workmen are also led. The contention of the Company in this must fail.

second contention on behalf of the Company there is no contravention of the provisions 10n 33, which is the foundation upon which ication under section 33A should be made. It is a second wants to urge that the provisions of 33 do not apply to the instant cases. The fermination, dated 30th June 1964, which en issued to the 10 workmen separately series) runs thus:

ice we have taken up the programme of reorganisation and we found that you are overaged and as such you will retire from the services with effect from 1st July 1964. You will get one month's notice pay."

The termination of service was thus effected on the plea of taking up re-organisation programme. There was another ground alleged in the letter of termination that the workmen had reached the age of superannuation. On the side of the Union it is argued that though the letter of termination mentions about re-organisation and attaining the age of superannuation, in substance it is a letter of dismissal by way of punishment, and the said termination is mala fide. It is significant to note that no misconduct has been alleged in the letter of termination. The termination letter also does not say that the termination had been for any misconduct. On the side of the Company it is argued that utmost it is a notice of retrenchment or superannuation without payment of retrenchment compensation or gratuity, and even if such retrenchment or superannuation is characterised as unjustified, the Tribunal has no jurisdiction to enter into those question under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. On the side of the workmen, section 33, sub-section (2) is relied upon in both the clauses (a) and (b). Shri Matish Roy on behalf of the workmen endeavours to attract the provision of clause (a) of sub-section (2), and characterises the termination as altering the conditions of service. Termination of service cannot be purported to include alteration in the condition of service. In this connection, the decision reported in F.L.R. 1962, Vol. 5, page 462, may be referred to. The expression "conditions of service" really implies the continuance of relationship of employer and employee. In case of termination, the question of altering the condition of service does not arise, because the said relationship ceases to exist.

In the next place, the workmen's representative Shri Matish Roy wants to attract clause (b) of subsection (2) by saying that the workmen had been discharged or punished by dismissal or otherwise in the instant cases. The fact is that the services of the 10 workmen had been terminated. The all important question is whether the instant cases can be brought under section 33, sub-section (2), clause (b). The letter terminating the services has already been quoted. It speaks about retirement from peen quoted. It speaks about retirement from service with effect from 1st July 1964. The word "termination" or "discharge" or "dismissal" had not been used there, nor the action followed in consequence of any misconduct alleged or proved. The learned Lawyer for the Company Shri Das Gupta has placed before me a case reported in 1958 L.L.J. II Bombay, page 518, wherein it was held by the Bombay High Court that an application for approval was not necessary in respect of retrenchment effected by the employer during the pendency of an adjudication proceedings before the Industrial Tribunal. In the instant cases, however, the termination letter does not clearly show that it was a case of retrenchment. The Company also does not admit that the workmen had been retrenched. In fact no retrenchment compensation had been paid. Be that as it may, termination by way of retrenchment according to the ruling of the Bombay High Court, cannot be brought within the scope of section 33, sub-section (2), clause (b), of the Industrial Disputes Act. Whether the retrenchment is justified or not is beyond the scope of section 33.

The workmen allege that it is a case of dismissal from service by assigning reasons which are absolutely false. In the letter of termination, the Company alleges about re-organisation programme, but there is no evidence on the side of the Company that there had been any such programme. There is another reason assigned for the discharge from service. The termination letter alleges about superannuation, but the letter itself does not mention at all as to what is the age of retirement in the Company. Several workmen were examined to prove that normally 60 was the age of superannuation and the workmen, who were discharged, did not attain that age. On the above facts and statement of evidence, the learned representative for the workmen argues that since the reasons assigned for termination are not supported by any evidence, the Tribunal should conclude that the termination must be characterised as dismissal simpliciter and such dismissal was not bona fide.

Now the question is whether the Tribunal can enter into the question of discharge simpliciter or termination effected by issuing notice as in the instant cases for the purpose of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. On this point, there had been several decisions and one of them is of the Bombay High Court reported in 1961 L.L.J. II, page 274. There it was a case of discharge simpliciter. It was held in that case that in substance it was a case of dismissal for misconduct or punishment otherwise than by dismissal. Another case is cited before me and it is reported in F.L.R. 1965, Vol. 10, page 1. It was a case in which Mr. Justice B. N. Banerjee considered the question whether the termination of service of the petitioner was discharge simpliciter in terms of contract of employment or discharge by way of penalty as held by the Tribunal. In that case, his lordship referred to the Supreme Court decision in the case of Assam Oil Company reported in 1960 L.L.J. I, page 587. The relevant portion of that decision is quoted below:

"If the contract gives the employer the power to terminate the services of his employee after a month's notice or subject to some other condition, it would be open to him to take recourse to the said term or condition and terminate the services of his employee; but when the validity of such termination is challenged in industrial adjudication it would be competent to the industrial tribunal to enquire whether the impugned discharge has been effected in the bona fide exercise of his power, then the industrial tribunal may not interfere with it, but the words used in the order of discharge and the form which it may have taken are not conclusive in the matter, and the industrial tribunal would be entitled to go behind the words and the form and decide whether the discharge is a discharge simpliciter or not. If it appears that the purported exercise of the power to terminate the services of the employee was in fact the result of the misconduct alleged against him, then the tribunal will be justified in dealing with the dispute on the basis that despite its appearance to the con-trary the order of discharge is in effect an order of dismissal. The exercise of the power in question to be valid a be bona fide. If the bona fides of exercise of power are successfully then the industrial tribunal would to interfere with the order in quis in this context that the industrial must consider whether the dischantified or whether it amounts to we or unfair labour practice, or is so or unfair labour practice, or is so or unfair labour practice, or is so or unfair labour practice, or is so or unfair labour practice, or is so or unfair labour practice, or is so or unfair labour practice, or is so one that it has been passed to motives and not in bona fide exercity power conferred by the contract."

Relying upon the aforesaid principles, the representative for the Union argues before since in the instant cases, the notices by services of the workmen had been termin cribe the reasons of reorganisation and su tion which are not supported by evidence be concluded that the dismissal of the had been for misconduct, and the action management was not bona fide. The fac Bombay Case and the Calcutta High Care altogether different. In the Bombay ( conduct was alleged against the workman tion. There had been a charge-sheet aga Loss of confidence was the reason given. was a case of termination for misconduct such it cannot but be dismissal by way o ment. In the Calcutta High Court case t been termination according to service under the circumstances, which led the Tr conclude that it was dismissal for miscon the instant cases before me, there had be nation by a notice, but there is complete t of evidence on the point of any misconduc part of any workman. Misconduct is not of the Company nor is it the case of the whose services had been terminated. On of the workmen some witnesses were e Shri Siba Kumar Chowdhury stated in his that he got this notice suddenly and he w to retire, though he did not attain the age annuation. He does not state that he h guilty of any misconduct or was charged i misconduct. There had been other witnes also gave similar evidence. But the evit any of the witnesses does not disclose any stance from which a conclusion may be dra there had been even allegation of mit against any of the workmen. Ponus for the accounting year ended on 31st December 1961.

After service of notices upon the parties, they appeared before this Tribunal and filed their respective written statements in due course. After necessary preliminary and interlocutory proceedings and some adjournments taken by the parties, the case was finally fixed for hearing on 20th March 1965. The case was taken up for hearing on that date. The parties' representatives stated their respective cases and some relevant matters were discussed. At that stage, a talk of compromise arose. A similar dispute between a sister Company Messrs. Airways (India) Ltd. and their workmen was previously compromised before this Tribunal. I suggested to the parties that this dispute might also be compromised on those terms. The parties' representatives discussed the matter among themselves and then wanted time till next day in order to explore the possibility of a compromise, as suggested by the limital. ## AWARD

This is an application under section 33A, Industrial Disputes Act, by Shri Gopal Dey, a workman of Messrs Sur & Co., the O.P., complaining of his alleged illegal and wrongful dismissal by way of victimisation with effect from 27th November 1962

during the pendency of the adjudication proceedings of another dispute between workmen, referred to this 3537-1.R., dated 6th August 1962, but without complying with the mandatory requirements of the provisions of section 33(2)(b), Industrial Disputes Act.

The Company O.P. has filed its written statement stating its own case in respect of the dismissal and raising some legal objections.

After preliminary proceedings and some adjournments, the case was finally fixed for hearing on 6th May 1965. But, in the mean time, on 29th March 1965, the parties filed a joint petition of compromise stating that the dispute under section 33A had been compromised on the terms set out therein and praying for a compromise award accordingly.

The joint petition of compromise is signed by the concerned workman and his Union Secretary on behalf of the workman and by the Company's authorised representative, Shri K. K. Motra. The Union Secretary, together with Shri K. K. Motra, the Company's representative, appeared before me and supported the joint petition of compromise and wanted a compromise award in terms thereof. I am satisfied after hearing the Union Secretary and the President and the Company's representative that there has been a bona fide settlement of the dispute in terms of the joint petition of compromise and the said petition is also a bona fide petition. The terms of the settlement also appear to be fair and lawful. In these circumstances, it is needless to keep the case pending any further and wait till the date of hearing fixed for 6th May 1965. The case should be disposed of immediately in terms of the joint petition of compromise.

In the result, I accept the joint petition of compromise filed by the parties and make a compromise award in terms thereof. A copy of the joint petition is made a part of the award as an Annexure. The case is disposed of accordingly.

AWARD

This is an application under section 33A. Industrial Disputes Act, by Shri Yakub Alı Molla, a workman of the Company O.P. Messrs. Steel Rolling Mills of Hindustan (P) Ltd. complaining that he was illegally and vindictively refused employment with effect from 29th December 1962 without assigning any reason and was not also paid his bonus for 1962, in contravention of the relevant provisions of section 33, Industrial Disputes Act, though at the relevant time the adjudication proceedings of another dispute between the Company and its workmen, referred to this Tribunal by G. O. No. 3537-I.R., dated 6th August 1962, were pending.

After service of notice upon the Company O.P., it appeared and filed its written statement. After necessary preliminary proceedings and some adjournments, the case was finally fixed for hearing on 8th February 1965 On that date, neither party appeared and no step was taken on behalf of any party. But, instead of disposing of the case on that date, the Tribunal adjourned the case to 20th February 1965 in order to give the parties another chance to appear and take part in the proceedings. On 20th February 1965 a petition was received from Shri Phani Bagchi. the authorised representative of the applicant workman, from Dum Dum Central Jail praying for one month's time on the ground that he was detained in ial under the D.I.R. It was also stated in that petition that he was making necessary arrangements for appointing another representative of the workman to conduct the case. Upon this petition, the case was adjourned to 28th March 1965 for hearing and the applicant was directed to make alternative arrangement for conducting the case on his behalf in the mean time. On 22nd March 1965 there was no appearance by or on behalf of the workman, but the Company's representative was present. The Tribunal again adjourned the case to 29th March 1965 for final orders. On 29th March 1965 both parties were absent and no step was taken on behalf of either party. From the aforesaid facts and circumstances, it is clear that the applicant is not pursuing his application in spite of sufficient opportunity being afforded to him to get his case conducted by another representative after the detention of Shri Phani Bagchi under the D.I.R. and the Company is also not keen upon pursuing the case. Accordingly, there is to be a "no dispute" award in the case on the basis that the dispute has ceased to exist.

In the result, I make a "no dispute" award in the case.

Whether the dismissal of Shri Sushil Kumar Paul and Shri Osman Gani is justified? What relief, if any, are they entitled to?

AWARD

The present reference was received from the Government of West Bengal for adjudication of an industrial dispute relating to dismissal of two workmen by common employer Messrs. Lalchand Ray &

Co. (P) Ltd. of 7/1 Grant Lane, Calcutta-12, (hereinafter be referred to as the Company). The workmen have been represented by Lalchand Workers' Union of 16/17 College Street, Room No. 51, Calcutta-12 (hereinafter be referred to as the Union).

As usual, immediately after receipt of the reference, notices were issued to both the parties for appearance. They appeared and filed written statements of their cases. On completion of procedural steps by the parties, the case was taken up for hearing. Both parties examined their witnesses and adduced other evidence and advanced arguments.

The Union's case, in short, is that the Conspany is an old firm of reputed printers, previously run under the name and style of Gossain & Co. by the two partners Shri Lalchand Ray and Shri Nirode Kanti Gossain. Subsequently in 1959, the two partners separated their business. Shri Gossain continued the business in the original name but the other partner Shri Lalchand Ray started his business under the name and style of Lalchand Ray & Co. (P) Ltd. In spite of the separation of the business, the terms and conditions of service of the employees remanied the same and they worked in continuation of their previous services, under the original The present Company, in spite of making Company. huge profit every year, does not allow the workmen to carn fair and adequate wages, on the contrary, they are being exploited considerably. The Company paid no attention to the legitimate grievances of the workmen repeatedly placed before it by the workmen. So, the workmen at last formed the Union of their own in December 1962 for collective bargaining and submitted a Charter of Demands for consideration by the Company. The Company not only ignored the demands of the workmen but also disclaimed existence of the Union. Therefore, 17 workmen of the Company, to support thier demands and to prove existence of the Union, attended a joint conference convened by the Conciliation Officer on 1st May 1963. That 17 workmen, although took permission of the Company to attend the conciliation meeting, were charge-sheeted and placed under suspension. Subsequently, however, at the concilia-tion stage, the disputes in respect of 15 of the workmen were settled excepting in respect of two work-men Shri Sushil Kumar Paul and Shri Osman Gani, the former is the Assistant Secretary of the Union and the latter is a member of the Executive Committee of the Union and both of them were active members of the Union. The Company having refused to settle the dispute in respect of these two workmen, the present reference has been made for adjudication thereof.

The Company's case in the written statement is that this concern was incorporated in 2nd November 1962 and has since employed about 100 workmen and none of them is asked to do any overtime work. That these two workmen Shri Sushil Kumar Paul and Shri Osman Gani ignored the Company's notice, dated 29th April 1963, and instigated 15 other workmen to go with them to the office of the Labour Commissioner to attend a joint conference convened by the Labour Commissioner. Thereby these two workmen indulged in indiscipline and subversive acts for which all the 17 workmen were charge-sheeted and placed under suspension. An enquiry was held,

All of them were found guilty of a levelled aganist them. On acceptance of the Enquiring Officer, the Management of the Enquiring Officer, the Management of the Enquiring Officer, the Management of the Enquiring Officer, the Management of the Conciliation Officer Is allowed to resume their duties and it that the dispute in respect of them the referred to the Tribunal for almost of the English of the English of the Company has denied all other almost the Union.

Decision

The reference has been made in terms of ment between the parties arrived at a 1963 in presence of the Conciliation of K. Bhattacharji. Exhibits A/5 and 3 and 3 memorandum of setting copies of the memorandum of settle common case that the Company change workmen for disobedience and act a discipline. There was a common charged all the 17 workmen. Exhibits A, A/I a chargesheets meant for Shri Sushil Kime Shri Osman Gani. They were chargeshee May 1963 following an incident that took lst May 1963. On that date the I attended a joint conference of the employ the employees convened by the Assistant Commissioner. It appears from the commissioner. Exts. 1(b) to 1(e) that the Assistant Laborat sioner made several requests to the Com sending competent representative to a conference called by him. But the Compu send any and wanted to know from the Labour Commissioner the constitution workers' Union and at the same time infer that their employees disclaimed any has such Union. This letter Ext. 1(f) was wi Company on 2nd March 1963 undoubtedly written by the Compay support fact of their knowledge of the formain Union which fact was communicated Company much earlier by the Secretary & Das Gupta. Exhibit 1 is the letter, dated January 1963, by which the said information furnished to the Company by the Secretary Union. The acknowledgment Ext. 1(a) des that the letter was recevied by the Manager January 1963. Therefore, it is very clear Company was intentionally avoiding conference convened by the Assistant Commissioner regarding the Charter of submitted by the workmen. In view Company's attitude and the suppression of of the existence of the Union the workmen to attend the joint conference called on 1963 and 21 of them applied for permission. The so. Exhibit A/6 is the application. thereupon issued a notice on 29th April 1 A/8) refusing permission to 21 workmen the conference and allowed two workmen do so. After that notice, five workmen permission to attend the conference. This tion (Ext. A/7) was made on 30th April 19 Company ignored this application and action. The Company did not mention in Ext. A/8 the names of the two workmen permitted to attend the joint conference of Assistant Labour Commissioner. It was, how-understood that Shri Sushil Kumar Paul, the the Union and Shri Osman a member of the executive committee, had insion to attend the conference. This fact is admity clear from the evidence of the Company's or Supervisor Shri Jiban Krishna Mukherji and of Shri Hatem Mea who is an incharge of the ling section. Both of them deposed before the uny Officer that Shri Sushil Paul and Shri Osman had permission of the management to attend i had permission of the management to attendioint conference called by the Assistant Labour amissioner on 1st May 1963. The Enquiry Officer eved in his findings Ext. C that Shri Sushil nar Paul and Shri Osman Gani were permitted the management to leave their work at 2 p.m. attend the conference. Not only the Senior ervisor Shri Jiban Krishna Mukherji has admitted both these workmen had permission to leave k at 2 p.m. in order to attend the joint ference in the office of the Assistant Labour missioner, there are also documents Exts. 4, ) which are time-cards of the said two workmen show that they left their work with permission 2 p.m. on 1st May 1963. Therefore, there is no mer of doubt that these two workmen with mission of the proper authority left the work at hm. in order to attend the joint conference of employer and the employees called by the sistant Labour Commissioner in his office for sideration of the demands raised by the workn. However, in spite of proper permission these workmen were chargesheeted along with 15 ers and there were identical charges aganist all them. Exhibit A is the chargesheet issued to i Sushil Kumar Paul. It will appear from the rgesheet that the Manager's allegation was that s workman along with the other 16 workmen iberately left work at 2 p.m. on 1st May 1963 thout any permission. It is further alleged that : above act is an act of disobedience and an act wersive of discipline, and therefore a gross misaduct which has seriously affected the production d business of the Company. The charges were mmon to all the 17 workmen. There was a partmental enquiry arranged on 1st June 1963 and I June 1963. Exhibits A/2 and A/3 are the two tices of the enquiry. The enquiry was held by Company's Labour Adviser Shri R. Das Gupta. e workmen attended the enquiry and on their half the witnesses were cross-examined by Shriten Das Gupta, the Secretary of the Union. The Iquiry Officer recorded a finding (Ext. C). He and all the workmen guilty of the charges of disedience and of acts subversive of discipline. On ceptance of that finding the Company dismissed the 17 workmen from services by letter, dated th of July 1963 (Ext. A/4). Immediately after e order of dismissal, conciliation followed and the occliation Officer ultimately succeeded to settle the dispute on certain terms. Exhibit 3 is the emorandum of settlement. In terms whereof the manany agreed to reinstate 12 workmen with lect from 16th August 1963. Three other worken on acceptance of reasonable compensation, etc., inquished their jobs. It was further agreed that the dispute in respect of these two workmen Shri shill Kumar Paul and Shri Osman Gani would be letted to the Tribunal for adjudication. So, the resent reference was made.

Now, it is well settled that in a case like this where the two workmen were punished following a finding against them by a domestic tribunal that they were guilty of the charges levelled against them, this Tribunal cannot act as a court of appeal and substitute its own judgment for that of the management. The management of a concern has no doubt power to direct its own internal administration and discipline, but that power is not unlimited, and when a dispute arises, industrial Tribunals have been given the power to see whether the termination of service of the workman is justified and to give appropriate relief. Ordinarily, therefore, the finding of a domestic tribunal should not be disturbed unless—

- (i) when there is want of good faith;
- (ii) when there is victimisation or unfair labour practice;
- (iii) when the management has been guilty of a basic error or violation of principles of natural justice; and,
- (iv) when, on the materials, the finding is completely baseless or perverse.

The enquiry to be held in the domestic forum must be fair and proper enquiry conducted according to the standing orders of the Company. In absence of any standing orders it must be conducted according to the rules of natural justice. In the instant case there is no standing order of the Company. Therefore, the Enquiry Officer in holding the enquiry must follow the rules of natural justice and the enquiry must be a full and fair enquiry. The Union has seriously challenged the fairness of the enquiry and of the findings of the Enquiry Officer. In the case of Messrs. Sur Enamel and Stamping Works Ltd. reported in 1963 L.L.J.II.367 the Hon'ble Supreme Court has laid down the five essentials of a fair and proper enquiry. In the instant case it appears that the Enquiry Officer has followed a curious procedure instead of himself explaining the charges to the workmen. He asked an Officer of the Company to do it and immediately thereafter he started examining and cross-examining the workmen instead of recording the evidence to support the alleged charges against him. It is very difficult to follow how the enquiry was conducted. Company's witnesses were examined piecemeal and at the same time the charge-sheeted workmen were closely examined at the beginning. It was a novel procedure difficult to appreciate. The Enquiry Officer ought to have initially examined the charges to the workmen and enquired of them if they admit the charges or any of them. The workmen having denied the charges he should have called upon the Company to adduce evience to support the charges levelled against the workmen and the workmen ought to have been given opportunity to cross-examine each of the witnesses of the Company. (1963 II L.L.J.396.) But instead of following the right procedure he started examining the workmen closely and questioning th m. The workmen having denied the charges the entire onus lay upon the Company to esatblish the charges. The Enquiry Officer ought to have called upon the Company to adduce evidence to support the charges, but instead he began to question the workmen. It appears that the Enquiry Officer questioned two witnesses of the Company Shri J. K.

Mukherji and Shri Hatem Mea. The first witness was examined in part at different stages. The cumbrous procedure followed by the Enquiry Officer was certainly misleading and not in accordance with the rules of natural justice. Furthermore it will appear that the finding of the Enquiry Officer was perverse in the sense that it was against the weight of the evidence recorded by him at the enquiry. He had to admit in his finding Ext. C that Shri Sushil Paul and Shri Osman Gani were permitted to leave their work. So, they had proper authority and permission to leave work on 1st May 1963 at 2 p.m. in order to attend joint conference convened by the Assistant Labour Commissioner to consider the demands raised by the workmen. I have already observed that the Company not only systematically avoided attending the joint meetings called by the Assistant Labour Commissioner but went so far to supress the truth and to say that the workmen of the Company disclaimed any knowledge of the Union. The Company had timely information of the existence of the Union [vide Exts. 1, 1(a)]. It is abundantly clear from the existence of the Company had timely information of the existence of the Union [vide Exts. 1, 1(a)]. clear from the evidence of the Company's witnesses Shri Jiban Krishna Mukherji and Shri Hatem Mea that these two workmen had permission of the management to leave work at 2 p.m. to attend the conference, which fact, of course, the Enquiry Officer had to record in his finding Ext. C. But the Enquiry Officer went beyond the scope of the enquiry to hold that these two workmen "instigated other workmen and were instrumental in stopping the work and leaving the factory premises with their entire team and thus committed a gross misconduct." This allegation or charge of instigating other wormen and stopping them from work in nowhere in the chargesheet. The learned Advocate Shri Ganguli who appeared for the Company had to admit noninclusion of any specific charge of inciting or instigating other workmen to stop work. But if this allegation was not included in the chargesheet and the workmen were not called upon to meet such a serious charge, how the Enquiry Officer can on his own initiative come to such a finding in respect of serious allegations not specifically included in the chargesheet? So, I say that the Enquiry Officer went beyond his limit and the scope of the enquiry for obvious reasons and to hold them guilty of the charges of instigating and inciting other workmen to stop work. The Enquiry Officer further found these two workmen guilty of the charges of disobedience and of facts subversive of discipline because they left the work in spite of the Company's notice dated 29th of April 1963. But it is extremely difficult to accept this finding as correct in view of his own observation in the finding Ext. C that both these workmen had permission of the management to leave work at 2 p.m. to attend the joint conference in the office of the Assistant Labour Commissioner. If they went with permission, how they could be found guilty of disobedience? Shri Jiban Krishna Mukherji is the Senior Supervisor of the Company. He is the competent authority to grant permission. He admits to have granted permission to both these workmen. He deposed before the Enquiry Officer and also before this Tribunal that on his report the 17 workmen were chargesheeted. But he cannot sav if there was any charge against Shri Sushil Paul and Shri Osman Gani of instigating and inciting other workmen to leave work. His report on the basis of which the workmen were chargesheeted has been

withheld. Had the report been produced it have shown if the allegation of instigating a inciting other workmen to stop work was the arrangement of the stop work was the stop work w not. But without any explanation that report been purposely withheld. Therefore, that find the purposely withheld the suncalled for as there was uncalled for as there was uncalled for as there. been purposely withheld. Instance, that indicate the Enquiry Officer was uncalled for as there was such charge in the charge sheet. So, the Family officer came to a bias and perverse finding with these two workmen. Therefore, his finding of the Tribust. be accepted. It is now open to the Tribunal by into merits of the case and to come to its finding on the evidence adduced by both the pan I have already observed that the specific the against the two workmen are: (1) the act of obedience and (2) an act subversive of discipline is admitted by the Company that these two we men Shri Sushil Kumar Paul and Shri Osman G had permission of the authority to leave work 2 p.m. on 1st May 1963 to attend joint conferen convened by the Assistant Labour Commissions his office. That being the admitted position it difficult to hold them guilty of disobedience 1 Company has examined one witness only before Tribunal. He is Shri Jiban Krishna Mukherji. his report the 17 workmen were chargesheeted. has not produced the report, nor does he assign; reason for withholding the same. He has depote that Shri Sushil Paul incited and instigated of workmen to stop work. But there is nothing support his oral testimony. He does not prod the report he has submitted on the basis of w chargesheet was framed. On the contrary, Ua has examined four witnesses. The two char sheeted workmen have denied the alleged instigat and inciting other workmen. There are two a workmen who have deposed that they attended conference on their own accord without be induced and instigated by the two concerned wo men. It is quite likely that the workmen deck to muster strong at the conference in order establish that they formed the Union for collect bargaining and it was a lie to say that the Compa had no knowledge of the Union as stated by Company in its letter, dated 2nd March 1963, to Assistant Labour Commissioner [Ext. 1(f)] The fore, I do not find sufficient material and evide to substantiate the charge levelled against th workmen who admittedly attended the confere with permission of the authority. The 15 of workmen who also attended, may be with or with permission, have been reinstated. Three of th have relinquished the job on acceptance of fair i reasonable compensation, etc. Therefore, I find justification for punishing these two workmen. charges against them have not been established cogent and convincing evidence. On the contri it is admitted that these two workmen absen from duty with permission. So, there was question of disobedience. There is also nothing prove that they committed any act subversive disointing. discipline. Both of them are, therefore, acquit of the charges levelled against them. They entitled to reinstatement in their respective positions without any prejudice to their ray other allowances. The period of their for unemployment be treated as on leave for the purp of continuity o of continuity of service. I further direct, after consideration of the circumstances, that the workmen will be entitled to receive 50 per cent their wages and allowances for the period of for unemployment. te Government of West Bengal by its Labour international Order No. 1978-I.R. |IR | 10L-33(C) | 64, dated the 29th May 1964, referred to this Tribunal an industrial dispute between Messrs. Associated Indian Enterprises (P) Ltd., 206 Acharya Jagadish Bose Road, Calcutta-17 (Factory at 1 Mahatma Gandhi Road, P.O. Jokha, Calcutta-27) (hereinafter referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by Indian Enterprise Mazdoor Sabha, Q-313A Umesh Neogi Road, Calcutta-27 (hereinafter referred to as the Union), for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Profit bonus for the year 1962 payable in 1963.

AWARD

It is the case of the union in its written statement that Messrs. Associated Indian Enterprises (P) Ltd. is the Sole Agent of Messrs. Ashok Leyland Ltd. of Madras for sale of their products, i.e., Leyland chassis and spare parts in West Bengal and Bihar. There is an agreement regulating the terms and conditions between Ashok Leyland of Madras and this Company. The Company also repairs Leyland vehicles and manufactures bodies of the same. The Company has a workshop at Thakurpukur and Branches at Mazaffarpur and Patna. The wage scale of the Company falls tar short of the living wages. the profits of the Company for the years 1962, there would be available surplus for payment of profit bonus to the workers of the Company. During the year 1962, the Company paid bonus equivalent to one month's wages. The union claims bonus equivalent to four months' wages.

The Company in its written statement admits that they are the Sole Agent of Ashok Leyland chassis and spare parts in West Bengal and Bihar. They further admit that they undertake repairs of all sorts of Leyland vehicles and keep stock of spare parts for sale to users of Ashok Leyland. The Company, however, qualifies this by saying that the Company makes sales of Leyland chassis and spare parts to private operators, while Government and quasi-Government undertakings make purchase of Ashok Leyland chassis and spare parts direct from Ashok Leyland of Madras at a rate lower than that of the present Company [Associated Indian Enterprise (P) Ltd.] at which they sell them to their private customers. Under the terms of the agreement, Ashok Leyland of Madras reserves the right of direct sale of chassis and spare parts to Government and quasi-Government undertakings at special rates within the territories of The Company does not render Bengal and Bihar. any service to the vehicles purchased direct by those undertakings from Ashok Leyland of Madras. The overriding commission which the Company earns for such direct sale of Leyland chassis to Government and quasi-Government undertakings under the terms of the agreement is entirely at the discretion of Ashok Leyland and it is an extraneous income of the Com-pany. It should not, therefore, go into the accounts of the Company for calculation of bonus. It is a fortuitous income of the Company, towards the earning of which the labour has no contribution.

The Company claims that its reserves and surpluses have been utilised as working capital during the year in question, and as such the Company is entitled to at least four per cent. return on them. It is further contended that the advances received by the Company from the private customers for sale of Leyland chassis to them had been similarly utilised in the business of the Company and the Company claims return on such advances. The Company also claims some rehabilitation grant. There are other contentions raised in the written statement of the Company which would be taken into consideration while discussing the details of calculation of the bonus formula. In substance, the Company disclaims the Union's demand for extra payment of bonus in addition to one month's wages already paid as such. Payment of one month's wages already made was by way of exgratia payment on the occasion of Durga Puja.

Decision

I have already decided a bonus issue for the year 1961 in respect of this very Company. It is contended on behalf of the Union that my findings in that award will operate as res judicata in the present case. I have already overruled this contention of the union. Bonus for each year should be considered separate and indepent of the other year. So, my finding with regard to the claim for bonus for the year 1961 cannot operate as res judicata in the present case. Each bonus year is self-sufficient unit. The labour's claim for bonus is on the basis of that relevant year for which bonus is claimed. For working out the Full Bench Formula enunciated by the Full Bench of the Labour Appellate Tribunal in Bombay Mill Owners' case, we shall have to look into the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Associated Cement Companies reported in 1959 I L.L.J., page 644.

The balance-sheet of the Company should be accepted as the basis of calculation of the available surplus. In the instant case, the Company's balance-sheet (Ext. 1) is not challenged by the Union in any of its items. So, it should be presumed to be the correct record about the Company's financial position for the year ending 31st December 1962. In the instant case, the wage structure of the Company falls far short of the standard of living wages. The Union's claim for bonus, therefore, fulfils that condition.

The next question is whether there is available surplus and in determining the same the Full Bench Formula is to be applied to. Labour is entitled to claim a share in the trading profits of the industry, because it has partially contributed to the same. This foundation of the claim is mentioned at page 662 of the ACC case. Admittedly, the Company earned a net profit of Rs. 3,33,401 and this will appear at page 7 of the balance-sheet (Ext. 1). Then the question of adding back will arise. The amount of depreciation as per schedule A to the balance-sheet shall be added back, and both parties agree on this point. The amount is Rs. 57,117. The amount of donation and charity is Rs. 3,047 and it is at page 5 of the balance-sheet (Ext. 1). This amount shall also be added back, and the parties agree on this point.

Next comes the question of bonus paid during the year 1962 as shown at page 5 of the balance-sheet. The amount is Rs. 35,508. The Company's witness Shri Guha admits that this was an expenditure incurred by the Company in 1962 towards payment of bonus for 1962. The Company claims an ex-gratia payment. If it was an extended back for working on a Formula in order to arrive at the waith The Company's learned Advocate arrive at paid in 1961 should be added back. This is not only unsubstantial but also quite a calculating the profits of the year 1962 arrive of 1961 can never find place in the account The correct figure to be added back is a The position is thus worked out as desired.

Net profit as per P & L A C Add back Depreciation Donation Bonus

That is the figure of gross profits cancel of Company in the year 1962. Now we shall the deductions to which the Company to entitled as prior charges. In working out the able surplus, the prior charges are to be deducted the gross profits. The first item of prior charges deducted is depreciation. The man Rs. 57,117 and there is no controversy over

The next item of prior charge is return on a It is calculated at 6 per cent. by both the C and the Union. The total amount is Rs. 720 controversy has been raised by the learned Ala for the Company in this manner. Since the Com is a Private Limited Company under section a the Incometax Act, 60 per cent. of the distribution income of the Company is claimed as peral shareholders. It is described as statutory objective. and non-compliance thereof is attended in penalty. In my previous award, I dwelt upon aspect in detail. I have already decided this by saying that even if the Incometax Act provide 60 per cent. of the distributable income shall be able to the shareholders, the question remains what should be the amount of distributable s The amount of distributable income cas of arrived at after deducting the amount of bons, would be payable to the workmen. Bons allowable expenditure under the Incometax Ad distributable income can be reached after del the amount of bonus so paid. 60 per cent. distributable income may be even less than 6 pt of the subscribed capital, if the amount of able income is diminished by the amount of In the previous reference, the Company's argued in detail. But in the present case, h not seem putting in any emphasis on that. The formula provides for 6 per cent. as divided ordinary shareholders. I am accordingly call 6 per cent., and both the Company and submitted their calculation on that basis. amount is accordingly Rs. 7,200 and it is by both the parties.

On the side of the Company it is considered there are certain extraneous earnings of the Carwhich did not arise in the normal course of and are unconnected with the efforts of laboration to possible the top of such items is overriding commission, is to the extent of Rs. 84,561 during the year to the Campany, this amount should be impute gross profit. The amount of overimputes has been shown in the trading of the Company strongs 4 of the balanceThe factors contributing to the earning of this geommission may be discussed first. The Company [Messrs, Associated Indian EnterOmpany [Messrs, Associated Indian En bits of Ashok Leyland of Madras, and the patership agreement is Ext. A. This agrees down the terms and conditions under which dealer was to act. The Company is the ster in Bengal and Bihar. The products of Leyland would be sold through the main in the territory allotted to them, and there is a sale of different types of goods as described schedule. The practice is that the private mapproach the Company [Messrs. Associated Enterprises (P) Ltd.] for purchase of Ashok I chassis, and the Company which is the main of Ashok Leyland makes the purchase from Levised and sells them to the customers within scribed territory. Under the agreement, sales be effected in the territory of the main dealer the main dealer himself. The main dealer rofit out of the sale. In section 2, clause (b) prement it was expressly agreed that Ashok I had the right to make direct sale of its s, i.e., Leyland chassis and spare parts, to any er within the territory without being under hility or obligation to pay to the main dealer nmission upon such sales. It was further a that Ashok Leyland might in its absolute n pay to the main dealer such commission in of the products so sold as Ashok Leyland ecide. Ashok Leyland further reserved the vary the prices of its products in order to special sales to Government Departments, unlities, Railways, Corporations, State Road or Organisations or persons entitled to indent the Director-General of Supplies and Dis-Government of India, in the territory without gany of the provisions of this agreement. ction (c) runs thus:

ay products sold by Ashok as provided for in clause 2(b) hereof to Government Departments, Municipalities, Railways, Corporations, State Road Transport Organisations and Organisations or persons entitled to indent through the Director-General of Supplies and Dispotals shall not be deemed to be part of the agreed yearly quota of products representing the Main Dealer's minimum sales as provided for in clause 5 herein."

tens of the above two clauses, Ashok makes sales of its products to Government and quasiinsent undertakings at a special rate which is adly lower than the rate at which the main sells those goods to its customers. The effect of direct sale would be that the Company is used of the profit in respect of this direct sale. Indication of the above loss, Ashok in fact pays commission to this Company in case of direct This is, however, at the discretion of Ashok. Nutrheless, it had been paid in almost all cases at sales. Overriding commission to the extent all, 84,800 had been easned in the aforesaid manner. On the side of the Company it is argued that this earning was a fortuitous earning of the Company, and did not arise in the normal course of business, and that the earnings are absolutely unconnected with the efforts of labours, and as such this should be treated as extraneous income and should be deducted from the gross profits. The legal position in this respect would first be looked into. In the ACC case referred to above at page 663 of L.L.J., Vol. I, 1959 it has been observed as follows:

"Where the employer makes profits in the course of carrying on his trade or business, it would be unreasonable to enquire whether each one of the items of the said profits is related to the contribution made by labour. In such matters the tribunal must take an overall, practical and commonsense view."

These observations of the Hon'ble Supreme Court had been further elucidated in Tata Oil Mill's case reported in 1959 L.L.J. Vol. II, page 250. The relevant discussion appears at page 253, and it runs thus:

- "It is only when profits are made that profit bonus can be awarded, subject to the further conditions, namely:
  - (1) wages fall short of the living standard, and
  - (2) the industry makes large profits part of which are due to the contribution which the workmen make in production.
- It is this last condition which seems to have been relied upon by industrial tribunals in holding that there must be direct connection between the efforts of labour and the profits, and unless that direct connection is established the profits must be treated as unrelated to the efforts of labour and thus become extraneous income. There is no doubt that there must be contribution of the workmen in earning profits before they are entitled to profit bonus, but it was not laid down in Muir Mills case (1955 I L.L.J. 1) (supra) that direct connection between the efforts of the workmen and the particular item of profit earned must be established before the profit can be taken into account for the purpose of arriving at the available surplus. An industrial concern carries on a certain business. In carrying on that business it employs capital as well as labour, and generally speaking the profits earned in the normal course of business at the end of year are the result of the joint effort of capital and labour. Even so, it may be recognised that there may be instances of extraneous income for the purpose of the Full Bench Formula due-
  - (i) either to some part of the profits not having been earned in that year, or
- (ii) to some part of profits arising out of fortultous circumstances altogether unconnected with the efforts of labour.
- A third category may be the income arising out of sale of fixed or capital assets. Such income or profit may be called extraneous income as either it did not really arise in that year or though it has arisen in that year, labour has not contributed anything towards its accrual; it may therefore not be taken into account in calculations according to the Full Bench Formula. But apart from these cases we cannot see how income arising during the year in the normal course of business of the concern can be called extraneous income merely on the ground that no direct connection between the efforts of labour and the accrual of the income has been established. In this very case we find an instance of the first category in two items relating to return of excess provision for expenses and a refund of excess profit tax. These two amounts have gone to swell the profits of this year; but they have not arisen in this year and may, therefore, properly be treated as extraneous income. An instance of the second kind is to be found in the profit of Rs. 3 lakhs made in this year by a change in the method of valuation of the Company's assets, which is entirely unconnected with the efforts of labour. But so far as the other four items are concerned, they are earned by the Company in the normal course of its business and there is no reason why they should be excluded on the ground that it has not been proved that they are the result of direct efforts of labour in this year.

The learned lawyer for the Company relies upon a case reported in A.I.R. 1961, Supreme Court, page 941 (Voltas Ltd.). In support of his contention that overriding commission should be treated as extraneous income, he refers me to paragraph 4 of the judgment. The relevant portion may be quoted thus:

"The last item is a sum of Rs. 9.78 lakhs being commission on transactions by Government Agencies and other organisations which manufactures abroad direct. It seems that the appellant is the sole agent in India of certain foreign manufacturers and even when transactions are made direct with the manufacturers the appellant gets commission on such transactions. The Tribunal has held that though the transactions were made direct with the foreign manufacturers, the respondents were entitled to ask that the commission should be taken into account as much as the respondents serviced the goods and did other work which brought such business to the appellant. It seems that there is no direct evidence whether this particular goods on which this commis-sion was earned were also serviced free by the appellant like other goods sold by it in India. We asked learned Counsel for the parties as to what the exact position was in the matter of free service to such goods. The learned Counsel however could not agree as to what was the exact position. It seems to us that if these goods are also serviced free or for charges but in the same way as other goods sold by the appellant in India, the respondents are entitled to ask that the income from commission on these goods should be taken into account. As, however, there is no definite evidence on the point we cannot lay down that such commission must always be taken into account. At the same time, so far as this particular year is concerned we have taken this amount into account as the whose duty it was to satisfy the satisfy the satisfy the satisfy the satisfy the satisfy the satisfy the satisfaction of the Tribund satis

In the Voltas case it was contended that the men serviced the goods and did every and brought such business to Voltas Ltd. In there was no direct evidence whether those poods on which the commission had been early also serviced free or on charges by the Compa other goods sold by them in India. It was pointed out that it was the duty of the Com satisfy the Tribunal that it was an extraneous But since the Company failed to place proper of as to servicing of these goods to the satisfaction Tribunal, it was held not to be an extraneon i in the light of the principles laid down above facts of the present case are to be adverted in onus is upon the Company to prove that in rea direct sales by Ashok Leyland to Government quasi-Government undertakings, this Comme no service to render in any manner. Unless proved, I cannot held that the commission can the Company is an extraneous income. Now. turn to the evidence. The main business (Company is that of a main dealership in resp Ashok Leyland chassis and spare parts. It agency of main dealership of Ashok products certain territory. The Company is obviously some loss in their earnings as agents in view direct sales by Ashok. In the case of direct Ashok, the Company is deprived of the makes in the normal course of business. Io pensate that loss, Ashok in its discretion awards riding commission. This earning of commu in the normal course of business. The states overriding commission is Ext. B, and Ex. 1 are the documents which show the amount of a sion earned. Exhibit D shows that in case of vehicles, overriding commission had been gra 25 chassis, though in fact a larger number has sold direct by Ashok to the Ministry of In Be that as it may, whatever commission the Co earned was by way of reimbersement. Apar the fact that the earning arises in the normal of business and is not a fortuitous income or by chance, such earning is not absolutely unco with the efforts of labour. Direct connec labour for the earning of each item of profit be proved. The Company functions within the corners of the Main Dealership Agreement (E. The Director of the Company Shri P. A. Al admits this fact in his evidence before this I In his evidence, he wanted to emphasise times number that in the case of direct sale, the Ci has nothing to do, and the Company has no tion to repair or service goods sold by And nothing to prove that the Company in fact a no service to users of Ashok Leyland charmens and the service to users of Ashok Leyland charmens and the service to users of Ashok Leyland charmens and the service to users of Ashok Leyland charmens are the service to users of Ashok Leyland charmens are the service to users of Ashok Leyland charmens are the service to users of the service to us by servicing or repairing the same or by sak parts to them, even though they may be Got becament undertakings. The Company selected particulars (Ext. F-series), and least one entry which tops Ext. F showing pical Survey of India purchased spare parts 26,77 from this Company. There may be instances of purchase of spare parts company by Government or quasi-Government or q ed by them. Let us now see what are the of the Company, and for this we are to e main dealership agreement. The Comnally a signatory to the agreement, and it uctions within the four corners of the same. is dealership, there are certain obligations this Company. Clause 13 states that the shall canvass the said territory and les of the said products, and for that ploy at his expense salesmen necessary to nighly the said territory as Ashok may cessary. Likewise the main dealer shall b-dealers with the approval of Ashok. sing is a liability upon the Company. To sales of Ashok Leyland chassis and to Government and quasi-Government would also require canvassing, and takings are not excluded from the operamain dealer. Clause 14 costs another ipon the main dealer which is of paraortance and it runs thus:

ain dealer and dealers shall maintain clean nises in a state of good repairs, properly ted and sufficiently large to accommodate tow-room, stock-room, well-equipped and lem repair shop and service station at all s, as required by Ashok. The main er shall also employ at his expense a tic Engineer or Service Engineers to me that all users of Leyland products in territory are assisted adequately to main-such products in sound mechanical condiand to ensure that Warranty Claims ive due attention."

ficant to note that clause 14 enjoins upon dealer an obligation to employ Service ind Engineers to ensure that all users of yland products in his territory are assisted. There is no qualification of the namely, "users of Leyland products" in They certainly include Government and mment undertakings using Leyland kate Transport Organisation may have a ok has a right of direct sale cannot be have their own workshops and arrange-ervicing. Every user of Ashok Leyland exercised by this Company, and if a chased by a corporation or municipality is Company for assistance, the Company led to refuse them any service. The to maintain sufficient staff for such assis-Company is under an obligation to service to all users of Ashok Leyland bether they are sold from the Company or shok. The oral evidence of Shri Abraham that in fact no service had been no spare parts had been sold from the is Company to the users of Ashok who purchased direct from Ashok. Clause 15 lays down an obligation upon the main dealer for advertisement of the said products in his territory. These are several obligations which this Company is to fulfil, and for which the Company maintains an adequate stock of spare parts as the main dealer. These spare parts can be purchased by any user of Ashok. The Company accordingly renders some sort of service for all users of Ashok Leyland, and the overriding commission that is earned by the Company for direct sale by Ashok cannot be said to be unconnected with the efforts of labour. There are sub-dealers under the main dealer, and they also maintains workshop and they are also supposed to render service to all users of Ashok. Shri Abraham wants me to believe that the advertisement of Ashok products was never meant for Government undertakings. This is absurd to believe. It is also absurd to believe that the Ashok Leyland chassis used by Government or quasi-Government undertakings were not serviced by this Company, because whenever there is breakdown one is expected to go to the main dealer who is equipped with proper technical assistance. There is no evidence that Ashok maintains separate workshops or servicing establishments in this territory for the users of Ashok Leyland. Regarding stock of spare parts, in case of sudden breakdown of Ashok Leyland vehicles, be it owned by Government or quasi-Government undertakings or private operators, one would naturally go to the main dealer for getting the spare parts instead of waiting to have the supply from Madras at a special rate. There is likely to be thousands of such cases of urgent breakdown which will not brook the delay of supply from Madras. Having considered all the facts and circumstances, I conclude that the earning of overriding commission is not unconnected with the efforts of labour, and the Company has failed to discharge the onus in this respect. It is not an extraneous income, which should be deducted from the gross profits.

The Company also contends that the dividend of Rs. 132 is an extraneous income. There is nothing to show that this dividend was not earned during the year 1962. In the absence of any evidence as to how this dividend was earned, I am not going to accept the contention that it was an extraneous income. It being a small amount, the parties do not have much quarrel over this.

The Company has claimed normal rehabilitation charges for the year 1962. The amount of such claim is Rs. 14,703. The basis of calculation is rather peculiar. Rehabilitation charge is to be claimed in a particular manner as laid down in the ACC case. The original formula 'undoubtedly refers to replacement, rehabilitation and modernisation of the plants and machineries. The object of providing depreciation of wasting assets is to recoup the original capital invested in the purchase of such assets. But the amount of depreciation which is allowed under the formula can hardly cover the probable cost of replacement. That is why the formula has recognised the industry's claim for rehabilitation in addition to the admissible depreciation. Thereafter the judgment in the ACC case runs thus:

"Since the second world war prices of industrial plant and machinery have registered a continuous upward rise and its inevitable consequence has been a proportional rise in the claim for rehabilitation. In considering the claim for rehabilitation it is first necessary to divide the blocks into plant and machinery on the one hand and other assets like buildings, roads, railway-sidings, etc., on the other. Then the cost of these separate blocks has to be estimated. Once this estimate is made it becomes possible to anticipate approximately the year when the plant or machinery would need replacement; and it is the probable price such replacement on a future date that ultimately decides the amount to which the employer is entitled by way of replacement cost. This problem can be considered itemwise where the industry does not own too many factories and itemwise study of the plant and machinery is reasonably possible; but if the industry owns several factories and the number of plants and machines is very large, it would be difficult to make a study of the replacement costs itemwise and in such a case the study has to be blockwise. In either case what the Tribunal has to estimate is the probable cost of replacement of plant and machinery at the time when such replacement would become due. It would be clear that the decision of this question would inevitably depend upon several uncertain factors. The estimate about the probable life of the plant and machinery is itself to some extent a matter of guess-work and any anticipation, however intelligently made, about the probable trend of prices during the intervening period would be nothing but a guess. That is how, in the determination of this problem, several imponderables face the Tribunals."

The Company has not followed the above procedure nor has it placed evidence on the particulars enumerated by the Hon'ble Supreme Court. In view of the absence of evidence, the claim for rehabilitation shall be disallowed for this year.

Now I will consider the Company's claim for return on reserves and surpluses. The Company claims return on this score at 4 per cent. The amount of reserve and surplus of the Company is Rs. 64,160. Rs. 20,000 had been reserve funds, Rs. 20,000 and odd as development rebate reserve and Rs. 24,000 and odd had been taken from the profit and loss account of the year 1961. Now the question is whether this fund had been utilised as working capital throughout the year in order to earn a return on the same. The onus is upon the Company to prove this. The Company has filed statement of Bank Account (Ext. i-series) and also examined its Accountant Secretary Shri A. S. Guha (O.P.W. 3). The Chartered Accountant of the Company Shri S. Mukherjee (O.P.W. 2) was also examined. He states that the amount of reserve was amalgamated with the other funds of the Company and was utilised as working capital during the year 1962. He wants to say this, because there is no specific or earmarked investment against this reserve. He further adds that the huge bank overdrafts drawn by the Company would show that whatever funds including reserves which the Company had were fully utilised as working capital. It is significant to note that the amount of reserves and surpluses are not invested anywhere. There had been drafts carrying high rate of interest pany had money of its own, why borrowings of such huge amount 1 of current assets and current liabilities working capital. It is Rs. 5 lakhs as appear from pages 11 and 12 of the The amounts of reserve and surplus were with the other funds of the Company, amount was utilised in the business do not appear to have been invested side the business. From the evide Chartered Accountant Shri Mukherjee, conclude that the amounts of reserve have been utilised as working capital de 1962, and as such it should earn a re cent. The claim of the Company on fair and I should concede to this allow the Company return at 4 per reserves and surplus employed in the the figure works out at Rs. 2,567.

The Company also claims a return at Rs. 5,39,025 received as advance fro It is contended that this amount of utilised as working capital, and as such is entitled to a return thereon. I as claim is not justified. This amount received from the customers is a part of price paid as advance to the Com customers, and it cannot be treated on t ing as reserves and surpluses. Moreove earn a return, it must be that this amou able at the beginning of the year and w working capital throughout the ye capital is calculated by deducting cun from the current assets at the end of 1 it is about Rs. 5 lakhs. The amount itself exceeds the amount of working end of the year. It would be absurd t this was a part of the working capita utilised throughout the year as such. It of evidence of such utilisation and a reasons I have already given, the Co entitled to any return on this advance.

The next item of prior charge is notion which is calculated by the Company at of the gross profits less depreciation. representative for the union contends to profits should be diminished not only by but also by development rebate reserve. The amount of development rebate is a reserve to supplement the depreciation but a provision on account of that being so, the gross profits should by the amount of depreciation as well a of development rebate reserve for that put the figures in a tabular form as un

The Union sims four months' wages as bonus for the year 162. The admitted position is that one month's ages representing the figure of Rs. 35,508 had ready been paid as bonus. Accordingly, four onths' wages would come to Rs. 1,42,032. If mus for four months' wages is given, it will take may almost the entire available surplus, and very ittle would be left behind for capital and industry. I would accordingly award three months' wages as sonus to the workmen, and the figure works out at its 1,06,524. The Company will be left with an available surplus of Rs. 80,000 with which the equirement of the industry and capital may be met. The Company has already distributed to its workmen onus equivalent to one month's wages representing he sum of Rs. 35,508. The Company would accordingly pay further bonus equivalent to two nonths' wages to the workmen.

This is my award in respect of the bonus claim for he year 1962 payable in 1963, and it should be mplemented within 30 days of its publication in the Calcutta Gazette."

For the Union: .Shri Anadi Das, President, Howrah Small Factories Workers' Union.

For the Company: None.

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act arising out of Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 3643-LR./IR/10L-114(A)/64, dated the 19th August 1964. The parties are Messrs. Kanailal Singh and Nandalal Adhikary, 91-Q Road, Dasnagar, Howrah, and their workmen represented by the Howrah Small Factories Workers' Union, c/o Anadi Das, M.L.A., Dasnagar, Howrah. The issue is as follows:

Whether the refusal of employment to the following workmen from 18th December 1963 is justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?

- 1. Shri Santosh Kumar Naskar.
- 2. Shri Mahadev Naskar.
- 3. Shri Pashupati Koley.
- 4. Shri Gour Chandra Naskar.
- 5. Shri Dhani Das.
- 6. Shri Sudarshan Majhi.
- 7. Shri Lakshman Khotta.

- 12. Shri Hiru Naskar.
- 13. Shri Krishnapada Sardar.

After due notices the Union appeared and submitted its written statement. The employers filed an application for time to submit written statement but, ultimately, no written statement was filed. Today was fixed for hearing of the case.

The case of the Union, in short, is that 13 workmen mentioned in the order of reference were unlawfully laid-off by the employers from 16th December 1963 to 17th January 1963. Thereafter the workmen went to join their duties but they were not given work and were further laid-off for two weeks by verbal order. After the expiry of these two weeks the workers were told that they were laid-off for another week. After this period also these workers were not given work. It has been alleged that the workers went to the factory but they had not been given any work. The matter was referred to the Assistant Labour Commissioner but in the conciliation proceedings the Company did not appear. However, this matter was referred to the Tribunal for adjudication of the dispute.

Today when the case was called for hearing, none on behalf of the employers was present. The Union examined one witness and produced some documents which have been marked exhibits. P.W. 1 is Santosh Kumar Naskar, one of the workmen mentioned in the order of reference. His case is that for the last one year and a half, more or less, they have not been given any work. They were laud-off. The workmen attended the factory every day during the perior of lay-off. After the period of lay-off they were not given any work whatsoever. He has stated that his employers have closed down the business. The evidence of P.W. 1 shows that the workmen approached the Union, and the Union espoused their cause.

Nobody has come forward from the side of the employers to contest the proceedings. Exhibit 1 s the copy of the letter sent by the Union to the Assistant Labour Commissioner stating the facts of the case. The letters of the Labour Officer will show that the employers were invited at the joint conference. The evidence shows that the workmen were unreasonably laid-off from 16th December 1963 without any just reason. The evidence further shows that the employers have closed down the business and in order to avoid the workers resorted to a colourable lay-off. The Company did not make any provision to give compensation to the workers. This conduct on the part of the employers is mala fide and improper. The facts and circumstances show that the workmen in question are entitled to compensation under section 25FFF(1) of the Industrial Disputes Act. Their conpensation in the following data:

In view of my findings above, it has been proved that the employers Messrs. Kanailal Singh and Nandalal Adhikary closed down the business on all from 16th December 1963 and that the workness mentioned in the order of reference shall be entitled to get the compensation as indicated above accepting to the data mentioned above. The compensation shall be paid by the employers within a most from the date of publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette".

nion in its written statement alleges the facts. Shri R. K. Pathak was appointed as on 27th October 1959. He indulged in tivities and incurred the displeasure of the thereby. He received a charge-sheet on ober 1963 accusing him of careless and performance of his duty as a driver, and a reply thereto denying the charges. An vas held on 5th November 1963 and in ace of that enquiry his service was d by a letter, dated 10th December 1963. rkman had been performing his duties diligently and sincerely, and the accident the charge-sheet was not due to his . The departmental enquiry is impugned and the workman prays for reinstatement round that the order of discharge is illegal : fide.

mpany filed a written statement in which mitted that Shri Pathak, the workman conas appointed as a driver on 27th October he service rendered by Shri Pathak was not isfactory. He was convicted and penalised tion of the traffic rules under the Motor Act. He was served with a charge-sheet on ober 1963 for careless and inefficient perof his duties as a driver. A reply was the workman on 12th October 1963. The ent held an enquiry on 5th November 1963. esquiry, the charge was proved and the was found guilty of misconduct of serious nature, for which he was discharged from service on 10th December 1963.

Decision

Admittedly, the workman, Shri Pathak was discharged from service on 10th December 1963 on the ground of gross misconduct. The misconduct arises in the following manner. Shri Pathak was working as a driver of the Company. On 10th October 1963 he was served with a charge-sheet (Ext. A). The charge-sheet speaks about three events: (1) he violated the traffic rules on six occasions, (2) the Company's car which was driven by him on 21st August 1963 met with an accident resulting in damage to the car, and (3) on 1st October 1963 when the car was driven by him with two passengers it met with an accident due to his careless driving causing serious damage to the car. The workman's reply to the charge-sheet is Ext. A/1. With regard to the first two charges, Shri Pathak, the workman concerned, replied by saying that he had explained previously about those charges to the satisfaction of the management. With regard to the third charge, he added that the accident in which the car was involved was not due to any rash or negligent driving on his part; the car was driven at a slow speed, but a lorry coming from the opposite direction with head lights on with a great speed rashly collided with the right side of the rear mudguard of the car. That lorry was at tault for the accident, and he was not at all responsible for that. There was an enquiry held by Shri G. D. Mukherjee, who was examined before the Tribunal as well. The enquiry proceeding is Ext. B. Exhibit B/2 is the finding of the Enquiring Officer. On the side of the Union, the enquiry is challenged as opposed to the principles of natural justice and unfair. The workman, however, attended the enquiry, and it is contended that the Enquiring Officer at the outset of the enquiry subjected Shri Pathak to severe crossexamination and put leading questions to him at the outset. It will appear from Ext. B that the Enquiring Officer at the outset of the enquiry started examining Shri Pathak. He put questions to Shri Pathak, who gave reply to the same. The contents of the charge-sheet were virtually put to him. I cannot say that this is a close cross-examination of Shri Pathak. The questions were only regarding the plea of Shri Pathak on several heads of the charge and connected facts. Thereafter, Mr. McCoubrey was examined and he was cross-examined by Shri Pathak. Last of all, Mr. Hamilton was examined by the Enquiring Officer and he was cross-examined by Shri Pathak. From page 6 of the enquiry proceedings it will appear that after cross-examination of Mr. McCoubrey the enquiry was concluded. There is show that at the conclusion of Shri Pathak was told that he nothing to the enquiry Shri Pathak was told that could make a statement himself and opportunities to examine witness on his behalf.
Unless such a question is put to Shri Pathak, he cannot be expected to have the knowledge of his right to make a statement and produce witnesses on his behalf at the enquiry. It is true that the Enquiring Officer at the outset addressed Shri Pathak by saying that during enquiry he would be given every reasonable opportunity to defend himself, to produce evidence and witness, etc. was the address of the Enquiring Officer to Shri Pathak at the outset of the enquiry. It was still the duty of the Enquiring Officer, after the close of the Company's evidence, to ask Shri Pathak to make a statement himself and examine witness if he so liked and offer him opportunities for doing the same. The enquiry suffers from this infirmity. Moreover, it has got to be seen whether the findings of the Enquiring Officer are supported by materials on record, or whether the findings are baseless and perverse. The Tribunal will not sit in appeal over the decision of the domestic enquiry, but it would interfere only in the following cases:

- 1. when there had been want of good faith,
- 2. when there is victimisation or unfair labour practice,
- when the management is guilty of basic error or violation of the principles of natural justice,
- when on the materials, the finding is completely baseless and perverse.

In the instant case, regarding points 1 and 2 above, there is no evidence that owing to Union activities, Shri Pathak was victimised or the Company resorted to unfair labour practice in discharging him. In the present case, points Nos. 3 and 4 may be attracted. If there is some evidence on which the Enquiring Officer relied in coming to his conclusion, it would not be open to the Tribunal to replace the judgment of the Enquiring Officer by that of its own. If there is complete absence of evidence and the finding is perverse, then and then only the Tribunal can interfere. With regard to the charges of violation of the traffic rules, no opportunity was given to Shri Pathak to defend him, and also no action was taken by the management when those instances of violation arose. Shri Pathok in his written reply stated that he had been excused for those offences. The same comment applies to the second item of charge, i.e., accident on 21st August 1963. From the mere fact of accident, no inference can be made that the workman Pathak was guilty of negligence or carelessness in his driving. With regard to item No. 2, there is no evidence that the accident was due to careless driving of Shri Pathak. I should, therefore, discuss the third item of charge more closely, i.e., the accident was October 1963. The charge is that this accident was due to carcless driving on the part of Shri Pathak. The charge itself is careless and inefficient performance of duty. Let us see from the enquiry proceed-ing if there is any evidence to support the charge of careless driving on the part of the workman. It will appear from the evidence of Mr. Hamilton and Mr. Mccoubrey, who were riding in the car, that from the opposite side a lorry came with head lights on. Shri Pathak (driver of the car) moved over to the left side of the road, but the lorry hit the back right-hand rear mudguard of the car. The lorry which was coming with head lights on obviously dazzled the eyes of the driver Shri Pathak. There is no evidence that Shri Pathak was driving the car rashly or at a high speed. On seeing the lorry, the driver of the car (Shri Pathak) swerved to the left thereby avoiding a head-on collision. It may be that Shri Pathak's assessment of the safe pace lying to his left was not very accurate, as in such circumstances no mathematical accuracy can be expected of a driver. What Shri Pathak did was the proper thing which he could do. From the evidence of the two witnesses, nothing transpires to show that Shri Pathak was negligent and careless a Pathak was negugent and careless n in There is complete absence of evidence of carelessness on the part of Shri Patha contrary, the lorry driver with head the rear mudguard of this car. it was the lorry because the stop the stop the rear muguate of the lorry before to rear of the car. I do not find any evident that the driver of the car Shri Pathal that the driver of the car statement of the car stateme or negligent. The mere statement of that he was careless will not be subset lessness or negligence must fallow from the stances in which the accident took circumstances do not permit an inferne clusion that Shri Pathak was careles or in his driving. There was no police care matter, nor does the Company produce and as to what was the extent of the damage of I am unable to hold that from the artis negligence of driving on the part of should be inferred or concluded. Since no materials to support the charge of negligent driving, I may say that the find verse and erroneous. Before the Tribut no evidence to prove carelessness or negligence and carelessness in driving megligence and carelessness or negligence and carelessness in driving megligence and carelessness and ca charge was not proved, the order of discharge was not proved, the order of discharge was not proved. The workman is accordingly entitled to reinstaturate back wages and continuity of service.

Whether the dismissal of Shri Shiba Prasad Singh, T/No. 2202, is iustified? What relief, if any, is he entitled to?

re parties appeared in this case and submitted written statements. The case of the Bhartia Sramik Union (hereinafter described as the m), in short, is that Shri Shiba Prasad Singh, a man of the Bhartia Electric Steel Co. Ltd. inafter referred to as the Company), was resheeted on false allegations, that there was no er enquiry against him and that he was ultily dismissed malaciously by way of victimisa-

e Company, on the other hand, has stated in its en statement that Shri Shiba Prasad Singh was enly chargesheeted, that a proper enquiry was on the principle of natural justice and affording runities to him for his self-defence and that the r of dismissal was bona fide and proper. It has alleged that it was not a case of victimisation mair labour practice.

E Union examined four witnesses and the Comexamined as many as nine witnesses. Several ments have been exhibited on both the sides.

is first question raised from the side of the Comis whether the present dispute is an industrial ste. The Company wants to say that the Union to the recognised Union by the Company and the Union does not represent the workmen. It is the Vice-President of the Union. His face is that in 1963 the number of the members the roll was 621, and in March 1964 the total ber of the members was 625. In support of this ment Annual Returns have been filed. Exhibit the Annual Return prescribed under section 29 of the Indian Trade Unions Act for the year ending. on 31st March 1963. According to this statement the total number of the members is 621. Exhibit 1(a) is the return for the year ending on 31st March 1964 and in this return the total number of members shown as 625. Exhibit H is the Membership Register of the Union. From the evidence of P.W.I. it is clear that Exhibit H is not the original register of membership. It has been prepared from the original register. This register is for the year 1964-65. The total number of members shown in this register is 593. It is also clear from the evidence of P.W.1 and also from Exhibit H itself that there have been some mistakes in the names of the members and the mistakes have not been reasonably explained. The mistakes are, however, not many. According to the Company there are about 2,500 or 3,000 workmen of the Company in the factory. is also admitted that there is another Union in the factory of the Company known as Bhartia Iron & Steel Workers' Union. The contesting Union, however, is not recognised by the Company. It is to be noted that as against the evidence adduced on the side of the Union. the Company does not adduce any evidence to indicate the strength of the Union. Nobody on the side of the Company says that the strength of the Sramik Union is insignificant. On consideration of the oral evidence as well as Annual Returns submitted by the Union, I hold that the Union has on its roll not less than 600 members from amongst the workmen of the Company. Even if it is accepted that there are about 2,500 or 3,000 workmen of the Company, the contesting Union has an appreciable number of workmen as its members. In this view of this matter, I hold that the Union before me has locus standi to represent the workmen of the Company.

The next question is whether the present dispute an industrial dispute or an individual dispute. Admittedly, the Union is pursuing the dispute from the very start. Moreover, P.W.1 has stated that the matter of Shri Singh's dismissal was discussed in the meeting of the Executive Committee of the Union. Exhibit 5 is the minutes book to show the proceedings of the meeting. According to P.W.1, the meeting of the Executive Committee which discussed Shri Singh's case was held in August 1963. The minutes of the meeting held on 27th August 1963 will show that the Union took up the case of Shri Singh who had been dismissed by the Company. On consideration of the materials before me, I have got no hesitation to hold that the Union espoused the cause of Shri Singh and treated the dispute as industrial dispute. I cannot, therefore, accept the contention of the Company that the present dispute is an individual dispute and not an industrial dispute. The first contention of the Company, therefore, fails.

The next question that arises for consideration is whether Shri Singh was duly chargesheeted and whether a proper enquiry was made against him. The chargesheet is Exhibit A. There is no dispute about service of the chargesheet on Shri Singh. The reply to the chargesheet submitted by Shri Singh is Exhibit B. There is no dispute before me that notices about enquiry were served on Shri Singh. It is also admitted before me that Shri Singh attended the enquiry and he was allowed to get assistance from one Bijoy Krishna Ambali, an official of the Union. The records of the proceedings of the enquiry have been marked Exhibit D, and the report of the enquiring officer is marked Exhibit D/1. The chargesheet has been attacked from the side of the Union on the ground that although it has been stated in the chargesheet that the enquiry conducted into the case of Sitaram Singh had revealed the reasons to believe that Shri Singh was responsible for the missing of the cutter of Machine No. H.M.T. I on account of his gross negligence or of his connivance and complacency in the matter, the copies of the records of that enquiry were not supplied to Shri Singh along with the chargesheet. The evidence shows that Shri Singh before submitting the explanation did not ask for the copies of the records of the enquiry against Sitaram Singh. Simple non-supply of the records of the proceedings does not, however, vitiate the chargesheet. The question would be whether Shri Sitaram Singh had proper opportunity to defend his case for not supplying those records at the proper time. The charge cannot be called vague as characterised by the learned Advocate on behalf of the Union.

It has next been contended from the side of the Union that the records of the enquiry held against Shiba Prosad Singh were concocted and unreliable and that Shri Singh was not offered reasonable opportunity to defend himself at the enquiry. The records of the proceedings, Exhibit D, are all typed. O.P.W.8, Sunil Bose, works in the Labour Department of the Company. His evidence is that he recorded the proceedings of the domestic enquiry against Shibaprosad Singh under the direction of Shri Chowdhury, the enquiring officer. He has stated that he recorded the proceedings in his own handwriting. He wants to say that there is practice in the Company that immediately after the enquiry the hand-written records are typed out and thereafter signatures of the witnesses and the parties are taken on the typed document. His evidence is that in the present case Exhibit D was typed out on the basis of the hand-written records. From his evidence it appears that Exhibit D was prepared not on the day of enquiry but on the following day. According to the witness the signatures were obtained on 19th July 1963. Exhibit D shows that the enquiry was concluded on 17th July 1963 and that the enquiring officer himself put his signature on Exhibit D on 23rd July 1963. I cannot, therefore, accept P.W.8 as truthful or reliable witness. Shri Ambali was allowed to represent Shri Shibaprosad Singh at the enquiry. Signature of Shri Ambali does not appear on Exhibit D. From the evidence I have no manner of doubt in my mind to hold that signatures of the witnesses and the delinquent were not taken before 23rd July 1963. The enquiring officer has not come forward to depose in support of the enquiry. There is no evidence worth the name which may prove that the Company tried its best to find him out and to bring him before this Tribunal. P.W.8 has further stated that Shri Chowdhury, the enquiring officer, destroyed the original hand-written records. If the records of the proceedings of enquiry were prepared in hand-writing, I find no reason why they should be destroyed or typed records should be prepared. The hand-written records were prepared on the spot and at the time of enquiry. The signatures of the witnesses and the parties could have been taken on the records on the spot and in that case there would have been little scope for altering the records or tampering with the same in any way. In the circumstances of this case, I cannot accept Exhibit D as the faithful records of process the enquiry held against Shiba Prosad Single enquiry against Shri Singh was not held following the principles of natural justice.

There is another point to be considered in a tion with the enquiry. Shri Das Chowdhury is Union submitted that the report of the officer was perverse and unacceptable. It that the enquiry officer took cognizence some and of the enquiry held against Sitaram Singh and on them to some extent. It does not appear on them to some extent. It does not appear further that Shiba Prosad Singh. It does appear further that Shiba Prosad Singh. It does appear further that Shiba Prosad Singh. It does appear further that Shiba Prosad Singh was records for his self-defence. I should say the enquiring officer acted improperly in consist the records of the enquiry held against San Singh. I cannot say that the findings of the entire officer were reasonable or without properly based upon some materials not properly broads a record at the enquiry held against Shir Shiba has Singh. The report of the enquiring officer is the unacceptable and perverse.

In this connection it has been argued from side of the Company that in an application section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Are Tribunal approved of the action taken by the Copany against Shiba Prosad. My attention has drawn to Exhibit F, the order passed on 31st 1964 in connection with the proceedings section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Ac. 2 has been streneously argued that in this order Tribunal held that there was no case of victimation or unfair labour practice and that the order de missal was proper. It should be remembered to the order passed in a proceeding under state 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act cannot be availed of as an instrument of res judicata in a property of the instrument of the state of the st ceeding under section 10 of the Industrial Disput Act. It is the accepted principle of law that order is passed under section 33(2)(b) on a present facie proof. Of course, it has been admitted in the side of the Company that though strictly passing Exhibit F cannot be the basis of respectively. I consider Exhibit F only to see that a supposed was accorded on prime facie evidence. approval was accorded on that case and nothing else. The issue involved at present case is open at large and the parties are is to adduce evidence on that point. I am to cossi in the ppresent case the evidence adduced before and to see whether the dismissal of Shiba Pro Singh was legal and proper. My mind should not biased on account of the findings of the fact at case under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disput

In view of my findings above, that the capined by the Company against Shiba Prosad Salvas improper, that no reasonable opportunity given to Shri Singh for his defence and that findings of the enquiring officer were pervent without any proper basis, I should now consider myself on the evidence on record whether the description of the series of the ser lompany has examined some witnesses to te the charge against Shiba Prosad. is Ram Ayodhya Singh who works in the Shop Department. His evidence is that he ual labourer and that Shiba Prosad Singh o supervise his work. He has spoken about sof cutter of Machine No. H.M.T.1. He soap from Sitaram to clean his hands n asked him to wait so that they could go er to clean their hands. O.P.W.5 has stated at that time Shibaprosad appeared there and Staram to take out the cutter from H.M.T. pe No. 1. The witness has further asserted itaram left the place and took out the cutter the machine. He has also stated that Shibatold Sitaram to keep the cutter in Almirah. witness has further stated that the cutter of [.l is not usually kept in the almirah. Sitaram V.6. He has stated that Shibaprosad used to use his work. His evidence is that on 14th 1963 at about 4-10 p.m. he was cleaning his ne when Shri Ayodhya came and wanted soap. n asked him to wait and at that time Shibacame and asked him to remove the cutter Thereafter he the Machine No. H.M.T.1. ed the cutter and under the instruction mosad he kept the cutter in the almirah. He ated that Shibaprosad was a superior officer. day at about 4-30 p.m. he left the factory.

n has stated that at that time Shiba Prosad near the almirah. Sitaram has asserted that Prosad did not work on Machine No. Capstain that day. During cross-examination he has which he was cleaning the machine. O.P.W.7 Foreman-in-Charge of Machine Shop. He has that Shipprosad was Checker-cum-Setter. His to shows further that Capstain Machine No. 8 was not working on 14th May 1963. This witness has clearly stated that on his recommendation Shiba Prosad got promotion to the post of Checker-cum-Setter and as such he was working in the indirect incentive bonus scheme on account of his work of supervision. From this witness we also get that persons who actually work on the machine are in the direct incentive bonus scheme. O.P.W.9 is the Supervisor of the Machine Shop. He has proved the job-cards in respect of Shiba Prosad and they have been marked collectively Exhibit L. Admittedly, entries made in these cards in pencil were in the hand-writing of Shiba Prosad himself. It has been argued from the side of the Union that Shiba Prosad was a simple Turner and manual labourer and that as he had no supervisory power, there was no occasion for him to direct Sitaram to remove the cutter from machine and to place it in the almirah. Besides the oral evidence to prove that Shiba Prosed had supervisory power or duty as Checker-cum-Setter. the hand-writing of Shiba Prosad himself in the cards marked Exhibit L will prove that he was a Setter and not a simple Turner. In these cards Shiba Prosad has described himself as Setter. fact that Shiba Prosad was a Setter has been completely denied at the time of hearing. Clearly, Shiba Prosad has not made straightforward and correct statements before this Tribunal. He has also admitted that he gets the benefit of indirect incentive bonus scheme. The evidence further shows that those who work as manual labourers on the machine are connected with the direct incentive bonus scheme and those who are in supervisory position are connected with indirect incentive bonus scheme.

Admittedly, Shiba Prosad gets the benefit of indirect incentive bonus scheme. It has been proved that Shiba Prosad was a Checker-cum-Setter having duty of supervision over the manual labourers like Sitaram, Ram Ayodhya and others. I have minutely considered the evidence of Sitaram and Ram Ayodhya and I verily believe them as truthful witnesses. The evidence of Shiba Prosad I do not consider as reliable and acceptable. He took up the case of alibi. He wanted to say that on 14th May 1963 he was in the Welding Department and that he could not have directed Sitaram to remove the cutter at about 4 or 4-15 p.m. During cross-examination he has stated that the Supervisor asked him to get a bolt repaired from the Welding Department at about 3-15 p.m. and that he remained in the Welding Department for about 15 minutes. According to O.P.W.5 and O.P.W.6, Shiba Prosad asked Sitaram to remove the cutter at about 4 or 4-15 p.m. and at about that time the cutter was placed in the almirah. According to the evidence of Shiba Prosad, at about 4 or 4-15 p.m. he was not in the Welding Department. I cannot also believe Shiba Prosad when he said that he was working on Machine No. 8. The evidence shows that the Machine No. 8 was not working on that day. According to the evidence the usual practice is that the cutter is to be taken from the store and after the working hours it has got to be deposited in the store again. Shiba Prosad being in the supervisory position abused his power and with some ulterior motive he asked Sitaram over whom he had authority in course of his duty, to remove the cutter and ultimately got it placed in the almirah. The evidence further shows that at about 4-30 p.m. Shiba Prosad was found near the almirah. This has been clearly stated by O.P.W.6. It has been proved by convincing evidence before me that Shiba Prosad got the cutter of Machine No. H.M.T.1. removed through Sitaram to the almirah and from that almirah the cutter disappeared. This action of Shiba Prosad was against the practice of the factory and to use the mildest words, the missing of the cutter was due to gross neglect of work of Shiba Prosad. It would not be unreasonable to hold that the action of Shiba Prosad was with some ulterior motive and that he was responsible for the loss of the cutter, a property of the Company. I find that Shiba Prosad was guilty of the charge framed against him and that his dismissal was proper.

The order of dismissal is Exhibit E. He was offered one month's wages as a reference was pending before this Tribunal. The order of dismissal was not mala fide. The case of victimisation or unfair labour practice, set up by the Union, is rejected. Shiba Prosad Singh is not entitled to any relief as his dismissal has been found justified on merit.

The Government of West Bengal, Labor ment by its No. 3963-L.R./IR/10L-169/4. Calcutta, the 3rd September 1964, has reinflustrial dispute between Messrs. Philip Ltd. and their workmen represented by the Sramik Union for adjudication. The only intained in the order of reference is:—

Is the dismissal of Shri A. K. Bag justing what relief, if any, is he entitled?

This is a reference under section 10 of the trial Disputes Act. Shri A. K. Bag. an con Messrs. Philips (India) Ltd. in the factory at Road was dismissed by the Company by a dated 9th March 1964. The Union in there statement characterises this dismissal as win The father of Ajit Bag bcame seriously absented from duty since 24th January 1941 27th January 1964 an application for leave was praying for 15 days' leave with effect from January 1964. He was asked to produce certificate by the Company and he complete that request. He could not join on 8th fe 1964 for the same reason and on 10th February extension of leave was applied for 15 days he could not join on 24th February 1964 but for further extension of leave for two or three The Company never rejected any of the application for leave but kept them pending and suddenly at March 1964 terminated the service of Shri ket effect from 24th January 1964. This termina service is mala fide and is opposed to the produce of natural justice. There is no enquiry may charge sheet against the workman. The work had no opportunity to answer his absence prope The termination is accordingly unjustified.

The Company filed a written statement whe it was contended that the service of Shri Bay terminated in terms of the Standing Orders of (b)(4)(a) of section 'C' of the Certified Stan Orders of the Company. He absented without mission for more than eight days and that is ground of his termination of service.

On 30th March 1965 when the case was calls for hearing a written statement filed by the (pany on the previous day was moved for accept of the Tribunal. It raises the point of jurisdi involving a decision as to whether it is an industry dispute or not. No such written statement been filed earlier and the Union is ready with dence for final hearing of the case. In the said circumstances the written statement filed moved today cannot be accepted. The compought to have filed such written statement involved decision on facts earlier. The additional was statement is accordingly rejected and the case heard.

Authorities as directed but Bag was not given any opportunities of explaining the circumstances which stood in the way of production of such a certificate. Suddenly on 27th February 1964 the Company writes to Shri Bag to say that he was to explain within 48 hours why his services would not be terminated, under clause (b)(4) of section 'C' of the certified Standing Orders of the Company. That letter is Ext. 1(7). It is significant to note that at no stage the Company wrote to Shri Bag stating that his application for leave stood rejected. Thereafter this letter Ext. 1(7) was received by Shri B. g on 5th March 1964, which is dated 27th February 1964. Shri Bag wrote to the management explaining the circumstances and this letter is Ext. 1(8), dated 6th March 1964. The Company did not even consider that reply nor give him any opportunities of defending his case but issued a letter terminating the service of Shri Bag with effect from 24th January 1964. That letter was issued on 9th March 1965, it is Ext. 1(10). These are the circumstances leading to the termination of service of Shri Bag. At no stage the Company rejected the application for leave presented by Shri Bag at different stages. Exerything was kept sub-judice and the workmen were given to understand that his applications were being duly considered but suddenly the workman was put out of employment by a letter on the ground that he absented without permission for more than eight calendar days. In fact there was no absence on the part of the workman "without permissible" for more than eight days. Whenever an application is put in within 8th day of absence, such application must either be disposed of by rejecting the same or granting the leave. The absence during which no such action is taken cannot be deemed to be absence without permission. That being the view which I have taken, the absence of the workmen does not come within the mischief of section 'C' clause (b)(4) of the Standing Orders of the Company. The workman in the aforesaid circumstances cannot be deemed to have left the service of the Company in terms of the above standing orders. The relevant sub-clause cannot be invoked to presume that the workman had left the service of his own accord. The order of termination which is in substance an order of dismissal is opposed to the provisions of the Standing orders quoted in the letter of termination. The workman was dismissed without any charge-sheet, without any opportunities being given to him of showing cause and without any enquiry or findings adverse to him. Such order must be held to be unjustified. The workman is accordingly entitled to be reinstated in service with all the privileges and continuity of service and is also entitled to the wages for the period of his unemployment.

This is my award.

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. India Automobiles, 2 Justice Chandra Madhab Road, Calcutta-20, and their workmen represented by Engineering Mazdoor Union, 292|7 Upper Chitpur Road, Calcutta-5. (Case No. 148 of 1963.)

Present:

Shri K. P. MUKHERJI, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Company: Shri K. K. Moitra, Vice-President, Assam, West Bengal, Orissa and Bihar Employers' Association.

Present for the Union: Shri D. L. Sen Gupta, Advocate and Shri Anil Das Choudury, Advocate.

This industrial dispute between Messrs. India Automobiles and their workmen was referred to this Tribunal under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act by Government Order No. 3067-1.R. IR | 10L-240 | 62, dated the 1st August 1963, for adjudication upon the following issues:

- (1) Whether the dismissal of the following workmen is justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?
  - Shri J. C. Bhattacharji, (2) Shri K. K. Chakraborty, (3) Shri L. K. Sinha, (4) Shri Muzibar Rahaman and (5) Shri Durga Das.
- (2) Whether these five workmen would be entitled to any wages for the period of suspension from 12th January 1962 to 17th June 1963, the date of their dsmissal?

Both parties filed their respective written statements and also adduced evidence, both oral and documentary, in support of their respective cases.

The case of the Union as set forth in a statement is as follows:

Messrs. India Automobiles, hereinafter as the Company, is a highly prosperous concern, and it employs about 250 workman paid to the workmen are very low though the of business done by the Company is very The workmen of the Company, with the collective bargaining and for redress of the ances, formed a Union in 1952. The Comp not take in good grace the formation of the and it suddenly stopped annual increment workmen, manual and clerical, in 1961, in result that it created serious discontentment the workmen. The Union submitted a de demands to the Labour Commissioner November 1961. This enraged the Work in of the Company, and he held out threats to of workers who are members of the Union, a to win over another section of workmen by out promises to them. The Assistant Scar the Union requested the Works Manager to m representatives of the Union for a discussion o demands of the workmen, and the latter as the proposal. Some representatives of the met the Works Manager on 11th January 19 they had discussions with him regarding ther of The Works Manager asked the workmen to side the Reception and Customers' Waiting it was a winter night so that he could disc matter with the General Manager Shri R P. over telephone. While the workmen were there, police came there on being informed Works Mangaer. After the arrival of pol workmen realised that the Works Manager true to his words, and they dispersed. Them 12th January 1962 charge sheets were issued the five representatives of the workmen who ! the Works Manager on 11th January 1962, a were suspended forthwith. They replied charge-sheets denying the allegations made them. The Union, under a bona fide appre that there would be no fair and proper enqu the charge-sheets issued against the five w filed a title suit before the Fifth Munsif. Alips obtained an interim injunction against the C The order of injunction was subsequently and the Company deliberately deferred the with some ulterior motive. The Union app the State Government for intervention. Conciliation Officer called meetings on seven but none attended the meetings on behalf Company. Then, after a protracted enqu Company dismissed the five charge-sheeted as a result thereof. The enquiry is alleged to fide, perfunctory, and in violation of the print natural justice. The finding of the enquiring is also said to be perverse and basically wron Union has prayed for reinstatement of the fiv men concerned in this case, with full wages period from the date of their suspension reinstatement.

The Company has filed a written statement to the written statement filed by the Union, Company's case, shortly put, is as below. It pany has also raised preliminary objections the maintainability of the present reference.

ion of the Tribunal to adjudicate on the issue in the reference.

netits the case of the Company is that the five nerio me case organised an illegal tration, confined the officers and created a ituation on 11th January 1962. The situaat out of control, and police had to be called me of the officers. It is alleged that the five n concerned incited the workmen to stage an demonstration on 11th January 1962 in the ne, and a riotous situation was created inside ory. Attempts to persuade the workmen not ge in riotous conduct were of no avail, and the hept some officers confined till midnight, olice came and rescued them. The Company harge-sheets to the five workmen who were ble for the incident on 11th January 1962, y were also suspended pending enquiry. The heeted workmen submitted their replies and an was held into the charge-sheets which were against them. After a prolonged enquiry, the sheeted workers were found guilty by the ring officer, and he submitted a report to the gment accordingly. The management, after a deration of the report of the enquiring officer, fide came to the conclusion about the guilt of harge-sheeted workmen and they were, accorddismissed from service. It is alleged that the p-sheeted workmen were given full opportunity fend themselves at the enquiry, and the enquiry beld in conformity with the principles of natural e, and the action of the management in dismiss. he workmen is bona fide. It is pleaded that the sal of the five workmen concerned in this case ly justified, and they are not entitled to any in this case.

Decision

hall first take up the preliminary objection which een raised on behalf of the Company regarding mintainability of the present reference. It is that the present Union is not competent to up the cause of the five workmen concerned in ase, and the present dispute cannot therefore be d as an industrial dispute under the Industrial tex Act. The contention of the learned ate appearing on behalf of the Company is that agineering Mazdoor Union, which has raised the z, is not a Union of the workmen of Messrs. Automobiles, and is an outside Union, and this 1 cannot take up the cause of the five workmen med in this dispute, as the workmen of Messrs. Automobiles or a group of workmen of this m are not members of this outside Union. It well settled that individual dispute can only werted into an industrial dispute if the cause of cular workman is taken up by a group of workthe are members of a Union of workmen of the n. It is now to be considered whether the tering Mazdoor Union is a Union of workmen asrs. India Automobiles or it is an outside There can be no doubt that if this Union is hide Union, then the present reference is not mable for the simple reason that it has not roved that a section of workmen of Messrs. Automobiles are members of this outside Union. the other hand, it is found that the present is a Union of workmen of India Automobiles, then the reference is maintainable. It is therefore necessary to consider the evidence on this point to come to a decision on the preliminary objection raised by the Company. The evidence of P.W. 1 Kalikanta Chakravorty, who was formerly the Assistant Secretary of the Union, is that about 200 workmen are employed in the factory of the Company, and out of them about 143 workmen are members of the present Union. He has also admitted that there is a register of the members of the Union, and there are counterfoils of receipts granted to the members of the Union on payment of subscriptions. The Union has not produced the documents in support of the statement of P.W. 1. The Union has, however, produced copies of the returns submitted by the Union to the Registrar of the Trade Unions for the years 1962, 1963 and 1964. The present Union is a registered Union, and copies of the returns, Exts. 10, 11 and 12 clearly go to indicate that the Engineering Mazdoor Union is not a general Union of Engineering workers, but a Union of the workers of Messrs. India Automobiles. A copy of the return, Ext. 10, for the year ending on 31st March 1964 shows that the Vice-President, Assistant Secretary of the Union, and all the members of the Executive Committee are employees of Messrs. India Automobiles. The copy of the return, Ext. 11, shows that one of the Vice-Presidents, the Secretary, Assistant Secretary, and all the members of the Executive Committee of the Union are employees of India Automobiles. The copy of the return, Ext. 12, also shows that one of the Vice-Presidents, the Assistant Secretary, the Treasurer, and all the members of the Executive Committee of the Union are employees of India Automobiles. There can thus be little doubt that the Engineering Mazdoor Union which has raised the dispute in the present case is not an outside Union, as contended by the Company, but is a Union of the workmen of Messrs. India Automobiles. The present Union has taken up the cause of the dismissed workmen, and the "individual dispute" has thereby become an "industrial dispute", and the present reference is therefore legally maintainable, as the Union which has raised the dispute is competent to take up the cause of the work-men concerned. The preliminary objection raised on behalf of the Company is therefore overruled.

I now come to the merits of the case. The undisputed facts bearing on the dismissal of the workmen mentioned in issue No. 1 in the reference are these:

These workmen were issued charge-sheets on 12th January 1962 for an alleged misconduct in connection with an incident said to have taken place on 11th January 1962, and they were put under suspension pending enquiry into the charge-sheets issued against them. The charge-sheeted workmen submitted their explanations on 15th January 1962 in which they denied the charges brought against them. Thereafter an enquiry was held and as a result of the enquiry the management came to the conclusion about their guilt. The Union has challenged the order of dismissal of these workmen as mala fide and actuated by a desire for victimising them for their trade union activities. Admittedly, there was an enquiry into the charge sheet, Ext. E. which was issued to these workmen, the charge against them being the same. They submitted explanations to the charge-sheets issued to them, and the reply has been marked Ext. G. The workmen in their replies denied the charge which was brought against them. The eaquiry has been challenged on a variety of grounds and it has been contended that the so-called enquiry is not a fair and proper, enquiry and the finding of the enquiry also appears to be perverse. There is no specific mention of the grounds on which the enquiry is said to be improper and unfair, and all that is stated in pararaph 27 of the written statement of the Union is that the enquiry was intended to harass the charge-sheeted workmen, and was otherwise mala fide, perfunctory and void. In the first place it has been urged that the inordinate delay in conducting the enquiry itself is a ground for holding that the enquiry was not fair and proper. I do not agree with this contention.
The enquiry commenced on 30th January 1962 and it ended on 14th March 1963, and the report of the enquiry was submitted on 10th June 1963. There has no doubt been delay in holding the enquiry, and it cannot be said that the delay was deliberate, and the employer is at fault for this delay. Soon after the workmen were suspended, following the issue of charge-sheets to them, the Union filed a Title Suit in the Fifth Court of Munsif at Alipore, it being T.S. No. 18 of 1962, and obtained an interim order of injunction. The order of injunction was subsequently vacated on 28th May 1962, and the enquiry was resumed. The enquiry had to be adjourned due to non-attendance of witnesses on some dates, and on some dates on other grounds also. The whole enquiry appears to have taken 94 days and there were actual sittings for 62 days. There has no doubt been unusual delay in the matter of holding the enquiry, but I have already said that this delay cannot be solely attributed to the Company, and this delay does not affect the enquiry in any way. It has been held in Bharat Sugar Mill versus Joy Singh, reported in 1961, 21 F.J.R., 118 that even if the employer inordinately delays the enquiry and is not able to satisfactorily explain the delay, it cannot be said that the delay showed even remotely that the employer was guilty of mala fides or intended to victimise. It was, however, pointed out by Their Lordships that in cases of this nature, the enquiry should be held as early as possible, specially when the management takes step of putting the workman under suspension. It is now to be seen whether the enquiry held against the workmen on the materials on record can be held to be a fair and proper enquiry.

Admittedly, there was an enquiry into the charge-sheets which were issued against the five workmen concerned and they participated in the enquiry. The proceedings of the enquiry have been proved and marked Ext. Q. It appears from the proceedings that 13 witnesses were examined by the Company at the enquiry, and two witnesses were examined by the charge-sheeted workmen. The enquiry commenced on 1st October 1962 and ended on 14th March 1963. All the witnesses examined by the Company, except two, were cross-examined by the charge-sheeted workmen were also cross-examined by Shri R. S. Kanoria on behalf of the Company. Subsequently, the charge-sheeted workmen did not attend the enquiry, and at the enquiry was made in their absence. The main ground on which the enquiry has been attacked is that Shri R. S. Kanoria, who was a member of the Cammission of Haquiry, was also examined as a witness at the this fact has vitiated the enquiry. It is a principle of natural justice that a Judge witness in a case. There cannot be any if it is found that Shri R. S. Kanoria was a case. of the Enquiry Commission, and he also the enquiry, then the enquiry cannot be fair and proper and in conformity with the of natural justice. The evidence of the Decruz, O.P.W. 1, who is the Works Manual Conformation of the C Company, is that he alone held the enquiry has denied the suggestion that R. S. Kanonia C. Das were members of the Commission i further stated that S. Ganguly recorded the in shorthand at the enquiry at first, but subit was done by Shri N. C. Das. There & h no note in the enquiry proceedings that S. Ga. N. C. Das recorded the enquiry dictation of O.P.W. 1, as stated by him. As this, P.W. 1, Shri Kalikanta Chakravorty has his oath, and it is stated by him that the Commission consisted of E. L. Decruz, R. S. and Philips, and after Philips had left, N. took his place at the Enquiry Commisse further evidence is that R. S. The version of the on the other hand, is that the workmen, at ition of these five workmen indulged in a behaviour inside the factory, and police called to disperse them. These workmen, to the Company, were guilty of major mis-nder the Standing Orders of the Company they were dismissed. It is in evidence lice officer came to the factory after midthere is no evidence to prove what he saw came to the factory. Some information been given to the police by the Company, formation which was recorded at the Police s also not been proved. It is therefore hold on the uncorroborated statement of that these five workmen incited the other to indulge in a disorderly behaviour inside y, they dispersed on arrival of police and therefore guilty of major misconduct. In astances it must be held that there was no justification for their dismissal, and the heir dismissal cannot be allowed to stand. remains to consider what relief should be hem. The workmen have claimed reinand also back wages from the date of their up to the date of their reinstatement in case issal is found unjustified.

se of wrongful dismissal the normal rule industrial adjudication is that reinstate-lid be ordered. Nevertheless, in unusual or il cases the Tribunal may have to consider the interest of the industry itself it would be or expendient to direct reinstatement. In the parties and cause industrial unrest and statement is likely to contribute conflict the parties and cause industrial unrest and statement is not the proper remedy. In the case, there is no special reason why the der of reinstatement should not be made. To suggestion that reinstatement of these is likely to cause industrial unrest amongst and, or their reinstatement will disturb passa. I therefore, disset the Company.

to reinstate the dismissed workmen involved in this

With regard to wages the normal order, when dismissal is set aside and the dismissed employee is reinstated with continuity of service, is for full wages for the period of unemployment till the date of his reinstatement. The Tribunal may, in appropriate cases, with a view to minimise the loss of the employer and for other considerations, direct payment of a lesser amount. In the instant case it has not been proved that the dismissed workmen were out of employment sance they were dismissed, nor there is any evidence to show that attempts were made by them to secure suitable jobs for them. In the circumstances, I think it will be fair and proper to direct the Company to pay the workmen half the wages for the period of unemployment, i.e., from the date of their dismissal till the date of their reinstatement in services.

Issue No. 2

This issue relates to the question, whether the five workmen are entitled to any wages for the period of their suspension from 12th January 1962 to 17th June 1963, the date of their dismissal. These workmen were suspended simultaneously with the issue of charge-sheets to them on 12th January 1962, and the question is, whether in view of the order for reinstatement they are entitled to wages for the period from the date of their suspension till the date of their dismissal.

It is now well settled that the power to suspend, in the sense of a right to forbid a servant to work, is not an implied term in an ordinary contract between master and servant, and that such power can only be the creature either of a statute governing the contract or of an express term in the contract itself. Ordinarily, therefore, a master has no power to suspend a workman, and even if he does so in the sense that he forbids the employee to work, he will have to pay wages during the period of suspension. This principle has been laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the Hotel Imperial, New Delhi versus Hotel Workers' Union, reported in L.L.J. 1959, Vol. II, p. 544. The Company, in the instant case, has no right to suspend a workman pending enquiry into the charge-sheet issued to him under the certified standing orders. In the absence of such a power the order of suspension simultaneously with the issue of charge-sheets to these five workmen is illegal, and in view of the fact that the order of dismissal of these five workmen has been held unjustified, they are entitled to compensation for the period of suspension.

The question, therefore, that arises is what should be the amount which these five workmen are entitled to get for the period of their suspension pending enquiry. Ordinarily, full wages are allowed to a workman in case his suspension is found improper and unjustified. There is, however, no hard and fast rule that he would be entitled to get full wages for the period of suspension. In the instant case, the five workmen remained suspended for a long time, i.e., for about one and half years, and this long period of suspension cannot be held as due to any fault ore latches on the part of their employer. These workmen, for some unavoidable circumstances, remained suspended, and it does not appear that the management deliberately kept them suspended for this long period with any ulterior motive. In the circumstances, I think it fair and proper that the workmen should be paid half their wages for the period of their suspension. This issue is accordingly disposed of.

The Company is directed to reinstate the five workmen concerned in this case to their previous posts within a month from the date of publication of the award in the "Calcutta Gazette", and also to pay them half their wages for the period from the date of suspension up to the date of their reinstatement in service by the Company. The period of non-employment of these workmen will be treated as special leave with continuity of service.

This is my award.

This complaint which purports to be a section 33A of the Industrial Disputes A has been filed by Phelu Ram Bhattacham others alleging contravention of section 3 Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by their topposite party Messrs. Aluminium Corpo India Ltd.

The original reference out of which this arisen was made under G.O. No. 171-1.R. 214(B)/62, dated 10th January 1963.

The case of the petitioners, shortly state during the pendency of an industrial between the opposite party Company and imen, the petitioners were refused employme Company, and their services were terminate from 20th November 1963, and thereby i vened the provisions of section 33 of the l Disputes Act, 1947. The petitioners have for their reinstatement and full compensation period of their forced non-employment.

The application was opposed by the party Company by filing a written stateme case of the Company, shortly stated, is the has been no violation of section 33 of the libisputes. Act, 1947, and the application conceived and not maintainable in law.

The petitioners, it is alleged, were eng temporary hands for casting work in the and Casting Section, and as the work for w petitioners were temporarily appointed continued, they became surplus and, as a services of these workmen were terminal effect from 21st November 1963 by a rotio 20th November 1963. lalso the petitioners are not entitled to They put in more than one year's service and for good reasons they were retrenched by the Company. It is suggested that they were retrenched only for the reason that they had incurred the displeasure of the employer by pressing their claim for making them permanent. This contention does not appear to be acceptable. There is evidence to show the circumstances under which the services of the petitioners were terminated. The action of the Company appears to be bona fide, and in view of the fact that the Company offered them alternative appointments which, however, they refused to accept, it cannot be said that the Company was actuated by any desire of victimisation in terminating the services of the petitioners. The notice of termination of services of the petitioners was duly published in the notice board of the Company, and this was also reported to the Labour Commissioner. The petitioners were offered one month's wages in lieu of notice and also retrenchment compensation, according to law. There is thus no lack of bona fides on the part of the Company in terminating the services of the petitioners, and it is not colourable exercise of right by the Company. In the circumstances, the petition fails, and the petitioners are not entitled to any relief in this case.

This is my award.

This proceeding arises out of an application under section 33A, Industrial Disputes Act, filed by the workman, Shri Gopal Chandra Santra, complaining that the Company vindictively and illegally kept him under suspension by way of punishment for an indefinite period after the domestic enquiry into the charge-sheet issued to him and without making any decision. It is also alleged that the Company did not comply with relevant provisions of section 33, Industrial Disputes Act, though at the adjudication proceedings of another dispute between the Company and its workmen, referred to this Tribunal by Government Order No. 1662-I.R./IR/8L-16 (B)/62, dated 10th May 1962, were pending.

The Company appeared and submitted its written statement. It denied the allegations made by the concerned workman and supported its action. After necessary preliminary proceedings and some adjournments, the case was finally fixed for hearing on 25th March 1965. But, in the meantime, on 4th March 1965, the Company filed a petition praying for a "no dispute" award along with a letter of the concerned workman to the Company, intimating that instead of keeping the matter pending any further, he was resigning from the Company's service and requesting the Company to accept his resignation. It is stated in the Company's application that after submitting the resignation, the workman had left on taking payment of all his legal dues by settlement.

The Tribunal waited till 25th March 1965, the date already fixed for final hearing of the case, before passing any final order upon the petition. The case was again put up on 25th March 1965. None appeared for the workman to pursue or prosecute his application. In these circumstances, I accept the Company's petition and hold that the workman has resigned from the Company's service and has thereby withdrawn from the dispute covered by the application under section 33A and so there should be a "no dispute" award in the case.

Present:

Shri R BHATTACHARYA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

This reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act sent by the Government of West Bengal under the Labour Department, Order No. 1705-1.R./IR/11L-113(B) 63, dated 2nd May 1964, arises out of an industrial dispute between Messrs Karam Chand Thapar & Bros. Private Ltd., Thapar House, 25 Brabourne Road, Calcutta-I, and their workmen represented by Karam Chand Thapar & Bros Ltd. Employees' Association, 18 Prince Anwar Shah Lane, Calcutta-33. The issues for adjudication are as follows:

- Whether the workmen employed in the canteen are employees of the Company? To what benefits, if any, are they entitled
- Whether the following workmen employees of the Company? To what benefits, if any, are they entitled?
- (1) Lal Chand Sharma, (2) Byas Moni, (3) Ram Samaj, (4) Shri Niwas Singh, (5) Abdul Sukhur and (6) Abdul Ahmed.
- 3. Is the termination of the services of Narayan Ram and Bhailal justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?

The parties duly appeared in this case and submitted their respective written statements. On 23rd September 1964 both the parties submitted a memorandum of settlement with regard to the issue No. 1. No settlement could be arrived at with regard to the remaining issues, and the case has been proceeding for adjudication of those two issues by this Tribunal. 10th May 1965 was fixed for hearing of this case. Today the Company and the Union appear before me and file a memorandum of settlement in respect of issues Nos. 2 and 3. It is submitted by both the sides that an award may be passed on the basis of the memorandum of settlement filed in this case. After hearing the parties I find that the memorandum of settlement filed on 23rd September 1964 and the one filed today are reasonable and fair. The compromise arrived at by the parties regarding the three issues is voluntary and legal. As prayed for by the parties, I pass an award in terms of the memorandum of settlement filed by the parties on 23rd September 1964 and the one filed today which shall form part hereof.

issue

er the termination of employment of Shri kshman Mah is justified? To what relief, if the entitled?

a reference under section 10 of the Indusputes Act. Shri Ram Lakhan Mali was a working in Messrs. Darpana Cinema and ce had been terminated by the Company.

Appointed on 1st March 1962. His case in a statement is that Bengal Motion Pictures in Union is a general Union of Cinema and it claims to represent the case of althan Mali. Ram Lakhan Mali was not a statutory minimum wages and provident these which are available to him. He wrote has to the Company on 13th January 1964 against the Company's denial of those this action of the workman outraged the Company and the workman was served with three chargesheets, dated 27th January 1964, 5th February 1964 and 11th February 1964, on false and pretentious ground. The workman was refused opportunities of self-defence. No proper enquiry was held and ultimately by a letter, dated 19th March 1964, his service was terminated. Conciliation attempts proved unsuccessful and the matter had accordingly been referred to the Tribunal.

The Company answered the written statement of the Union by contending that the Bengal Motion Picture Employees' Union which is a general Union has no right to represent the case of this workman. The dispute raised by the workman is an individual dispute and not an industrial dispute as it has not been espoused by any authorised Union of the Company. It is admitted that Ram Lakhan joined the service of the Company as a gate-keeper on 1st March 1962. The Company however denies that the two letters addressed by him outraged it.

On 26th January 1964 at 7 p.m. the projector machine of the Cinema house went out of order. At that time Ram Lakhan Mali was found shouting in the hall instead of restoring order in the house. That is the subject of the chargesheet given to him on 27th January 1964.

Again on 5th February 1964 he absented himself from duties without any previous permission and the work of the cinema was severely dislocated. This is a misconduct for which the workman was charge-sheeted

On 9th February 1964 he again absented without permission from the auditorium for some time which is a sub-matter of the chargesheet, dated 11th February 1964. There had been enquiry after explanations were submitted by the workman. The workman was directed to appear at the enquiry but he preferred not to appear at the enquiry in spite of previous intimation. The enquiry was proceeded with ex-parte. The three charges were found proved and the management took a decision to dismiss the workman from service which was done by the latter, dated 19th March 1964.

Besides the issue framed in the order of reference another point falls to be decided, namely, whether it is an individual dispute of Ram Lakhan Mali or it is an industrial dispute. Unless it is an industrial dispute the Tribunal will have no jurisdiction to decide the issue under reference. Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union is representing the workman of Messrs. Darpana Cinema in this reference. The onus is upon the Union to prove that the termination of service of Ram Lakhan Mali is supported by other workmen of Darpana Cinema. Admittedly there is no Union of workers of Darpana Cinema as an industrial unit. The Union, namely, Bengal Motion Picture Employees' Union seeks to represent the workman of Darpana Cinema. The law in this respect has been Ind down as follows: The instant case is of a general Union taking up the cause of an individual of a particular industrial unit. In such case the general union must prove by a resolution or by any other eans that a substantial number of workman of thi Company espoused the cause of the workman named in the order of reference and the general Union or its Secretary was authorised to take up the dispute. In this connection, I may refer to the two decisions of the Calcutta High Court reported in 1963 L.L.J. 1 page 163 and 1962 L.L.J. II page 93. In the first case, it has been laid down that the real test for transforming an individual dispute to an industrial dispute is whether the stranger Union, as in the present case, has the backing, sympathy or collaboration of the majority or a large section of the workmen employed in the particular industry, and such workmen feel themselves concerned in the dispute. It has further been held that if a stranger Union takes up the cause of an individual workman, the onus is on the Union to prove that it has the backing, sympathy and collaboration of a substantial number of workmen employed in the industry. In the 1962 L.L.J. case referred to above, it has been observed that from the mere fact that a general Union, at whose instance the individual dispute concerning an individual workman is referred for adjudication, has on its rolls a few of the workmen in the establishment as its members, it cannot be assumed that the individual dispute was converted into a collective dispute. In such a case not only should it be proved that the workmen, who are members of the general Union, form a substantial or considerable section of the workmen of the particular concern, but also that in order to vest the dispute with the character of an industrial dispute those members participated in or acted together and arrived at an understanding either by a resolution or by other means and collectively supported on the date of the reference the demand or the cause of an individual dispute.

Now I will turn to the facts of the case and the evidence before me. The only witness examined by the Union is P.W.1. Shri Ram Lakhun Mali himself. He stated that he is a member of Bengal Motion Picture Employees' Union. There is no evidence that any other workmen of this Company is a member of the said Union. In his evidence Ram Lakhan Mali stated that there are four or five other workers of this Company who are members of that Union but he did not name them on the plea that they would be victimised. I cannot rely upon his uncorroborated oral testimony in the absence of any record of the Bengal Motion Picture Employees' Union showing the strength of membership of that Union from this industrial unit. Not to speak of records, not even a single office bearer of that Union is coming forward to say that any worker of this industrial unit is a member of that general Union. Moreover there is no evidence whatsoever to prove that any other workman of this industrial namely, Messrs. Darpana Cinema is sympathizing or bucking the cause of this workman. Unless other workmen of this industrial unit feel themselves concerned in this dispute and their sympathy, collaboration and backing are proved by some evidence, the individual dispute of Ram Lakhan Mali cannot assume the character of an industrial dispute. view of the authorities quoted above and in absence of any evidence on the side of the Union to prove that any workman besides the dismissed workman of this industrial unit is supporting the cause of dismissed workman. I am unable to hold that it is an industrial dispute.

That being the view taken by me, the Tribunal has no jurisdiction to decide the reference and as such I am not entering into the merits of the case.

This is my award.

AWARD

The moot point which arises for decising asset is whether and how far an employed designation a Manager of a particular deperforming however mostly clerical type and drawing more than Rs. 500 per more as a workman within the meaning and ition of the expression as used in section 2 of industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

e point arose in this way. One Shri Prafulla ar Gupta, the aggrieved party in the instant case. in employee of the other party Company namely da Bazar Patrika (Private) Ltd. He was also ming the post of the President of that Com-Employees Union. As an employee of the and as a Manager of the Provident Fund an of the Company his allotted duty was to o the like things. He was drawing Rs. 532 per th. Now for some time in the past quarrels going on between the Company and its work-On or about 7th March 1957 in course of a rute settlement it was agreed on all hands that sorth retiral age for all employees of the Comwould be 55 years. On 24th August 1959 the pany in utter violation of the terms of the said the agreement served a notice upon Shri full kumai Gupta requiring him to active on and n 1st September 1959 on the absurd plea that he b: that time completed 25 years service. There owever no such rule in the Standing Order of the many by which an employee can be forced to e so untimely and abruptly. The said letter was ed and served upon Shri Prafulla Kumar Gupta ider to punish and to do him harm, he being sected with various trade union activities to the nudice of the Company.

As against the aforesaid case of Shri Prafulla mar Gupta the case of the Company as made out one me during hearing at the trial is simply this t Shr: Prafulla Kumar Gupta being excluded from category of workman is not entitled to any relief assoever under the provision of the Industrial putes. Act. The further case of the Company of was not pressed before me but which is found mberated in the written statement of the Company that the Company acted bona fide 11 the iter of effecting the retirement of the Manager 1 Prafulla Kumar Gupta in consonance with the sand Standing Order of the Company.

he aforesaid dispute between the parties was ned to this Court for adjudication by the eriment of West Bengal by its Order of rence No. 6616-I.R./IR/13L-19/59, dated 1st imber 1959. To be more precise and specific rquired to decide the following issue:

the Company justified in retiring Shri Prafulla Gupta? If not, what relief is he entitled to?

The learned Advocate appearing for the Company of confined his argument to a very short point mely that Shri Prafulla Kuumar Gupta is not a rekman in the strict sense of the terms adding very ideally at the same time that if he is adjudged to a workman by this Court then he should be given the reliefs he has asked for. On the other hand learned Counsel for the Union Shri S. K. harvya contends and agrees that if his client is adjudicated upon to be a workman within the aning of the definition of the words as used in tion 2 of the Act then his elient is not entitled any relief whatsoever in this case. In view of all the respective contentions of the learned Lawers of the parties I shall mainly endeavour to decide the question with reference to the facts and circumstances and the materials placed on record before me. The contention of the learned Advocate appearing for the Company is very short and at the same time very attractive. Put in syllogistic form it stands as follows:

None but a workman can get such relief as reinstatement, etc., under the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act. Shri Prafulla Kumar Gupta is not a workman. Therefore, he is not entitled to any relief.

The conclusion arrived at by the learned Lawver appears to me to be fallacious because the premises namely that Shri Prafulla Kumar Gupta is not a workman is an unwarranted assumption. definition of the term workman even in respect of its amended and extended meaning (vide the amendment took effect in the year 1956) clearly shows that employees who are mainly confined to managerial or adm nastrative functions or supervisors drawing sums in excess of Rs. 500 are normally excluded from the category. The learned lawyer for the Company warrs me to believe that as Shri Prafulla Kumar Gupta was by designation the then Manager of the Provident Fund Section of the Company doing mostly managerial or supervisory works at that time and that as his pay at that relevant time was more than Rs. 500, he could by no means be included within the category of workman as used in the Industrial Disputes Act. I have already characterised Mr. Sen's argument as very attractive because I find that to accede to his proposition of law is to dispose of the case at once by simply observing that the instant reference is incompetent. Such a bird's eye view of the matter however does not for obvious reason satisfy myself. A careful scrutiny of the facts and circumstances of the case reveal to me a very different picture of the whole case, such that I cannot but pronounce that the employee Shri Prafulla Kumar Gupta was wronged by the Company.

True, Shri Prafulla Kumar Gupta was by designation the Manager of the Provident Fund Section of the Company but the question arises what was the real nature of his works and duties. The best documentary evidence to disclose that is constituted by Ext. 2 and the letter Ext. 7(a). Exhibit 2 states that the "Manager shall be such person as the trustees may from time to time appoint and in whom the management including the keeping of account or the firms hall subject to the general supervision and control of the trustees be vested." The letter of the Company Ext. 7(a), dated 11th December 1956, containing the direction of the Company regarding the established duties of Shri Prafulla Kumar Gupta as the Manager of the Department. The letter states "You shall keep accounts of the fund and perform ail the routine duties of the Manager according to the rules and regulation. In all matters you should act strictly according to the relevant decision of the Trustees." The Company's letters [vide Ext. 7(a) (O A.), dated 25th March 1958, Exts. D. D-61 read with other materials placed on record abundantly make it clear that Shri Prafulla Kumar Gupta was appointed in the post of the Manager because he was the person who had some previous knowledge with accounting works. As Manager, it does not appear that it was for him to pass orders and for others to obey. The materials on record show that he was mainby preoccupied with the Cash Book, Bank Sia ement, the Minute Books, the Deficit Account, the original statement of account, the general ledger, contributory ledger, the minute ledger, the supplementary Cash Books statement of account and the like things. It is true that Shri Prafulla Kumar Gupta had then a few clerks under him but that fact by itself does not necessarily mean and imply that he had some organising functions to do. The leave application Ext. A series make it clear that Shri Prafulla Kumar Gupta was not even empowered to grant leave application of his subordinates. His work was only to forward the application to the authority concerned. What I gather from the materials on record is that tar from dictating jobs to his clerks Shri Gupta was himself entirely preoccupied with clerical jobs so much so that he had no time and opportunity whatsoever to dictate and to use his own discretion in the matters of principles and policies of the department concerned. It is significant to note that the Company has not filed a scrap of paper to show that even on a single occasion Shri Gupta was seen using his discretion in the matter of executing particular policies or line of action.

It is because of the aforesaid nature of the works entrusted to Shri Gupta that he was all along being recognised as a clerk by the outside world and even by his own employer. The materials on record (vide Ext. D13) show that Shri Gupta was appointed as a member of the Works Committee from amongst the workers of the Company. Had he not been a worker he would never have been so selected by the Company in that respect. The Company having acted so and having itself treated Shri Gupta in that fashion cannot now turn round and say that Shri Gupta was never a worker. In the result, it must be held with utmost conviction that Shri Gupta was for all practical purposes a worker of the Company concerned.

I have already made it clear before that Shri Sen appearing for the Company does not object to my granting reliefs to the worker provided of course this Court finds that Shri Prafulla Kumar Gupta is one of the workmen by definition. Shri Prafulla Kumar Gupta it appears has urged for reinstatement and the natural reliefs connected therewith. The dismissal of Shri Gupta the concerned workman is therefore held by me to be illegal and unjustified. As to the reliefs to be granted to the workman he must get the normal relief of reinstatement with some back wages. As to the quantum of back wages I would allow 50 per cent. of the same having regard to the overall facts and circumstances particularly the pendency of this case. The Company is according to the concerned workman reporting for duty within 15 days from the cation of the award and to pay 50 per cent back wages at the rate last drawn within a from his reporting for duty.

AWARD

This is an application under section and the section of the sufficient of the suffic

ham harm inasmuch as an industrial dispute the pending between the Company and its sen in the Court of the Judge, Seventh Induser in the Court of the present application to rement of the applicant forthwith with full-ages and compensation.

application has been opposed by the Company, ampany's case, in short, is that there was no ide whatsoever on the Company's side in the of effecting the termination of service of the concerned, the worker having absented h.m. a long time without the leave of the Company's further case is that the termin was effected in consonance with the S'andiders of the Company. As according to the ny, it was a case of discharge simplisiter, the application is misconceived and hence not inable in law.

buts for my determination in this proceeding accordingly be whether the inst int application maintainable and if so whether the worker is filed to the relief he has prayed for.

is agreed on both sides that the instant applicamay be condemned as bad in law, provided this rt holds that in the facts and circumstances of case, the termination of Shri Kshitish Chandra ta was solely a case of discharge simpliciter. In the words, if it is held by this court that the mination of service of Shri Kshitish Chandra
ence without leave in accordance with the StandOrders of the Company, and if it is further d that in effecting the termination of the service, Company acted quite bona fide in consonance the rules and regulations, then the application ler section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act st be denounced as bad in law.

he learned lawyer for the applicant has argued ore me by saying that the mala fide of the Comy can be readily inferred from the fact that an istrial dispue between the Company and its kmen was then pending in the Seventh industrial unal and that therefore the termination of serwas intended and inflicted by way of punisht. To put it syllogistically, the argument of learned lawyer stands thus:

An industrial dispute covered by Order No. 1173-I.R., dated 5th April 1962, was pending at the relevant time between the Company and its workers. At that critical juncture. Shri Kshitish Chandra Saha, one of the workmen, took long leave. And therefore, he was punished by the Company by way of dismissal.

The conclusion arrived at by the learned lawyer, my judgment, does not readily follow from the mises aforesaid. If the learned lawyer's argumat is accepted and acted upon, then it would low that all applications under section 33A of Industrial Disputes Act must be allowed in our of the worker, inasmuch as, all these applicant are as a matter of course filed during the dency of an industrial dispute between the self-are parties. I have perused the materials on ord carefully. There is not an iota of evidence parole or documentary to prove that the worker concerned was a labour leader or that he had ever incurred the displeasure of the Company by his having performed some activities against the interest of the Company. Nor there is any evidence on record to show that he ever displeased his superiors for some reason or other. The only reason for the Company's action which I have gathered from the materials on record is that the worker was unfortunate enough to have indulged in a very long and continued absence without leave may be on medical ground. The strange quantum of his absence will be at once clear from the table which I give below for the sake of clarity:

September 1961—15 days.
October 1961—12 days.
November 1961—14 days.
December 1961—the entire month.
January 1962—21 days.
February 1962—17 days.
March 1963—the entire month.
April 1962—26 days.

I have gathered the aforesaid table from the materials on record, especially from the contents of the Attendance Register and the document, Ext. F, on record. It is crystal clear from the contents of the aforesaid table that the applicant was indulging in too much leave, such that no business concern can withstand usually and ordinarily. It is the admitted evidence of the applicant on record that this leave enjoyed by him was an unauthorised one, meaning thereby that the same was never sanctioned by the Company. The learned lawyer appearing for the applicant has pleaded for his client strongly by adding that it was an unfortunate incident that his client was the victim of the disease known as peptic ulcer. I appreciate this point, but I cannot forget the hard fact that the leave which he enjoyed in toto was something very strange and unusual. The undersirable fate of the applicant need not sidetrack the main issue in this case. In the industrial world, the interest of the worker as also of the business concern must be seen at large side by side. The Standing Orders of the Company (vide Ext. I) enacts that no workman is authorised to absent himself for more than 10 calendar days at a stretch without permission of the Company and that, if he does so, he shall be deemed to have left the service of the Company of his own accord. In the instant case, as I have already made it clear, the worker was making himself scarce for months together. From his petitions and meidcal certificates (vide Exts. C and D, etc.), it is quite clear that the worker was acting most carelessly in the matter of his asking for leave for an indefinite period. His doctor also was leave for an indefinite period. Such things cannot be permitted by any responsible and prudent conccrn. Viewed from a purely subjective standpoint, the action of the Company in the matter of termination of a poor workman may appear to be somewhat cruel and high-handed, but looked at from a wider and comprehensive angle of vision, that action of the Company can only be termed as just, proper and legal. Just imagine the case of the most frequent and capricious absence of the majority of workers of a particular Company. The least economic productivity and the consequential highest industrial unrest is sure to distinguish such a Company from its species.

It is contended before me that the worker was punished without the Company's holding a domestic enquiry in the matter. This contention also does not hold good because it is an established law nowadays that where the discharge simpliciter is in accordance with the Standing Orders of the Company, no rules of natural justice can be said to have been violated for not framing charge-sheet or holding an enquiry (vide Burn Company's case as reported in 1957 Supremc Court, page 38). The relevant Standing Orders applicable in the instant case is adumberated in section C at page 4 of the Book (vide I). The worker's application, in view of what has been stated so long, must, therefore, be and is hereby disallowed on contest.

Order No. 45, dated 18th March 1965

On the petition of the Company, a preliminary point was heard as to whether the reference maintainable and whether the Union named in the order of reference is maintainable and whether the Union named in the order of reference, i.e., Nepal Chandra Haluikar Employees' Union has locus standi to represent the workmen in the dispute. Both parties examined witnesses and exhibited documents at the hearing. I am afraid, this is not a preliminary issue which requires a decision on the point, and the matter would have been more conveniently heard along with the merits of the case. Be that as it may, since the point has been raised and both parties adduced evidence on the point, I am recording my finding on the issue as to whether the Union has locus stands to represent the work-men in the present case. There are 39 workmen named in the dispute. Their services had been terminated and the issue under reference is whether the termination of their service is justified. In the dispute referred to the Tribunal, Nepal Chandra Haluikar Employees' Union is representing the workmen. At paragraph 3 of its written statement, the Company challenges the locus standi of the Union. There it is stated that the Union is not a bona fide Trade Union, and that its President Shri as Labour S. K. Bhattacharya formerly acted Adviser of the Company, and as such he was ineligible for election as the President of the Union. The Union is not accordingly entitled to represent the case of the workmen in the present reference. paragraph 10 of the written statement, it was further added that Nepal Chandra Haluikar Employees' Union is not a bona fide Union. This is the purport of the contention on the side of the Company.

Decision

Now I will proceed to examine whether Nepal Chandra Haluikar Employees' Union is a bona fide Union or not. On the side of the Union its President Shri S K Bhattacharya gave evidence stating that this Union was formed by him with the workers of the Company. He was cross-examined exhaustively on the side of the Company to say that he (Shri Bhattacharya) was the Law Adviser of the Company. He, however, denied having endered such advice or hold any office with the proprietors of the Company Shri P. Das Gupta or Hanuman Das Gupta. Several affidavits were filed by Shri P. Das Gupta and they are exhibited in this case 5 Ext. B-series. In those affidavits it has been alleged that Shri S K Bhattacharya wanted a loan of Rs. 3,000 but the Company could not keep his request, and in January 1963 differences crose between Shri Bhattacharya and the Company. Shri Bhattacharya also swore an affidavit denying those allegations. In spite of those affidavits, the fact remains that Shri Bhattacharya was the President of the Union and the Union had been formed by him. There was another witness on the side of the Shri Bibhuti Bhusan Pal, who is a member of the Union. He came to prove all the relevant records showing that the Union did function and was a bona fide Union. I will now refer to the documents in support of the evidence of Shri Pal. Those documents are to be considered in the light of evidence. The Union was first formed by Radha Raman Ash and 13 others. Exhibit 4 is a retition signed by them and it is dated 10th January 1963. None of the signatories has been examined by the Company to prove that this is not a genuine document. At that time the workers of Nepal Chandra Haluikar were members of another Union, namely, Shops and Establishments Association. The Union was formed in Ext. 4 on the basis of a general meeting, the minutes of which is Ext. 4/1 proved by Bibhuti Pal. After this the Union was formed on 7th March 1963. Several workers of this Company—44 in number—relinquished their membership of tormer Union. The document is Vxt. 4/2 and it is dated 7th March 1963. Thereafter on 8th March 1963 those very persons applied for membership of Nepal Chandra Haluikar Employees' Union, and it is Ext. 4/3. The Union is submitting annual returns (Ext. 5 series). The Union has subscription books duly printed (Ext. 6-series). There is membership register (Ext. 7). There is Minute Book showing proceedings of the meetings of the Union (Ext. 8). The Constitution of the Union is Ext. 9. From these documents, the formation of the Union is attempted to be proved.

On the side of the management those documents are challenged. It is first of all contended that Shri Bibhuti Bhusan Pal who became a member on oth March 1963 had no business to write out the proceedings on 3rd March 1963 and from this alone, I should conclude that the Minute Book (Ext. 8) is a fabricated one. Shri Pal obviously began to take interest in this Union before 7th March 1963 when he resigned his membership of the former Union. There is nothing peculiar if he writes the minutes book on and from 3rd March 1963. The counterfoils of the subscription books are challenged on the side of the Company by saying that they are not signed but rubber-stamped. Shri Pal has given an explanation as to why they are so rubber-stamped. There was no treasurer during the relevant period. Certain discrepancies were pointed out in the records particularly with reference to account book (Ext. 11) maintained by the Union. The discrepancies which are pointed out are likely to be present in the records maintained by the Union. They are not very material discrepancies, for which the documents themselves should be condemned. From the documents referred to above, I am unable to say that they are fabricated for the purpose of this reference. They clearly establish the fact that the Union has existence and it was not a bogus Union.

I will now refer to the Company's own document which will go a great length in proving that the Company itself negotiated with this Union. Exhibit I is a letter written to Shri S. K. Bhattacharya, President of the Nepal Chandra Haluikar Employees' Union at 3 Mohan Lal Street, by the Company's Solicitor P. C. Ghosh on behalf of the Company. Exhibit 2-series will prove it conclusively that Shri P. Das Gupta himself (who is a partner of the Company) entered into an agreement on behalf of the Company with the Nepal Chandra Haluikar Employees' Union on 8th March 1963, and on the basis of that agreement allowed some to resume their duties. These are the Company's documents showing the existence of the Union and the fact of its functioning and the Company's recognition of the same. Exhibit 3 is a challan showing that for the purpose of registration of Nepal Chandra Haluikar Employees' Union under Rea the Trade Union Regulation, an been made and fees deposited The learned Counsel does not challenge the tration of the Union but tration of the Union but tration of the Union but tration of the Union but tration of the Union but tration of the Union but tration of the Union but tration of the Union but tration of the Union but tration of the Union but tration of the Union but tration of the Union but tration tr tration of the Union, but in characterises that registration is in ig compliance of the provisions of law a undue influence. Exhibit 10 is a len by the Company to the Regional Pro Commissioner, West Bengal, and it a April 1963. A copy of the letter was the President of the Nepal Chandra ployees' Union. From the above ev be safely concluded that Nepal Ch.z. Employees' Union had existence in the March and April 1963. The present made in May 1963. The Union exists of the reference, and this has been p evidence on record. Accordingly, I had Chandra Haluikar Employees' Union k Union, and it has locus standi to n workmen in this case. The point i Company is thus decided against it 1 is fixed for hearing on 3rd April 196) will adduce complete evidence on t hearing.

I have carefully found in the aforesal Nepal Chandra Halunkar Employees bona fide Union and it has locus stand the workmen in this case.

With regard point raised in the wnt that it is not an industrial dispute, substance at all. If the Union is a stituted Union and it has taken up the 39 workmen the dispute cannot but be dispute. In view of my finding on the the only conclusion would be that raised in the order of reference is a dispute.

Next I will turn to the merits of the point is whether the termination of wworkmen named in the order of justified? To what relief, if any, are t

Before going into the merits there is which should be placed on record Ou list of 39 workmen mentioned in the reference 28 workmen settled their distribution of the Company individually. The document of the company and gave a statement of more Company and gave a statement to the they had no dispute with the Compant think that they should be entitled to consideration of the fact that in full their claims they received various amost Company. They are not also coming the Tribunal to press their claim. Acconever award I may pass will not ensure the of these workmen. Still however there men of the order of reference who distributed the their disputes with the Company. The Nos. (4) Deb Narayan Dawn. (5) Hand (15) Bhutnath Kar, (16) Sahadeb Nard Krishna Banerjee, (20) Ram Asti Fakir Ram Kahar, (26) Panchkari Ghos Chandra Dholey, (35) Ganesh Ch. Gh their dispute with the Company. Those workat least are still pressing their claim through Union before the Tribunal. Whatever award be made will certainly enure to their benefit.

rning to the merits of the case it is an admitted that the services of the 39 workmen had been mat the Street Company. P.W. 2 Shri Bibhuti were claiming 94 days wages for one week's but the Company inspite of the fact of their ious payment at that rate reduced the payment days. Then there was a protest on the side workmen concerned. On 29th March 1963 management drove away the workmen. He er stated that the management did not close manufacture of sweets but such manufacture arned on in new places such as 53/1 Shyam in Street. No. 12, Vivekananda Road, etc. His ence is that some workmen such as Radha esh Ash, Ram Ashray Gupta, Modan Mohan ta, Ram Singh, Som Nath Gupta, Montu Lal dal and others who were on the side of the agement were kept in the business while the 39 tied workmen were discharged. He further id that serial Nos. 1, 2, 3, 6, 7, 11, 17, 18, 22, 25. 30, 1', 37 and 39 of the order of reference were working with the Company. The Union nined another witness, namely, P.W. 3. Shri thkarı Ghosh who is serial No. 26. He stated the Company is still manufacturing sweets at old place of business and it opened another n meat shop at Shyam Pukur Street. He oborated the evidence of P.W. 2 by saying that ha Ramesh Ash and 13 others were allowed to nue in service. No other workmen was nined by the Union. On the side of the ipany the only important witness is O.P.W. 1. Purushuttam Das Gupta, a partner of the many. His evidence is that he closed the table re and manufacturing department with effect 1 2nd April 1963 becaues of labour troubles other problems. He further asserted that cer had been issued to the workmen on 27th ch 1963. A copy of such notice was sent to Labour Commissioner (Ext. C2). They were according to this witness to each individual kman under certificate of posting Ext. K-series. admits that on 29th March 1963 there had been to trouble over which the workers ceased to k in the shop. This witness assigns the reason such cessation of work in the following manner. te workmen came to the shop and asked the er workers to leave their work and they left their k. The witness further added that he issued ices to the workmen individually through the icitors P. C. Ghosh & Co. on 2nd April 1963. reafter there had been conciliation meetings but no purpose. Manufacture of sweets at 16 and 18 ekananda Road was discontinued and the sugar ta was cut down from 16 bags to 4 bags. Table rice was also abolished. The sugar quota card at M. The witness denies that wages had been to workmen at the rate of 91 days per week. witness further denies that he is carrying on hadacture of sweets at 53/1 Shyam Pukur Street at any other place or at No. 12, Vivekananda ad. O.P.W. 3 Shri Amar Saha on the side of mpany came to prove that the manufacture of ts at 53/1 Shyam Pukur Street was the business of Shri Sunil Kumar Banerjee and not of Purusattam Das Gupta. Some documents Exts. D, E, F and G were filed in support of the same. In cross-examination the witness admitted that Shri Sunil Banerjee is the son of Shri Patit Paban Banerjee, who is admittedly Gurudev of Purusattam Das Gupta. O.P.W. 4 Shri Suresh Chandra Mitra of the Solicitors Firm P. C. Ghosh & Co., came to prove that notices were issued to 39 workmen Exts. J-series under c.rtificate of posting.

record of This is the oral evidence on record of both the parties. On the side of the Company that the Company Mukherjee argues decided to discontinue the manufacturing and the table service department and that necessitated termination of service of those workmen who are in those departments and the termination was resorted to as a bona fide action on the part of the Company. There is a faint attempt to make out a case of closure. It is significant to note that it is not a closure of the business is still running. The Company's counsel do not seriously argue that it is a case of closure. He centres his argument upon the case of retrenchment. The case turned up to be that since the Company had to discontinue the manufacturing and the table service department, retrenchment became necessary and termination of service of the workmen had been done by way of retrenchment. Retrenchment has been defined in section 2(00) as meaning "the termination by the employer of the service for any reason whatsoever, otherwise than as a punishment inflicted by way of disciplinary action." If the Company dismisses certain workmen as a measure of disciplinary action, it cannot be called retrenchment. The Company must prove that it is a bona fide retrenchment and not an action dismissing the workmen under the cloak of retrenchment. Retrenchment being the case of the Company we should focus our attention to section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act. It provides as follows:

- No workman employed in any industry who has been in continuous service for not less than one year under an employer shall be retrenched by that employer until—
- (a) The workmen has been given one month's notice in writing indicating the reasons for retrenchment and the period of notice has expired, or the workman has been paid in lieu of such notice, wages for the period of the notice:
- Provided that no such notice shall be necessary of the retrenchment is under an agreement which specifies a date for the termination of service;
- (b) The workman has been paid at the time of retrenchment compensation which shall be equivalent to fifteen days' average pay for every completed year of service or any part thereof in excess of six months; and
- (c) Notice in the prescribed manner is served on the appropriate Government.

Now the evidence should be closely examined to see whether it is a bona fide retrenchment or termination of service by way of punishment.

On the side of the Company Shri Purusattam Das Gupta stated that he closed down the manufacturing department as well as the table service department owing to labour troubles. He further added that notices were issued by him on 27th March 1963 and a copy of such notice was forwarded to the Labour Commissioner. From the Labour Commissioner's file Ext. C(2) is picked out and placed before me. This letter does not show any seal of the Labour Commissioner's office. On the side of the Union it is urged that there was no notice issued to the workmen on 27th March 1963 and that the Company's evidence in that respect is fabricated. This notice states that the manufacturing department and table service departments were closed in view of uneconomic working of those departments. It appears from the notice Ext. C(2) that it was not profitable for the Company to manufacture sweets or continue the table service department. The evidence of Purusattam Das Gupta is contradictory to the statement made in the alleged notice. It is significant to note that the written statement of the Company which is an elaborate statement of facts makes no mention about issue of notices on 27th March 1963 to the workmen which should have been loudly stated in the written statement, had it been a fact. Even if I concede that Ext. C(2) had been written to the Labour Commissioner, I am unable to come to the conclusion that such notices were individually issued to all the workmen. In that notice the closure was to take effect from 2nd April 1963 but the notices issued through the Solicitors Firm state otherwise. I will now turn notices issued through the Solocitors P. C. Ghosh & Co. They are Exts. I-series. It is significant to note that in those notices there is no mention about closing down of the table service department. It only speaks of discontinuance of the manufacture of sweets. These notices were issued at the instruction of Shri Purusattam Das Gupta and through the Solicitors Firm. It is only to be expected that if any prior notice had been issued to all the work-men in terms of section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act, the Solicitors notices subsequently issued would have made distinct reference to those notices. The very fact that the Solicitors' notices are silent as to issue of prior notice of 27th March 1963 will make me suspicious as to whether the notices alleged to have been sent on 27th March 1963 were in fact sent individually to the workers. Another significant fact is that the Solicitors issued the notices on 2nd April 1963 and directed that the services of workmen stood terminated with effect from 3rd April 1963 and not 2nd April 1963 as stated in the alleged carler notice, copy of which is Ext. C(2). In one notice it is second and in another notice it is third as the date on which the services stood terminated. In view of the above circumstances the evidence as to issue of notices to workmen on 27th March 1963 can hardly be accepted inspite of the fact that certain certificate of postings were filed before the Tribunal. Moreover, even if I accept that notices were in fact issued on 27th March 1963, such notices are inconsistent with the notice subsequently issued by the Solicitors. The Company however would like to rely upon the Solicitors' notices and argued that the services had been terminated with effect from 3rd April 1963. The written statement of the Company is however otherwise. The notices issued on 2nd April 1963 could not have reached the workmen before of April 1963 or at the earliest in the eng 2nd April 1963. The retrenchment cannot be take effect from 2nd April 1963. If it is effect, it can do so with effect from 3rd Am which is also the date mentioned in the bu notices. Now let us see if the mandaton m of clauses (a) and (b) of section 25F quote were complied with. It is open to the Com give the workmen wages for one month which period of notice. Under clause (b) the Ca must prove that the workmen retrenched in paid, at the time of retrenchment, compa which should be equivalent to 15 days area for every completed year of service or an thereof in excess of six months. In my open mandatory provision of section 25F, clause 6 not complied with even if I hold that there ha a bona fide retrenchment. The Company prove that at the time of retrenchment the men have been paid retrenchment compensal the amount of retrenchment compensation wi from man to man. On the side of the Com is argued that tender of compensation tantamount to payment thereof. In support contention Shri Mukherjee has placed before case of Titagarh Paper Mills Limited reporter L.L.J. 1962 page 192. The relevant portion at page 195. It is a decision of Justice Banerjee at Calcutta High Court. His lordsh considering the provision of section 32this Industrial Disputes Act. The question which up before his Lordship was as to whether ter wages for one month should be accept equivalent to payment. It was held that wages had been kept ready for acceptance workman and if the workman was so inform must be deemed to be equivalent to paymen if the workman did not accept the same distinguish the observation of his Lordship in tacts of the present case. Section 25F, clause differently worded. It is true that the a words appearing in sections 25F and 33(2) a workman has been paid". But in section 251. (b) there is addition of the words "at the t the retrenchment". Those words or expression cannot be found in section 33(2)th construction given by Justice Banerice ! reported case is therefore inapplicable to the falling under section 25F, clause (b). The another point for distinction. In section 3 the amount for payment would be wages for month, which is an ascertained amount. In the of retrenched workman the Company must not only tender of compensation in general but the exact amount of retrenchment compet which is to be calculated and tender should be on a specific sum equivalent to 15 days avera for every completed year of continuous s Neither notices Ext. I-series nor the notice Er mentioned above, make any tender of the calc amount of compensation separtely to different man. Exhibit J-series are in general terms runs as follows:

together with one month's notice pay a compensation as you are entitled under ing law".

C(2) the expression used in following

t their dues, including one month's wages set of notice and retrenchment compension in terms of the provisions of Industrial sutes. Act today or any day within 2nd is 1963".

l-series no date of such payment is but in Ext. C(2) the Company makes it o mention about payment within 2nd of Exhibit C(2) appears to be more legally an the notice issued by Solicitors Firm. , turther that Ext. C(2) was subsequently make the notice consistent with the of law. Be that as it may, the alleged ch is said to have been made in the atorecannot be a valid tender unless the int is stated therein. An mere statement orkman is to collect his dues without he amount is no tender at all. It cannot tender under section 25F(b). The paytrenchment compensation is a condition to the retrenchment. It is to be paid he retrenchment takes effect. In the instant mittedly there is no payment of retrenchmpensation before retrenchment took effect. no valid tender either of the said amount trom the evidence. Bibhuti Paul stated put in 20 years of service. Purusattam mself admitted that Bibhuti Paul put in 10 years of service, but the compensation to him in the Solicitor's chart is six years. not valid tender of retrenchment compen-Panchkari Ghosh is another workmen. His his that he put in 12 or 13 years of service. Indence goes unchallenged. Service book of I the workmen nor the wage chart of these n were filed by the Company. They are tely withheld. They would have been the idence to show the length of service of the m as well as the actual wages which used to to them. As to the length of service in's evidence goes unchallenged. It was the the Company to falsify the evidence by by records of service. Since the Company take any such steps I should accept the n of Panchkari that he put in 12 or 13 of service. He was offered retrenchment sation for five years. This is not a valid of retrenchment compensation due to him. The e accordingly leads to the conclusion that the m did not comply with the mandatory n of law under section 25F, clause (b) in the of retrenchment of workmen. Such retrenchthout complying with the aforesaid provision e held to be illegal and the consequence be that the workmen are entitled to ement with back wages. From the evidence ed it is reasonable to conclude that it is not a retrenchment at all but a case of termination of punishment and there have been no bona renchment according to law. Had it been a retrenchment the Company which has legal s and to whom is available the services of s like P. C. Ghosh & Co. would have issued hment notice in strict terms of law were and in strict compliance of section 25F. In fact the Company terminated the service by verbal dismissal and when the Union took up the case and conciliation was started, then only the Company tried to legalise the matter and the service of P. C. Ghosh & Co., Solicitors, were requisitioned for the same. It is not bona fide when the Company says manufacture of sweets uneconomical. I have already referred to the evidence of Shri Purusattam Das Gupta who now says before me that labour troubles were at the root of the closing of manufacture. The Union had been pressing for 94 days wages in a week which the Company was reluctant to give. The evidence of the Union's witness is that in fact for some time 9½ days' wages had been paid in a week. The Company could have dislodged this evidence by producing the wage sheet but non-production of the wage sheets would give rise to the adverse interference that such sheets, if produced would have shown payment of wages for 91 days for some time. This privilege was with-drawn and the Union took up the matter and the Company suddenly made a decision of terminating the service of a good number of workmen. If the business was becoming uneconomical, steps should have been taken gradually and not all on a sudden. The business is still going on at 16 and 18 Vivekananda Road. Manufacture according to the Company is not going on at 16 and 18 Vivekananda Road but ovens still exist at those premises; they are not destroyed. If manufacture is discontinued the ovens should have been destroyed. Manufacture is carried on at 12 Vivekananda Road. The Company had been manufacturing sweets at 20 Armenian Street from before. The shop at shop at from 20 Vivekananda Road is getting supplies from 20 Armenian Street. There is another place of manufacture according to the Union at 53/1 Shyam Pukur Street. The Union's positive case is manufacturing of sweets is carried on there in the Benami of Sunil Banerjee, who is son of Shri Patit Paban Banerjee, Gurudeb of Purusattam Das Gupta, a partner of Nepal Chandra Haluikar. Shri Das Gupta admits that he gets supply of sweets from Shyam Pukur Street but that business does nto belong to him. He further admitted that in order to maintain the standard, direction were given to Shyam Pukur Street for specified type of sweets to be manu-factured there. Shri Purusattam Das Gupta has therefore a voice in the manufacture of those sweets. Now if a Company is anxious for maintenance of a certain standard, it is only to be expected that the Company would manufacture the products them-selves and thereby maintain uniform standard of the consumers' goods. There is no earthly reason why Shri Purusattam Das Gupta who is a premier sweet meat maker of Bengal belonging to a firm having reputation for a century would secure supply of manufactured sweets from different sources instead of manufacturing sweets themselves. It is significant to note that Shri Patit Paban Banerjee or Shri Sunil Banerjee are not coming before the Tribunal to claim that the manufacturing concern at 53/1 Shyam Pukur Street belongs to them. One Amar Saha comes and produces certain documents of the shop (Exts. D, E, F and G). From the circumstances of the case it would be reasonable for our present purpose to conclude that 53/1 Shyam Pukur Street belongs virtually to Nepal Chandra Haluikar. From the above evidence it follows that manufacture of sweets is still carried on by Nepal Chandra Haluikar at different premises. Manufacture is not therefore closed and the statement that manufacture had been closed is an attempt to justify termination by way of punishment under the cloak of retrenchment. In fact there had been no closure of manufacturing department. The Company is in fact getting sweets manufactured at different places for sale from those two premises. The manufacturing department is shifted to other places wherefrom sweets are indented for sale at the shop at 16 and 18 Vivekananda Road. The cut in sugar quota is in respect of these two premises. Obviously at Shyam Pukur Street there is manufacture of sweets and sugar quota must have been diverted to that place of manufacture. No positive inference can be made from the cut in the sugar quota in respect of these two premises.

The Company's plea is that termination of service of some workmen had been necessary because the table service department had been closed. Even at the present moment customers take their meals at the shop premises. Catering is thus done at the shop premises even now. In evidence it is sought to be explained by saying that customers are resorting to self service system. I do not really appreciate what is the exact form of self service. It cannot be the practice that the customers pay the price and take the sweets of their own choice. There must have been men at the sale counter for selling sweets to the customers which the customers probably carry to a table and make use of the same. If this is the system prevailing, some table service must be required and work at the sale counter would rather increase. I have already pointed out that closure of table service was never thought of by the Company when notices had been issued through Solicitors. The closure of table service is an after-thought and it is not bona fide. If there are customers to take their meals at the shop I fail to appreciate how table service department becomes uneconomical to the Company. The grounds stated in the notices are not at all genuine and are not supported by evidence. The fact is that the Company got annoyed with the Union activities of the workmen whom they selected for victimisation. This is why all on a sudden the Company resorted to termination of service of selected workmen. This is a method of getting rid of workers whom the Company did not like. It cannot but be termed as unfair labour practice. In view of my findings recorded above I answer the issue by saying that the termination of service of the workmen is not justified. The workmen are entitled to be reinstated which is necessary relief which follow from the above findings. This benefit is however limited to those workmen who have not amicably settled their disptue with the Company, namely, serial Nos. (4) Deb Narayan Dawa, (5) Haradhan Ghora, (15) Bhutnath Kar, (16) Sahadeb Nandy, (19) Bijoy Krishna Banerjee, (20) Ram Asru Haluikar, (25) Fakir Ram Kahar, (26) Panchkari, (29) Subol Chandra Dholey, (35) Ganesh Ch. Ghosh and (38) Bibhuti Bhusan Paul. They alone are entitled to reinstatement and back wages. Regarding the other workmen they had already settled their dispute with the Company and received benefit under those individual settlements. They are not therefore entitled to any benefit under this award.

This is my award which is to be within 30 days of its publication in the Gazette".

is a reference under section 10 of the Indus-putes Act. The Union in their written state-buts that the Company introduced rules on 1951 fixing the age of compulsory retirethis industrial establishment at 55. Previous here was no fixed age of retirement obtaining here was not an employee could work till his him. There had been a previous the Company forced Shri Tarapada retire and the Tribunal decided against the There had been an appeal to the Supreme thich held to the contrary. The Union is anaware of the existence of any rules circulat-he Company in 1947. The Union accordingthe enforcement of any rule in 1947 provid-the age of retirement at 55. The applicability 1947 rule is challenged by the Union.

Union further submits that 55 is a low age of int and keeping in consistency with the recent he age of retirement should be raised to 60. be raised from 55 to 60 for those employees e governed by rules of compulsory retirement.

nswer to the said written statement on behalf Union the Company submitted in their written nt that there had been rules introduced in inplat to the rules in 1951 imposing the age of ent at 55. In 1947 for the first time rules ng retirement age and other matters had been and the said rules were modified and conm the year 1951. The Union plea that there en no introduction of any rule in 1951 is not In regard to the merits of the claim the my submits that having due consideration to neal region the age of retirement should not be by the Tribunal. The Union's claim for the age at 60 cannot be supported.

reliminary objection has been taken to the ice which is challenged as bad in law in the me manner. Since the reference does not bring the Tribunal the case of all employees of the my in service before the introduction of the rules 7 and 1951 the reference is bad in law.

rearances of the parties are as follows:

- it the Union: Mr. Ram Sen, assisted by Mr. Bidhu Bhusan Mitra, General Seceretary of the Union.

Decision

preliminary objection should be disposed of The reference before the Tribunal is in limited It is "age of retirement of the workmen who werned by the rules relating to age of retire-introduced by the Company in 1947 and 1951".

The reference accordingly presume that some workmen are governed by the rules relating to age of retirement introduced by the Company in 1947 and 1951. The reference is limited to those persons who are governed by those rules. The reference does not embrace or include the cases of those workmen who are not governed by the aforesaid rules. This Tribunal is not called upon to decide as to who exactly are the workmen who are governed by the rules of 1947 or 1951. The Tribunal is not called upon also to decide what would be the retiring age of workmen of the Company who are not governed by the rules of 1947 or 1951. The reference cannot be called bad in law if a section of workmen who are not governed by the rules are kept outside the purview of the order of reference. The Tribunal is strictly confined within the order of reference and the scope cannot be enlarged in any manner. The preliminary objection is not at all tenable and I cannot call the reference bad simply because a section of workmen stands outside the scope of reference. My decision will be confined to those workmen only who are governed by the rules of 1947 and 1951. I am accordingly decide the preliminary objection against the Company and uphold the order of reference as in order and valid.

On the side of the Union a point has been raised as to the application of rule of 1947 mentioned in the order of reference. The Union submits that no such rules were introduced in 1947. This is a point which is also outside the scope of reference. The reference is made on the assumption that such rules are in force in the year 1947 as well as in the year 1951. In appreciating this point certain facts would be referred to. One Tarapada Singh was an employee of the Company and was forced to retire. There had been a reference to the Tribunal as to whether the forced retirement of Tarapada Singh was justified. Tribunal decided in favour of the Company but there had been an appeal to the Supreme Court. The Hon'ble Supreme Court's decision is annexure to the written statement of the Company. It is Annexure The paper book has also been filed. The judgment delivered by Mr. Justice Das Gupta proceeds on the footing that rules regarding the age of retirement had been introduced by the Company in 1947. Thereafter rules had been framed in 1951. The age of retirement under 1947 rules as well as 1951 rules was fixed at 55. Tarapada Singh was an employee of the Company who attained the age of 55 on 2nd April 1960. The new rules were applied to him and ne was asked to retire on and from 1st January 1961. The workmen claimed that rule fixing age of retirement at 55 was not applicable to him. The concluding portion of the judgment of the Supreme Court runs thus:

"Our conclusion is that the rules of retirement at 55 framed in 1947 and 1951 do not apply to the prior employees of the Company. It is clear that prior to 1947 there was no rule or condition of service as regards the age of retirement and workmen were allowed to continue as long as they remained fit."

Accordingly his Lordship set aside the award of the Tribunal and held that forced retirement of Tarapada Singh was not justified. That is the history of the present reference before me.

 $\mathcal{H}$

I am now to decide what should be the age of retirement of those workmen who are governed by the rules of 1947 and 1951. Under those rules the Company imposed the age of retirement at 55 which is challenged by the Union as no longer tenable in the Bengal region in view of the recent trend, in industrial establishments of West Bengal region. The Union claims that the age should be 60 while the learned Advocate for the Company in his argument submits that the age could at most be raised to 58. Before proceeding to discuss the evidence adduced by the parties I may briefly resume the established principles of law on this point. A number of decisions have been cited before me. One such cases is reported in 1964, 1, L.L.J. page 451, (Jessop & Company). Retiring age of the workmen of Jessop & Company in West Bengal came up for decision before the Supreme Court. The claim was for raising of age from 55 to 65. The Supreme Court felt that the time had come for increasing the age of retirement in the case of clerical staff and subordinate staff. This very question was considered by the Supreme Court in Guest, Keen, Williams case reported in 1959, 2, L.L.J. page 405. Wage structure, the retiring benefit, the climate of the region and such other matters receive consideration in fixing the age of retirement. The prevailing system in similar concern is also an important matter to be looked into in this regard. From the consideration of all the aspects the Hon'ble Supreme Court felt that the age of retirement of clerical staff and subordinate staff should be raised to 58. In another case reported in 1964 1, L.L.J., page 743 the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that fixation of 58 years as the age of retirement was reasonable. This is the case of Associated Power Company Ltd. in West Bengal.

The learned representative for the Union has placed before me a case reported in 1964 L.L.J. 2, page 644. It was a case of Shaw Wallace & Co. doing business in India whose head office is at Calcutta. It had branches at Bombay, Delhi and Madras. Tribunal directed that the age of retirement should be 58. The dispute before the Supreme Court was whether the age of compulsory retirement should be at 58 or at 60. It was the case of Bombay employees which came up before the Supreme Court. In that reported case reference had been made to the Imperial Chemical Industries reported in 1960 2, L.L.J., page 760. In that case the age was raised from 55 to 58 and both parties went on appeal. The court pointed out that the documents on record conclusively showed that in Bombay the age of retirement was almost inveriably fixed at 60 and not at 55. The court also considered that an important material consideration in that connection should be and often had been determined on industry-cum-region basis. The court took notice of various concerns in Bombay region and the trend in that region was found to be at 60 years. That the trend had been in Bombay region to fix the retiring age at 60 was not challenged. In that reported case it has accordingly decided "the norm for retirement age was fixed at 60". The appeal was allowed and the award of the Tribunal was modified accordingly.

Now let us advert to the evidence adduced by the parties as to the prevailing age of retirement on industry-cum-region basis. P.W. 1. Shri Ranandra Kumar Mukherjee comes from India Cable Company, which manufactures electrical goods 60 s of retirement there. P.W. 2., Shri S.N.1 speaks about the same Company, P. Gurudas Ghosal comes from G.E.C. It facture electrical goods. The age of religion P.W. 4. Shri Rabindra Nath Basu Mullick corroborate the evidence of P.W. 3. P.W. corroborate the evidence of r.w. 5. P.W. Gopaljee is from Tata Oil Company The retirement is 60 there. P.W. 6. Shi Choudhury also comes from Tata Iron Company, the age of retirement is 60 for the staff of that establishment. P.W 7 is Set Dutta who comes from Life Insurance (a of India; the retiring age is 60. P.W & Sh Bhattacharya is of Scindia Steam Navitation of retirement is 60. P.W. 9 is Bidhu Bhus an employee of the company and general of this Union. He swore an affidavit statume age of retirement is 60 in various concern

As against this the Company examined 0 Shri N. Vankataraman from Bird & Co at Managing Agency concern. The age of reasts. O.P.W. 3, Shri B. P. Srivas.av. I.e... Handerson Ltd. states the age of returnment O.P.W. 4. Shri G. R. Ayer who is a senior of this industrial establishment swore an affic annexed thereto certain letters received from ing Agency Concerns such as Shaw Wallact Arbuthnot, Imperial Tobacco Company Morrison, Concord of India Insurance a concerns, where age is 55. This is the en record. It is true that there is very little; between the work of clerks in manufacturing or managing agency concern. Still, head question of industry as well as region should due consideration. The Company has file turning upon managing agency concerns instant Company is also a managing agency The Union relies upon certain companies all manufacturing concerns. The repercussia award which I pass in the case of a manage concern upon similar other managing agency cannot be ignored. Nothing should be de would lead to unrest in labour in the same Accordingly, the companies cited by the Uni be compared for our present purpose On hand, I should take into notice the condition ing in the managing agency concerns simil. Kettlewell Bullen. Moreover, the question looms large in such a decision. The I referred to a case of Bombay region whapplication to the region in West Ben Supreme Court had recently held in set cited above where 58 was considered as a 1 age of retirement for Bengal region. Morec should not be big jump from 55 to 60 li more in fitness to increase the age from 5 the first instance. Any unrest in the ream industry should be guarded against. Beng peculiar problems and the problem of uner stares in the face of the State and private sector of industry.

both in pull fithe age in the age 60 in the first instance the young unemploy of the State would be deprived of the p immediate employment for a large number The unemployment problem which the Stale will become worse in that case. Having all the aspects of the case I am of opinion age of netwement should be fixed at 58.

according is that the age of retirement of in who are governed by the rules relating interment introduced by the Company in 952 is fixed at 58.

FORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

R. BHATTACHARYA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal

Union: Shri J. Banerjee, Advocate, Shri N. la Majumdar, Counsel.

Company: Shri P. B. Jinwalla, Counsel,

The present industrial dispute between Measure. Shalimar Paints Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company), P.O. Botanic Garden, Howrah, and their workmen represented by Shalimar Paint Employees' Union (hereinafter described as the Union), 5 Dakshin Baksara Lane, Andul Road, Howrah, has been referred to this Tribunal under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 5813-I.R./IR/11L-295(C)/64, dated 22nd October 1964, for adjudication of the following issue:

Whether the stoppage of increment to Shri S. N. Datta is justified? What relief, if any, is he entitled to?

Both the parties appeared in this case and submitted their written statements. In short, the case of the Union is that Shri S. N. Datta, an Assistant Chemist of the Company, was to get his due annual increment of wages in July 1963 but the Company refused to give the increment on frivolous ground. The Union took up the cause of Shri Datta and as no settlement could be arrived at during the conciliation proceeding, the matter had to be referred to the Tribunal for decision. The Union wants to say that Shri Datta was entitled to get the annual increment in July 1963 in normal and due course of business.

The case of the Company, on the other hand, is that according to the terms of employment Shri Datta is eligible to periodical increment in the appropriate time scale at the discretion of the management. Such increment is not automatic but contingent upon efficiency, punctuality and good conduct of employees. It has been alleged by the Company that Shri Datta was very irregular in his attendance and that on account of the irregular and unsatisfactory attendance the management did not grant him the increment in question. It has been asserted by the Company that the stoppage of increment to Shri Datta for the year 1962-63 was for just and sufficient cause under the terms of his employment.

Several documents have been exhibited on both the sides. Two witnesses incluiding Shri Datta have been examined on the side of the Union, and the Company has examined three witnesses on its side.

The Company has not challenged the character of the present dispute. The evidence shows that the Union of the employees of the Company has espoused the cause of Shri Datta. I am satisfied that the present dispute is an industrial dispute. The main or rather the only contention raised from the side of the Company is that according to the service conditions the management has the sole discretion regarding the grant of increment in the scale of wages and that the increment is not sutomatic. According to the Company, the management was unsatisfied about the attendance of Shi Datta and, therefore, the management was justified in not allowing any increment which was a sort of reward for the efficient and satisfactory work done by the employee. Shri Jinwalla has strenuously argued that the increment, according to the terms of service, is a sort of reward to be given by the management of the Company if it is satisfied that the employee concerned deserves such reward for his Patta was absent from duty during the year 1962-63 evering about 123 days obtaining sick leave, privilege leave and casual leave. The learned Counsel for the Company submits that the management found that Shri Datta was not keen about his scruice and, therefore, increment was refused by the management as Shri Datta did not deserve any reward. Shri Datta Majumdar, learned Counsel for the Union, has argued that according to the terms of service relied upon by the Company, Shri Datta was to get his normal increment for the year 1962-63 when no misconduct or inefficiency had been proved against Shri Datta. It has been argued from the side of the Union that the management had no discretion to stop the increment of Shri Datta without any just and proper reason. It has been contended by Shri Dutta Majumder that in the present case the stoppage of increment to Shri Datta was been stopped by way of punishment without holding any enquiry whatsoever against Shri Datta.

The Service Card of Shri Datta is Ext. A. Shri Datta was appointed on 21st July 1961. In July 1962 he got an annual increment. His pay was raised to Rs. 140 per month. Shri Datta by a letter, dated 20th July 1963, brought to the notice of the management of the Company that his increment fall due in the month of July 1963. ment fell due in the month of July 1962 in the new grade. He prayed for adjustment in the salary accordingly. The letter is Ext. G. This letter shows that an officer of the Company remarked that he was not satisfied with the work of Shri Datta and that Shri Datta absented himself too much. On this ground the officer did not recommend for the incre-ment. By a letter, dated 23rd July 1963, the Com-pany informed Shri Datta that no increment would be allowed on account of his irregular and unsatisfactory attendance referred to in the letter, dated 19th July 1963. It was further stated that increment was not automatic and it depended upon several factors including attendance. The copy of the letter, dated 23rd July 1963, is Ext. H. The letter, dated 19th July 1963, is Ext. H. In this letter the Company informed Shri Datta that he was frequently absent from work and that the management took a serious view of the matter. Admittedly, Shri Datta took several kinds of leave, namely, sick leave, privilege leave and casual leave, during the period from July 1962 to June 1963. In 1961-62 also Shri Datta was absent for about 40 days. In July 1962, however, no objection was raised from the side of the Company when the question of increment came up for consideration. There is no doubt that during the year 1962-63 Shri Datta was absent for about 123 days and the Company, however, granted leave for the days of absence. Shri Datta was allowed sick leave, privilege leave and casual leave. Shri Datta during the evidence has made statements regarding the bona fides of his absence on leave. Mr. Churchil for the Company has stated in evidence that all the leaves were sanctioned by the Company. Mr. Churchil has stated, 'All the leaves taken by Shri Datta during the period from July 1962 to June 1963 were sanctioned by the Company and they were according to Leave Rules of the Company". It is admitted that when the leave was sanctioned, the Company did not enquire into the bona fides of Shri Darta in the matter of taking leave. Mr. Churchil goes on to say "Shri Datta was punished no doubt by the increment but we exercised our durn matter....... We did not give any or increment. There had been no enquire of stoppage of his increment."

In this connection let us consider the service relied upon by both the Companion. They can be found in clause if in Ext. D(1). The provision runs as follows:

"All increments will be at disorted. However, it is they they will receive their incremental provided they are efficient. Page have good conduct."

The Company has relied upon Evt Denclosures showing the grades and scale of the Assistant Chemists. From the evident witnesses on the side of the Company 12 field that Shri Datta knew about the new of scales of pay of the Assistant Chemists in January 1962. I have no manner of the Shri Datta accepted the grades and the pay and the service conditions mentions. Annexure to Ext. D and also in Ext Divinity of the Assistant Chemistry pay and the service conditions mentions.

Let us now understand the clause X terms of service relating to the Assistan ( The word "discretion" mean discretion of action. "Discrete" means pruden or a speech or action. Discretion therefore despotic and mala fide sweet will with w fication. Discretion implies reasonable prudent action. The word "punctual" ma vant of appointed time and not late Page a workman therefore implies observance duty hours not being late. On the other ha comes late or goes earlier in violation of hours, it may be stated that he is ac The next important word appearing in it is "normally". The word "normal". is the Oxford Dictionary, means regular or The word "regular" means "following or a principle; consistent; systematic; hat capricious or casual; not defective or amat. or done uniformly". From the reading of referred to above, it is clear that the Chemists will be entitled to the increment matically and as a matter of principal management will be at liberty to everes dent and reasonable view whether to a ment if the workmen in question are fo cient, unpunctual and of bad conduct noted that in this clause it has not been the increment will not be automatic from the clause that the yearly incremen vided for the Assistant Chemists as a except in certain cases as mentioned the dictionary meaning of the word "autimechanical; unconscious; self-acting". stated that the increment will be normally the workmen provided they are efficient, and have good conduct. This DI OVISO indicates that the increment will not be to the workmen mechanically even if they nd inefficient or unpunctual or of bad conduct. juse says that the management will use its on if the workmen are hit by the proviso. urchil has clearly stated that the stoppage ment to Shri Datta was a punishment. one allegation that Shri Datta was ineffihis works or that he was guilty of any uct The only allegation is that during the 2.63 he was absent for a large number of 1 obtained leave therefor. There is no allehat he was habi ually late in attending his t is not the case of the management that ta was not punctual in the matter of obserdu v hours. The argument of the Company the pattern of attendance of Shri Datta the year in question shows that he was not ibut his du'ies. I have already indica ed that I leaves obtained by Shri Datta were sancby the Company and that they were accord-the leave rules of the Company. If the leave permitted, Shri Da'ta was not in fault to avail f of the leaves which were, in fact, sanctioned Company. If the Company thought that the were not bona fide, it could have easily proagainst Shri Datta. In this case no such is taken. Shri Datta was not asked to show n this matter and no enquiry was held. Even me, there is no material to hold that he of Shri Datta was illegal or unjustified or the Company knows that the stoppage ment to Shri Datta was punishment but still inflicting the said punishment the Company cire to give any opportunity to Shri Datta nd himself. Rather, the conduct of the Comppears to be unreasonable when Shri Datta ashed without any inquiry whatsoever. I am at I cannot accept the contention of Arri Jin-

The parties appeared in response to notices issued by this Tribunal and filed their respective written statements in due course. Shri Phani Bagchi, General Secretary of the concerned Union, was representing the Union during the early stages. He was detained for some time under the Defence of India Rules and sent two applications for adjournment from the jail where he was detained. The applications were allowed and adjournments were granted. After his release from detention, Shri Phani Bagchi again acted for the Union in relation to these proceedings for some time and finally he authorised Shri Amaresh Bhattacharya, an Advocate, to act on behalf of the Union in this case. During the course of the proceedings, the Company filed an application purporting to be signed by the workmen of the Company and stating that the workmen were not interested in the present dispute and had no concern with it. The petition was kept with the record. A petition of objection against this purported petition of the workmen was filed on behalf of the Union by the authorised Advocate, Shri Amaresh Bhattacharya. This petition of objection was also kept with the record. The case was finally fixed for hearing on 31st March 1965. On that date, there was no appearance by or on behalf of the Union. The Company's representa-tive was, however, present. In order to give one more chance to the Union, the case was adjourned to 21st April 1965 for hearing. On that date too, there was again no appearance by or on behalf of the Union, though the Company's representative was present. From the absence of the Union on two final dates of hearing, 31st March 1965 and 21st April 1965, it is clear that the Union is not pursuing the dispute for adjudication and has given up the dispute with the result that there is now no adjudicable dispute before this Tribunal. It is the Union which raised the dispute and as the Union is not now taking any interest in the dispute and is not pursuing it for adjudication, there is practically no dispute for adjudication before this Tribunal in spite of the formal appearance of the Company's representative before the Tribunal. In these circumstances, the case is to be disposed of by a "no dispute" award.

In the result, I make a "no dispute" an

Decision

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act. Both parties appeared and filed their written statements. On 21st March 1965 both parties appeared with a joint petition of compromise. Petition of compromise was signed by the General Secretary Shri Sadhan Prosad Dutta for the Union and Sk. Idris Ali for the Company. Under the terms of compromise the Company agreed to pay Rs. 220 to the workman Shri Gopal Chandra Maity and the amount had been paid to him and Gopal made an endorsement upon the joint petition. The reference is thus disposed of in terms of the settlement. The joint petition do form part of the award.

AWARD

This proceeding arises out of an application under section 33A Industrial Disputes Act, filed by the workman, Shri Ganesh Pal, complaining that the Company vindictively and illegally kept him under suspension by way of punishment for an indefinite period after the domestic enquiry into the charge-sheet issued to him and without making any decision. It is also alleged that the Company did not comply with the relevant provisions of section 33, Industrial Disputes Act, though at the time of his suspension by way of punishment, the adjudication proceedings of another dispute between the Company and its workmen, referred to this Tribunal by Government Order No. 1662-1.R./IR/8L-16(B)/62, dated the 10th May 1962, were pending.

The Company appeared and submitted its written statement. It denied the allegations made by the concerned workman and supported its action. After necessary preliminary proceedings and some adjournments, the case was finally fixed for hearing on 25th March 1965. But, in the meantime, on 4th March 1965, the Company filed a petition praying for a "no dispute" award along with a letter of the concerned workman to the Company, intimating that instead of keeping the matter pending any further, he was resigning from the Company's service and requesting the Company to accept his resignation. It is stated in the Company's application that after submitting the resignation, the workman has left on taking payment of all his legal dues by settlement.

The Tribunal waited till 25th March 1965, the date already fixed for final hearing of the case, before passing any final order upon the petition. The case was again put up on 25th March 1965. None appeared for the workman to pursue or prosecute his application. In these circumstances, I accept the Company's petition and hold that the workman has resigned from the Company's service and has thereby withdrawn from the dispute covered by the application under section 33A and so there should be a "no dispute" award in the case.

In the result, I make a "no dispute" award in the case.

he tiovernment of West Bengal, Labour Dement, by its order No. 3922-I.R./IR/71-34/ lated Calcutta, the 1st September 1964 has ned an industrial dispute between Messrs. phbar Jute Mills (P) Ltd., and their workmen resented by the National Union of Jute pkers, (ingalbhai Jute Mill Committee. The pissue contained in the order of reference is:

Whether the discharge of Shri Abu Bakkar is partified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

his is a reference under section 10 of the Indusl Disputes Act. The dispute is between his tiagalbhai Jute Mills (P) Ltd, and their kmen represented by the National Union of e Workers, (fagalbhai Jute Mill Committee. I mion as well as the company filed their reshic written statements and on the date of hearadduced oral and documentary evidence in port of their respective cases. Both parties re represented by lawyers and they addressed ument to the Tribunal.

n the written statement the Union contends t Abu Bakkar had been working in the Mills re 1948. He was on active member of the honal Union of Jute Workers which has a local mittee in (iagalbhai Jute Mill and Abu Bakkar the General Secretary of the said Committee the Union. The company disliked the funcmug of the Union within the industrial unit. a Bakkar became unpopular with the company tause of his Union activities. On 15th Decem-1962 Abu Bakkar was served with a chargeset in which he was charged with habitual abice and absence on 10th December 1962 in ricular No enquiry was held into the said arge-sheet and Abu Bakkar was discharged by efter on 1st January 1963. The charge against m Bakkar was framed under rule 14(c)(v) of 'Company's Standing Orders. The dismissal Abu Bukkar is impugned by the Union as un-

The company filed written statement in answer that of the Union in which it was maintained at the Union is not a Union of this industrial it and this is not an industrial dispute but an industrial dispute. The Tribunal accordingly has jurisdistion to decide the reference. The Union named in the order of reference has no locus standiand cannot espouse the cause of Abu Bakkar. With regard to merits of the charge-sheet the company contends that the charge had been proved to the hilt in a departmental enquiry held by the Manager after giving due opportunities to the workman of meeting the charge. The workman was habitually absent and as such his conduct amounts to misconduct under rule 14(c)(v) of the Company's standing orders. He was accordingly rightly discharged by the company and the said order of discharge should be upheld by the Tribunal.

Decision

Before I proceed to decide the issue on merits a finding should be recorded as to whether it is an individual dispute or an industrial dispute. is a point which has been specifically raised in the written statement of the company in paragraph 2. The order of reference is impugned as bad in law inasmuch the dispute referred is not an industrial dispute. The onus is upon the Union to prove that it is an industrial dispute. In order to prove this the Union will have to prove the following. The Union is the National Union of Jute workers which is a Union of Jute Industry no doubt but it is not the exclusive Union of the workers of Mesers Gagalbhai Jute Mill (P) Ltd. The Union contends that a substantial number of workers of this unit are members of the National Union and there is a committee of that Union functioning within this unit. This evidence of P.W.1. Abu Bakkar, the discharged wokrer, is corroborated by the evidence of P.W.2. Shri Asoke Ranjan Sanyal, who gave evidence on the side of the Union. The evidence of Shri Sanyal is that about 600 workers of (lagalbha: Jute Mill were members of the Union in question at the relevant period when the reference was made. Reference was September 1964. The membership of this Union from the workers of Gugalbhai Jute Mill was more than 600 from April 1964 to March 1965 which covers the relevant time when the dispute was raised and espoused. In support of the oral testimony the membership resigster has been filed. It is Ext. 2 which shows the list of members from the workers of this jute mill. The membership register of previous year 1962-63 was also filed. Subscriptions are collected and the conterfoil books are Ext. 3 series. P.W.2. Shri Sunyal further stated that the Union espoused the cause of Abu Bakkar. He further added that at a general meeting of workers of the Gagalbhai Jute Mills, the General Secretary of the Union was authorised to espouse the cause of Abu Bakkar and Shri Sanyal was present at that time. It is true that there is no record of that meeting but the oral testimony of Shri Sanyal that at a meeting the workers of Gagal-bhai Jute Mill espoused the cause of Abu Bakkar is not challenged or there is no counter evidence on which I can discard the said testimony. From the evidence discussed above it emerges that about 600 workers of Gagalbhai Jute Mill are members of the National Union which is a Union exclusively of Jute Industry and that it is a substantial number having representative capacity. It further emerges from the evidence on record that at a meeting of the workers of this Union the dispute of Abu Bakkar was espoused by other workers of the same Union. This would be enough to vest the character of an industrial dispute in the discharge of Abu Bakkar. I hold accordingly that this is an industrial dispute and the reference is not bad in law. The Tribunal has jurisdiction to record its finding on the issue framed in the order of reference.

Now I will consider the main issue itself, whether the discharge of Abu Bakkar is justified. On 1st January 1963 Abu Bakkar was discharged, vide Ext. D. The reason assigned for the discharge in Ext. D is habitual absence without leave which in 1962 has been found to be 13 days up to 15th December 1962 when the charge-sheet was issued. It is an offence under standing orders No. 14(c) (v). The workman challenges that this order of discharge is malafide and unjustified. Abu Bakkar in his evidence stated that he was also the Joint Secretary of the Committee of the Union in proviews years. He wants to make out a case that being the Secretary of the Union he was not in the good book of the company and the company proceeded against him in a malafide manner. The facts are as follows: He received the charge-sheet, Ext. A, on 15th December 1962. The charge was that his record of absence during 1962 show quite a large number of days of habitual absence without leave in the said year. was a misconduct according to the standing orders, clause 14(c)(v). He was also absent without leave on 10th December 1962. The reply to the charge-sheet is Ext. B. The workman characterised the charge-sheet as vague, since the number of days of absence was not dated in the chargesheet. Thereafter the company issued a letter, Ext. 1, on 18th December 1962 giving particulars of unauthorised absence. In that very letter the workman was asked to appear for enquiry on next day, namely, 19th December 1962. The enquiry day, namely, 19th December 1962. was commenced according to the company on 19th December 1962. The proceedings of the enquiry is Ext. C. Shri Patel was the Enquiring Officer. He is also the Manager of the Jute Mill. Shri Patel gave evidence before me to say that the enquiry was commenced by him on 19th December 1962 and that the Personnel Officer Shri Roy and Overseer Shri Desai were present at the enquiry. He further added that Abu Bakkar was present. The evidence of Abu Bakkar is that he received the charge-sheet as well as the letter Ext. 1, but he was not asked to give any reply to Ext. 1. He, however admitted that he was called at the enquiry but in fact no enquiry was held in his presence. His evidence is that on several days he was told that no enquiry could be held on that day. The substance of his evidence is that there was no enquiry held in his presence. On this point there is the evidence of Shri Patel who stated on oath that he held the enquiry. Proceedings of enquiry is produced before me (Ext. C.) written on the dictation of Shri Patel by one of his subordinate. Shri P. Roy, the Personnel and Welfare Officer of the company, gave evidence be-fore the Tribunal. He corroborated the statement of Shri Patel. He testifies to the fact that Abu Bakkar was present of all the stages of the enquiry. Relying upon the evidence of Shri Patel and Shri Roy it is reasonable to come to the finding that in et an enquiry was held in presence of Abu Bakkar though however the proceedings does not contain any signature of the charge-sheeted work men. Shri Patel explained it by saying it is practice to obtain the signature of the signat

- (2) whether there is victimisation or the habour practice;
- (3) whether the management is guilty of he error or violation of principles of name justice;
  - (4) whether on the materials the finding completely baseless and perverse

On the evidence of Abu Bakker I can as come to conclusion that he had copy of the chan sheet and the detailed statement of absenteens tained in Ext 1 and the enquiry was held n presence. He was accordingly given reason opportunities of meeting the charge against Before the Tribunal it is contended on the mid Abu Bakkar that he received the detailed and ment of charge on 18th December 1962 and the quiry was commenced on the next day, is, 18 December 1962. The time appear to be short in Abu Bakkar did not make any complain to the management on that ground nor did he apply he time to the enquiring officer. Even in his ender before this Tribunal he does not say that the ter was too short for him for getting his case properly represented. That is not his case even not written statement before me. Abu Bakka was dingly get reasonable opportunities of delening himself at the enquiry. The enquiry that was be cannot be said to be unfair or opposed to the preciples of natural justice. #### AWARD

This is an application under section 33A, Industrial Disputes Act, by Shri Mohit Kumar Biwsas, an employee of Vishnupur Municipality, the O.P., complaining that he was discharged from service on 15th June 1964 during the pendency of adjudication proceedings of another dispute between the Municipality and the workmen, referred to this Tribunal by G.O. No. 3623-IR., dated 19th July 1960, but without complying with the relevant provisions of section 33, Industrial Disputes Act, and so, the discharge was illegal and it was also unjustified.

The Municipality appeared and filed its written statement. The case was finally fixed for hearing on 1st April 1965. On that day, the applicant workman's authorised representative, Shri B. Chatterjee, General Secretary, West Bengal Municipal Employees' Federation, appeared and filed a petition stating that the dispute had been unicably settled and the workman had been reinstated in service. In view of this petition, the dispute must be deemed to have ceased to exist and so, the case is to be disposed of by a 'no dispute' award.

In the result, I make a 'no dispute' award in the case.

S. K. RAY,

Judge, Seventh Industrial Tribunal,

This reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act has been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication of the following issue:

Whether Shri Gopal Chandra Das is entitled to the Bonus paid to the other workmen before the Puja of 1963? The parties are Messrs. S. N. Narasingha Datta Road, Howrah, and Morkers' Union, C/o. Shri Anad. Dusnagar, Howrah.

Both the parties appeared in this mitted their written statements

In short, the case of the working Gopal Chandra Das was retrendal 1963, but he was not paid Puja hope a The case of the company was that the of Shri Das was made before the bear the year 1963 and he was not entitled bonus. Some adjournments were obtained parties on the ground that negative going on for compromise (In the last journment was given on that ground ordered that in case of failure of the come to a compromise, hearing would on 6th April 1965. Today the matter to at about 11 a.m. Shri P. N. Mallick at the company was present but none on he workmen was found. I waited up to !! in spite of the fact, neither the un workman appeared before this Tubui has been taken from the side of the we cause has been shown by the l'ang h appearance today. In the circumstant the case ex-parte in presence of the Christian P. N. Mallick examines limit of the employers. His evidence is that proprietor of Meners. S N. Malliel 4 Gopal Chandra Das was retrenched is a of August 1963, that he was paid all he wages and retrenchment compension was paid Puja bonus for the years 1% that he was retrenched before the lar held in 1963 and that as he was not mid ment of the company before the Pups, i entitled to Puja Bonus for the ven 18 tedly, Durga Puja was held after the ed of Shri Das. The retrenchment is a The evidence shows that in pre-Shri Dus got Puja Bonus while in the the Company. The evidence further Shri Das was retrenched before the la in the year 1963 and that he was paid and retrenchment compensation A: 1 Puja, therefore, Shri Das was not in the the company and I think Messrs > V Co. were justified in not paying an P to Shri Das. Moreover, there is no ! prove that the dispute over the case of ! an industrial dispute.

In view of my finding above, the sanswered against the workmen and Shri Gopal Chandra Das is not entitled to Bonus for the year 1963.

an application under section 33A of the l Disputes. Act filed by one Gopal Banetice against his employers Messrs, Docking and Engineering Co. Ltd., 6 Road, Howard. In short, the allegation authors is that during the pendency of a under the Industrial Disputes Act before uned, the opposite party, namely, Messrs, Docking & Engineering Co. Ltd (heresterred to as the Company), suspended two days without pay by way of punishthout holding any enquiry against him, an alleged that the punishment was withjustification and that the principles of justice were not followed.

The Company filed a written statement stating that the application is not maintainable as the provision of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act was not violated. It has been further alleged that for misconduct of the petitioner, the Company suspended him on consideration of the facts and circumstances. It has been stated that the petitioner permitted the gate attendant of the Company, one B. D. Manna, to leave the gate during the duty hours unlawfully and without obtaining permission of his superior officer, that no alternative arrangement was made for posting a substitute in place of the gate attendant and that the action of the opposite party amounted wilful neglect of duty.

Today was fixed for hearing of the case but the petitioner has failed to appear in this case. Nobody has come on his behalf either. The Company has appeared with its witnesses and examined one witness. Some documents have also been marked exhibits.

In ordinary course the present application of Shri Banerjee is liable to be dismissed for non-prosecution as he has not appeared before this Tribunal at the time of hearing to pursue his case. No reason has been assigned for his absence. The Rule 21 trained by the Government of West Bengal under the Industrial Disputes Act says that if without sufficient cause being shown, any purty to a proceeding fails to attend, the Tribunal may proceed as if such party had duly attended or had been represented. If, according to this rule, it is presumed that the non-appearing applicant had attended, even then, the present application is liable to be dismissed on account of the absence of evidence on his side

I have, however, asked the Company whether any evidence would be adduced on its side. The Company has, however, examined one withness. He is the Security Officer of the Company. He says that Shri Banerjee allowed a gate-keeper B. D. Manna to leave his place on 5th February 1964 without obtaining any premission from the witness or any other authority. The applicant was not authorised to give permission to Shri Manna to leave his place. Shri Banerjee did not make any other arrangement for posting a substitute at the gate in his place after allowing him to leave and he did not also inform the witness or any authority that he had allowed Shri Manna to leave

The first contention raised from the side of the Company is that the present application is not maintainable as the provision of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act has not been violated. Admittedly, no enquiry was held before suspending Shri Banerjee for two days without pay. The Company wants to say that the management considered the chargeshoet and the explanation submitted by Shia Banerjee and thereafter he was suspended. Admittedly again, the Company has no Standing Orders relating to the workmen like Shri Banerjee. The question is whether the Company violated the provisions of section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act. There is no doubt that Shri Banerjee was punished for misconduct, not connected with the main reference. In the absence of the Standing Orders, the Company should have held an enquiry against Shri Banerjee offering him opportunity to defend himself. The principles of natural justice demand such kind of enquiry, although there were no Standing Orders in this Company. As Shri Banerjee was suspended by the Company without any enquiry and without offering opportunity to Shri Banerjee for his selfdefence, I should hold that the provisions of section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act was violated and, as such, the present application is maintainable under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. I shall, however, consider whether the evidence adduced by the company justifies the order of suspension passed against Shri Banerjee. The Security Officer has given evidence on oath. The chargesheet is Ext. 1. The allegation is that on 5th February 1964 Shri Banerjee allowed Shri Manna to leave the duty Post from 1-30 p.m. without making any alternative arrangement for a gate-keeper as a result whereof, the gate remained unattended. The further allegation is that this fact was not intimated to the Security Officer. Ext. 2 is the explanation submitted by Shri Banerjee. He does not deny the fact that Shri Manna was allowed to leave. Shri Banerjee wanted to say that he asked Shri Manna to get his leave authenticated by the Security Officer on the following day. Shri Banenjee further wanted to say that as he was very busy with his work on the following morning, he could not get any opportunity to Speak to the Security Officer about it. From the evidence of O.P.W.I., the Security Officer, it is quite clear that Shri Banerjee had no authority to allow Shri Manna to leave his post or allow him to be off duty without obtaining the permission from the witness or any authority. It is also clear that Shri Banerjee did not obtain any such permission. Nor did he inform about this fact to the Security Officer or any other authority on the following day. It is clear therefore that on account of the action of Shri Bancrjee the gate of the factory remained unattended for a long time. Shri Banerjee did not care to place any substitute at the gate in place of Shri Manna. This conduct of Shri Banerjee was certainly objectionable and prejudicial to the interest of the Company. The conduct of Shri Banerjee violated the discipline of the administration. There can be no doubt that the action—of Shri Banerjee amounted to misconduct.—The suspension order passed by the General Manager, marked Ext. 3, was therefore justified and proper. Shri Banerjee could have no grievance against it. The order was bona fide and legal. I should note in this connection that Exts. 4, 4(a) & 5 show that in the mean time Shri Banerjee tendered his resignation and left the service of the company and that the resignation was accepted.

In the result the application fails and it is rejected.

the service of the usual notice, the Union workmen had submitted its written states and the (company had also submitted its statement. In the written statement submitted its the Union on behalf of the workmen, stated that the subordinate staff comprising the following categories:—

her peons. sk peons. a boys. bitmatgar. aftrus. hee bearers. dectrician's helpers. weepers plawn labourer. gsalchis itman. arwans. 'ooks ead cook lectric mistry. arpenters. )riv 15.

the Charter of Demands which is annexed written statement, there are 7 groups from F Group A comprises of Waiting peon, Dak Office bearer, Duftry, Khansama, Tea boy, er and Godown coolies. Group B comprises awan and Lattman, Group C comprises of Mistry. Groups D, E and F comprising evers. Cooks and Carpenters respectively, males and scales of pay have been specifi-mentioned in the Charter of Demands. It d that there have been revision of wages in is merentile and commercial concerns and Messrs Duncan Brothers has a financial ity to pay the increased wages demanded by arkmen Regarding the age of retirement stated that the retiring age should be fixed years. Regarding gratuity, reference has made to the Charter of Demands and it is hat the Company has the financial capacity y the gratuity as claimed by the Union in Charter of Demands. The claim has been under three heads, namely, (1) on the death employee while in service of the Company his physical or mental disability to conturther in service, (2) on voluntary retire-or resignation of an employee after 15 service in the Company, and (3) on termiof service of an employee by the Company. not necessary to mention the details of the er of Demands in view of the settlement has been arrived at.

the written statement filed on behalf of the any it has been ulleged that the reference is mintainable in law and on the facts disclosed. It is a well known fact that the Tea and Jutees which comprises the main source of the any's income is faced with progressively inag competition in the international market both from Asian countries and from African countries. That the strength of subordinate staff in the Company is high in proportion to clerical and other staff. The productivity in general has been low and any plans of rationalisation of the strength of working force have invariably been opposed by the Union and that the financial position of the Company has reached so tar, is largely due to favourable market and other conditions and the management believes that the workmen have not, as a whole, put in their fair share to the prosperity of the organisation. It is further alleged that the existing pay scales by and large compare favourably with other commercial houses in the area and there has been no material change in the circumstances which would warrant revision of the scales of pay at this stage and that the terms and conditions laid down in the Third Omnibus Engineering Tribunal's Award covering the major engineering industries in West Bengal are far below the facilities enjoyed by the workmen in this organisation. Therefore, there is no justification to revise the basic wages of the subordinate staff unless the revision goes hand in hand with rationalisation in production and productivity of the concemed workmen.

Regarding the age of retirement it is said that in the majority of the mercantile firms in the area is 58 years, provided the employees concerned are found physically and mentally fit to continue their employment beyond the age of 65 years. Regarding the gratuity it is said that the Provident Fund Act, 1952, had been recently made applicable to the mercantile firms and the employers have to continue 61% on both basic pay and dearness allowance and that the employers have also to pay the dearness allowance according to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce Formula and that there is also the limited pension scheme to provide relief on an ex-gratia basis to the members of the subordinate staff who may be in distress. The Company, however, is prepared to consider the introduction of the reasonable gratuity scheme provided that an overall agreement is reached in respect of the other terms of the service more or less on the lines applicable to the clerical staff. Lastly it is said that the Company is still willing to negotiate at bi-partite level in respect of this dispute if the Union in willing to co-operate to come to a reasonable settlement.

The case was fixed on 11th March 1965 for hearing after filing of certain documents by the Union and the Company. On 11th March 1965 certain documents were marked on behalf of the Union and on behalf of the Company after dispensing with formal proof. Thereafter it was represented to me that there is a talk of settlement between the parties and that some terms had already been settled. Accordingly I adjourned the hearing to 19th March 1965 for effecting the settlement. The case had again to be adjourned to 25th March 1965 and then to 1st April 1965 to enable the parties to come to a reasonable settlement regarding the disputes. Today a joint petition of compromise has been filed signed by the Assistant Secretary on behalf of the Union and the Personnel Officer on behalf of the Company. I have heard the Learned Counsel appearing for the Company and the Learned Advocate appearing on behalf of the l'nion. It appears to me that the terms of settlement are bonn fide, reasonable and legal and should be given effect to. The terms are mentioned in Annexure A and should form part of the award. I accordingly pass an award in terms of the memorandum of agreement between the parties and direct that the memorandum of agreement as per annexure A should form a part of the award.

is an application under section 33A. Indusputes Act, by Shri Tinkari Hudait, a workof the Company O.P., Messrs. Steel Rolling of Hindustan (P.) Ltd., complaining of illegal midictive refusal of employment to him with om 8th November 1962, during the pendency adjudication proceedings of another dispute the Company and its workmen, referred to nbunal by G. O. No. 3537-I.R., dated 6th 1962, but without complying with the releovisions of section 33, Industrial Disputes Act.

The Company appeared in response to the notice issued by this Tribunal and in due course filed its written statement. After necessary preliminary proceedings and some adjournments, including one adjournment for a month granted on the prayer of Shri Phani Bagchi, who appeared as representative of the workman made in a petition sent from Dum Central Jail where he was detained under the D.I.R., the case was finally fixed for hearing on 2nd April 1965. Shri Phani Bagchi's petition made from Dum Dum Central Jail was dated 17th February 1965 and it was received in this Tribunal on 19th February 1965. It was put up on the next date fixed for the case, 1st March 1965, and on the basis of the petition, time was granted till 2nd April 1965. In the petition, Shri Bagchi specifically asked for adjournment for a march and stated that he was appearance. ment for a month and stated that he was arranging to appoint another representative to appear on behalf of the workman. On 2nd April 1965, the date to which the case was adjourned on Shri Phani Bagchi's petition sent from Dum Dum Central Jail. there was no appearance by or on behalf of either party and no step was taken. In spate of this, the Tribunal suo moto adjourned the case to 24th April 1965 in order to give one more chance to the applicant to appear and take part in the hearing of the application. On 24th April 1965 also there was no appearance by either party and no step was taken. From the non-appearance of the applicant or his representative on 2nd April 1965 and then on 24th April 1965, it may be safely held and presumed that the applicant is not pursuing the dispute raised in his application for adjudication and has given up the dispute which has thereby ceased to exist as an adjudicable dispute. In view of this position, the case is to be disposed of by a "no dispute" award.

In the result, I make a "no dispute" award in the case.

By order No. 2100-I.R./IR/8L-18/64, dated the 10th June 1964, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Sri Durga Cotton Spinning & Weaving Mills Ltd., Konnagar, Hooghly, and their workmen represented by Sri Durga Cotton Mills Mazdoor Union, Konnagar, Hooghly, regarding the matter specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal, constituted under section 7A of the Industrial Disputes Act, by notification No. 808-I.R./IR/3A-2/57, dated the 11th March 1957, for adjudication.

Issue

Is the discharge of Shri Dhaneswar justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

The present reference relates to discharge of a workman Shri Dhaneswar by his employer Messrs. Sri Durga Cotton Spinning and Weaving Mills Ltd., Konnagar (hereinafter be referred to as the Company). The worker's cause was sponsored by the Union of the workmen of the aforesaid mill, viz., Sri Durga Cotton Mills Mazdoor Union, Konnagar (hereinafter be referred to as the Union).

Immediately after receipt of the reference notices were issued to the parties who in pursuance thereof appeared and filed written statements. But after some time they amicably settled up the dispute out of the Tribunal and made a joint application before this Tribunal on 26th April 1964 praying for a "no dispute" award.

I have heard the learned representatives of the parties and I am satisfied that the dispute under reference has been satisfactorily settled out of the Tribunal. Therefore, I make a "no dispute" award as prayed for. The joint petition of the parties filed before this Tribunal on 26th April 1965 is made a part of the award as annexure thereto.

This is my award.

Issue

pavable in 1963.

su reference under section 10 of the Indusputes Act. The Union in their written t claimed that the existing wage structure nen in the Company is low and it is even the minimum standard of wages. The Compile the other hand, earned huge profits and areas contribute towards earning of those ut they are denied bonus payable in 1963, non raised the demand on 10th September payment of three months' wages as bonus in 1963. There had been an agreement the Company and the Union by which the been referred to the Tribunai. The Composes the claim of the Union on the please the claim of the Union on the please the claim of the union on the please to the extent of Rs. 17,000 and odd. The bonus is untenable.

Decision

under reference is bonus payable in The reference does not limit the nature or r of honus and it was open to the Union to " type of bonus, be it profit bonus or bonus tion of service or customary or any other benus. In the written statement filed by the hose to limit the claim to profit sharing The written statement is confined to that bonus. The Union stated that the existing rusture was low and that the Company was have profit, a share of which should be the Union That was the only claim. There ven an alternative claim on any other foot-"Company's written statement is also conhe written statement filed by the Union. et d'ince on the side of the Union is that Nita Chandra Das. He states that in tears bonus had been paid at varying The only witness on the side of the Com-O.P.W. 1 who also stated that bonus used to be paid in previous years at the time of pujah but it was at varying raies and the payment was ex-gratia. This is the entire evidence. The Company on the other hand filed break up figures of their statement of assets, liabilities as well as their profit and loss account and other account books. There is no evidence to show that the Company earned any profit; on the contrary, he Company suffered loss during he relevant year as will appear from the balance-sheet, Ext. A for the year 1962. The loss is to the tune of Rs. 17,930. No profit sharing bonus can therefore he claimed by the Union.

At the time of argument Shri Biswanath Ash, lawyer for the Union, tried to make out a case for bonus as a condition of service. On the side of the Company such claim was opposed on the plea that there is no such claim in the written statement filed by the Union. I have gone through all the paragraphs of the written statement and there is no whisper therein in respect of any claim f bonus as a condition of service. There is not even an alternative claim of bonus on that footing. J. K. Iron & Steel Company's case reported in F.J.R Volume IX 419 has been cited before me in support of the pro-position that the Tribunal should confine itself to the pleadings of the parties and ascert in the real dispute from the pleadings. It is not open to the Tribunal to fly off at a tangent and disregarding the pleadings, reach any conclusion that it thinks just and proper or it considers would be good for the workmen. It is true that evidence before the Tribunal indicates that a case for bonus as condition of service would have been good for the workmen but since that is not the case anywhere nor the claim of the Union at any stage it is not open to the Tribunal to investigate into any such claim and pass an award in respect of the same. The Union lawyer has placed before me the case reported in 1964, 2, L.L.J. Supreme Court, page 109. In that case the claim was for profit bonus and there was an alternative claim for 11 months' wages for each year on the basis of an implied terms of service. The present case is therefore distinguishable from the reported case, where however the Supreme Court gave effect to the claim for bonus as a condition of service because there has been payment for a long period at varying rates of bonus and there was no evidence to show that such payments were made ex-gratia.

It is true that the issue referred is open but the issue again is fettered by the pleadings of the parties. Since the Union nowhere claimed bonus as a condition of service, I am unable to give any consideration to the argument advanced in support of such a claim. The workmen therefore are not retitled to profit sharing bonus as claimed in this reference. I answer this issue accordingly. This is my award.

It is further stated that the Secre-Dhiresh Chandra Sarkar has been dis-1 service on and from 17th October 1962 , valid reason and was again called back Thereafter the s on 20th October 1962. e a representation to the Assistant Labour her and others on 21st October 1962. The prehended that there was some ulterior ind the order of taking back Shri Sarkar. h the apprehension came true and Shri been retrenched from service after unfair n on 26th September 1963. As a new been appointed in place of Shri Sarkar, 10 genuine case of retrenchment and therewas the violation of section 25F of the Disputes Act. Another workman named lev who was employed by Messrs. Satya Rice & Oil Mills met with similar fate. was also terminated on 30th December ut any valid reason. That was also a case isation and unfair labour practice. Labour Commissioner had asked the ht of Messrs. Satya Narayan Rice & Oil 9th March 1963 to reappoint Shri Saranan delivery clerk on his previous wages and to Dey an intimation on this behalf. The nt, however, refused to comply with the the Assistant Labour Commissioner and ise report that Shri Dey did not join his therefore has lost the chance of reappointview of the unfair labour practice menove, it is desirable that the mill owners should be directed to lay down formally the conditions of service with sufficient precision and it is also desirable that there should be written contract at the time of appointment regarding terms of service including special terms of service and so on. With regard to the wages it is said that the wages paid to the workmen fall for short of what can be properly described as living wages though there had been continuous increase in the workload. In Annexure the wages of the different classes of the workmen are mentioned and in Annexure "B" the grades and scales of wages of different classes of workmen are mentioned. It is said there is sufficient surplus for which higher wages should be paid without any difficulty. The workmen had further stated that the hours of work may be laid down and there must also be provision for dearness allowance and overtime allowances. There should be a further provision that the attendance of workers on Sundays should be on option and if a workman works on a Sunday, i.e., more than 48 hours a week, the workman is to be paid at double his usual basic rate. There should also be provision for annual increment in this scale, for earned leave and for efficiency bar and another benefits. With regard to permanency it is said that the workmen who had completed two-thirds of the annual work days with a calendar year should be made permanent and service cards should be issued intimating the sufficient precision regarding the conditions of their services. With regard to leave it is said that the workmen should be allowed to enjoy leave with wages as per provisions of the Factories Act, 1947, and leave sick leave, privilege leave and leave under Negotiable Instruments Act, the workmen must be allowed no less than ten days casual leave in a year with wages. With regard to service cards it is said that regular and proper service cards should be issued not only to the permanent workers but also in favour of temporary workers and in this service cards the arrival and departure of the workmen should be noted with the signature and seal of the management. In Annexure "C" of the written statement, there is a copy of the original Charter of Demands Lastly it is said that the workers are in bad financial condition and that they would be highly embarassed and would be disadvantageously placed if the mill owners are allowed to be represented by a legal practitioner and that the workmen would not agree to the representation of a legal practitioner and under the circumstances, both the disputant parties should be allowed to represent their case through their own representative. In the prayer portion it is said that there should be immediate fixation of the grades and scales of pay for all workmen and confirmation in service and permanency and implementation and fixation of leave rules and 10 days' casual leave in a year and for immediate issue of service cards to all workmen.

The Rice Mills which I had mentioned above had filed a written statement alleging that the disputes under reference do not amount to industrial disputes inasmuch as the disputes raised under the Charter of Demands, dated 13th August 1962, were the subject matter of conciliation proceedings and continued for a pretty long time and later on was treated as closed. In the circumstances, the reference is belated and misconceived and the proceedings are therefore not maintainable according to law. It is next stated that the Mills never took up any attitude towards the Union and never indulge in any unfair practice or victimisation and never unreasonably refused to attend the joint conference as alleged. With regard to revision of wages it is stated that there was never any proposal for settlement on minimum terms either by the Union or by the Conciliation Officer, the Assistant Labour Commissioner and in view of the stringent economic conditions of the employers, there was no scope for further revision of wages. With regard to the dismissal of Shri Dhiresh Chandra Sarkar and Saranan Dey it is alleged that the question of justification or otherwise is not relevant for consideration of the issues which are the subject matters of adjudication and that the said alleged instances are not mala fide, illegal or unjustified as alleged. With regard to the question of "conditions of service" it is alleged that it was a subject matter of an award of the Fourth Industrial Tribunal, West Bengal, dated 29th January 1959, in respect of 40 rice mills situated in Calcutta and formed the basis for extension of the provisions to other rice mills. It is further alleged that the allegations that the wages paid are low, that there has been continuous increase in workload and that there are any surplus profits are untrue. It is submitted by the mills that the statutory minimum wages under the Minimum Wages Act are paid to the workers and higher wages are also paid by different employers to workmen consistent with their financial capacity. With regard to the demand for production of documentary evidence regarding the annual production and profits for the last 15 years, the employers had denied the liability on the ground that the financial condition of the employers was considered in detail by the Fourth Industrial Tribunal in its award, dated 29th January 1959, in respect of the rice mills industry in Coloutty. With record to the questions of marking the control of the control of marking the control of the control of marking the control of t Calcutta. With regard to the questions of working dearness allowance, overtime allowance. earned leave or the age of retirement, it is said that these questions are beyond the scope of reference and are neither connected with nor relevant to the disputes under reference. With regard to the questions of grades and scales of pay it is said that the mills are suffering from serious financial handicaps and in consequence thereof all the mills mentioned in the list attached to the Order of Reference have been closed since June 1964. It is further stated that the business is of a seasonal nature and remains suspended for about five to six months in a year during the rains and for want of paddy and due to keen competition with the district rice mills, the financial position of the employers is seriously affected that the purchase of paddy and production of rice by district rice mills are made at cheaper rates than the employers who have to purchase paddy from the district, transport the same to their mills at Barrackpore, produce rice and then sell in the market involving higher cost and that there is levy of 25 per cent. imposed on rice mills by Government and the sale price of rice is subject to rice and paddy control orders by Government at every stage. It has also been pointed out that the district mills get supply of paddy direct from agriculturists, whereas the employers get supply from middle men known as Aratdars and thereby creating a difference of price in favour of the district rice mills and against the employers. The employers are further liable to maintain the permanent establishment for five to six months when no work is carried on, whereas the district rice mills carrying on with the help of local villagers are not so handicapped. There is also the uncertainty as the Government is intention to start State Trading in n and therefore it is not known what of the employers can be maintained it has been urged that the banks he overdrafts to the employers against in accordance with the direction of t of India. In the circumstances, if scales of pay are fixed, the employer business and therefore the grade at as mentioned in Annexure B" of t ment of the Union cannot be fixed the staff, it is said that the differ labourers and members of the cle been determined consistent with the by the Minimum Wages Committee scope for exercise of any skill or in charge of different nature of duties the employers, and that since the A Committee had submitted its report. no change of circumstances for the regard to the allegation of vicin labour practice, retrenchment and coe that the employers employ four kings (a) casual labour. With regard to the question und leave it is said that these questions were the subject matter of the award mentioned in which 10 days' casual leave without pay in it was allowed to the members of the permanent and not to the casual or contract labour. This is being followed and is being implemented spect of the permanent staff. With regard to some of Service Cards, the employers allege that was also the subject matter of the award mendiabove and that, that award is being followed, give it is submitted that the workmen are not led to any relief at all as prayed for.

Decision

fore I proceed to consider the issues which have referred to this Tribunal for adjudication, it is sary to refer to the duestion which has been time of opening by the ned President of the Union. The Learned Preit has objected to the representation of lovers by a Lawyer and has drawn my attention Managraph 30 of the written statement on behalf he Union and also a letter, dated 15th January
The letter dated, 15th January 1965, was ht post and was received on 16th January 1965.

January 1965 was the date for filing of docuh In the letter, dated 15th January 1965, it is d that an objection was raised regarding the mission of the written statement signed and led by a Lawyer. In paragraph 30 of the ien statement it has been stated that the workare in a bad state of financial condition and would be highly embarassed and would be dis-intageously placed if the mill owners are allowed e represented by a legal practitioner and therethe workmen would not agree to the represen-m by a mere legal practitioner and it is sub-ed that both the disputant parties should be wed to represent their cases through their own This written statement was put in behalf of the Union on 4th June 1964, but even igh this objection was raised on 4th June 1964, oes not appear to have been pressed before Shri M Lahm, who was then the Presiding Judge of Tribunal The Learned Lawyer had appeared on all of the employers on 21st May 1964. The er sheet, deted 21st May 1964, shows that the hority should be accepted if there was no objecby the other side. On that day, the Union had I a petition for time to file the written statement time was allowed till 4th June 1964 to file the tten statement by the Union. Subsequently, there been the filing of the written stat ment by the k and it also appeared neither party had filed uments before 8th March 1965 which was the e fixed for hearing. The written statement, how-1. which had been filed on behalf of the employers been accepted by Shri D. C. Sirkar, who is the retary of the Union, on 26th October 1964 Even that date no objection was raised by filing a mion to the representation of the employers by all providing a chief. al practitioner. As mentioned earlier, the objecwas only raised and pressed at the time of the union. It appears me that in the circumstances there has been plied consent by the workmen represented by the

3 8 Y 10 1

Union to the representation of the employers by a Lawyer. In this connection I have been referred to the ruling reported in 1957 I, L.L.J., 63-60 C.W.N. 648. Reckitt Coleman of India Ltd. versus J. N. Maitra. In that case it was held by the Hon'ble High Court that the consent impliedly given by the workmen at initial stage of the proceedings cannot be subsequently withdrawn. In that case there was no objection on the part of the Union when the case was heard on one day in part and then was adjourned for effecting settlement and subsequently the objection was raised by filing a petition. The Learned Judge of the Tribinal did not allow the employers to be represented by Lawyer or Counsel and afterwards it had passed an award on the basis of materials on record. The order of the Learned Judge was quashed by the proceeding under Article 226 of the Constitution by his Lordship Sinha J. The facts here are not exactly on all fours with the facts of that case but I am of opinion that the principles laid down in that case should also apply in the facts and encumstances of the present case. It is necessary to refer to the provision regarding the representation of a party by a Lawyer. In the original Act (XIV of 1947) it has been laid down that a party to an ordustrial dispute may be represented by a legal practitioner in any proceeding before a Court or Inbonal (vide sub-section 3 of section 36) It has been had down in sub-section 2 of section 35 that no party to an industrial dispute shall be entitled to be represented by a legal practitioner in any conciliation proceeding under this Act. It is also necessary to refer to section 38(2)(f) of the Act. It has been laid down that the appropriate Government may lay down the conditions subject to which the parties may be represented by legal practitioners in proceedings under this Act before a Court of Tribunal Section to of the Act of 1947 was substituted by Lidestrial Disputes Act (Appellate Tribunal Act of 1950) (Act 18 of 1958). In sub-section Land sub-section 2 of sew section 36, provisions have been made regording representation of the employees and employers inter also by an officer of the Regretized trad. Unson and by an officer of the Association of the employers of which he is a member In sub-ortion 3 of new section 36 it is provided that no party to the dispute shall be entitled to be represent I by feed practitioner in any concil ation princeding under this Act or in any proceeding before a Court. In sub-section 4 of the same section it has been provided that in a proceeding before a Tribinal, a party to the dispute may be represented by a legal practitioner with the consent of the other parties to the proceeding. already referred to section 38(2)(f) of the Act. would appear that before the amendment there was rule, vy. rule 23 of the Bengal Industrial Disputes Rules, 1947, by which it was provided that a party to a reference before a Court or Tribunal may be represented by legal practitioner with the permission of the Court or Fribunal and subject to conditions and restrictions as the Court or Tribunal may ampose That Industrial Disputes Rules, 1947, had been repealed by the Bengal Industrial Disputes Rules, 1958 In the new rules, nothing has been laid down regarding the conditions subject to which the parties may be represented by legal practitioner under this Act before a Tribunal. The reason might be that at the time of the framing of the new rules in 1958, it was thought that in view of the provision of section 36(4) as amended, it is not necessary to frame any rule regarding the conditions subject to which the parties may be represented by legal practitioner in proceeding under this Act before a Tribunal. But it may be pointed out that in spite of the amendment of section 36(4), no necessity was felt for amending section 38(2)(f) of the Industrial Disputes Act. Therefore, the Act contemplated that there might be certain conditions under which a there might be certain conditions under which a legal practitioner can represent a party to a dispute before an Industrial Tribunal. In view of the provision of the Act it appears to me that no rules regarding the conditions had been framed by the Government of West Bengal in 1958 regarding the representation by a party to the dispute before the Industrial Tribunal Apart from this in none of Industrial Tribunal. Apart from this, in none of the rulings which I have looked into, I found any discussion of the words "with the leave of the Tribunal". It appears to me that section 36(4) of the Act provides for the two conditions to be satisfied before the legal practitioners. before the legal practitioner can appear before a Tribunal on behalf of a party to the dispute. The first condition is the consent of the other party to the proceeding and the other condition is the leave of the Tribunal. The other party of the proceeding might give the consent or might not give the consent to the representation by legal practitioner but the legal practitioner cannot appear before the Tribunal on behalf of the party unless the Tribunal gives leave to the lawyer to appear. It appears to me also that even where the other party had not given consent, the Tribunal can, in view of complexities of the case and technicalities of the Industrial law in a particular case, allow a party to the dispute to be represented by a lawyer. Therefore, apart from the question of implied consent which I had mentioned above and which the Union cannot be permitted to withdraw in a subsequent stage of the proceeding, it appears to me that in view of the complexities of this case and the technical question of the Industrial Law involved, the leave of the Tribunal should be granted. I may also mention here that I had intimated to the Learned Representative of the Union that I was overruling his contentions regarding the representation by a lawyer. The Learned President told me that if I was overruling his contentions, the matter might be discussed in the award so that the Union might, if so advised, take proper steps. I have given the reasons why the contention of the Learned Representative of the Union cannot be accepted. The contention, therefore, fails.

With regard to the employers, I have already mentioned that the Mills Nos. 6, 8, 9, 15, 16 and 18 of the list had not appeared though in the written statement, Mills Nos. 6, 9, 15 and 18 had been mentioned. At the time of opening the Learned Lawyer appearing for the employers had merely stated that the Mills No. 6 and 16 are not members of the Association and he was not representing them. It appears to me that the Learned Lawyer had over looked that there was no execution by the Mills Nos. 8, 9, 15 and 18. Therefore, out of the total number of 18, only 12 mills are represented before me by the Learned Lawyer. Out of these mills, the Learned Lawyer told me that the Mills No. (1), Siva Durga Rice Mill, (4) Joy Kali Rice Mill, (10) Lakshmi Narayan Rice Mills and (12) Laxmi Janardan Rice Mill have started working only recently and the other mills have stopped to working since June 1964. The Learned Representative of the Union did not dispute at the time of the argument that the Mills Nos. 6 and 16 are not members of the Association and did not also dispute that at least some of the mills mentioned in the list had stopped to He had, however, pointed out that the refer made in April 1964 and therefore the closure of the mills from June 1964 cannot be computed by the material. I do not think this can be the condition of the mills at or about the reference must have been very precanous wise the mills would not have stopped for within about two months of the date of the to this Tribunal. It will appear later that or considerations of fixation of grades and sak is the outlook of the Industry and future the same points.

There is another matter which has to be before I proceed to discuss the issues which is referred to this Tribunal for adjudicator Learned Lawyer appearing for the employ drawn my attention to section 12(6) of the is laid down that if no settlement is armed conciliation officer, he has to submit a report 14 days of the commencement of the cor proceedings or within such shorter period as fixed by the appropriate Government The proviso which says that the time for submit the report may be extended by such penod be agreed upon in writing by all the panie dispute. The Learned Lawyer had submit there is no agreed writing as to the extent therefore the reference, long after the chademands and long after the conclusion prox must be regarded to be illegal. He also s that there was perhaps, a belated report by ciliation officer; such belated report with agreed writing as to the extension, cannot basis of a valid reference to the Tribunal 1 think that this question has at all been raised written statement. On the other hand, it is stated in paragraph 1 of the written statement mills that the conciliation proceedings went or pretty long time and was later on, treated as and, therefore, the present reference is belat misconceived and the proceeding thereof. maintainable in law. The objection as raised written statement has not been pressed before and the Learned Lawyer had submitted a net tention which cannot be found in the written ment filed by the mills. I do not think the open to the Learned Lawyer to raise this ne tention only at the time of hearing If it ha stated in the written statement that there we agreed writing as to the extension of the ren submission of the report by the conciliation the record might had been called for in order out whether there was really any agreed write to the extension of the period for submission report. In the circumstances I over-rule the tention of the Learned Lawyer appearing on of the mills.

I shall now take up for consideration the sto the grades and scales of pay. Regarding grades and scales of pay it has been held in the sings reported in 1961, I, L.L.J., 663 [Air Lines (P) Ltd. versus their workmen] and 1961, I. 339. [Express Newspapers (P) Ltd. versus Un Indial that wage scales cannot be fixed by Industrial Tribunal, unless it is satisfied that employer is capable of bearing the financial of increased wages. In the case reported in the state of the case reported in the same than the capacity of Industry is one of the essential circumstances to be considered.

e case of bare subsistence or minimum he case reported in A.I.R. 1964, S.C., I LLJ. 380 (Workmen of Balmer nnany versus Balmer Lawrie Company been held by their Lordships of the nut that wage scales are devised and les constructed as matters of long term herefore industrial adjudication would reluctant to interfere with the wage rout jurisdiction or in a light hearted hat when wage structure is framed, all ties are taken into account and norpuld remain in operation for a fairly long where there had been rise in the cost of plea of the workmen that the wages must must be carefully considered. In the case 1959, I. L.L.J., 431 (Lipton Ltd. versus nen), it has been held by their Lordships eme Court that for payment of fair wage nng wage, the financial capacity of the s undoubtedly the relevant consideration pacity to pay is to be considered on indusion basis after taking a fair cross section justry and after taking into account the I demand for the product. The possibihiening up the organisation so that the uld pay higher wages without difficulty n bility of increase in the efficiency of workers result in increase in production subility of increased burden driving the out of business. It is also laid down that result over a period of years must be in determining the financial capacity to purden of wage increased. Lastly, I would be ruling reported in A.I.R. 1964 S.C. 864 ent of Wenger Company versus their li has been held by their Lordships that of wage structure including scales of increlong-term scheme and before it is framed, unal must take into account the overall position of the employer and must be iat the burden imposed by the scheme would yond the means of the employer. In regard umum wage. no such consideration arises is the duty of an industrial employer to pay minimum to his employees. I shall now discuss the evidence in the light of the ciples which had been mentioned above. scussing the evidence. I would, however. that in paragraph 21 of the written statee Union there is a demand for payment of as per annexure "A" filed on behalf of Ir the written statement filed on behalf ployers, it is specifically stated that they are imum wages as laid down by the Minimum There are three kinds of wages. viz. (a) wage. (b) fair wage and (c) living wage. A may be made in this connection that reported in A.I.R. 1958. S.C. 30-1958 I. Messrs Crown Aluminium Works versus ikmen) and (A.I.R. 1958 S.C., 578, Express en Ltd. versus Union of India). It has been in that a minimum wage must provide not or the bare subsistence of life but for preserf the efficiency of the worker that there is a m between bare subsistence or minimum wage Mory minimum wage that the minimum wage minum prescribed by the statute and may be han the bare subsistence of the minimum

at the living wage should enable the worker le for himself and for his family not merely food, clothing and shelter but also education for the children, protection against ill-health, requirements of essential social needs and a measure of insurance against more important misfortunes including old age. and that the fair wage is a mean between the living wage and minimum wage. As I understand, the workmen here are not asking for fair wage but are asking for living wage as explained by their Lordships in the Supreme Court in their rulings mentioned above. The question now is whether the facts and circumstances of this case justify this demand on behalf of the workmen. The Learned Lawyer appearing for the mills had referred me to the Report on the Administration of the Minimum Wages Act, 1948 in the State of West Bengal for the year 1959 and had submitted that even that report shows that the capacity of the Rice Mill Industry is rather low. He had also referred me to the award, dated 30th December 1958 (Ext. A), of the Fourth Industrial Tribunal which was published in the "Calcutta Gazette" 29th January 1959. He had submitted that even with regard to the Calcutta Rice Mills, the grades and scales of pay, having regard to the nature of the industry, was not allowed. I shall first of all refer to 1'M. A. One of the issues referred to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal was "conditions of service". It was urged before the Learned Tribunal Judge on behalf of the workers' Union that the grades and scales of pay of all categories of workmen together with the provisions of annual increment should be decided. On behalf of the rice mills it was condecided. tended that the question relating to the grades and scales of pay and dearness allowance questions are not covered by the issue under reference. It may also be pointed out that another Union of the employees called the Mazdoor Union, did not raise that question before the Learned Tribunal and the Learned Tribunal came to the conclusion that the dispute regarding the introduction of grades and scales of pay with annual increment is not covered by the issue as the conditions of service. It would therefore appear that the precise question which had been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication, did not arise in the Industrial dispute between the Calcutta Rice Mills Association and the employees represented by the two Unions mentioned above. I shall have occasion to refer to the award again when I shall discuss the question of permanency. With regard to the Report referred, my attention has been drawn to page 24 which contains the schedule together with tables 1, 2 and 3 showing the minimum wages and dearness allowance for time-rated workers. the different work-loads for different categories of works and also minimum piece-rates for different works in Rice Mills per 100 bags. There is also a definition of skilled semi-skilled and un-skilled workers. It would appear that Mistry or mechanic or fitter, tindal or engine driver, machineman or hullerman, fireman, boiler attendant are regarded as skilled workers oilman, huskman and khalasi are regarded as semi-skilled workers and huller cooly, cooly for loading and unloading, stacking, marking, steaming, boiling, unpacking, bagging, weighing and sewing and chatal cooly or cooly for drying paddy are regarded as un-skilled workers. It is also mentioned that Sardars and Sardarnis shall get equal remuneration with the workers for supervision and additional remuneration equal to that of workers, if they work with the other workers. The Learned Lawyer had also referred me to the Report of the Minimum Wage (Rice Mills) Committee, West mostly on the supply of paddy through the Government agency or by private procurement; that the work in Rice Mills is stopped generally during the monsoon period, spreading over two to three months in a year, when repairs of the machinery are undertaken to get the Mills ready for the next paddy season; that for the rest of the year works are not generally uniform and that there is rush of work for some time immediately after the paddy is reaped. It was further found that as drying boiled is one of the most important processes preliminary to the process of milling, milling is hampered to some extent when the sky is overcast with clouds; that the number of working days vary from Mill to Mill, that the total paddy supplied by the Government and procured through private agency are not always proportionate to the milling capacity of the different Mills and that in respect of different Rice Mills, the period of working had varied in the year 1946, 1947 and 1948 from six months to seven-half months in a year, month being equivalent to 26 days. It is further mentioned in the Report that the milling processes involves:

- (1) Steaming, boiling and steeping paddy,
- (2) Drying paddy in the drying yard or chatal,
- (3) Actual milling which may be called huller work and
- (4) Bagging, sewing, etc.

These four processes include the works of (a) unloading paddy; (b) carrying paddy from the vat where paddy is steeped to the drying yard or chatal; (c) carrying paddy from the drying yard to the machine room; (d) removing the husk; (e) removing the ash from the furnace; (f) removing the finished rice to the godown in bags with the opening properly sewed up and loading and stacking the bags on the lorries and carts of the Civil Supplies Department lorries and carts of the Civil Supplies Department. With regard to the coolies for steaming, boiling and steeping paddy it is stated that they are employed by a Sardar with whom the Mill enters into a contract for these works: that the Sardar is paid at the contract rate and he distributes the total amount among the number of workers employed after deducting for himself a commission which is different in different Mills and that the Sardar is hardly paid by the Mills. With regard to the Chatal coolies, it is said that the workers are generally people of the locality. It is also said that this work is generally done by females, and in most of the Mills there is a Sardarni who supervises the work and is paid by the Mill. With regard to the Huller Coolies it is said that they feed the husking machine or hullers as they are called, with dried paddy stacked nearby and that they also feed the fanning machine for finishing and carry the finished rice to the godown. In some of the mills, this work is done by the females and in some others, the work is done by males and in few Mills by both males and females working together. With regard to the Huskmen it is said that they help the fireman and cleanse the boiler and also remove the husk. With regard to the Ashmen it is said that generally they are male workers and their duty is to remove the ash from the furnace. The Tindals are in-charge of the engine and are responsible for proper functioning of the engine and they also cleanse the boilers. The Firemen feed the boilers with husk and prepare

The Hullermen or Machinenae fuel. of husking machine and fan and their that no rice is broken and no paddy ( husked. It is next said that besides a there are also clerks doing office wa accounts. Therdor to the Mill owners had been made, to control over the Sardars so that the them may receive a fair deal. As I un Learned Lawyer of the Union did not di rate seriously that the condition of the n not improve since 1952 when the Ren mitted. He also did not dispute that t had been making payment in accordar direction of the Government under the Wages Act which I had referred to a argument, however, was that even th minimum wage cannot be regarded to be and therefore there ought to be revise with the incremental scale. It would i the rulings which I have discussed abo really depends on the financial capacity Before I discuss the question of financial the Mills, I shall shortly discuss the post of the mills who also manufacture mu mustard seeds. The evidence discloses the the oil mills are concerned, they have functioning fairly recently after the supply came available. It would appear that some are trying to provide jobs for the worke ing two different mills, viz.. rice mill i under the same management. It appears in view of the precarious supply both d and of the mustard seeds, the conditions are bad. In fact, the Learned President o did not dispute that at the present mom the mills have stopped running and w going on in very few mills. It was hor that the Khatas had not been filed by order to show that the mills are lying i written statement of the Union there is a directing the mills to produce their papers the pendency of the reference. no appl been filed for direction to put in an affide the pendency of the reference. ments. The Learned Lawyer appearing of the mills had referred me to section I industrial Discussion and the section of the mills had referred me to section I industrial Discussion and the section of th Industrial Disputes Act. It is inter at therein that the Tribunal can compel the of documents as material objects under a lie in of the Act. It is provided inter alia is Nest Bengal Industrial Disputes Rules, 1958. k Tribunals have the power to order discovery inspection of documents. The order-sheet that the Union did not take any steps. I may out that an application was filed on 13th 17 1965 on behalf of the mills stating that as mile excepting 1 or 2 are closed, and as there one to look after the mills now, it is not possiw to file the list of documents. It appears to at in the facts and circumstances of the present no adverse inference can be drawn against the for non-production of the papers in connection the running of the mills. It is quite true that ermanent men excluding the contract labourers avail labourers are still in the employment of alls concerned. But the evidence of O.P.W.1 excepting 2 or 4 rice mills all other rice mills nsed, that the conditions of the rice mills are hat those two or four rice mills are closed for months and they started functioning about 15 igo and would be closed shortly and that there sunnly of paddy to the mills. His evidence shows that the permission from the other t authorities regarding the supply of paddy t be channed and that previously there was the extent of 25 per cent, of the rice and now y) to the extent of 100 per cent. He had I salted that there is no work during the rainy that the Chief Minister of West Bengal was sed about the refusal of the district authorities ipply paddy and that the Chief Minister had 1 to say that he cannot do anything regarding atter of supply of paddy. Exhibit D is letter on behalf of the Chief Minister of West Bengal ie mills. At the time of cross-examination, I had stated that there are balance-sheets ing the businesses and that the rice mills were ig at the time of the Charter of Demands was to the management. To my question, he had that when both the rice mills and oil mills are g, the number of contract labourers and casual en increases; that the new employees work for od of about two or three months in a year and rought in by the Sardars; that roughly the ly expenses would be Rs. 2.000 per month there are only rice mills and that if there is il mill, roughly the monthly expenses would be 500 to Rs. 2,700 per month. It is further his ce that the accountant maintains the account regarding daily expenses and that the Managarector checks the accounts maintained by the This witness further stated that the ging Director would be able to say about the ial condition of the mills and the accounts are at the annual general meeting when the other ors come to know about the income and diture and also about the profit and loss. It omted out that the balance-sheets and also the ats books had not been produced in this case. true that they had not been produced but in of the fact that the mills, at any rate, most of are lying closed soon after the reference to this nal and also in view of the fact that it is, at any uncertain when the mills can start again funcg in view of the difficulty of the paddy supply on I do not think that the evidence of V.1 should be disregarded. The Learned Lawso pointed out that the Government is contemg running rice mills with the up-to-date machiand one of such mills is going to be estabin the district of Burdwan. I do think the establishment of a rice mill, where most of the work would be done by machines, is by itself a serious matter so far as the existing rice mills are concerned. But undoubtedly, if more such mills are established, the outlook of the existing mills would be very dark and many of them would be compel to close down. Therefore it is clear that the outlook of the mills is not bright. There is a story that in not too distant future, the existing rice mills may have to be closed down. In view of these facts and circumstances, I do not think that grades and scales of pay should be introduced in the rice and oil mills which have been mentioned in the conference, attached to the letter of reference of permanency As I have mentioned earlier, the clerks, durwans, boilers attendants and Tindals are permanent men employed by the mills. The question of permanency really arises with regard to the casual labours and contract labours. Before I discuss the award and the judgment of the Hon'ble High Court in the proceeding under Article 226 of the Constitution and the Judgment of the Appellate Bench I shall refer to a submission which has been made by the Learned President of the Union. had stated that the attendance register is signed by even the alleged casual labours and contract labours. I do not think this shows that the casual labourers and the contract labours can be regarded to be members of the permanent staff of the mills. Incidentally it may be pointed out that the casual labours and the contract labourers had not been examined in this case PWI Shru Dhiresh Chandra Sarkar is the Secretary of the Union He used to get Rs. 100 as case his pay. He was certainly not a casual labour or contract labour. He appears to have belonged to the Ceneal establishment of the Lakshmi Narayan Rice Mill P.W.2 Shri Pearv I.al Mondal was a labour employed by the K. M & S. C. Sadhukhan (P) Itd. His evidence is that he and others used to get of the rate of Rs. 1/8 per day per 40 (forty) bags for steaming. It was suggested to him that he was a Sardar but he has denied the suggestion. He has further denied the suggestion that he not a share of the money payable to other persons at the rate of The rate as allowed by the one anna per ribee Notification of the Minimum Wapes Act for steaming puddy for 100 bass is Rs. 3. Therefore the evidence of P.W.2 Shri Peary Lal Mondal cannot be accented. It also appear that there is a bill prepared by Peary Int Mondal, Fxt G. This shows that in fact Pears Lal had accented money from K. M. & S. C. Sudhukhan (P.) Ltd. as the Sardar on behalf of certain coolies. This is also the evidence of O.P.W.1 that Penry Lal was the Sardar and had prepared the Bill Ext. G and that the amount is pavable to Peary Lal and the persons included in his group. At the time of cross-examination it appears that no question has been asked regarding Ext. G. At the time of cross-examination O.P.W.1 had stated that Peary Lal did not sign any Hazira book. The only other witness on behalf of the workmen is PW.3 Shri Saranan Dev who had worked as a clerk under Satva Naravan Rice and Oil Mills. It would therefore, appear that not a single person had been examined out of the casual labourers and the contract labourers. Tearned President of the Union did not disnute that these labours are employed by Sardars and Sardarnees. I shall now refer to the Award Fxt. A. By this Award the Learned Tribunal Judge had directed that one-fifth of the casual labours employed in the previous year should be made permanent and that the contract labour system should be abolished within 3 months from the date of the reopening of the mill after the publication of the award. Lordship Sinha J. had been pleased to set aside the direction of the Tribunal regarding the abolition of the contract labour system. The mills preferred an appeal and the Appellate Bench had been pleased to set aside the judgment of Sinha J., so far as the question of decasualisation of casual labourers and of attendance bonus is concerned (vide Exts. A. B and C). The effect therefore is that so far as Calcutta Rice Mills are concerned, it was found that in view of the nature of the industry, contract labour cannot be abolished and the casual labours cannot be made permanent. It appears to me that as the nature of work remains the same and as the conditions of mills has become bad, the contract labours and the casual labours cannot be made permanent. It might be that after the introduction of the new system milling by the mills which are going to be established by the Government, there would be no contract labourer or casual labourer. I, therefore, come to the conclusion that the temporary labours, viz., the casual labours and the contract labours cannot be made permanent.

With regard to the question of casual leave, it would appear from the award that in accordance with the Factories Act, 10 days' casual leave with pay in a year is to be granted to the members of the permanent staff. It would appear from the evidence of O.P.W.1 that 10 days' casual leave without remuneration is granted to the members of the permanent staff. I do not think any casual leave can be allowed to the casual labours or to the contract labours. The persons might quite conceivably change from year to year and even may not work throughout one year. In the circumstances, I do not think casual leave can be granted to the casual labours or contract labours. This issue is decided accordingly.

With regard to the question of service cards, it would appear that no service card is issued. The Learned President of the Union had submitted that unless the service card is issued, there is nothing to show that a particular person is employed by a particular mill. The evidence of O.P.W.1 would show that though there are no service cards or appointment letters, there are leave cards, presumably of the permanent employees. I do not think that it is really necessary to issue service cards even to the permanent employees. If any member of the permanent staff is required to show that he is employed by a particular mill, his leave card and also accounts papers might be called for. Therefore, the projeting the issue of service cards must be referred.

I have, therefore, come to the conclus grades and scales of pay cannot be introduct the casual labourers and the contract labour be made permanent; that casual leave can granted to casual labours and contract about that there is no necessity for issue of server any of the employees.

This is my award.

a reference under section 10 of the Disputes Act made by the Government of if for adjudication of an industrial dispute ween Messrs. Buxa Dooars Tea Co. Ltd., ini, district Jalpaiguri (hereinafter be rest the Company), and their workmen emec Kalchini Tea Estate, represented by the nion of Plantation Workers, P.O. Birpara, hereinafter be referred to as the Union).

ute relates to dismissal of a workman Shri d for misconduct.

ely after receipt of the reference both re served with notices. Thereupon they and filed written statements of their rival contentions. After proper opportunities ties to comply with intermediate steps, was fixed for hearing. Both parties and advanced arguments and the s concluded.

on's case in the written statement is that nan Shri Gangaprosad served for long by blemish in the Kalchini Tea Estate of any. But for his Trade Union activities aliciously charge-sheeted for some alleged t. It was alleged in the charge-sheet that bruary 1962 at about 10-30 a.m. when the ler went to the hoeing mela to record hazira of the workmen, he was prevented by the workman Shri Gangaprosad from doing so on the allegation that they had to wait there for nothing for long hours since completion of their work. They wanted that their hazira be recorded immediately after they would finish the work allotted to them. The Senior Baider Shri Jitman who arrived there assured the workmen that the matter would be referred to the Manager for decision. Thereupon the workmen allowed their haziras being recorded and left. On 12th February 1962 the Manager personally went to the work-site and enquired of the workmen what had happened on the 10th February 1962. He had talks with the workmen including Gangaprosad. But subsequently he charge-sheeted sax workmen out of the gang and Gangaprosad was one of the workmen proceeded against. There was no fair and proper enquiry but the Manager by a show of enquiry came to his own finding and dismissed the workman from service. It was a mala fide action on the part of the Manager. Hence the prayer is for setting aside the order of dismissal passed against Gangaprosad and to direct his reinstatement with back wages.

The Company has stated in the written statement that on 10th February 1962 the workman Shri Gangaprosad unreasonably prevented the field writer at the hoeing mela from recording the haziras of the workmen after 10-30 a.m. He pleaded that the attendance be recorded immediately after completion of the job allotted to each workman. The workman Shri Gangaprosad along with others staged an unruly demonstration against the senior Baider of the garden who reported the matter to the garden Manager who on 12th February 1962 went to the place of work in order to make on the spot enquiry as to what had happened on the 10th. On that day also the workman Gangaprosad along with other workmen surrounded the Manager and caused disturbance. His attitude was of extreme insolence and obstruction. So, the Manager issued charge-sheet against Gangaprosad and five other workmen. There was an enquiry held on the day explanation was submitted and as a result of the enquiry they were found guilty of the charges and the workman Gangaprosad was dismissed from service and the other workmen were suspended and warned by way of punishment. So, there was nothing wrong. On the other hand, there was justification for punishment awarded to the workman.

Decision

This is a case of dismissal for misconduct on the result of domestic enquiry into the charges by an officer of the Company. Admittedly there was a charge-sheet issued against this workman on 15th February 1962 (Ext. 1) and identical charges were issued against five other workmen on the same date by the same officer. There was also an enquiry held by the Manager of the garden who issued the charge-sheet, on the date notified in the charge-sheet. The workman Gangaprosad admits to have attended the enquiry but adduced no evidence. The Manager in consideration of the evidence recorded by him at the enquiry came to the finding that the workman was guilty of the charges levelled against him and accordingly punished him with dismissal from service. It is well settled by the Hon'ble

Supreme Court that in such a case of dismissal on misconduct the Tribunal's jurisdiction is very much limited and it cannot act as a Court of Appeal and substitutes its own judgment for that of the management. It was further held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in cases more than one [1958 (I) L.L.J. 260 and 1961 (I) L.L.J. 511] that a Tribunal can interfere in such a case of termination of service of a workman on misconduct only—

- (1) when there is a want of good faith;
- (2) when there is victimisation or unfair labour practice;
- (3) when the management has been guilty of basic error or violation of a principle of natural justice; and
- (4) when on the materials, the finding is completely baseless or perverse.

The proposed domestic enquiry into the charges levelled against an employee must be a fair and proper enquiry held by an impartial officer with an open mind and the findings of the enquiry officer must not be perverses in the sense that it is not supported by evidence recorded at the domestic enquiry. In the case of Messrs. Sur Enamel & Stamping Works Ltd., and their workmen (1963 II L.L.J. 367) the Hon'ble Supreme Court was pleased to lay down the five essentials which go to make up a proper domestic enquiry. It is also well settled that the contemplated domestic enquiry must be held in pursuance of the standing orders and where there is no standing orders, according to the rules of natural justice. In the instant case the Company has got standing orders (Ext. E). The standing orders provide that no order of dimissal or of suspension as a punishment or of fine shall be made unless the workman concerned is informed in writing of the alleged misconduct and is given an opportunity to explain the circumstances alleged against him and to adduce evidence, if any, in his favour. It also provides that any explanation given by the workman shall be recorded in writing, and the Manager shall also record his reasons if he finds the explanaiton unacceptable.

The workman Gangaprosad was given charge-sheet by the Manager on 15th February 1962. Immediately thereafter written explanation was submitted by the workman. But there is nohing to show that the explanations received due consideration of the Manager who was the Enquiry Officer. There is nothing in writing as required by the standing order to show consideration of the explanations by the Manager before holding the enquiry. Apparently the explanation given by the Manager was found unacceptable and so the doemsti enquiry followed. But the Manager does not appear to have recorded any reason for finding the explanation unacceptable. As a matter of fact, it is practically admitted by the Manager that before considering the explanation he decided to hold an enquiry against the workman. That very conduct of the Manager shows that his mind was already prejudiced against this workman and without considering his explanation he decided to hold the domestic enquiry. By the charge-sheet (Ext. 1)., dated 15th February 1962, he called u-on the workman to submit explanation by the 21st Pebruary 1962 which was also the date fixed by him for holding the enquiry before contexplanations. So, the standing order properly followed by the Manager. The nothing in his finding Ext. A' 1 to show explanations submitted by the workman ten

Then again the standing order furner that in awarding punishment under the order, the Manager shall take into an gravity of the misconduct, the previous any, of the workman and any other can aggravating circumstances that may the finding of the Manager Ext. A/I does not the above provisions in the standing order all complied with by the Manager H admits in his evidence before the Tribung service record of the workman who was a of the Company for about 14 tear to consulted or taken into consideration at the awarding punishment. According to the this was the first time he was charge-sheets misconduct and he was never before popular the was the sheets whatsoever during the 14 was service in the garden. This fact is not a the Manager or by any other wites. Company. Therefore, another important, in the standing order was not compiled and Manager. Then again, it will be clear for evidence that he did not act with an open conducting the domestic enquiry. He adm evidence before the Tribunal that he had involved in the alleged occurrence that on 12th February 1962 as a result of all workman and five others were charge-shes identical charges [Ext. 1 to 1(c)]. He have up the charge-sheet and also acted as the Officer although there are other Officers as the Tribunal for holding the enquir B that there is one Superintendent of the w is a Superior Officer and also there is one Manager Shri Singh. It is also admitted that before holding the enquiry he was o that the charge-sheeted workman had comm offences. Therefore, he did not act impar with an open mind in conducting the enquiry which is of a quasi-judicial natu very clear from his evidence that his mind free from bias. It will also appear from h that he went so far to import his personal i for holding the workman guilty of the levelled against him. There is no tota of to show that the workman "remaine of insolent and refused to accept the decision." Therefore, not only it was not impartial enquiry in acordance with the in the standing order, but also the tudit Manager was perverse and as such I have alternative but to set aside the punishmen missal awarded by the Manager.

It is, of course, now open to the Inbut into the merits of the case and to come a finding after due consideration of the adduced by both the parties. The evidence before the Tribunal may now be considered to company examined two witnesses and the examined one, namely, the workman into present dispute. It is not disputed that I man Shri Grangaprosad was charge-shee with the five other workman. They wen identical offences. Exhibits 1 to 1(c) are the charge-sheets. There were two items the charge-sheets. Indice were two items against each of the workmen. The first hat on 10th February 1962 at about m. at the hoeing mela the workman it the Field Writer from writing the names horkers employed in hoeing, demanding that to the normal garden procedure he should individuals at any time during the course horning. The other item of charge was to a that on "12th February 1962 at about 8 the work-site, when I (Manager) tried to from the workers involved in the he reason for their creating the incident al to the good running of the estate and the of discipline by addressing me in an and insubordinate manner questioning my Manager of the garden in discussing the with the workers". The Manager who is No. 1 of the Company has no personal ge of the alleged incident that took place on ruary 1962. On that point there is only the of D.W. 2 Shri Gangaprosad Lama, who nder in the garden and was in-charge of attendance of the workmen. His evidence show that on 10th February 1962 when he the hoeing mela at about 10-30 a.m. to att adance of the workmen he saw about 80 when were sitting after finishing the work to them. They were waiting for recording tendance. According to this witness all the n pre int in that assembly asked him not to the attendance. They told him that they ting there for over one and half hours after the work allotted to them. Naturally they moved at the harassment and unnecessary n for a long time after completion of the ork. They wanted the Manager to come and to talk to them. The Senior Baider was in-charge of supervision of works also ere and persuaded the workers to allow the ader to record the attendance. He assured kmen that he would place the matter before ager and would communicate his decision to io, according to this witness of the Company general complaint of all the 80 to 90 workrking in that job-site. Their common was for unnecessary detention for a ble time after the completion of the work. wanted that their hazira should be recorded to avoid the unnecessary harassment. That so, it is difficult to hold that it was a mist on the part of the workman specially when necessary detention and harassment are not It was not the grievance of the Company workmen hurriedly finished their works and ray not properly done. It is admitted that re three sets of officers of the garden who it the works. The garden Manager himself in his evidence that Daffadars have of the works of the labourers and that further supervised by Baiders, and there is So, there are as many as three sets of to supervise the work of the garden labouries the Manager and the Assistant Manager, no evidence to show that the workmen did zerly do their work. There was no report e three sets of supervising officers of any defective work done by these workmen who after completing their work had to wait for more than one hour for the Field Baider to come and record their haziras. The workman has deposed that they wanted that their haziras be recorded earlier as was the practice before, so that the unnecessary harassment and detention be avoided and they can at the same time profitably utilise the time by attending to their domestic duties during the period of unnecessary detention. It is in evidence that the workman's ware also surveys as a labourer in the same garden, so also his mother and they have been serving for more than 12 years. Therefore, 1 find there was no unreasonableness in worker's demand for recording hazira earlier as was the practice before the present system was introduced by the present Manager in 1961 as admitted by him in his evidence. It is common knowledge that time is very hard and one can hardly afford to idle away his time without the risk of being ill-fed and ill-clad. Further evidence of the Company's only witness on this point D.W. 2 Gangaprosad Lama shows that workman was not the only person who protested but it was a common and universal protest of all the workmen working in that area. Therefore, it is difficult to appreciate how the Manager could select only six workmen out of so many for being punished and it is admitted that he found all the six workmen guilty of both the charges but he actually inflicted the punishment of dismissal against this workman and nominal punishment against the rest. There is no satisfactory explanation for this discriminatory action against this particular workman. Not only this was a discrminatory and arbitrary action on the part of the Manager but the charge was, as it appears, not reasonable rather it was groundless. The Field Baider, who is the best person to say what was the offence or misconduct committed by the workmen while he went there to record the atendance of the labourers. In his evidence before the Tribunal I find there is no grievance against the workmen save and except they resisted him from recording attendance without the Manager being told of the difficulties and hardships experienced by them on account of the delayed recording of hazira. As soon as the workmen got the assurance from the other Baider Jitman that the matter would be placed before the Manager, they peacefully dispersed and allowed their hazira being recorded by the Field Baider. Therefore, in my view there is no substance in the first charge.

As to the second charge against this workman I have already observed. This is also a common charge against all the six workmen. The last portion of the charge is to the effect that "the workman questioned his right as the Manager of the garden in discussing this matter with the workers". Not only the workman has denied this allegation but also it seems to me quite inconsistent with the probability in view of the fact that it is the evidence of the Company's witness No. 2 that the workmen on being assured that the matter would be placed before the Manager for consideration they dispersed peacefully and allowed the Field Baider to record haziras. That being the fact it is difficult to believe that the said workers would again refuse to discuss the matter with the Manager. The Manager does not know the name of any workman. He admits in his evidence that he got the names from the report of the Baiders. He recorded in writing the names of the persons reported against by the Baiders on 12th February 1962 and he consulted that report and his note before framing charges. But those writings have been withheld for reasons unexplained. In his evidence before this Tribunal the Manager has deposed that Gangaprosad was very aggressive and took a threatening attitude towards him. But he admits that he did not know him by name. He did not know the name of the workmen. Sometimes after the occurrence on 12th February 1962 he got the names of the workmen from the two Baiders. According to him they gave him a list of names but this fact is not corroborated by the said two Baiders. One does not come to give evidence and the other who gave evidence before this Tribunal does not support his story. He says that he did not report the names of the Baiders but that was done by the other Baider. So, the Manager's story does not get support from his employees. Moreover, the allegation made against the workman that he was aggressive and also took threatening attitude finds no mention in his charge-sheet against the workman. So, it seems that at the time of giving evidence before this Tribunal he has tried to make all the more serious allegations against the workman which he could not conscientiously do originally immediately after the occurrence in his charge-sheet. The Manager, however, was fair to admit that previously there was no occasion to issue any charge-sheet against the workman or to award any punishment whatsoever. He was never before warned for any misconduct of any kind. His service record is clean. There is no evidence to show that he ever before created any trouble whatsoever either with the employer or with other employees or with the supervisors. On the contrary, he comes of a family or almost all the members of which have been giving satisfactory services to the garden. The Manager himself admits that the workman's mother and wife have been serving for more than 12 years in the garden uninterruptedly and without creating any trouble. His father was also a work no longer in the land of the living. The denies to have shown any disrespect to the He was found quite courteous and respect the was found quite courteous and respect the was giving cytomer. When we was giving cytomer while one was giving cytomer while one was giving cytomer when we was actioned the worken and to establish the corroborate him and to establish the charge levelled against the workman. The cytomer was already found, was ratisfactory and does not in my view a charge against the workman beyond doubt. In consideration of the entire circumstances discussed above I am inclinate that the second charge also has not been to beyond reasonable doubt against the world.

Therefore, the workman is entitled to ment in his old job or in a similar job will wages and other benefits to which he was the time of his dismissal. He is also entit wages and other allowances, if any, for to this forced unemployment from the which the Company must pay within the from the date of publication of this and "Calcutta Gazette". For continuity of we said period may be treated as on leave

Present:

Shri K. P. MUKHERJI, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Company: Shri P. P. Ginwala and Shri A. Choudhuri, Counsel.

Present for the Union: Shri Arun Dutt and Shri Nandadulal Srimani, Advocates, and Shri Ram Sen, an officer of the Union.

This industrial dispute between Messrs. National Tobacco Company of India Ltd. and their workmen was first referred to the First Industrial Tribunal under G.O. No. 4519-I.R./IR/11L-91(B)/61, dated 21st July 1961, for adjudication. Subsequently. addendum No. 6772-I.R./IR/11L-91(B)/61, dated 11th November 1961, was issued by the Government adding one more issue, viz., issue No. 14, to the reference. Thereafter, by Government Order No. 3778-I.R. IR/11L-229(A)/62, dated 27th August 1962, the above reference was withdrawn from the First Industrial Tribunal under section 33B of the Industrial Tribunal for adjudication upon the following issues.

Issues

- I. Classification of the operatives into skilled semi-skilled and unskilled categories in considération of the nature of jobs performed.
- 2. Abolition of the distinction between the clerks and the tally clerks and treatment of the latter as full-fledged clerks.

- 3. Basic wages and grades and scales of pay for all categories of workmen.
- 4. Adjustment in the new grades and scales of pay by allowing lump increments in consideration of the length of service.
- 5. Dearness allowance for all categories of workmen.
- 6. Production bonus to all workmen directly or indirectly concerned with the manufacturing processes.
- 7. Rate of payment while acting in higher jobs carrying higher emoluments.
- 8. Permanency of workmen recruited as temporary hands.
- 9. Justifiability of transfer of Sarbasree Manmatha Nath Maity, Prafulla Kumar Singha and Motilal Saha. Should they be retransferred to their original places of work?
- 10. Canteen—should the canteen staff including Manager, cooks and boys be treated as Company's employees with attendant benefits and what should be their wages with grades and scales and dearness allowance?
  - 11. Abolition of contract labour system.
  - 12. Retiring gratuity.
  - 13. Retiring age.
  - 14. Leave and holidays.

Both the parties to the dispute have entered appearance and filed their respective written statements. The case of the Union, representing the workmen, in short, is as follows:

Messrs. National Tobacco Co. of India Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company) is incorporated as a Company under the Indian Companies Act, and engaged in the manufacture and sale of cigarettes, pipe tobacco and certain other products. maintains a factory at Agarpara where about 1,000 workmen are employed. The Company is a highly prosperous concern with a sound financial position It makes huge profits every year, and out of the profits has built up a huge reserve fund after distribution of dividends to the shareholders in some years. The attitude of the Company towards the workmen, who contribute greatly to the earning of profit every year, is not at all sympathetic. The wages and dearness allowance paid to the workmen are very low and their conditions of service are very much unsatisfactory. The workmen have been agitating for redress of their long-standing grievances in connection with their conditions of service, but without any tangible result. The Union made various representations to the Company for consideration of the grievances of the workmen and for an amicable settlement of the matters in dispute between them, but to no effect. The changed circumstances, it is alleged, have necessitated revision of the existing grades and scales of pay and higher dearness allowance to the workmen, and the Company is financially stable to pay fair wages to the workmen, and to pay them dearness allowance at a higher rate. There is a scheme for production bonus for the workmen in some departments, but a large number of workmen directly and indirectly connected with the manufacturing process are denied production bonus. The Company emplated in prejuction for regular work which is prejuction for regular work which is prejuction to the workmen, and this preduction between clerks and tally clerks in reasonable justification, and this distinct be abolished, and the benefits enjoyed by should be extended to the tally clerks at reliefs claimed by the Union are (i) fixed wages and grades and scales of pay for a of workmen, (ii) classification of the option skilled, semi-skilled and unskilled aworkmen, (iii) abolition of contract retiring gratuity and certain other retain gratuity and certain other retain appear from the issues framed under the

The Company has filed a written st reply to the written statement filed by the which most of the allegations made by have been denied. It is pleaded that to feet the Company has gone down con recent past, and the Company is lacing cial strain as a result of increase of etcl cigarettes, and the Company is not in a bear any more financial burden on the increase of wages and dearness allow. workmen. It is further stated that there: fication for a grade or scale of pay for th workmen, and there has also been no chcircumstances requiring any revision of structure. Dearness allowance varies of case of clerks, and the same rate of dear ance is fixed by the Government. These who do not get D.A. are paid consoliwhich includes D.A. As regards the La for production bonus, it is stated that t of production bonus is in force in some d and it is not possible to extend the bere scheme to the workmen who are not dr nected with production. As regards the claim of the Union tion of the contract labour, it is stated the labour is engaged for odd and intermitten not for regular and normal work of the and the number of such labourers is veri that also varies from time to time The of contract labour will hamper receipt an of goods, and it is not feasible to maint nent workmen for work which is neith nor regular in connection with the manuf cigarettes. As regards the Union's claim inents, viz., gratuity and provident fund, id that both the benefits cannot be given the street of the company is not in a position to additional financial burden if double retirits are given to the workmen. The age of a for the clerical staff on attaining the age and for the other workmen doing manual attaining the age of 50 years are said to be the claim of the Union for extending the njoyed by the clerks to the tally clerks, it is not reasonable and proper as the nature one by the clerks and tally clerks is differwork of the tally clerks is more or less all and simple in nature. The Company up a plea that the Tribunal has no jurisconsider and adjudicate upon some of viz. has been raised in paragraph 10 of the statement filed by the Company regarding etency of the Tribunal to adjudicate upon 3, 2, 3, 5, 8, 12 and 14 in the present referhe contention raised by the learned counsel on behalf of the Company is that these resides were the subject-matter of a pre-elence, and Shri P. R. Mukherji, Judge, Tribunal, by his award published in the Gazette" on 30th December 1948 adjudi-on those issues, and his decision operates to the adjudication of issues Nos. 2, 3, 5, 14 in the present reference by the principle dicata. This contention of the learned oes not appear to be well founded and accepted in view of the decision in the urn & Co. Ltd., Calcutta versus their em-eported in 1957-1-L.L.J., 226. It has been he Hon'ble Supreme Court in that case udicata is not applicable in terms in indusdication. The decision is obviously based anciple that if res judicata is made applisuch to industrial disputes, then there would ten finality of industrial disputes as finality been in civil suits. In that case wages once build under no conceivable circumstances be even though the exigencies of circumstances lor such revision. If, therefore, the Union in establishing material change of circumsince the award made by Shri P. R. Mukherji, the issues which were the subject-matter of vious award can be reopened, and fresh tuon is to be made on those issues in the changed circumstances. If there has material change in the circumstances, that a sufficient ground for reconsideration of isues. In other words, the Tribunal is not from considering those issues once again if it d that the circumstances on which the previes and dearness allowances, etc., were made have undergone a material change. In this the matter, which finds support from the referred to above, I am unable to hold that decision on issues Nos. 2, 3, 5, 8, 12 and 14 resent reference is barred by the principle of cata. The preliminary obejction raised by 1pany is accordingly rejected.

The classification of the operatives into skilled, semi-skilled and unskilled categories in consideration of the nature of their work is a task which presents some difficulty. The Judges of the First Ombibus Engineering Tribunal realised this difficulty and very rightly pointed out that it was very difficult to fix the line where a semi-skilled worker sheds his role and steps into the role of skilled category. This question was also left open by the learned Judge who made the award in the Third Major Engineering Tribunal, published in the "Calcutta Gazette" on 5th November 1958. In most of the industrial concerns, big or small, classification of workers is made with reference to the skill of a particular workman. The main question on which such classification of workmen depends is the exact nature of work performed by him. If a particular workman has skill to do a particular job, he is ordinarily termed as "skilled workman". This alone is not the only factor for classification of workers into different categories. The Union has given a chart as per Annexure A to its written statement, showing different categories of workmen. The Company has also submitted a charge showing classification of different categories of workmen. There is much dispute between the parties regarding classification of workmen, and it is also not possible to classify the workmen into different categories unless the exact nature of work performed by a particular workman is ascertained. There is some evidence regarding the nature of work done by lifters and feeders, but there is no satisfactory evidence as regards the nature of work performed by other workmen. In the absence of any sufficient evidence regarding the nature of work which a particular workman is required to do, it is not possible to make a classification of workers as this should be made with reference to their precise nature of duties. For this some technical knowledge is necessary, and this can only be done by expert bodies to be appointed for the purpose. The best way to solve this question, in my view, is to leave the matter to a Committee to be composed of the representatives of the Company and also the Union which will decide this question with reference to the precise nature of work done by a particular category of workmen. The Committee, if it thinks necessary, may take the help of an expert in the matter to be appointed at the cost of the Company. I accordingly direct that a Committee should be appointed by the Company as directed at an early date for a decision on this issue, and I do hope that they will be able to come to a peaceful solution of the question by mutual co-operation.

Issue No. 2

The Union has claimed that there is no justification for making a distinction between tally clerks and clerks employed in the Company inasmuch as the work done by tally clerks are almost the same as done by ordinary clerks. P.W. 3 has given the number of tally clerks employed in the Company as 22. He has also stated that the ordinary duties of the tally clerks are to record production, prenare morning summary, record attendance of the workers and certain other duties. P.W. 9 Achiuta Deb Nandy, who is working as tally clerk since 1958, has also stated about the duties performed by tally clerks. His evidence is that the duties of the tally clerks are to count the balance of the materials left in different machines and then prepare a summary thereof known as morning summary, to note the attendance of workers in the Attendance Registers, to note the production of machines per hour on the machine production card, to record the products and wasted materials, and similar other works. He has further stated that the general clerks get more wages than tally clerks though some of the general clerks actually perform jobs similar to those of tally clerks. The evidence of this witness makes it clear that the main duties of tally clerks are to compile figures with reference to the different machines and to record attendance of workmen in the attendance registers. The nature of work done by tally clerks is more or appears to be mechanical and no special knowledge is required to perform this type of jobs. The evidence of O.P.W. 1 is that the efficiency of the tally clerks is lower than that of the general clerks, and the tally clerks can perform their duties if they can write the figures and add them, if necessary. He has denied that it is the function of the tally clerks to calculate the percentage of wastage of materials, as stated by P.W. 9. According to O.P.W. 1, general clerks are required to do calculation works and so a high degree of efficiency in mathematics is required, so far as they are concerned. Though there is some dispute as to the standard of qualifications for clerks and tally clerks, it is clear that the work done by the tally clerks is of a simpler nature than the duties performed by the general clerks. It is possible that some tally clerks are capable of performing the duties of ordinary clerks, but that is no ground for abolition of the distinction between tally clerks and clerks, as tally clerks are appointed as such. The fact that some of the tally clerks who are more efficient and can do the duties of a clerk does not warrant the abolition of tally clerks when tally clerks are recruited as such on the result of a test the standard of which is somewhat lower than the test for recruitment of ordinary clerks. The claim of the Union, therefore, for abolition of this distinction between tally clerks and general clerks does not appear to be justified, and the claim of the Union cannot be accepted. This issue is accordingly disposed of.

the that undisputed fact an to the workmen short falls paid of living wages and the Union has claimed wages for the workmen as shown in Annerure B to its written statement. The claim of the Union has been resisted by the Company both on some preliminary grounds and also on merits. It has been urged that the State Government, by Notification No. 1607 (Labour Department), dated 23rd July 1959, fixed the minimum basic wages and dearness allowance of the workmen employed in Cigarette making industries in pursuance of the recommendations made by a Committee set up by the State Government under section 3(b) of the Minimum Wages Act for the purpose and as the Company is paying wages to the workmen fixed by the Government, there is no justification for a revision of the wage structure for the workmen. It has next been urged that an industrial dispute between the Company and the workmen was referred to Shri P. R. Mukherji, Judge, Industrial Tribunal, for adjudication and the issues in that reference related to pay and dearness allowance of the workmen. The said Tribund ance of the works published in the award which was published in the Gazette" on 30th December 1948, and the state of the s award is still in force and binding on both ties as neither of the parties bound by award has given any notice intimating to terminate the said award. The present to terminate the said award are revision of the present the said award. in so far as it relates to a revision of structure, it is contended, is misconceived law both on the principle of res judicate reason of the previous award of Shri P R h published in December 1948. As regards to of the claim of the Union, it is contended case for revision of the wages has been a and that the Company is not in a position any additional financial burden on account increase in wages of the workmen I shall a up the preliminary points which have been by the learned Counsel appearing on helps Company. The fact that minimum wages ba fixed by legislation does not mean that ma priate cases wages should not be fixed at rates than the minimum wages as fixed under the tion of the appropriate Government. This tion does not appear to be sound and and As regards the contention that the award Shri P. R. Mukherji is still binding on the to the same as it was not terminated by any there is no dispute that no notice for term of the award was given by either parts. The tion requiring notice of termination of zwa incorporated in the amended Industrial Disputation 1950, and the question of termination of me notice does not arise in respect of awards before 1950. The notice of termination of under section 19 of the Act only relates to the m passed after the amending Act of 1950 Test of Shri P. R. Mukherji ccased to have an bil effect after expiry of one year and it was no m sary for the Union to give any notice of terms of the award. The matter may also be looked from another point of view and it is this The ! submitted various representations on behalf of workmen and also submitted a charter of dear In view of the fact of subsequent represent made by the workmen and the presentance charter of demands, the absence of a formal of section 19(2) of the Act, terminating the 1 ment appears to be immaterial as has bes by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of men of Western India Match Company Western India Match Company Limited in L.L.J. 681.. The preliminary objection rated Company that the present reference, so far issue is concerned, is misconceived and at tainable. is without any substance and can accepted. The other preliminary objection is that the issue regarding revision of nar's barred by the principle of res judicata this issue was adjudicated upon by Shr Mukherji. in his award. It has been held Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of work Balmer Lawrie & Co. It has fureld that the question as to revision must d on the merits of each individual case and fast rule can be laid down in the lee 1959 the cost of living has conme up and it cannot be contended that fixed in 1959 do not require revision in N. 1 Shri A. N. Sen, who is a responsible re Company, has stated that there has ision in the scales of pay of the subordiafter the recommendations of the Vages Committee, and the Company is the soles fixed as per the report of im Wages Committee. He has further the pay scale for the subordinate staff, 1 Ext. A(5), was introduced sometime in clear from the evidence that there has vision of the pay scales for the clerical he Minimum Wages of the clerks were 9 and the pay scale of the subordinate not been revised since 1953. In view of that the cost of living index has gone up since 1972 't is only reasonable that there should be a revision of the pay scale of different categories of workmen employed by the Company. The financial capacity of the Company to bear any additional burden on account of increase in the wages of the workmen is an important and relevant factor in considering the question of fixation of wages. The financial position of the Company is revealed in the statement, Ext. C(3), filed by the Company. It shows the amounts of sales, profits earned by the Company, and dividends paid to the shareholders during the period from 1949 to 1961. The Company earned good profits during the years 1958, 1959 and 1960, and dividends at the rate of 6 per cent. were paid to the shareholders in 1959 and 1960. There was, however, a substantial fall in profit in 1961 though the amount of sale was a little less than one crore of rupees as in 1960, and the Company paid dividends to the shareholders at 7 per cent. The Company has also built up a reserve which is more than the paid-up capital of the Company. There can be no doubt that the overall financial position of the Company appears, on the whole, not unsatisfactory, though there is big fall in the earning of profits and it will be in a position to bear some additional burden of a reasonable increase in wages of the workmen. The Company has also realised the necessity of a revision of the wage-scales of the workmen, and it is stated by O. P. W. I, Shri A. N. Sen, that the Company is contemplating a revision of wages and scales of pay for the semi-skilled workmen, and also for the workmen of the Engineering Division. He has further stated that the scale of the semi-skilled workmen is based on the idea of the management, whereas the scale for the workmen of the Engineering Division has been formulated on the basis of the scales of pay prevalent in the locality, and the provisions made in this respect in the Engineering Award. It also appears that by the Memorandum of Settlement, dated 12th November 1960, the pay scales of different categories of workmen including the clerical staff of the Imperial Tobacco Company of India Ltd., Kiddernore Branch, a concern engaged in the same line of business as the present Company, was revised. Thus, a case for revision of scale of wage of the workmen becomes irresistible when one considers the facts stated above. I, therefore, hold that the Union has been able to make out a case for revision of wages of the workmen, except some whose wages are considered fair and they are entitled to a reasonable increase in wages subject, of course, to the financial capacity of the Company to bear the additional financial burden by reason of such increase.

It now remains to consider what should be the basic wages and scales of pay for the different categories of workmen employed in the Wages and scales for workmen, as claimed. been shown in Annexure B to the written statement of the Union. It is alleged by the Union that the Company has the capacity to pay living wages to the workmen, but they have been denied even fair wages by the Company. The question which arises for consideration is what should be the basic wages and scales of pay for the different categories of workmen employed in the Company regard being had to the principles, for fixation of wage structure which have been laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in several well-known decisions. It has been laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Management of Wenger & Co. versus their workmen, reported in A.I.R. 1964(S.C.) 865 that in constructing a wage structure industrial adjudication doubtedly to take into account the overall financial position of the employer because a scheme of wage structure including scales of increments, is a long-term scheme, and before it is framed the Tribunal must be satisfied that the burden imposed by the scheme would not be beyond the means of the employer. In regard to the minimum wage no such consideration arises because it is the duty of an industrial employer to pay the basic minimum to the employees. But when a wage structure is con-structed and it provides for increments, the financial position of the employer is to be borne in mind. Apart from the financial position of the employer, the prospects of the industry has also to be taken into consideration. This is one aspect of the matter, and there is another aspect, and that is the basis for fixation of wages for the workmen. It is well settled that wages including wage scales are fixed on "regioncum-industry" basis, and one of these reasons behind the principle is that concerns of more or less of the same standing in the same industry should have as nearly as possible same wages so that they might stand on par with one another in the matter of competition. There can be no doubt that it is ordinarily desirable to have as much uniformity as possible in the wage scales of different concerns of the same industry working in the same region. It may not always be possible to attain this object because of difference in financial capacity of different concerns. Where, however, no such obstacle is present, industrial adjudication always tries to secure the same wage rates for different concerns in the same industry in the same region. It is for this reason that when scales of pay are being fixed, Tribunals look at what are called comparable concerns in framing wage-structures. It has been laid down in the case of workmen of Balmer Lawrie & Co (1964 L.L.J .-I-381) that the question as to which concerns are comparable for the purpose of fixation of wage scales should not be determined on the oral interested testimony of the parties. It should be determined on the basis of documentary evidence. Such question is to be determined in the light of material facts and circumstances which are generally proved by docu-mentary evidence. What is the total capital invested by the concern, what is the extent of business, what is the amount of profits made by the concern, what are the dividends paid, how many employees are employed by the concern, what is its standing in the industry to which it belongs to these are the other materials which have to be taken consideration in determining the question whether one concrn is comparable with the other in fixing wages. The same view was taken in an earlier case, viz., William Sons India (P) Ltd. versus workmen, reported in 1962-II-L.I.303. It has been held in that case that in considering the question of comparable concerns, Tribunals should bear in mind all the relevant facts in relation to the problem. The extent of the business carried by the concerns, the capital invested by them, profits made by them, their standing, the strength of their labour force, and the extent of reserves, dividends declared by them and the prospects of future of their business, - these and all other relevant facts have to be borne in mind. It is thus clear from these decisions that ordinarily the basis of fixation of wages is "industry-cum-region". Where there are large number of industrial concerns of the same kind in the same regori of the same proper to put greater emphasis on the of the "industry-cum-region" principal put all concerns on a more or less and the matter of production cost and then matter of competition in the market clear that in revision of the wage clear factory workmen, wages prevalent or h men in comparable concerns should be consideration though this principle strictly applicable in case of clerks and claim set up by the Union has been my B to its written statement, and in one stantiate its claim it must be proved that other similar concerns in the rep cerns in other industries in the regul mately the same wages which have been the workmen in the instant case. The support of its claim, has relied on the sea of the workmen employed by Messy Tobacco Co. of India Ltd. and Messrs Messrs. This concern can taken as a comparable concern in the fixation of scales of wages in the present on a similar considerations on which Me Tobacco Co. of India Ltd comparable concern for fixing the wage the Company. In the absence of ant concern in the region for fixing the war in the Company, scales of wages in of in the region may be considered. There no other evidence to show what water the workmen in other concerns in the ref been urged that the wages paid to wor the Third Major Engineering Tribunal

There cannot be any dispute that mpany to the workmen employed in other ges paid to the workmen employed in other al concerns in different lines in the region be taken into consideration in fixing the ructure for the workmen in the Company.

Isting wages and scales of pay given to the en have been shown in the statement, Ext. by the Union, and Ext. A-5 filed by the ny. The daily-rated workers have not been d in the statement Ext. A-5. The daily-rated s get Rs. 30.94 P. as wages as per the recomas basic wages has been claimed for these en and also a scale as shown in Annexure B vitten statement of the Union. The principle ich scales of pay are granted to workmen is workman gains experience and acquires co by length of his service and he is given an ent as an impetus for discharge of his duties efficiently. This principle, however, does not n the case of unskilled workers as their duties t involve any skill. I am, therefore, not in of introducing any scale of pay for the unworkers at this stage in view of the fact also here has been a substantial increase in their vages For the same reasons I do not fix any in categories 'A' and 'B' are the same as fixed for these workmen under the Third Major Engineering Tribunal Award. I do not therefore feel inclined to increase their wages except for the workmen in category 'C' for the reason that there is much difference in the basic wages of these workmen and the workmen in category 'B' without any sufficient justification. So tar as Mechanics are concerned, the existing grades appear to be fair, and no specific claim has also been made by the Union, for revision ot scale of pay of these workmen. The existing grades, so far as these workmen are concerned, should continue. There are some workmen who get wages which includes consolidated allowance, and it is only proper and fair that they should get an ad hoc increase in wages. So f r as semi-skilled workmen are concerned, there is no reason why they should not be paid the same wages as has been fixed for them under the Third Major Engineering Tribunal Award. I am told that the scales of pay fixed for semi-skilled workmen under the Third Major Engineering Tribunal Award are now paid to the semi-skilled workmen in the Com-pany, and this I think, will satisfy these workmen. There appears to be no justification for four different classes of section-men, and I think it proper that they should be classified into three categories, viz., Special, 'A' and 'B' as noted hereunder.

On a careful consideration of all the relevant facts bearing on the question of fixation of wage-structure for the workmen in the Company, I fix the wages and scales of pay for different categories of workmen as bercunder. If by reason of increase of wages one be given an increment and filled in the next higher cannot be fitting in the revised scales of pay he should pays dearness allowance to all cateen with the object of neutralisation en the cost of living, as the wages workmen fall short of living wages.

The paid consolidated vages which are paid consolidated vages which are allowance, but no separate dental consolidated the second consolidated vages which the second consolidated vages which consolidated vages w ess allowance, but no separate dear-ters paid to them. The existing dearwhich is paid to the workmen has in the chart, Ext. 3 filed by the Union, the statement, Ext. A(5), filed by the he present dearness allowance paid to 15. according to the Union, low and ate to the increase in the cost of living K few years. The Union has claimed mance according to the Bengal Cham-mance scale, as stated in the written perce scale, as id the details of the scheme have been he charter of demands, Ext. 1, the claim for an increased dearness allowance has by the Company on two grounds. In e. it is urged that the Company is not to bear any aditional financial burden any increase in dearness allowance to It has next been contended that the less allowance paid to the workmen is x with the recommendations of the ages Committee which was set up by he ernment for the purpose of fixing ges for the workers unployed in cigaies in the State, and accepted by the and in view of the fact that the dear-_:e was linked with the cos. of living, jus'ification for revision of the dearness or the workmen. It is an undisputed he State Govrnment by a notification and July 1956 set up a Committee for regarding fixation of the Government orkers employed in the cigarette indus-Committee submitted its report, and the accepted by the Government by a notied the 23rd July 1959, and the minimum te workmen employed in Cigarctte indus-State was fixed by the Government. Dearice was also fixed by the Government for igones of workmen by the said notifican to the recommendation of the Minis Committee. The Company admittedly carness allowance to the workmen in with the Government notification, dated 959, fixing D.A. for different categories It has been contended on behalf of that there has been a considerable the cost of living index since 1959 and upled with the fact that other industrial the region pay higher dearness allowir workmen, justifies a revision of dearice, and fixing of a higher rate of dearice for the workmen. It is further conthe Company is in a position to pay an arness allowance to the workmen. e Company it has been contended that dany is paying dearness allowance to the fixed by the Government on the recomif the Minimum Wages Committee set purpose, there is no justification for he dearness allowance and to grant any arness allowance to the workmen. The arness allowance is to neutralise a porrise in the cost of living index, but it is not feasible, nor proper that dearness allowance should be fixed in such a way as to ensure full ncutralisation of the rise in the cost of living index. The claim of the Union for full neutralisation of the rise in the cost of living index ny increased dearness allowance as set forth in the charter of demands, does not appear to be reasonable and cannot be accepted. The claim of the Union for fixing dearness allowance of the workmen according io the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scale does not also appear to be reasonable in view of the fact that Bengal Chamber of Commerce scale of dearness allowance is too generous a scheme which most of the industrial concerns cannot afford to pay to the workmen. There can be no doubt that there has been a rise in the cost of living index since dearness allowance was fixed by the Government notification in 1959, but a provision has been made in the said notification for increase in dearness allowance consequent on the increase in the cost of living index. In view of the fact that there is a provision for increase in dearness allowance with the rise in the cost of living index, it cannot be reasonably urged that the dearness allowance paid to the workmen does not ensure neutralisation of a portion of the rise in the cost of living. As the purpose of dearness allowance is to neutralise a portion of the rise in the cost of living index it should ordinarily be on a sliding scale and provide for an increase in case of rise in the cost of living index or decrease in case of fall in the cost of living index. Dearness Allowance in the present case has been made on a sliding scale as has been done in the Third Major Engineering Tribunal Award. The Third Major Engineering Tribunal Award provides for an increase or decrease of Re. 1 in dearness allowance in case of rise or fall of 5 points in the cost of living index. In the Government notification fixing dearness allowance for the workmen in the present case, the following rate of change of learness allowance has been made:

- (i) For daily paid workers 8 nP. for a change of 10 points in the cost of living index.
- (ii) For weekly paid workers- 51 nP. for a change of 10 points in the cost of living, index.
- (iii) For monthly paid workers R<sup>c</sup>. 2 21 nP. for a change of 10 points in the cost of living index.
- (iv) For clerks- Rs. 2.65 nP. for a change of 10 points in the cost of living index.

The rate of increase of dearness allowance provided in the notification is higher than the rate of rise in dearness allowance under the Third Major Engineering Tribunal Award, so far as clerks and montoly-paid workers are concerned. So far as the daily-paid workers and weekly-paid workers are concerned, the rate of increase is much the same under the Third Major Engineering Tribunal Award. There is thus not much difference in dearness allowance paid to the workmen under the Third Major Engineering Tribunal Award and the dearness allowance paid to the workmen in the present case, and it cannot reasonably be said that the workers have been hard hit by the rise in the cost of living index since 1959. It is also to be noted that wage structure and dearness allowance are long-term schemes, and these should not be disturbed at short intervals. The award of the Third Major Engineering Tribunal was published some time in 1959, and dearness allowance of the workmen in this case was fixed by a notification of the Government sometime in 1959. It is obvious that the Committee considered the award of the Third Major Engineering Tribunal before it made recommendations to the Government, and Government accepted the recommendations. The workmen are getting dearness allowance as fixed by the Government, and a long period has not elapsed since the dearness allowance was fixed. The Union has sought to justify an increased dearness allowance on the ground that Messrs. Imperial Tebacco Co. of India Ltd. and Messrs. India Foils Ltd. pay higher dearness allowance to their employes. P.W. 2 Chitta Ranjan Bhattacharya, an employee of Messrs. India Foils Ltd., has stated that this Company pays minimum dearness allowance of Rs. 57.50 to its workmen. Messrs. Imperial Tobacco Co. of India Ltd. no doubt pays higher dearness allowance to their workmen; but according to O.P.W. 1, Shri A. N. Sen, Messrs. Imperial Tobacco. Co. of India Ltd. is a much bigger concern than the present Company. These two concerns however, cannot be taken as comparable concerns for the purpose of fixation of dearness allowance of the workmen of the Company in the present case, in view of the tests laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court for coming to a decision on the question of comparable concerns. There is thus no satisfactory evidence to show what other comparable concerns in the region pay as dearness allowance to their workmen. In any view of the case, it cannot be said that the dearness allowance paid to the workmen is very low. Moreover, most of the workmen have been given some relief by way of increase of their basic wages and by fixing a better scale of pay for them. This increase of wages is likely to throw some financial burden on the Company. But as I have already stated, the Company is in a position to bear this burden. There has been a substantial fall in the earnings of the Company in 1961, and if this state of things continues it will be very difficult for the Company to bear the burden of any additional increase of dearness allowance to the workmen. Considering the matter from all points of view, I do not think that for the present there is justification for the demand of the workmen for a revision of dearness allowance which was fixed only a few years back. The State Government may, if it thinks proper, consider this question and set up a Committee under the Minimum Wages Act for revision of dearness allowance for the workmen employed in Cigarette Industries in the State.

As regards this issue, an agreement has been reached between the Company and the Union on the question of payment of incentive bonus, so far as those workmen who are directly connected with production are concerned, and the question whether this benefit should also be extended to those workmen who are not directly concerned with prduction has been left open for adjudication. It is an admitted fact that while the Company has conceded to the claim of the Union for payment of incentive beautiful to the workmen who are directly concerned with production, it has denied to extend this benefit to the other workers who are not directly concerned with production. It has been contended by the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the Company that this benefit should not be extended to the workmen who are not direct with production on the ground be do not contribute towards producing inerification for giving than thus no justification for giving then thus rio just The Union, on the other has claim. The Union, on the other has been properly because the other has been properly b tended that it is only proper that tended that it is only proper that scheme which has been extended by for some categories of workmen, made available to those workmen sent out of it. The question reaction to the workmen house incentive bonus to the workmed by concerns came up for consideration the Court in several c case of Burn & Co. Ltd. (Howrah los their employees (1960-II-L.L.J. 261) be no doubt that economically speaks be no doubt the subordinate staff about the subordinate st production, and there is no reason excluding them altogether from the tive bonus. Industrial Tribunds stell cases, ascertain whether in view of the production the work-load on such the been increased. If such working increased the employees are control bonus. The view that the benefit of non scheme should be extended to all the also been accepted in some subsequent the Supreme Court. It has been lack case of National Iron & Steel to K L.I.J. 752) that from the view of cross clerical and the subordinate staff a ai like its manual workers contribute towns duction, and there can therefore be to a excluding the clerical and the Watch & W wholly from the benefit of the scherest bonus. The same view has been take it of Western India Match Co. and here reported in 1963-II-L.L.J. 459 in the decisions the contention raised on bid Company does not appear to be well be caunot be accepted. The incentive bons should be extended to cover these we'm are not directly concerned with products, proved that the increased production has the work-load on such employees her of P.W. 1, who is the Secretary of the that the work of the clerical staff by with the increase in production, beauti to maintain the records and accounts and production of the Company. The P.W. 3, Monmatha Maity, is that with the of production the volume of clevel work! go up. According to this witness the validation of the clerical staff has been increased in contrast in the clerical staff has been increased in the clerical staff. Their evidence increase in production. challenged, and it must be held on that that there has been increase in work hi cal staff on account of increase in professions true that these witnesses have no safe fically about any increase in work-load a " the subordinate staff. There can hower doubt that with the increase of production of the subordinate staff will also in real it is difficult to say the proportion of their work. It is true that the contribute clerical staff and the subordinate staff to is not of the same nature and degree is directly produce goods like manual water this is no reason for excluding thes from the scheme of incentive bonus.

and the subordinate staff do not directly progoods like manual workers, and this fact is not for treating them somewhat differently in latter of incentive bonus. The clerical staff he subordinate staff are no doubt entitled to ne subordinus, but certainly not at the rates conditions which apply to the manual in other words, the rates and also condiof incentive bonus, so far as the clerical and ingle staff are concerned, should not be the as those for the manual workers. The Comis directed to extend the scheme of incentive to the clerical and the subordinate staff who of covered by the incentive bonus scheme has been agreed upon by the parties in reof those who are directly concerned with pron. There is no evidence to show what other ns in the region pay as incentive bonus to workmen, and in the absence of any such evir the Company is directed to fix the rates and itions of incentive bonus scheme for the cleri-nd the subordinate staff in such a way that er cent. of the amount paid as incentive bonus orkmen who are directly connected with pro-ion should be distributed amongst the clerical the subordinate staff as incentive bonus. This is accordingly disposed of.

We Union has claimed that temporary workmen have been doing jobs of a permanent nature a long time should be made permanent. There wever no evidence on this point on either side. It is no materials on record to show the number uch workmen nor the period of their service, tover in the previous award of 1948 by Shri P. Mukherji there is provision for permanency of orary workmen under certain conditions and orkman who works for more than nine months gets the benefits of a permanent workman. In of the provision made in the previous award 48 regarding this issue I do not think it necesto disturb the existing practice which appears a fair and the claim of the Union does not at to be reasonable and is rejected.

is admitted on both sides that the Company oved Contractors' men for certain works in the ry. There is little dispute with regard to the sidence by the labourers under contractors ged by the Company. The number of such areas employed by the contractors is approxible 70 to 80, as stated by P.W. 1 and P.W. 3. evidence of O.P.W. 1 on this point is as

We have to engage contract labour for loading and unloading of incoming stores materials and despatch of finnished goods, and we also engage them in the laminating department for fabrication of bags with laminated products. Apart from loading and unloading, the contract labours do stacking work also."

Is witness has broadly stated the nature of done by contract labour. P.W. 3 who is an oyee of the Company for the last 18 years has. Is evidence, stated that the labours appointed he contractors of the Company carry packing boxes, stack and re-stack tobacco bales, and do loading and unloading of lorries and railway wagons. The main work done by the contract labour is loading and unloading of lorries and wagons and stacking of tobacco bales. The Union has claimed that the system of contract labour which is prevailing in the Company should be abolished and the works done by contract labour should be done by workmen to be appointed by the Company with all the benefits available to the employees of the Company. The dispute between the parties is that whether the contract labour system now prevailing in the Company is to continue or it should be abolished. The question of abolition of contract labour was considered in the award of the First Major Engineering Tribunal and also in several cases by the Hon'ble Supreme Court. The trend of decisions make it clear that the system of contract labour should not be encouraged. The Supreme Court, in the case of Standard Vacuum Refineries of India Ltd. and their workmen (A.I.R. 1960-S.C.-949), has observed that in dealing with the question of abolition of contract system it is relevant to bear in mind that industrial adjudication, generally, does not encourage employment of contract lubour in modern times. In another case, reported in 1962-1-L.L.J. 131, it was observed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court that it is advisable to discontinue the system of so called contract labour. The underlying principle in the abovementioned decisions appears to be that labour might not be exploited by reason of such a system in which the workmen are denied the privileges and benefits which the direct employees of industrial concerns enjoy under industrial laws. Though labour system should not be encouraged, the abolition of such system in all cases does not appear to be reasonable or justified. In other words, there cannot be any hard and fast rule for abolition of contract labour and the question whether contract labour should be allowed to continue in a particular concern depends mainly on whether the work done by contract labour is of intermittent or casual nature or in the regular course of business. If the work done by them is of an intermittent or casual nature. there is no justification for abolishing the contract system. If on the other hand, the work done by contract labour is in the regular course of the Company's business, and does not vary a great deal from time to time, and more or less constant, there is no justification for retention of contract labour. It is now to be considered whether the work done by the contract labour is in the regular course of the Company's business which does not vary a great deal from time to time. The evidence of O.P.W. 1, who is a responsible officer of the Company, is "There is no certainty as to the volume of receipt of materials and despatch of finished goods. is also variation in the number of wagons that are handled by us. On some days there may be no wagons to load or unload or on some days there may be 12 wagons awaiting loading or unloading. Similar is the case with regard to trucks. On some days there may not be even one truck and on some days there may be 20/24 trucks." According to this witness, there is no fixity of wagons and trucks for loading and unloading every day, and P.W. 3 has also admitted that volume of loading and unloading may differ widely on different dates. He has also stated that there may be occasions when there may not be any wagon on the siding for loading, be loading and unloading of trucks is done every day. He has however not given the approximate number of trucks which are loaded or unloaded every day. The evidence of O.P.W. 1 is that bag stitching job in the fabrication section is actually done by contract labour, and the quantum of this job varies tremendously with the amount of order received from customers. It thus appears that the work for which contract labour is engaged is not constant nor it is in the normal course of business and the volume of work also varies to a great extent. In the circumstances I do not consider it proper reasonable to direct abolition of contract labour in this case. The Company has also filed a chart Ext. A(1) showing the number of trucks and wagons (?) received in and despatched from the factory during the period from September 1962 to February 1963. P.W. 2 Shri K. B. Krishnan, who is in-charge of the Accounts Department in the factory, has stated that Ext. A(1) has been prepared with reference to contract labour bills, and the details of trucks and wagons loaded and unloaded appear in the bills. He has further stated that Ext. A(1) has been prepared by the clerks of the Accounts Department and has denied the suggestion that the figures shown in Ext. A are false. The correctness of the statement Ext. A(1) has not been seriously challenged, and I also see no reason to disbelieve it in view of the evidence of O.P.W. 2. It is thus clear that the work of loading and unloading of trucks and wagons at the factory varies, and this work cannot be regarded as normal work in the ordinary course of business. This is also the position with regard to stitching of bags in the fabrication section and in the case of assembling department of the saw mill. The evidence of O.P.W. 1 is that the work assembling of cages is not very regular and the bag stitching also varies tremendously, and the variation depends on the amount of orders received from customers. It thus appears that the work done by contract labours varies and this variation depends on many factors. It is therefore not reasonable nor proper to direct the Company to maintain a permanent labour force for work when the work done by the contract labour is not in the regular course of the Company's business, and varies a great deal from time to time. The claim of the Union for abolition of contract labour does not appear to be justified, and should be rejected. This issue is accordingly disposed of.

Issue No. 12

Retiring Gratuity.—The Union has claimed introduction of a gratuity scheme for the workmen for the total period of their services in addition to the Provident Fund which has been introduced by the Company sometimes after the Provident Funds Act came into force. This claim of the Union has been resisted by the Company on the ground that there is already a provident fund scheme in the Company for the benefit of the workmen and they are not entitled to any gratuity scheme by way of double retiring benefits. It is further pleaded that regard being had to the financial position of the Company, the Company will not be able to bear any additional burden of gratuity scheme for the workmen. It is in undisputed fact that there is a provident fund scheme for the workmen under the Provident Funds Act and the Company contributes to the provident tund. Prior to the introduction of the provident fund scheme under the Provident Funds Ag was a gratuity scheme for the workmen previous award of 1948 but the benefit of discontinued of gratuity scheme was discontinued without protest by the Union since the introduction of provident fund scheme under the Provident fund scheme under the provident fund scheme under the provident fundament for the provident fundament fu Act. The present position is that the working to the benefit of gratnity for only entitled to the benefit of gratuity for the of service prior to the introduction of the property of service prior to the introduction of the property of t fund under the Provident Funds Act and have have been appointed after the introduction of Provident Fund scheme under the Provident Act are not entitled to any benefit of Bratus claim of the Union is for gratuity for all works for the entire period of their service. words, the Union has claimed double man benefits for the workmen. The contention in by the Learned Counsel appearing on behalf of Company that as the provident fund existing another retiring benefit in the share gratuity scheme cannot be introduced dos a appear to have any substance in it and cannot accepted. It is well settled now that the custom of a provident fund scheme is not a bar to the m of a second retiring benefit in the shape of a tuity scheme provided the employer is able to the burden of double retiring benefits (vide All 1964-S.C. 864-F.L.R. 1960-I Page 11). These is sions make it clear that the mere existence provident fund scheme is not by itself a reason i refusing the gratuity scheme. As a general m gratuity is granted in addition to the provident a only when the industry can bear the busine of double retiring benefits, its financial posture sound and the future prospect is reasonable and Where the financial position of the employer the fies the introduction of both the benefits there is reason why the employees should not get the terfits of both the provident fund and the grang scheme. The whole question therefore is where the Company will be able to bear the build if double retiring benefits to the workmen il a putuity scheme is introduced in addition to existing provident fund scheme in the Company Revision of wages of the workmen is likely to the some financial burden on the Compan 18 volume of business of the Company has to see extent decreased and the amount of profit and by the Company has in some years steadth to reased. It has also not been proved that in other industrial concerns in the same region the with men get double retiring benefits. There is also evidence to show what would be the approximately financial liability of the Company if the scheme is introduced in addition to the provident fund scheme. It is therefore not leader at this stage to introduce a gratuity scheme in Company in addition to the existing provident scheme. In the circumstances the claim of the line of the claim Union for introduction of a gratuity scheme des not appear to be justified and is rejected.

The workmen are enjoying leave and holders are per an earlier award between the Company their workmen made in December 1948. The warmen employed in the factory enjoy the states also leave under the Factories Act and leave festival holidays. The clerical staff also enjoy the states also led leave of 21 days in a year. The IP.W. 1 is that over and above the the earlier award of 1948, two more ays have been added. He has further to Bisvakarma Puja Day and the Day are observed as unpaid holidays for weekly paid workmen for a very long tevance of the Union is that the Bis-Day and the Day of Atonement (a 15 festival) should be made paid the daily rated and weekly rated worksvakarma Puja Day is primarily a c workmen, and the workmen in most rial concerns, big or small, participate in This being a festival purely for the end reason to hold that the Bisvabay should be made a paid holiday for the proved that in other industrial conregion the Bisvakarma Puja Day is paid holiday for the daily-rated and workmen. This claim of the Union one be conceded to.

the other holiday, namely, the Day at is purely a religious festival of a munity in which the workmen are not interested. on has claimed adjustment in the new scales of pay by allowing lump incresonsideration of the length of service. I dered this claim, and am of the view that the workmen into these grades, their will be the guiding factor. Where the is less than the minimum of a grade be pulled up to the next higher pay were the present pay is just below a pay pocket in a particular group that pulled up to the next higher point of pay increments will follow. All this is not spective because that will place a heavy the industry and abruptly. That will financial balance of the Company. So, I make it prospective from the date it becomes operative in law. The grades and scales of pay given by me will not prejudice any better one in vogue or will not stand in the way of the management's exercising its discretion to offer better pay and prospective to an employee or a category of workmen. The present grades and scales represent only a sort of minimum which is binding on the Company in the interest of the workmen. The grades and scales of pay will not at the same time disturb the existing higher pay and better privileges, if any.

It has been pleaded that the award should be made retrospective in operation inasmuch as there has been much delay in the disposal of this case. As a general rule, no award should be given effect to from any date prior to the date of its pronouncement, but there is no hard and fast rule as to the date from which a Tribunal should name its award effective. Such question has to be decided by the Tribunal on a consideration of circumstances in each case, and it is open to the Tribunal to fix at its discretion a date from which the award passed by it shall come into operation. This case has chequered history and there cannot be any dispute that there has been much delay in passing the award due to unavoidable circumstances. The reference was received by the First Industrial Tribunal on 27th July 1961. After about a year it was transferred to this Tribunal on 31st August 1962. The evidence in this case was recorded and arguments were heard by my predecessor, but before he could make the award he was transferred. Thereafter the arguments were again heard by me and I was under some disadvantage as the case was heard by my learned predecessor. A large number of issues some of which are a bit complicated in nature are involved in this case, and it took some time to prepare the award. It can not, however, be said that the Company is in any way responsible for the delay and it will, therefore, not be proper to make the award retrospective in operation for no fault of the Company. I accordingly direct that the award will be effective from the date of its publication in the official gazette.

This is my award.

AWARD

Government of West Bengal, by Order 57-I.R./IR/15L-20/63, dated the 29th January 1964, had referred the following dispute between Messrs. Dinabandhu Oil Industries, Q283 Mudialy Road, Calcutta-24, and their workmen represented by Dinabandhu Oil Industries Employees' Union, P134 Mudialy Road, Garden Reach, Calcutta-24, to this Tribunal for adjudication.

Issue

Whether the refusal of employment to the workmen named below is justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?

(1) Shri Mukh Lal Singh; (2) Shri Jadu Mistry;
(3) Shri Janki Mistry; (4) Shri Ram
Swaroop Singh; (5) Shri Panchu Mistry;
(6) Shri Kartick Mistry; (7) Shri Tilaram;
(8) Shri Ganesh Singh; (9) Shri Dukhi; (10)
Shri Ram Lalit; (11) Shri Karia; (12) Shri
Parsad; (13) Shri Nand Lal; (14) Shri Indra
Deo; (15) Shri Radhu; (16) Shri Sharmadin;
(17) Shri Madan; (18) Shri Jagdish; (19)
Shri Tipai.

After the service of usual notice, the Union on behalf of the workmen had submitted written statement and the Company had also submitted its written statement. In the written statement filed on behalf of the workmen, it is stated that the workmen had made individual and collective representation to the Company for redressing their just grievances and though the Company had become prosperous due to the untiring effort of the workmen, the Company did not try to ameliorate the conditions of service of the workmen. The workmen, therefore, had formed the Union under the name and style of Dinabandhu Oil Industries Employees' Union (Registered No. 5669) and had submitted through the Union a charter of demand on 26th March 1963 to the Company. The Company, however, paid no heed to the charter of demand and accordingly the workmen through their Union had placed the matter before the Labour Directorate by its letter, dated 28th April 1963. The Company then became angry and had refused the employment of Shri Ram Swaroop who is serial number 4 in the Order of Reference on 1st May 1963 without assigning any reason and without any chargesheet, and subsequently it refused to employ Shri Tipai who is serial number 19 in the Order of Reference again without assigning any reason and without giving any chargesheet. The Company also began to terrorise and victimise the workmen and with the object of defeating the legitimate move of the workmen and without any justifiable reason had locked out the workmen with effect from 13th May 1963. The Union by its letter, dated 16th May 1963, had informed the Labour Commissioner regarding this matter. Conciliation proceeding was started but no settlement was arrived at due to the adament attitude of the Company. The Company had started the work on and from 18th May 1963 with new recruits and had refused the workmen mentioned in the Order of Reference the employment. In the circumstances, the workmen prayed for reinstatement with continuity of service and also prayed for payment of wages and allowances during the period of forced and wrongful nonemployment.

The Company in its written statement had stated that there is no relationship of master and servant between the serial numbers 4 and 7 to 19 in the Order of Reference and the management, that the workmen mentioned in the serial numbers 1, 2, 3, 5 and 6 were only the workers and that the other workmen are workers under the Contractor. It is further alleged that the dispute mentioned in the Order of Reference is not an industrial dispute within the meaning of section 2(k) of the Industrial Disputes Act, that there was no occasion of the workmen to make any individual or collective workmen to make any individual or collective representation to the Company and that the Company is not aware of the formation of the Union and did not receive any charter of demand from the Labour Directorate when the workmen went on stay-in strike on 12th May 1963. The Company also denies that it refused employment to serial number 4 and serial number 19 and had serial number 4 and serial number 19 and nad started to terrorise and victimise the workmen on receipt of the charter of demand as alleged or at all. It is the case of the Company that the workmen of this establishment including the contract labour threatened by the direct employees went on abrupt stay-in strike with effect from 13th May 1963, that the strike without notice was illegal, as the industry is a public utility service under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, that the management had issued several notices to the workmen apprising them of the consequences of the illegal strike but the workmen did not pay any heed and that the allegation of lockout is false. It is further alleged that even the workmen named in serial numbers 1, 2, 3, and 5 preferred not to work and therefore the Company was reluctantly compelled to dispense with their services and commence working with new hands to keep the industry going which caters for essential commodity. The action of the management is legal, bona fide and just. With regard to serial number 6 it is said that he had been working in various mills in the area and had been attending to the mill as and when his services were required as a retainer/consultant. With regard to serial number 5, it is said that he had since settled his dues fully and finally and there is no dispute so far as he is concerned. In the circumstances, it is said that the workmen are not entitled to get any relief.

It would appear that only the management had put in certain documents and thereafter from 26th March 1965 a talk of settlement between the parties had been going on. Actually fhe petition of compromise has been filed in this Tribunal on 3rd May 1965. It would appear therefrom that serial numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 8, 12, 14, 15 (Shri Radhu or Raghu), 18 and 19 are to be reinstated in service with effect from the date of the compromise and these persons are to report for duty within 30 days from the date of compromise failing which it shall be deemed that they are not interested in the service and had left the services of the Company of their own accord. It is further provided that the period of idleness is to be treated as leave without pay and the workmen would be paid a lump sum amount equivalent to 37½ per cent. of the wages which they might have earned if they had been in service of the Company during the period of such idleness. The termination of service of the other nine workmen is accepted. It is also provided that the persons who would resume duty are to be paid within 15 days of the resumption of the duty in presence of Shri K. K. Ram who appears to be the President of the Union. The terms as mentioned appear to me to be legal, bona fide and valid and should be given effect to. The award is therefore passed in terms of the petition of compromise which

Shri S. K. RAY, Judge, Seventh Industrial Tribunal.

AWARD

This is an application under section Industrial Disputes Act, by Shri Kailash Harijan complaining of his alleged arbitrary and illegal discharge from the service of the O.P. No. 1, Punjab Engineering Works, without any ground or chargesheet or any enquiry with effect from 3rd March 1964, by way or victimisation for joining the Union of the workmen of the Company. It is further alleged that when the workmen complained to the Company O.P. No. 1 against his discharge, the Company denied that he was an employee under it and stated that he was an employee under its contractor, O.P. No. 2, Uttam Singh. It is further alleged that this O.P. No. 2 has been falsely set up as a contractor in order to deprive the workman of his just and legal relief and that he all through worked under the direct control and supervision of the Company O.P. No. 1. It is further alleged that 'he impugned discharge took place during the pendency of the adjudication proceedings of another dispute between the Company and its workmen, referred to this Tribunal by G.O. No. 3537-I.R., dated 6th August 1962, and the discharge was in contravention of the relevant provisions of section 33.

A separate written statement was filed by each of the O.P.s.

The substantial case put forward on behalf of the Company O.P. is that this workman was never employed directly under the Company and the Company had nothing to do with his alleged discharge and really he was an employee under the Company's contractor, O.P. No. 2 Uttam Singh, and in these circumstances, the present application under section 33A for the alleged discharge cannot lie against the Company and the workman is not entitled to any relief against the Company. The Company has also denied other allegations made against it regarding the impugned discharge of the workman.

O.P. No. 2 Uttam Singh has, in his written statement, pleaded that he is an independent contractor under the Company O.P. No. 1, and this workman was employed by and under him for his work and that the workman was not discharged, as alleged, but he voluntarily abandoned the work by not reporting for duty at all on the expiry of his sanctioned leave for one month with effect from 6th January 1964. It is also pleaded that he is not in any way concerned in the industrial dispute covered by Reference Order No. 3537-1.R., dated 6th August 1962 and as such, the present application under section 33A cannot lie against him.

After necessary preliminary proceedings and some adjournments, the case was finally fixed for hearing on 19th March 1963. On that date, there was no appearance by or on behalf of the applicant workman. But the Company's representative prayed for time and so the case was adjourned to 3rd May 1965. On 3rd May 1965 again there was no appearance by or on behalf of the workman, though the Company's representative was present. From the absence of the applicant workman on two successive dates of hearing without taking any step, it may be safely held that the workman is not keen on prosecuting his application and pursuing the dispute for adjudication and he has given up the dispute and is not pressing the present application. In these circumstances, the workman's application must fail for non-prosecution and on the basis that the workman is not pursuing the dispute for adjudication and the dispute has thereby ceased to exist.

In the result, I dismiss the application under section 33A, Industrial Disputes Act, for non-prosecution by the applicant workman and on the basis that the workman is not pursuing the dispute for adjudication and the dispute has thereby ceased to exist. I award accordingly.

- (2) Dearness allowance.
- (3) Tiffin allowance.

During the pendency of the adjudication proceedings, the Union filed a petition praying for interim relief in the shape of an addition of Rs. 30 per month to the present total emoluments of the concerned working, pending final adjudication of the issues. This petition was filed on 24th March 1965. The Company was served with a copy of the petition and thereafter the Company filed its objection to the prayer for interim relief.

The matter of interim relief was fixed for hearing on 28th April 1965. On that date, the parties filed a joint petition for adjournment on the ground that a talk of settlement of this matter was going on between the parties. The hearing of the interim matter was accordingly adjourned to 5th May 1965. On that date, the representatives of both parties appeared before me and made their submissions regarding the matter of interim relief. No compromise petition was filed. No evidence was adduced In course of the arguments, I by either party. examined the statement of the current monthly salery of the workmen of this Company produced by the Union along with its written sattement. statement was not substantially challenged before me. After hearing the arguments and considering the statement of monthly salary submitted by the Union, it appeared to me that a flat increase of the to'al emoluments of the workmen now drawing Rs. 100 to Rs. 150 by Rs. 5 per month and a flat increase of the total emoluments of the workmen now drawing total emoluments below Rs. 100 by Rs. 6 per month would be fair and equitable, in view of the undis puted increase in the cost of living in recent years. I suggested to both parties that they should agree to such increments by way of interim relief. There was practically no objection to my suggestion and Shri P. K. Ghosh, Advocate, appearing for the Company, and Shri S. Banerjee, Advocate appearing for the Union, left the matter to my discretion and Considering the overall facts circumstances, I would grant interim relief in terms of my suggestions indicated above, which were practically accepted by the representatives of both parties. The Union wants that the interim relief should be made effective from at least 1st April 1965. The Company contends that no retrospec-tive operation should be given to the interim relief and it should be made effective from the current month, i.e., May 1965. As the Company has practically conceded the interim relief suggested by this Tribunal, I would accept its contention regarding the month from which the interim relief should be given effect and accordingly, I would make it effective from the current month, i.e., May 1965.

In the resuit, I make an interim award granting the following interim relief:

- (1) Workmen of the Company now drawing total emoluments ranging from Rs. 100 to Rs. 150 per month shall get a flat increase of their present emoluments by Rs. 5 per month each.
- (2) Workmen of the Company now drawing emoluments below Rs. 100 shall get a flat increase of their present emoluments by Rs. 6 per month each.
- he above interim increments shall be effective from 1st May 1965. (3) The

This is my interim award regarding interim relief and this award is made without prejudice to and subject to the final adjudication of the issues.

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. The workman Lalsha Jaswara complained that during a pendency of a reference before this Tribunal in which he is concerned the petitioner was refused employment from 21st November 1964.

The Company filed a written statement objecting to the allegations made by the workman. The Company's stand is that the workman voluntarily gave up service and joined a new appointment. On 7th April 1965 a petition was filed purporting to be signed by the workman, withdrawing from the application. No orders were passed thereon and the case was put up for hearing on 29th April 1965. At the time of hearing the workman was absent but the Company was present. The Company examined one witness O.P.W. 1. Shri D. K. Hazra and proved some documents. From the evidence adduced by the Company it emerges that the workman voluntarily gave up service after accepting wages up to 29th November 1964. The wage sheet will show this. The oral evidence of O.P.W. I will also corroborate this fact. Moreover O.P.W. I has proved a petition signed by Lalsha Jaswara stating he withdrew from the application. The petitioner has therefore no complaint which is pressed before this Tribunal. Moreover on merits the complaint is without foundation. The application therefore fails This is my award.

The above industrial dispute has been a the Fifth Industrial Tribunal under section industrial Disputes Act, 1947 by Government No. 3460-1.R./IR/11L-235/64, dated the tellipse of the dispute the dismissal of Shri Kapildeo a To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

The case of the Union, shortly stated

Kapildeo worked for about 16 years under G. D. Sharma, contractors of Messrs indea Steel Co. Ltd. at Burnpur. He took active united Contractors' Workers' Union of when a member and because of his Trade Union his employer wanted to get 11d of him his employer wanted to get 11d of him his missed from service without 1854 of any duto him and without giving him any opport to him and without giving him any opport being heard. The order of his dismissal is as illegal and mala fide and a dispute was now Union over his dismissal. All attempts by a tant Labour Commissioner, Asansol, to have pute amicably settled failed as the emplore attend the conciliation meetings, hence the attend the conciliation meetings, hence the The Union has prayed for reinstatement of Deo Singh to his former post and also his wages for the period of his non-employment.

Messrs. G. D. Sharma has filed a write ment in reply to the written statement filed Union on behalf of the workman. The care Company shortly put is as follows:

Kapildeo was a casual labourer and he allowed entry into the factory of Messrs Inda & Steel Co. Ltd. under whom Messrs G D is working as contractor. The workman was guilty of theft of property belonging to Messr Iron & Steel Co. Ltd. and his gate pass is taken away. The Company could not allow work as his gate pass was taken away for committed theft. It is pleaded that the work his job on account of his own misdeed and the no violation of the principle of natural uses the workman concerned. It is further please the workman is entitled to no relief whaten this case.

Decision

It is an undisputed fact that Kapil Den Sag was a workman under Messrs. G D Shamm tractor to Messrs. Indian Iron & Steel Co I Burnpur was dismissed from service with elico 12th February 1964. Admittedly, he was at any chargesheet for any misconduct on he me any enquity was held against him and he st missed from service on a report made apart by a foreman of Messrs. Indian Iron & Section 1 Ltd. The statement made in paragraph 60 written statement filed by the Company to workman committed theft and was given a c sheet but no explanation was given by him is the reason why he was not allowed to factory does not appear to be correct has case of the Company that the workman sai missed from service as he was found gully charge of theft. The reason for his distributions appears from the order, Ext. 1, communication is the base to the order, Ext. 1, communication is the base to the order, Ext. 1, communication is the order or the him, is that he was reported against by a fe

Indian Iron & Steel Co. Ltd. for insubort is admitted by O.P.W.1, a partner of D. Sharma, that the workman was disa service on a report made against him of Messrs. Indian Iron & Steel Co. A It is provided therein that a worklable to be removed for misbehaviour. The processed was reported against for insubornd the Company had no alternative but to n in terms of Ext. A. The action of the was rather hasty but it cannot be said that all fide. The Company should have on the report from the Foreman asked the have his say in the matter and then to gainst him. The only fault of the Comat it acted hastily in removing the workany way by a desire of victimisation or ur practice, so far as this workman is conic action of the Company in dismissing in does not appear to be justified for the n that he was not given any opportunity ard and this amounted to violation of the natural justice.

prapian has claimed reinstatement and also es for the period of his non-employment. by way of reinstatement which is the noref in a case where dismissal is found untannot be granted in this case. The workman in employee of the Company is under the n control of Messrs. Indian Iron & Steel The Company cannot retain a workman if tion of that workman is not approved by ndia. Iron & Steel Co. Ltd. The entry into V is also regulated by gate pass as it is a place and the evidence of O.P.W.1 Gouri rma is that it is not possible to take back knian as Messrs. Indian Iron & Steel Co. d not issue any gate pass for his entry into in any event this workman cannot be by the Company for reasons beyond its The workman therefore should be paid the last of his employment. There is as to the period of his services. to the Company he worked for about 16 Recei according to O.P.W.1 he worked for 3 years. There is however no satisfactory on either side to prove the period of his serhowever appears from Ext. 2 that he was fined employment with effect from 27th This fact goes to show that he was in prior to 27th August 1962. But O.P.W.1 at when he was first appointed. The workhas not produced anything to show that he or about 16 years and the only evidence on consists of his uncorroborated statement. reumstances it is difficult to come to a deci-It the period of his service under the Comhere is evidence to show that he used to get P. per day as wages, and considering this fact I think that a sum of Rs. 300 would be fair and proper compensation for him for loss of his employment. The Company is directed to pay this amount to the workman within one month from the date of publication of this award in full settlement of his claim for reinstatement and back wages. This is my award.

Shri K. P. MUKHERJI, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Company: Shri Nalini Das Gupta and Shri Dilip Kumar Das Gupta, Advocates.

Present for the Union: Shri Narayan Das Gupta and Shri Satish Mandal, President and Secretary of the Union respectively.

The above industrial dispute has been referred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by Government Order No. 556-I.R./IR/11L-379/63, dated the 11th

February 1964, for adjudication upon the only issue. viz., whether the lockout declared in the factory from 15th October 1963 to 19th December 1963 was justified? To what relief, if any, the workmen are entitled?

After receipt of the reference from the Government on 13th February 1964, usual notices were issued to the parties concerned fixing 5th March 1964 for appearance and for filing of the written statement by the Union. Both parties entered appearance on that date and on the prayer of the Union time was allowed till 25th March 1964 for filing written statement. The Union filed its written statement on that date, and the Company filed its written statement on 21st May 1964. After several adjournments the case was fixed for hearing on 19th January 1965. The parties were ready on that date, and the case was taken up for hearing. The matter was heard in part, and it was adjourned till 27th January 1965 for further hearing on the prayer of the parties. Further evidence was recorded on 27th January 1965, and after several adjournments the case was fixed on 27th April 1965 for further hearing. On that date the parties filed a joint petition of compromise stating that the dispute between them had been amicably settled out of court in terms set forth in the petition of compromise, and prayed that an award might be passed in terms of the petition of compromise. The terms of compromise appear to be reasonable and fair, and I am satisfied that there has been a bona fide settlement of the dispute between the parties on terms set forth in the petition of compromise. I accept the terms of compromise, and accordingly pass an award in terms of the petition of compromise.

In the result I make a compromise award in terms of the joint petition filed by the parties which is made annexure "A" forming a part thereof.

This is my award.

He ed in Calcutta but he was transferred to on 7th September 1964. A sum of 50 has been deducted from his salary in the of September 1964. At Cochin he was to outstation allowance of Rs. 225 but he d a sum of Rs. 128.50 P. These deductions transfers are measures of punishment and jounts to alteration of his service condition. been in employment in the Calcutta office. e complaints the application had been made.

application is opposed by the Company on un ground that such application is not table in view of the fact that the Company contravene any of the provisions of section the Industrial Disputes Act.

n tendered oral evidence but this has been by the Tribunal as the application is held not maintainable.

Findings

learned representative for the workman Shri Roy submits that there had been alteration of condition in view of the fact that Shri D. atterjee was transferred from Calcutta to in violation of the service condition and had been deductoins from his salary and outallowance which is also in breach of service on and that these measures were by way of ment. He wants to bring his case within the if of section 33(2)(a) and submits that applicate approval which ought to have been made by the Company, no such approval was applied for. This argument is misconceived. Section 33, subsection 2, clauses (a) and (b) provide that the employer might alter the conditions of service or discharge or punish by dismissal or otherwise any workman for any misconduct not connected with the dispute subject to the proviso. The proviso is to the following effect:

"porvided that no such workman shall be discharged or dismissed unless he is paid wages for one month and an application has been made by the employer to the Tribunal."

The proviso is applicable only in the cases where there had been discharge or dismissal. Even if the Company alters the service conditions no such application for approval is necessary under section 33(2) unless there had been an order of discharge or dismissal. The admitted case of the workman is that there had been some alterations of service conditions but there had been no discharge or dismissal. The question as to whether the transfer to Cochin is justified or not, the question whether the deduction are justified or not cannot come in a proceedings under section 33A in view of the fact that there had been no contravention by the employer of the provisions of section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act. Since there had been no discharge or dismissal in the instant case, application for approval by the Company was not essential under section 33(2) and that being so, there had been no contravention of the provisions of section 33 in order to enable the Tribunal to assume jurisdiction in a matter of complaint of this nature. I hold accordingly that the application is not maintainable.

Present:

Shri R. BHATTACHARYA, M.A., LL.B., Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act arising out of a dispute between Messrs. Blackie & Son (India) Ltd., 285] Bepin Behari Ganguly Street, Calcutta-12, and their workmen represented by Blackie's Employees' Union, Calcutta Branch, 285] Bepin Behari Ganguly Street, Calcutta-12. The issue for adjudication in the order of reference is as follows:

Whether termination of service of Shree Bazrang Singh by the management is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

On receipt of notice from this Tribunal both the erties appeared. On 17th April 1965, the Union filed written statement. On that day, the Company was directed to file its written statement on 6th May 1965. The written statement filed by the May 1965. The written staement filed by the Union was signed by Shri Santosh Kumar Lahiri, the Secretary of the Blackie's Employees' Union. In the meantime Shri Lahiri filed a petition on behalf of the Union on 26th April 1965 for passing a "no dispute" award on the ground that in the general meeting of the members of the Union held on 22nd April 1965 it had been resolved that the Union would not contest in the reference. Along with the petition a true copy of resolution and a letter sent to the Union by some members of the Union were also filed. The letter, dated 20th April 1965, shows that several members did not like that the Union should support the case of Shree Bazrang Singh. The copy of the resolution passed in the meeting of the Union shows that the Union decided that the case might be withdrawn. It is clear therefore that the Unon has decided not to nursue the issue in question. The circumstances show that there is no industrial dispute at present between Messrs. Blackie & Son (India) Ltd. and their workmen. Shri B. Mukherjee, the learned Advocate on behalf of the Company, also submits today that as there is no industrial dispute, a "no dispute" award may be passed. Nobody on behalf of the Union is present presumably because it has got no interest in this dispute. In the facts and circumstances I therefore desclare that there is no industrial dispute between the Company and the workmen and an award is hereby passed to that effect.

Issue

Bonus for the year 1962-63.

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act. After notice to the parties, the parties appeared but no written statement was filed. The issue is in respect of bonus for the year 1962-63. Secretary of the Union Shri M. N Mukherjee filed a petition on behalf of the Union stating that the dispute had been settled by an agreement. On the side of the Company an application has been filed signed by the Office Manager wherein the said agreement is affirmed. Since the dispute had been amicably settled a "no dispute" award is made.

Shri K. P. MUKHERJI, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Company: Shri K. K. Moitra, Vice-President, Assam, West Bengal, Orissa and Bihar Employers' Association

Present for the Union: Shri Parimal Das Gupta, Advocate.

The above industrial dispute was referred to this Tribunal under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by Government Order No. 1182-I.R./IR/10L-27/63, dated the 18th March 1964, for adjudication upon the following issue:

Puja bonus as a term of employment for the years 1960, 1961, 1962 and 1963.

After receipt of the reference usual notices were issued to the parties and they entered appearance and filed their written statements. They also adduced cral evidence at the hearing of the case, and the Company also filed some documents in support of its case.

The case of the Union, as set forth in its written statement, is as follows:

Messrs. National Sheet & Metal Works (P) Ltd., hereinafter referred as the Company, is an engineering concern engaged in the manufacture of tin containers from galvanised and black sheets. It runs a factory for the purpose, and employs about 150 workmen in various capacities in different departments. The Company paid 15 days' wages as Puja bonus to the workmen for the period from 1944 to 1947, and at the rate of one month's wages in each year from 1948 to 1957. Puja bonus was paid since 1944 without any break and irrespective of loss and profit. The Company, however, stopped payment of Puja bonus for the year 1958, and an industrial dispute arose, and in a reference made by the Government an award was made by the learned Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal directing the Company to pay three weeks basic waves as Puja bonus for the year 1958 to all permanent workmen. The Company filed an application under section 226 of the Constitution of India and obtained a rule which was ultimately discharged. The Company thereafter filed an appeal under Letters Patent, but the appeal was also dismissed by a Division Bench of the Houble High. Court. The Company did not pay Puja bonus to the workmen for the year 1959, and a dispute was raised by the Union. This dispute, along with certain other disputes, was referred to the learned Judge, First Industrial Tribunal, who by his award, dated 7th May 1962, allowed wages for 27 days as Puja bonus to the workmen for the year 1959. The rule obtained by the Company against this award is pending before the Hon'ble High Court. The Union has claimed Puja bonus for the workmen for the years 1960, 1961, 1962 and 1963 at the rate of one month's basic wages, as the Company has capacity to pay this amount as Puja bonus to all permanent workmen.

The Company has filed a written statement in reply to the written statement filed by the Union. The Company denies that Puja bonus is all along been paid to the workmen, and it also denies that any bonus has been paid in any year in which the Company suffered loss. The Company does not, however, deny that bonus was paid to the workmen in the past, but its case is that such bonus was paid out of profit. No bonus was paid to the workmen for the years 1960, 1961, 1962 and 1963 as the Company either suffered loss or did not make sufficient profit in those years. The present financial position of the Company is precarious, and it has not even the capacity to pay retrenchment compensation to the workmen. It is further pleaded that two previous awards relating to the payment of Puja bonus of 1958 and 1959 have got no bearing on the present issue under reference, and the claim of Puja bonus for the years 1960 to 1963 are to be considered on merits, independently of the previous awards. The Company has accordingly prayed that the claim of the Union for Puja bonus for the years 1960 to 1963 should be rejected.

The only question involved in this reference is whether the workmen are entitled to any puja bonus as a condition of service or as customary bonus for the years 1960 to 1963. The Union has claimed Puja bonus for the workmen for these years as a condition of service which, however, has been denied by the Company. The case of the Company is that bonus was paid to the workmen for a number of years prior to 1958, as the Company earned profits in those years. In other words, the case of the Company is that no bonus was paid to the workmen during the Puja as a condition of service, but bonus was paid to them for a number of years as the Company earned profits in those years. It is an admitted fact that the Company paid bonus to the workmen every year for the period from 1947 to 1957 at the rate of one month's basic wages except one year when a lesser amount was paid as bonus. This has been admitted by O. P. W. 1 Gopal Chandra Mallick. one of the Directors of the Company. He has, however, stated that bonus was paid during these years as the Company made profits. No documentary evidence has however been produced by him to show that during all these years the Company made profits, and so bonus was paid to the workmen. P. W. 1, who is a workman of the Company, cannot say if the Company carned profits during the period from 1947 to 1957, but his evidence is that he got bonus in all those years irrespective of profits earned or loss suffered by the Company. It was the duty of the Company to produce the relevant documentary evidence to show that the Company earned profits during the period from 1947 to 1957. It has been urged by the learned Advocate on behalf of the Company that lies on the Union to prove that the lies on the Onion as a condition of entitled to any relief of and they are not entitled to any relief if the of proof is not discharged. There can it is for the Union to make of proof is not the Union to prove the workman for the which was paid to the workmen for the paid as Pulia bonne. which was paid as Puja bonus as a control to 1957 was paid as Puja bonus as a control service. But in the absence of any domestic service of the Company domestic service. evidence on the side of the Company to a workmen during the period as the Company earned profits the of P.W. I that irrespective of profits cand of P.W. I that interpretate of Prome candle suffered by the Company bonus wis paid workmen from 1947 to 1957 is to be an additional of the sufference additional Apart from the oral evidence adduced by the in this case, the Union has filed two previous relating to Puja bonus for the years 1958 at It has been urged by the learned Advocated of the Company that these two awards at to show that the workmen are entitled to bonus for 1958 and 1959, and these two and have no bearing on the issue in the present This contention is wholly untenable and accepted. This identical question, viz. when workmen are entitled to Puja bonus as and of service was previously raised, and it has been by the learned Judges who made the water the workmen are entitled to get Puja bons i condition of service. The workmen wer at three weeks' basic wages as Puja bonus for the 1958 and 27 days' basic wages for the uri There has been a finality of decision, we let a bonus for 1958 is concerned as the appeal and the Company before the Hon'ble High Court that award was dismissed. That award is back the parties for all time to come, and the Com is precluded from raising the question one that no Puja bonus is payable to the workman condition of service. I accordingly hold the workmen are entitled to get Puja bonus a an tion of service for the years 1960 to 1963, messat of profits earned or loss suffered by the Com during those years.

It now remains to consider the quantum of the which should be paid to the workmen for a years. The evidence of O.P.W. 1 Gopal Cam Mallick, one of the Directors of the Compan that at present the Company is not in a poston pay any bonus for any of the years in dispute I further evidence is that the Company camed and of Rs. 27,000 and odd in 1960, but it suffered in in the years 1961, 1962 and 1963. PW in Kinkar Roy, who is a workman of the Company is not in a position to deny this fact. His endent that he cannot say if the Company suffered in 1961, 1962 and 1963. The Company has profit the audited balance sheets and profit and accounts of the Company for the years 1960 m These have been marked Exts. A to A-3 balance-sheets reflect the true and correct firm position of the Company for those wars and genuineness of these documents cannot be tioned. The balance sheet, Ext. A, which result the year ending 30th June 1960, shows that the pany earned a profit of Rs. 27,191.98 np balance-sheets and profit and loss accounts. England A-2 and A-3, which relate to the years ended June 1961, 30th June 1962, and 30 June 1961, pectively, show that the Company suffered all those years. There cannot be any dispute that the financial position of the Company is an important and relevant factor which is to be taken into consideration even in case of bonus which is payable as a condition of service, as in the present case. The financial position of the Company is far from satisfactory, and the evidence of O.P.W. I is that the Company cannot effect retrenchment of the workmen as it is not in a position even to pay retrenchment compensation to the workmen. In view of the financial position of the Company, I think that it would be fair and proper to give the workmen their basic wages for 15 days as Puja conus for the year 1960, and one-third of their bisic wages a Puja bonus for the years 1961, 1962 and 1963. The Company is directed to pay as bonus 15 days' wages for 1960, and one-third of the basic wages of the workmen as Puja bonus for the years 1961, 1962 and 1963 respectively within two months from the date of publication of the award in the "Calcutta Gazette".

This is my award.

AWARD

Is the termination of service of Shii Ramnarayan Dwivedi justified? To wha relief in the way of reinstatement and/or compensation is he entitled?

The Government of West Bengal has directed me to decide the aforesaid issue in connection with an indus rial dispute be ween the City College, Calcu ta, on the one hand and its workman Shri Rannarayan Dwivedi on the other, covered by reference No. 2876-I.R./IR/11L-227/58, dated 11th July 1958.

The issue arose in this way. One Shri Ram Narayan Dwivedi happened to be an office assistant of the City College, Calcutta. His services for some reason or other were terminated by the College authorities. According to Shri Ram Narayan Dwivedi the termination was illegal inasmuch as that termination was mala fide and was an outcome of ill-feeling towards him. According to the College authorities, however, the termination was effected in accordance with law and it was nothing mala fide on the part of the authorities. The Company's case therefore is that Shri Ram Narayan Dwivedi is not entitled to any relief whatsoever in the matter of the present reference.

Shri Sen appearing for the College authorities has expressed a great doubt as to whether an educational institution like the City College Calcutta can at all be said to be carrying on any industry and whether for matter of that Shri Ram Narayan Dwivedi, office assistant of the department concerned, can be termed as a workman at all within the meaning of the expression as used in the Industrial Disputes Act. Shri Sen's doubt is not dogmatic. The view expressed by him has impressed me much and I am in entire accord with him in that view of the matter. It is indeed well known in our days that the City College, Calcutta, is a reputedly educational institution. If that be so I do not think that the operation of the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act can be well extended up to precincts of the College. While indeed tools and machine parts constitute the subject matter of an industrial concern the primary aim of an educational institution is to create man in the strict sense of the term thereby developing the physical, moral and ethical faculties of its students. The former deals with men's equipments the latter straight with the man himself. An educational institution therefore is not and indeed cannot be an industrial concern, the two being qualitatively altogether different in res-pect of their aims and objectives No better clarificaion of the point can possibly be given than in the language of His Lordship Mr. Justice Banerjee which I am tempted to quote below thus:

services rendered by the non-teaching staff such as accountant, librarians, etc., are in the nature of personal service rendered to those who are concerned with education in educational institution. Their association with the educational institution must not be taken to degenerate educational institution into industrial institution and to convert such clerical or menial staff into industrial workmen. Colleges do never carry out industrial activity. A dispute between such a college and its staff does not constitute an industrial dispute". (Vide Vol. I, L.L.J.-1964, p. 326.)

In view of the observations of H's Lordship Mr. Justice Banerjee quo'ed above I must say that a dispute between the instant parties is not and cannot be an industrial dispute and that Shri Ram Narayan Dwivedi's status cannot be conceived to be so low as that of a worker in an industrial concern. Such being the case the instant reference must be condemned as bad in law.

BEFORF THE SIXTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri P. BASU, Bar-at-law, Judge

AWARD

The application under section 33A of the Industrial D.sputes Act had been filed on 19th December 1964 by 16 workmen including Dukhomochan Jha regarding the alleged wrongful dismissal on 11th December 1964, by the Company Shri Biswanath Ayurved Bhawan Pvt. Ltd. Instead of separate application under section 33A of the Act, joint application on behalf of the 16 workmen had been filed. The Company had also put in the written statement.

Today (6th May 1965) an application has been filed by Shri Dukhomochan Jha together with an affidavit stating that he had settled the matter with the Company out of Court and had accepted the sum of Rs. 20014 passe from the Company in full and final settlement of all the claims and dues and had given up his claim for reinstatement. It is further stated that he does not wish to proceed with the application under section 33A of the Act, and that a "no-dispute" award may be passed in terms of the petition. The affidavit was sworn on 30th April 1965 before a Presidency Magistrate, Calcutta. In the affidavit it was clearly stated that he had accepted the order of dismissal of the Company, dated 11th December 1964, and he had received the sum of Rs. 200.14 paise in full and final settlement of all the claims and had given up his claim for reinstatement in the service of the Company. It is also said that he does not wish to proceed against the Company in respect of the application under section 33A of the Act.

I have considered the terms of the compromise and the circumstances. It appears to me that the terms of compromise are bona fide, legal and valid and should be given effect to. I therefore pass a "no dispute" award so far the workman Dukhomochan Jha is concerened. This is my award.

a reference under section 10 of the Indusletes Act. The reference was received on the 1964 and after receiving notice both itered appearance and filed their respective atements. After a few adjournment it was eard on 28th April 1965. Both parties both oral and documentary evidence in of their respective cases and addressed thereon nion in their written statement pleaded that Swai was a worker in the Spinning Departigually but subsequently employed in the Department to operate the tyre cord loom. Not given the wages of a weaver under the extile award. He demanded the same and and infuriated the Company. The Company I him by bringing false charge against him. Besheet was replied to. A date of enquiry I but the workman came to understand that it was held on that day. The workman the management complaining about the mally on 23rd May 1963 the workman was the a letter of dismissal. That dismissal is a not justified. It is not a bone fide the Company but it was a step taken for glabour.

The Company filed a written statement answering to that of the Union. It is denied by the Company that the workman had been victimised in consequence of a demand of wages of a weaver. No such wage is payable to Dibakar as he was not a weaver, properly skilled. On his own seeking Dibakar was transferred from the Spinning Department to the weaving. It is a fact that Dibakar was operating the type cord loom. His production became low. This low production was owing to deliberate slowing down of work by the workman. That was the subject of charge-sheet. The charge-sheet was issued to him on 16th May 1963. The workman replied to the same and 20th May 1963 was fixed as the date of enquiry. Shri lyer, the Manager, was the enquiring officer. He held the enquiry on 20th May 1963 and according to the management the enquiry was attended by Dibakar Swai. The enquiry was fair and the enquiring officer being the Manager was the dismissing authority and as such he made the order of dismissal on 23rd May 1963 and it was communicated to the workman on that very day. The dismissal of the workman was accordingly justified.

Appearances of the parties are as follows:
For the Company. Shri B. Sarkar, Advocate.
For the Union: Shri Patit Paban Pathak.

Decision

Admittedly Dibakar Swai was originally working in the Spinning Department of the Mill. His evidence is that he served the Company for seven or eight years. Exhibit A is the petition of Dibakar asking for a transfer to the Weaving Department. He was permitted to work as a weaver as will appear from the endorsement upon the petition Exhibit A. That endorsement will show that Dibakar was not paid the wages of a weaver under the Cotton Textile award He began to draw his original wages and the daily wage according to Dibakar was Rs. 3.25 P. As a weaver he was claiming higher wage, in terms of the Cotton Textile award. Such demand was made by him in writing as will appear from the letter Exhibit I to the Manager. In that letter he complains that he was working as a weaver for about a year but the remuneration that was paid to him was for that of a helper. He demanded weaver's pay and the assistance of a helper to cope with the work. There is alternative prayer for retransfer to the Spinning Department. This is the content of the letter Exhibit 1. The endorsement upon this letter will show that he was not a weaver of automatic loom. He was working a tyre cord loom. He was therefore not entitled to claim the weaver's rate. This is the endorsement, dated 12th May 1963. Thereafter comes the charge-sheet Exhibit 2, on 16th May 1963, i.e., within four days of the demand. The charge-sheet Exhibit 2 will show that the charge against Dibakar was that his production on the tyre cord loom had been very low due to deliberate low efficiency. habitual negligence, neglect of work which are instances of misconduct under the Standwhich are instances of misconduct under the Standing Orders. This is the charge-sheet. Dibakar duly received it. He also gave a reply thereto on 18th May 1963. The reply is Exhibit 3. The purport of his reply is that he was a weaver without a helper and the automatic functioning of the machine was wanting. So the production could not be improved. To increase production automatic machine should be restored and a helper should be given to the weaver.

The worker accordingly prayed for those two concessions. The cause of low production thus according to the workman was that automatic functioning of the machine was stopped and the weaver was without any helper. Then comes an enquiry held on 20th May 1963, i.e., within two days of the reply. The enquiry was held by Shri Iyer, the Manager. The proceedings of enquiry is Exhibit G. The who was the enquiring officer, was not examined before the Tribunal. The proceeding was written by Shri Debendra Bijoy Roy, O.P.W.3, the then Labour Officer of the Company. He came to prove the proceedings of enquiry. His evidence is that the proceeding was recorded to the dictation of the Mill Manager. This proceeding of enquiry is challenged by the Union on two fold grounds. The first contention is that there was no enquiry and the entire proceeding is fabricated. Secondly the proceeding as recorded was unfair and opposed to the principles of natural justice. As to the Union's contention that the proceeding was recorded falsely in absence of Dibakar, there is some force in it. The workman wrote a letter to the management on 25th of May 1963, i.e., within five days of the date of enquiry stating that on 20th May 1963 he was called at the Labour Office but no enquiry was held and he was told that no enquiry would be held on that day. This is the complaint. If the enquiry was held in presence of the workman, the proceeding would have been signed by the workman. Instead of the signature of the workman, it is noted that the workman refused to sign. I am inclined to accept this record in the absence of the evidence of Shri Iyer. If the workman had actually appeared at the enquiry, there is no earthly reason why he should refuse to sign the proceeding. I will now turn to the record itself which bears testimony of the fact that the enquiry was unfair. The proceedings starts with cross-examination of Dibakar Swai. It is surprising that Dibakar in his statement admits all his faults though in the written reply he denied the same. On all relevant points Dibakar was questioned and he gave answers adverse to himself, which is contrary to the written reply. This is a clear indication of the fact that the statement of Dibakar was fabricated. It cannot be expected that he would admit his guilt in toto though he submitted written statement pleading not guilty to the charge. After a thorough crossexamination of Dibakar the enquiring officer examined Shri H. K. Chaudhury, Weaving Master. It is surprising that at the close of the statement of this witness there is no record at all to show that the workman was asked to cross-examine this wit-The workman should know that he has a ness. right to cross-examine and when the statement of witness is taken down, it is the duty of the enquiring officer to ask the workman whether he would cross-examine the witness and if he wants to do so he should be allowed opportunities of cross-examining the said witness. There is nothing in record to show that the enquiring officer gave any such opportunity. Last witness was Jogesh Sarkar, Head Jobber. At the close of his evidence the workman was not given any opportunity to cross-examine that witness. same comment would apply in the case of Jogesh Sarkar as well. These are clear indications to show that the enquiring officer did not give the workman proper opportunities of defending himself at the The procedure he adopted was extremely enquiry. unfair and the conduct of the enquiry was not only perfunctory but opposed to the principles of natural justice and it gives rise to a cion that it was entirely fabricated the dismissal is noted in a corner of the partial statement of Dibakar was taken. In a text enquiring officer concluded that from the of the accused and the witnesses he has a that Dibakar was deliberately slowing to that Dibakar was deliberately slowing to that Dibakar was deliberately slowing to that Dibakar was deliberately slowing to that Dibakar was deliberately slowing to that Dibakar was deliberately slowing to the Accordingly he was discharged. This is a Accordingly he was discharged. This is not the per finding at all and the finding is not in the record of proceedings, I cannot the proceedings of enquiry.

Even assuming that there is no fair the enquiry at all, it is open to the management the charge by producing proper evidence of Tribunal. The management in fact was of the informities of the departmental con they brought witnesses before the Inbust accordingly have to decide whether the proved by proper evidence before me. The has already been set forth. The evidence is that of the Weaving Master Shri H KO His verbal testimony is that Dibakar was in the type cord loom and the production up to the standard. He does not say that normal standard of production. He waste that 500 yards per day would be the mutan duction. I am unable to accept the option Choudhury unless it is supported by proprial Production is a matter of record and conden have to be drawn from the production repair The learned representative for the Company before me in the course of argument that it only one tyre cord loom in the mill and trun by Dibakar. If there was only one k question of comparison of similar work d other weaver does not at all arise Dibate production in the previous period will have taken into consideration. The charge sheet of mention any particulars of production. In mentioned that production was deliberate was deliberated What is the normal production is not stated had been the production of Dibakar in the period is not stated. What was the pend production is not also to be found The c that respect should be considered vague I accept the charge-sheet as it is, the ma must prove what is the normal production is expected to give and what had been be tion at a particular period. A chart was his me Exhibit J. This is an extract taken f production book. I scrutinised the product myself. The chart Exhibit J is canvassed as a picture of low production for the per 5th December 1962 to 18th May 1963 h ficant to note that during this period the 4 duction had been at varying rates. #### Issue

Dearness allowance for all categories of workmen.

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act made by the Labour Department of the Government of West Bengal for adjudication of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Macfarlane & Co. Ltd., 18 Radhanath Choudhury Road, Calcutta-15 (hereinafter referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by Macfarlane Company Workers' Union, 26/8 Dum Dum Road, Calcutta-2 (hereinafter referred to as the Union).

As usual immediately after receipt of the reference, notices were given to the parties who appeared and filed their respective written statements. At the early stage of the case the parties strenuously fought over some preliminary points which were heard and decided and the case was then taken upon merits. Several witnesses were examined and documents exhibited on the side of the Union. At this stage compromise was arrived at and both parties filed a joint petition of compromise before this Tribunal on 13th May 1965, and annexed thereto a memorandum of settlement arrived at and signed by the representatives of the parties on 10th of May 1965.

The only point at issue was: Dearness Allowance for all categories of workmen.

I have persued and considered the terms of settlement. They appear to be fair and reasonable. So, I accept the terms and make an award on compromise in terms of the memorandum of settlement which do form part of the compromise award as annexure thereto.

Before I conclude, I must congratulate the parties and their learned representatives who are responsible for the happy termination of the dispute that cropped up between them. It not only helps their common cause but also serves well the greater interest of the nation.

Issue

Bonus for 1961-62 and 1962-63.

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, received from the Government of West Bengal, in their Labour Department, for adjudication of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Jardine Henderson Ltd., 4 Clive Row, Calcutta-1 (hereinafter be referred to as the Company), and their workmen of the Luralda Godown represented by the Jardine Henderson Godown Workers' Union, 21G Dashapriya Park Road, Calcutta-26 (hereinafter be referred to as the Union).

The dispute relates to payment of bonus for 1961-62 and 1962-63.

Both parties appeared in pursuance of notices issued by this Tribunal. They presented their respective cases in their written statements. They also filed before this Tribunal their calculations of available surplus and the Company has further placed the balance-sheets of the relevant years.
The case was ready for hearing when both parties expressed their eagerness to settle up the dispute amicably. Parties were given an opportunity to do so, and they successfully settled all the existing dis-putes including the dispute under reference and incorporated the terms thereof in the memorandum of settlement signed by the representatives of the parties on 4th May 1965. Both parties have also filed a joint petition with a prayer for disposal of the present reference in terms of the said memorandum of settlement. I have considered the terms of settlement contained in item No. 3 of the memorandum of settlement which is relevant for the purpose of the present reference. As I have already said the parties have also settled some other outstanding dispute, which is left out of consideration being extraneous to the present reference. I have considered the terms of settlement in respect to the dispute under reference which terms are found to be fair and reasonable. So, I accept the terms and make an award on compromise in terms of the memorandum of settlement which do form part of the compromise award as annexure thereto. The joint petition filed on 14th May 1965 is also made an annexure to the award.

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

Present :

Shri AMBICA PADA BHATTACHARYA, Judge. Second Industrial Tribunal.

By Order No. 1809-IR/IR/8L-11/04, dated the 12th May 1964, Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, referred an industrial dispute between Messrs. Bengal Luxmi Cotton Mills Ltd, Hooghly, and their workmen represented by Scrampore Subdivisional Cotton Textile Workers' Union for adjudication regarding the issues mentioned in the order of reference.

Issues

- (1) Whether the dismissal of Shri Ramdarash Singh (Durwan) is justified? What relief, if any, is he entitled to?
- (2) Whether the resignation of Shri Chittu Muchi was voluntary and, therefore, bona fide, or was forcibly taken from him by the management? What relief, if any, is he entitled to?

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act. The Union named in the order of reference as representing the workman is Scrampore Subdivisional Cotton Textile Workers' Union. The case of the Union is that one Ramdarash Singh was a durwan working in the mill for a pietty long time. He was charge-sheeted on 19th May 1963 on a false ground of sleeping during duty hours. He replied to the charge-sheet denying the charge. The workman demanded representation of himself by another co-workman by his letter, dated 31st May 1963. His prayer for representation by a co-workman was not responded to.

The workman went on leave from 3rd June 1963 and could not appear at the enquiry and applied for time. The enquiry was held in the absence of the workman without giving him proper opportunities of representing himself at the same. The enquiry is unfair and opposed to the principles of natural justice. The complainant against Ramdarash was Nand Singh who is Assistant Jamadar. He invited Ramdarash on 23 April 1963 to drink toddy with him at a liquor, shop, but he refused to keep his request. Out of grudge Nand Singh made a false complaint against Ramdarash Singh. After enquiry which was held ex parte Ramdarash was dismissed form service by a letter, dated 19th July 1963. The order of dismissal is illegal and unjustified. This is the Union's case with regard to Ramdarash.

As regards Chittu Muchi the case of the Union is that he was made to give thumb impression to a blank piece of paper on 30th June 1963. Chittu did not know the contents of the document. It is a forged letter of resignation. Chittu in fact rever intended to resign nor resigned from service. He was working as a Muchi in the Company for the last 11 years. He was refused employment without any charge-sheet. The allegation of theft of four laces on 30th June 1963 is false. The Union challenges that the resignation of Chittu Muchi was not voluntary or bona fide. It was forcibly taken from him by the management.

Decision

Before I take up the two issues framed in the order of reference 1 should dispose of the preliminary objection raised by the Company. The Company challenges the order of reference as without jurisdiction in view of the fact that this is not an industrial dispute within the meaning of section 2(k) of the Industrial Disputes inasmuch as the Union named in the order of reference, namely, Scrampore Subdivisional Cotton Textile Workers' Union cannot convert the individual dispute of the two workmen Ramdarash Singh and Chittu Muchi into an industrial dispute. The competency of the Union to convert the dispute into an industrial dispute is challenged by the Company. The first and foremost question which falls to be decided is whether it is an industrial dispute or not. A dispute which can be raised in an order of reference must be an industrial dispute within the definition of section 2(k) of the Industrial Disputes Act. Notwithstanding that the language of section 2(k) is wide enough to cover a dispute between an employer and single empolyee, the scheme of the Industrial Disputes Act does appear to contemplate that the machinery provided therein should be set in motion to settle only disputes which involve the rights of workman as a class and that the disputestouching the individual right of a workman was not intended to be the subject of adjudication under the Act, when the same had not been taken up by the Union or a number of workmen. This had been the established principle all along. One of the earliest case reported on this point is 1957, L. L. J. Volume I page 27 (S. P. Transport Service Ltd. versus Raghunath Gopal). The established principle accordingly is that a dispute between an employer and a single employee cannot persue be an industrial dispute within the meaning of section 2(k) of the Industrial Disputes Act but it might become one if it is taken up by a Union or a number of workmen. In the present case it is taken up by Serampore Subdivisional Cotton Textile Union and the Secretary of the Union Rate before this Tribunal. He is PW 3 Nn Majumdar. His evidence disclosed the facts. It is a Union of Cotton Texts try, as a whole within the subdivision of North the employer is Messrs. Bengal Luxini (on Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton Textile unit within the subdivision of North Ltd., which is a Cotton subdivision. The Union therefore is a Union Industry concernd, namely, Cotton Textile of a particular area. It transpires from the ex-Shri Majumdar that 400 workers of Beiga Cotton Mills are members of this particular This is borne out and corroborated by the re membership and the register of subscripts Ext. 1. In the year 1963-64 the dramembership is 400 so far as the workers of the cular unit is concerned. The Tribunal will decide whether there had been an industrial before the reference was made It is not that industrial dispute should arise immedia dismissal of a workman. But dismissal of a dual workman may assume the character of a dispute when it is espoused or supported i workmen of the industry. Before the refere made on 12th May 1964 this particular Union strength of membership of 400 workers said Union is supporting the case of the workmen. It is not suggested to Shri Manucross-examination that those 400 worker or tantial number out of them are not supporting of Ramdarash Singh or Chittu Muchi. It is dence of Ramdarash that he is a number of the It is also the evidence of Chittu Much that member of this Union. On the side of the ( it is alleged that Bengal Luxmi Cotton Textile Congress is a Union confined to workers of the Mills only. In support of this contention 0 Shri Nilratan Bhattacharjee, Secretary of the was examined. He has also filed the ner return Ext. B which shows that the strength of a ship of that Union is 2,203. Even accepting the mony of O.P.W. 1 Shri Nilratan Bhattach can safely be concluded on the evidence of Shri dar that Serampore Subdivisional Cotton Union is also a Union which has on its rolls ! ship of substantial number of workmen of Luxmi Cotton Mills Ltd. When that In championed the cause of the dismissed works invididual dispute in respect of the said would assume the character of industrial disp that view of the matter I hold that is is an ii dispute and the objection on behalf of the C is untenable.

The worker among other things at the case should be heard in presence of the whose name would be disclosed to the managehearing from the management. This was prayers made in that letter. There was a net namely, that the worknan who was ader suspension had applied for leave on 1963 for the period 3rd June 1963 to 3rd for going to his native village for attending ge ceremony of his sister. In fact there is polication for leave which is Ext. D. The nphed to that letter on 14th June 1963. The specific points raised by the workman answered at all. The management stated workman was avoiding the enquiry. There asser to the workman's request for representaanother workman. The prayer was neither or allowed. It remained virtually unattended. and to the prayer for adjournment of the multhe workman returned from leave after 1963 the Company's letter fixed the date of a 23rd June 1963. It is significant to note have application Ext. D was neither allowed m The workman would naturally be at a loss stand what was the Company's attitude torapplication and also towards the prayer ming the enquiry to a date after 3rd of July the contrary, the Company insisted in the t A(7) that the enquiry would be on 23rd of I This is the attitude on the side of the Comreappears to be vindictive. Fit iona fide that the occasion alleged in there really false and mala fide. The enquiry er held on 15th of July 1963 ex-parte in the absence of the workman. The entire course of events and the facts and circumstances to which I have referred will clearly indicate that the management grew impatient and assumed from the beginning, that the attitude of Ramdarash was unreasonable and dilatory. The management did not give any categorical answer to the request of the workman to be represented by another workman, the management did not comply with the request of the workman for adjourning the data of enquiry and there is nothing on record to show that such request had been unreasonable. I therefore hold that the ex-parte enquiry in the aforesaid circumstances was opposed to the principles of natural justice and I must say that the workman was not given proper opportunities of defending himself against the charge.

The enquiry proceeding is Ext A(10). The enquiry was conducted by Shri H. V. Angaria. In view of my finding that the enquiry was unfair and opposed to the principles of natural justice, the entire matter would be open before the Tribunal for decision on merits. The only evidence against Ramdasash is that of Nand Singh who stated that he found Rmadarash sleeping on duty but he did not disturb his sleep. Two other watchmen Sarbasri Harikesh Misir and Joy Bahadur were also eye witnesses but they were not examined before the Tribunal. In the absence of their evidence I am not prepared to believe the evidence of Nand Singh that Ramdarash was found sleeping on duty on 19th May 1963. It is significant to find on record that on several other occasions within the last few months similar cases of sleeping had been reported by the same Nand Singh and charge-sheets had been issued. One such charge-sheet is Ext. A(13), dated 30th Docember 1962. A second one is Ext. A(3), dated 15th May 1963. It is significant that no action was taken on any of those occasions. If those incidents were true action would have been taken. All on a sudden action was taken on 19th May 1963 when the man was suspended. In the back ground of those reports by the same man I am not prepared to believe the testimony of Nand Singh before the Tribunal. On merits the Company fails to succeed. On top of all the dismissal of Ramdarash is illegal and void for the following reasons. The management chose to dismiss him by the letter Ext. A(12), dated 19th July 1963 That letter of dismissal was communicated to the workman and it reads thus

"Accordingly you are hereby dismissed from service with effect from the date of suspension."

The date of suspension is 19th May 1963. Thus by the letter of dismissal, dated 17th July 1963, the workman was dismissed retrospectively with effect from 19th May 1963. Such an order of dismissal is illegal and void I am referring the Division Bench ruling of Calcutta High Court on this point. It is reported in F.L.R. 1961, Volume 3, page 98. Mr. Justice B. N. Banerjee in delivering the judgment observed at page 102 that suspension or dismissal or removal from service with retrospective effect has always, been condemned by the Court as illegal and invalid. He has considered two decisions of Mr. Justice Singh on this point The learned lawyer for the Company wants me to hold that even though the authority passed an order of dismissal with retrospective effect. court can make the order prospective. This very aspect was discussed at page 102 of the report of judgment. In a subsequent case Mr. Justice B. N. Bancriec obsessed that dismissal with retrospective offset can be sustained provided the standing orders of the Conpany permit the same. It is reported in 1964, L.L.J., page 342. In the reported case the standing order of the Company provided specifically that a workman found guilty of misconduct might be dismissed with effect from the date of suspension. In view of that standing order his Lordship upheld the order of dismissal as valid. In the instant case the standing orders have been filed. The standing orders Ext. A nowhere provide that the management could dismiss a workman with effect from the date of suspension. In the absence of such specific provision in the standing orders the principles involved in the reported case cannot be invoked in support of that retrospective order of dismissal. In the instant case the order of dismissal which was made retrospective is illegal and invalid. In this view alone the answer to issue No. 1 may be given by saying that the dismissal of Ramdarash is not justified. I accordingly answer issue No. 1 in the affirmative. Ramadrash Singh is entitled to reinstatement and back wages.

Issue No 2

This issue is in respect of Chittu Muchi who was a workman working in the Company for 11 years. On 30th June 1963 he admittedly gave thumb impression to a piece of paper Ext. A(17) which is purported to be a letter of resignation. It is the evidence of Chittu Muchi that he never resigned from service and this document Ext. A(17) is forged. He admits that he gave thumb impression to a piece of paper but adds a rider by saying that it was blank and he gave his thumb impression with a view to resign from membership of the Union. This is the story of Chittu Muchi behind the letter of resignation Ext. A(17). Admittedly, Chittu Muchi was not working since 1st of July 1963. According to the management the letter of resignation came to be signed in the following manner. On 30th June 1963 Chittu Muchi was found stealing from the store house four leather laces like Ext. 1, produced before the Tribunal. On being detected he pleaded guilty and the management wanted to issue a charge-sheet against him and the charge-sheet was tendered to him. He preferred to resign from the service instead of being charge-sheeted. The letter of resignation was written by Sachindra Nath Saha. He gave evidence before the Tribunal (O.P.W.2) He was a clerk in the mill. He was working in the stores at the relevant time. His evidence is that the store cooly detected Chittu while he was stealing four laces. He was produced before Shri Sachindra Nath Saha and he pleaded guilty to the offence, and prayed for mercy. Chittu was served with a charge-sheet but he refused to accept the same and preferred to resign. Thereafter according to his instruction a letter of resignation was prepared by the witness and thumb impressed by Chittu Muchi. There is no reason to disbelieve why Shri Sachindra Nath Saha would be a party to a fabricated document. His evidence is quite believeable in the circumstances of the case. The alleged theft by Chittu Muchi is also supported by the evidence of Shri H. N. Sanyal, the Senior Labour Officer of the Company. He stated that Chittu Muchi admitted his guilt regarding theft of leather laces marked Ext. I. He further added that a charge-sheet was drawn up against him. Thereafter, he came to know that Chittu was not accepting the charge-sheet and that he was offering to resign. I have no reason to disbelieve the testimony of the Senior Labour Officer in the light of circumstances which transpired preceding the reagants was found guilty of theft and the management to proceed against him by issuing charge-shot admitted his guilt. Wisdom prevailed span offer resignation which would be a course dismissal. In such circumstances if that offered to resign it can only be expected that the ment would allow him to do so instead of a proceedings against him. This is how the Ext. A(17) was brought into existence the background of theft, voluntary resignates the background descripted as believable. Its ingly that the resignation of Chittu Muchis and it was not a forged one.

With regard to Chittu it was specially: the side of the Company that it is not an dispute in view of the fact that Chittu contant a member of Banga Luxmi Cotton Mills Mak gress which has not taken up his cause in the reference. In this connection I may possible evidence of Chittu Muchi which is as follows:

"I was a member of Banga Luxmi Cotton Mile Congress until I was put out of employme case is however taken up by the press namely, Scrampore Subdivision Cotton Textile Union. P.W. 3. Shri Majumdar stated th became a member of that Union, Obvious became a member subsequent to the model June 1963. By being a member subsequen date and before the date of reference he eligible to refer the dispute to the Union of is a member and that Union is also compet pouse his case. It may be noted that unless nation was forged document Chittu Much case. If the resignation is a forged one Chat nued to be a member inspite of the said and if he gave up the old Union and joined Union, the competent Union to take up would be the new Union which he joined befor of reference. Reference was made on 12d 1964. Before that date he had joined the question. This Union is therefore competen up his cause in the instant reference. The of Shri Majumdar that Chittu Muchi is a n his Union cannot be successfully challenged name appears in the register Ext 1 The to the maintainability of the reference on t ground fails. Still, however, considering t of the case my answer to the issue is that th tion of Chittu Muchi was voluntary and bor it was not forcibly taken from him by the ment. In that view of the matter he is not a any relief in this reference. This is my awa his application under section 33A. Industrial Act, by Shri Narendra Nath Narkar, a red comployee of Chakdah Municipality, rese complaint made against the Municipality.

the is that violation and alteration in omployee thia the service conditions of Municipality illegally, unjustly and vindictively refused to pay him back the Municipality's share of the contributory provident fund maintained by the Municipality with interest after his dismissal by an order, dated 14th May 1963, when the adjudiction proceedings of another dispute between the Municipality and its workmen, referred to this Tribunal by G.O. No. 3623-LR, dated 19th July 1960, were pending. It is contended that the impugned action of the Municipality was absolutely unwarranted and against the service rules and conditions and the applicant employee is entitled to get the Municipality's contribution to his provident fund with interest.

The Municipality appeared and filed its written statement. The relevant case put forward in the written statement was this; The applicant employee was dismissed for some gross misconduct arising out of realisation of Municipality's money without granting receipt and retention of the money without crediting it to the municipal fund. The Municipal Commissioners at a meeting held on 27th November 1963, decided to pay the applicant his own contribution to the provident fund together with interest thereon but to withhold the Municipality's contribution with interest and this action of the Manierpality was justified by the provisions of the |r| de 17 of the Rule | for the Management of Provident Funds manufained by the District Boards and Municipalities According to this rule. the Municipality moved the Commissioner of the Presidency Division through the Detrict Magistrate for conclioning the withholding of Municipality's contribution to this employee's Provident Fund with interest thereon, but no reply to this letter was received.

The care was finally heard—ex-parte, as the Municipality failed to appear on two successive dates of hearing, 5th May 1965 and 15th May 1965, after taking an adjournment on 1st April 1965

The employee has admitted in his evidence before thus Tribunal that he has got payment of his own contribution to the Provident Fund with interest. He now claims that the Municipality is also bound to pay him its own contribution to his Provident Fund with interest and the action of the Municipality in withholding payment of this portion of his Provident Fund is absolutely illegal, mala fide and contrary to the service rules and conditions. In its written statement, the Municipality clearly referred to rale 17 of the Rules for the Management of Provident Funds maintained by the District Boards and Municipalities as the authority whereunder it withheld payment of the Municipality's contribution to the Provident Fund of this workman after his dismissal. A copy of rule 17 was made Annoxure B to the written statement. It clearly appears from the rule as reproduced in Annexure B that the Municipality has no authority to withhold payment of any part of any employee's Provident Fund money even when he is dismissed for misconduct without the sanction of the Divisional Commissioner. The Municipality was fully aware of this position and so it also pleaded in its written statement that it had written to the Commissioner for sanction through the District Magistrate, but no reply was received. This Tribunal granted sufficient opportunity to the Municipality to produce the sanction of the Divisional Commissioner for withholding payment of its own contribution to the Provident Fund of this workman with interest. But the Municipality failed to produce this sanction and ultimately did not appear at all to contest the employec's application at the final hearing. Relying on the very rule cited by the Municipality as the authority for withholding payment of its own contribution to the Provident Fund of this employee after his dismissal, I must hold that this action of the Municipality was illogal, unjustified and unwarranted and also contrary to the service rules and conditions, because no sanction of the Divisional Commissioner for this action was obtained. It is to be noted here that in spite of ample opportunity being granted to the Municipality to produce the necessary sanction of the Divisional Commissioner in support of the impugned action on its part, no such authority has yet been produced and the Municipality has ceased to appear and take part in the proceedings of this case.

In the result, the complaint of this employee must be accepted and this application shall succeed as awarded below

It is accordingly awarded that the Municipality acted illegally, unjustifiably, unwarrantedly and in contravertion of the service rules and conditions of this employee in withholding payment of the Municipality's contribution to his Provident Fund with interest and the Municipality must pay him its own contribution with due interest thereon within 15 days of the publication of this award.

I do not make any order about payment of this smployee's own contribution to the Provident Fund with interest in this award, as it has been admitted by him in his evidence that he has already got payment of his own contribution with interest.

This finishes my award.

The above industrial dispute has been referred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by Government Order No. 2376/I.R./IR/10L/99/64, dated the 24th June 1964, for adjudication upon the following issue.:

ISSUE

What should be the length of service of Shri Gopinath Das for calculating his retrenchment compensation and what should be the amount of his retrenchment compensation?

After receipt of the reference from Government on 2nd July 1964 usual notice were issued to the parties concerned fixing 25th July 1964 for appearence and and for filing written statement by the Union. Both parties entered appearance on 25th July 1964, and the Union filed its written statement on that date. The Company filed its written statement on 19th September 1964, and the case was filed for hearing on 29th January 1965. On that date the Company filed a petition for adjournment of the case, and the case was adjourned to 21st April 1965 for hearing. On 21st April 1965 the Company again filed a potition for an adjournment, and with the consent of the Union the case was adjourned to 11th May 1965 for hearing, if no compromise was effected. On 11th May 1965 a joint petition of compromise was filed by the parties stating therein that the dispute between them had been amicably settled out of Court, and a sum of Rs. 578 would be paid to the workman as retrenchment compensation in full and final settlement of all his claims and dues by 28th May 1965. The terms of settlement appear to be quite fair and reasonable, and I am satisfied that there has been a bona fide settlement of the dispute between the parties, and there is no subsisting dispute between them for adjudication In the circumstances, I make a "no dispute" award in terms of the joint petition of compromise filed by the parties. parties appeared in pursuance of notices issued is tribunal and filed their written statements. See was ready for hearing. At this stage both have successfully settled the dispute amicably burt and has filed on this day (18th May 1965) petuton of compromise incorporating therein as of settlement. I have considered the terms of settlement. The first workman Shri Netai Chandra Sen has received Rs. 275 (two hundred and seventy-five) from the Company in full and final settlement of all his claims including his claim for reinstatement. The other workman Sri Mahiuddin, as per term of the settlement, will be reinstated within 15 days from this date by the Company and will be treated as a permanent workman from the date of his joining.

The aforesaid terms of settlement appear to be fair and reasonable. I have heard the workmen as well as the representative of the Company. The workmen have voluntarily agreed to the aforesaid terms. Therefore, I accept the terms and make an award on compromise in terms of the settlement. The joint petition filed before this tribunal on 18th May 1965, do form part of the compromise award as annexure thereto.

lived of Agreement witnesses as follows:

hat both the parties, i.e., the mill and its thave agreed that the irrecoverable amount has been paid by the Company for the year trable in 1961, viz., four months' (104 days) Per in accordance with late Dr. Roy's sugges-Me Mill's Notice, dated 19th December 1961, be treated as final payment of bonus and the workmen concerned will be entitled to no further amount in respect of the said year as bonus. The additional amount equivalent to 2 months' 23 days or 75 days' basic pay which was paid as advance will be treated as an advance recoverable as mentioned in the Company's Notice, dated 19th December 1961. This will settle this issue of the Government of West Bengal Order of Reference No. 819-I.R. IR /11L-521/61, dated 12th March 1962.

- (2) That both the parties further agree that the mill would pay 4 month's (104 days) basic pay for the year 1961 payable in 1962 as bonus and the amount paid as advance in 1961 and revoverable as mentioned in clause (1) above would be set of and adjusted against the amount of bonus to be paid for the year 1961 payable in 1962, and that the balance payable as bonus will be paid in cash within a month from the date of this agreement. This will settle the issue of the Government of West Bengal Order of Reference No. 2302-1.R. /IR '11L-338 '62, dated 8th June 1963.
- (3) That the workmen agree to withdraw their claim for wages for the period of work-stoppages mentioned under issue No 2, Government of West Bengal Order of Ref. No. 819 A.R./IR-111-521/61, dated 12th March 1962, now pending before the Fourth Industrial Tribunal. It is further agreed that appropriate application would be made by both the parties before the Fourth Industrial Tribunal for passing an award as por terms of this Agreement contained herein
- (4) It is further agreed by the workmen that this payment of bonus for the years 1961 and 1962 will not be treated as precedent and for as a condition of service for payment of bonus in future years.
- (5) Regarding the Charter of Demands, dated 13th July 1963, submitted by the workmen, a true copy of which is attached herewith, the mill agrees to concede to some of the demands as mentioned hereinbelow:
- (a) Against item No 1 of the Charter of Demands the mill agrees to make 29 temporary workers permanent.
- (b) Against item No. 2 of the Charter of Demands the mill agrees to promote the following categories of workers who are at present working in unskilled category to semi-skilled category, effective from 15th June 1964:

1. Rollerman .. 6 persons.

3rd Floor 3 persons.

4th Floor 3 persons.

5th Floor 6 persons.

Washerman (wheat side) 3 persons.

.. 9 persons. 6. Sewing Men 30 persons.

(c) Regarding Demand No. 3 the mill agrees to pay as a special case, 0.25 P. per day to the Head Misrty Shri Mathura Nath Samanta. over and above his present wages with effect from 15th Jure 1964.

- (d) Regarding Demand No. 4, it is agreed by the mill that the Mill Manager may allow privilege leave with pay to workers who have overstayed any leave granted by the mill and have worked up to 220 days during a calendar year at the specific recommendation of the Seven-Member Committee of the representatives of the workmen provided the said Seven-Member Committee satisfies itself of the genuineness of the reasons of overstayal. The workmen agree that granting of privilege leave to workmen who are not otherwise qualified to enjoy such privilege leave entirely depends upon the sole discretion of the Mill Manager and that this privilege will only be granted till the present operation of Land Settlement Survey in Orissa continues and not otherwise thereafter.
  - (e) Demand No. 5 is withdrawn.
- (f) Regarding demand No. 6, the mill agrees to allow workmen to resume duties within two days of the expiry of the leave granted to such workmen who have overstayed leave without permission provided the workmen concerned produce documentary evidence of having informed the mill by registered letter regarding their inability to resume on and from the third day of the expiry of their leave or extension granted. The workmen agree that this facility will be granted at the discretion of the Mill Manager when the workman concerned proves to his satisfaction that he has failed to resume duties due to circumstances beyond his control such as, a failure to catch the train, flood or natural calamities.
  - (g) Demand No. 7 is withdrawn.
- (h) Regarding demand No. 8 the mill agrees to expedite the payment (generally within a fortnight) of gratuity, when payable, on the retirement or on retrenchment or on resignation or on termination of service as the case may be. The workmen, however, agree that any workman desiring to retire from service on attaining the age of superannuation, which is 58 years, or to resign from service, will give at least three weeks' notice in writing to the mill to that effect to facilitate such payment if and when payable.
- (i) Regarding demand No. 9, two shorts each year will be provided to each permanent man with effect from 15th June 1964.
- (6) Regarding the other items of demands mentioned in the said Charter of Demands, dated 13th July 1963, i.e., from demand No. 10 to demand No. 17, except demand No. 12, the workmen agree to withdraw these demands and the workmen also agree not to raise any dispute in respect of the same or any of the demands mentioned in the Charter of Demands, dated 13th July 1963, within at least 2 (two) years from the date hereof.

RI THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBU-NAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri A. P. BHATTACHARYA, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal. Appearances:

For the Company: Shri N. K. Mukherjee, Advocate. For the Union: Shri Patit Paban Pathak.

The Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by its Order No. 3642-I.R./IR/8L-56/63, dated Calcutta, the 18th August 1964, referred an industrial dispute between Messrs. Sri Sri Lokenath Cotton Mills Ltd., Baruipur, and their workmen represented by Sri Sri Lokenath Cotton Mills Workers' Union for adjudication regarding the issue mentioned in the order of reference.

Issue:

Whether the dismissal of Shri Monoj Kumar Chanda is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act. Sri Sri Lokenath Cotton Mills Workers' Union representing the workmen of the Company championed the cause of Monoj Kumar Chanda, Monoj was dismissed from service of the Company on 16th October 1963. The Union challenges the order of dismissal. Shri Chanda participated in trade union activities which was viewed with disfavour by the management. On 9th September 1963 Shri Chanda was served with a charge-sheet containing false allegation of negligence and disobe-dience on 5th September 1963. Shri Chanda replied to the charge-sheet and an enquiry was held on 17th September 1963 in presence of Shri Chanda. On 4th October 1963 copies of proceedings were forwarded to Shri Chanda who by his letter, dated 7th October 1963, protested against the said proceedings. The Company in spite of the protest served him with a letter of dismissal on 16th October 1963 with immediate effect. The management in the enquiry proceedings violated the principles of natural justice and victimised Shri Chanda for trade union activities. Reinstatement in service as well as back wages are claimed.

The Company filed written statement denying the allegations of Chanda that the enquiry had been unfair or opposed to the principles of natural justice. The charge-sheet was not on false grounds. On 5th September 1963 Shri Chanda was found idling in the morning by Shri R. Ganguly, Dyeing Supervisor. Chanda was asked to do his work but he flouted the orders. He was asked to go to the Manager but he refused to do so and wanted the Manager to come to him. On these allegations charge-sheet was issued to him. Chanda replied to the charge-sheet on 11th September 1963. Thereafter enquiry was held on 27th September 1963 by Shri Ajit Kumar Ghosh in presence of Chanda. Witnesses were examined and Chanda was given opportunity of cross-examining them. The enquiring officer found him guilty of the charges and finally the management issued the letter of dismissal.

Decision:

Monoj Kumar Chanda was dismissed by the letter Ext. G, dated 16th October 1963. The letter states that Chanda was found guilty in respect of the chargesheet, dated 9th September 1963, and his past record was also considered in amending the punishment. Let us now turn to the charge-sheet which is Ext. A. The charge against Chanda was that on 5th September 1963 he was found sitting on the folding table of the dyeing house at 6-30 a.in. by the Dyeing Assistant Shri R. Ganguly who told him to do the work but the workman refused. The workman was called by the Manager Shri Chatterjee through Durwan Giriraj but he refused to go to the manager saying that the Manager was to come to him. On the above fact the charges were neglect of duty, wilful insubordination, disobedience of lawful and reasonable orders of superior. He was put under suspension at once. He was asked to explain within 48 hours. explanation was submitted by Chanda. It is Ext. B, dated 11th September 1963. In the explanation the workman stated that he was suffering from fever from the previous night and he told the Dyeing Assistant that he would finish his work after taking tea. At that the Dyeing Assistant threatened to push him out of the factory by the neck. The workman joined his work after tea but he was told that the Manager wanted his presence. When he was going to see the Manager, Manager himself came there and This was the reply given by the suspended him. workman. Then the date of enquiry was fixed which is an admitted fact. The enquiry was held by Shri Ajıt Kumar Ghosh on 27th September 1963 in presence of the workman. The record of proceedings is Ext. D. The workman challenges the enquiry proceedings as opposed to the principles of natural justice inasmuch as the workman was not given opportunity to defend himself. It is to be noted that after the enquiry was concluded copies of the enquiry proceedings were forwarded to him accompanied by a letter Ext. F, dated 4th October 1963. The workman challenged the enquiry proceedings by his reply Ext. 1, dated 7th October 1963. In that letter the procedure adopted by the enquiring officer was challenged in a general way and the record of enquiry was further impugned as incorrect. The workman prayed for a proper enquiry and wanted that the statement should be recorded properly and in Bengali so that the workman might understand. He wanted that the witness should be examined once presence. Now I will turn to the proceed enquiry Ext. D. It shows that there were the nesses at the enquiry. One was R A G second Giriraj, Durwan and third was Han X Chatterjee, Manager of the Mill. The statem the three witnesses are the first four page of The record of enquiry can be found on the 50 There is page marking from the 11th page. from 1 to 8. The proceeding states that Ganguly (M.W. 1), management witness No 1 ing Assistant, made over his written at (enclosed) to Monoj Chanda (present) h shows that the written statement of read over Ganguly was by the himself and Monoj then was aske cross-examine. The written R. N. Ganguly was prepared beforehand will turn to page 4 which states Giriraj durage submitted a statement which is read our to Chanda (enclosed). This also shows that that been a written statement of Giriral which was over at the enquiry probably by the enquiring of Then Giriraj was allowed to be cross-evaluated Monoj. Lastly, I will turn to page 5 lt 8 tioned that M. Chatterjee, M.W 3 (Manager) over his written statement (enclosed) to Chanda (present). It is also clear that Coa prepared a previous statement which was read by the witness at the enquiry This fact is out from the record itself because the first four containing the written statements of the three nesses are not page marked but they had been before the enquiring officer beforehand Tac m enquiry begins from the fifth page of Evi which is page No. 1 of the enquiry proceedings enquiring officer Shri Ghosh was examined b he. He wanted to say that he examined Comm witness first but no running number was given to He admits however that Shri Chatte written statement was filed at the enquire Chatterjee did not make any oral statement b him. Shri Chatterjee is an important witness a is admitted that he prepared a statement which filed before the enquiring officer when the en commenced. So far as other witnesses are cond I am unable to accept the explanation of Shn C in view of his own record in Ext D which s to the contrary. In fact all the three statement three witnesses were prepared beforehard and workman was simply asked to cross-examac witnesses after their written statements were over by the witness themselves and in the ca durwan by the enquiring officer himself question is whether the procedure adopted h enquiring officer affords reasonable opportunits the workman for defending himself. The last this point is more or less well settled A recent sion of the Supreme Court may be cited in this nexion. It is reported in 1963, IIJ. Volume II Relevant portion of the discussion can found at page 379. In the instant case the will were not orally examined by the enquiring office their written statements were read over at enquiry. In the reported case a similar proc and their Lordship observa was adopted follows:

"Therefore, the nature of the enquiry and of the person against whom the enquir ag held will have: some bearing on what be the minimum requirements of the ould be the minimum requirements of the give of natural justice, where, for example, exers are permitted before a Tribunal hold-tan enquiry and the party against whom enquiry is being held is represented by a enquiry is being held is represented by a yet, it may be possible to say that a mere ding of the materials to be used in the pury may sometimes be sufficient—see w Prokash Transport Company versus New tarna Transport Company (1957, S.C.R. but where a domestic enquiry in an industrial targets lawyers are not permitted accommendation. matter lawyers are not permitted, someg more than a mere reading of statements be used will have to be required in order a safeguard the interest of the industrial wiker Further we can take judicial notice the fact that many of our industrial workers re disterate and sometimes even the represenance of labour Union may not be present defend them. In such a case to read over prepared statement in a few minutes and ier ask the workmen to cross-examine would ake a mockery of the opportunity that the ales of natural justice require that the workmen should have to defend themselves. gents to us therefore that when one is dealmg with domestic inquiries in industrial matters, the proper witnesses from the beginning to the end in the presence of the workman the enquiry itself. Oral examination always takes much longer than a mere reau-ing of a prepared statement of the same ength and brings home the evidence more dearly to the person against whom the enquiry being held. Generally speaking, therefore, w should expect a domestic enquiry by the nanagement to be of this kind".

the workman with copies of the prepared to sometime ahead so that the workmen get himself prepared for cross-examination. half the workman is illiterate and he did not English. While the statements were prepared again it cannot be expected that he could at chow-examine the witnesses successfully in view above handicaps. On the side of the Company M is sought to be made that the workman was ented by one N. Rakhit. Shri Ghosh attempted n this in his evidence after the Union had ther evidence. It was nowhere suggested to raman that N. Rakhit, an officer of the Union, lewed to represent the workman. The probeen a fact the proceedings would have mennd that the workman was allowed to be repre-Union Moreover if as office-bearer of the Union really present he would have cross-examined the eses on behalf of the Company and the workwould not have come forward to do the same. the above circumstances the argument aced on the side of the Company can be sucbe out. The conclusion is inevitable that the man was not given proper opportunities of the thinself against the charge-sheet. It is sed to the principles of natural justice and as the analysis of the principles of the p the enquiry must be deemed as unfair and the enquiring officer cannot therefore be accepted. The learned lawyer for the Company has placed before me a case reported in 1959, 2, L.L.J. page 663. This case does not help the management in any way, on the contrary, it lays down the clear proposition of law that the defect in the conduct of the enquiry could have been rectified if the Company had produced before the Tribunal the witnesses and give an opportunity to the workman to cross-examine them afresh. It was open to the management to examine witnesses before me and prove the charges against the workman. No such evidence was produced before the Tribunal. The only witness was Shri Ghosh, the enquiring officer, who had no personal knowledge about the incident. There is no evidence before the Tribunal on which conclusion evidence before the Tribunal on which conclusion can be drawn that the workman is guilty of the charges. In view of the findings recorded above, the dismissal of Shri Monaj Kumar Chanda must be held to be unjustified. He is entitled to reinstatement and back wages. This is my award which is to be implemented within 30 days of its publication in the "Calcutta Gazette".

Present:

Shri K. P. MUKHERJI Judge. Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Company: Shri A. Sarkar. Ad Present for the workmen: Shri Panchanan E charya, representative of the workmen

This is an application under section 33A Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by Shri Sasadhi and 14 others, all employees of Messrs. Agmitot Mills, alleging contravention of section 33 of the strial Disputes Act by the opposite party during pendency of an industrial dispute between the opposite party and its workmen. The original reference which this application has arisen was made under No.1206- I.R./IR/15L-3/64, dated 19th March

The petitioners allege that the opposite part been paying 25 days' wages as bonus to them long time on the New Year's Day, according Bengali calendar. This payment of bonus is a cot of service and is payable to them irrespective of ion suffered by the opposite party. The per however, stopped payment of bonus for 100 BS with some ulterior motive. The state used to enjoy holidays for two days assent of Holi festival as a condition of their state opposite party allowed them only one solution on the occasion of the Holi festival in The pertitioners are entitled to get double working on a day which they are entitled to admin

Chhedi and Sukhai are concerned, har subsisting dispute between them and the # porty and a "no dispute" award is to be A regards the other petitioners, arguments behadvaced on both sides, both on preliminary and also on merits. It has been urged on behalf opposite party that the present application is untainable in law as there has been no contravenlant of the provisions of section 33 of the Indusspures Act 1947. On behalf of the Union it has but poled on the other hand that there has been Taken of section 33(1)(a) and also of sub-section

2, clause (a) of that section. There can be no dispute with the proposition of law that a workman has no right to make a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. 1947, unless there has been a contravention of any of the provisions of section 33 of the Act In the petition, it is nowhere stated which particular provision of section 33 has been violated. It seems on a perusal of the petition that the petitioners want to say that there has been contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act as the opposite party refused to pay bonus to the petitioners which is a condition of their service, and also as holiday of one day was allowed to them on the occasion of the Holi festival instead of two days which they used to enjoy as a condition of their service. It is to be seen whether the allegations made in the petition constitute contravention of section 33 of the Act. It is an undisputed fact that a dispute is pending before this Tribunal between the opposite party and its workmen, and that dispute relates to gratuity for the workmen. That dispute is not in any way connected with bonus which is said to be a condition of service of the workmen, and it cannot therefore be said that there has been alteration in the condition of service connected with the main dispute which the opposite purty is not entitled to do without the express permission of the Tribumil before whom the main dispute is pending. There is nothing m section 33 to indicate that any change in the condition of service during the pendency of an industrial dispute gives the workmen a right to make a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act - It is therefore difficult to understand how there has been a contravention of section 33, sub-section (1) clause (a) of the Act so as to attract section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act.

As regards the next contention raised at the time of hearing that there has been contravention of clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 33 of the Act. it is clear that the employer may after the condition of service applicable to the workman in accordance with the standing orders applicable to the workman in regard to any matter unconnected with the dispute. It is not the ense of the petitioner that the opposite party has altered their condition of service not in accordance with this provision of section 33 of the Act, and this therefore amounts to a breach of section 33 of the Act. It is therefore difficult to see how the opposite party has contravened clause (a) subsection 2 of section 33 of Even if it be assumed for the sake of argument that the opposite party has stopped payment of bonus to the petitioner which is a condition of their service, or curtailed holiday for one day on the occasion of the Holi, that does not constitute contravention of section 33 of the  $\Delta \alpha$  so as to attract section 33 $\Delta$  of the  $\Delta \alpha$ . In this view of the matter it cannot be said that there has been a contravention of section 33 of the Incustrial Disputes Act by the opposite party which gives the petitioners a right to file a petition under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. The application under section 334 is not legally maintainable as the petitioners have faded to prove contravention of section 33 of the Act by the opposite party. The preliminary objection raised on behalf of the opposite party is accordingly found in their favour and against the petitioners.

Coming to the merits of the case the petitioners have also not been able to establish by any satisfactory evidence that they are entitled to yearly bonus as a condition of service. The evidence of Gazi Koiri, P.W.I, is that at the time he joined the service of the Company there was no agreement between him and the Company for payment of bonus to him. Subsequently also there was no such agreement, and he also cannot say whether any such agreement was made between the Company and the other petitioners. He has also stated that during his period of service he got bonus every year. The mere fact that bonus was paid in some years does not necessarily prove that it was paid as a condition of service. O.P.W. 1, who is an employee of the Company for the last nine years, has stated that the Company paid bonus to its workmen in years when it earned profits. But no bonus was paid to the workmen when there was no profit earned by the Company. He has further stated that no profit was carned by the Company in 1370 B.S. and, as such, no bonus was paid to the workmen for that year. He has admitted that he got bonus in March or April. 1957, and in subsequent years. It is an admitted fact that the Company paid bonus to its workmen for several years and it was the duty of the petitioners to call for the relevant records from the Company to show that even in a year of loss the Company paid bonus to its workmen. No such attempt was, however, made, and in view of the evidence of O.P.W I it is difficult to hold that the Company paid bonus to its workmen even in a year of loss. P.W.1 also has admitted that he cannot say whether the Company paid bonus to the workmen on account of the profits earned by it. The evidence adduced by the petitioners, which consists of oral evidence of one of the petitioners, is hardly sufficient to prove that the petitioners are entitled to get bonus as a condition of service. In the result. the petition under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, is rejected and the petitioners are not entitled to any relief in this case four applications under section 33A of the land Disputes Act. 1947, filed by four workmen Macfarlane & Company Ltd. (hereinafter saim of the provisions of section 33 of the Indubutes Act by their common employer.

The petition filed by Ram Sundar Ahir and 8 others stating they have no dispute with the Company do form part of the award as Annexure A.

Their common case, in brief, is that during the pendency of a proceeding under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act relating to dearness allowance of the workmen in which all the workmen were interested, the Company deducted one day's salary of these workmen and thereby altered the service conditions of the workmen. Hence the complaint.

The Company resisted all the applications by filing written statements in which preliminary objection was raised questioning the maintainability of the applications and denying the alleged contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Subsequently the main reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act relating to dearness allowance of the workmen having been amicably settled and an award on compromise having been made, similar complaints having under section 33A have mostly been withdrawn by the workmen.

These four applicants who were temporary workmen are no longer in service of the Company and they are also not available. So, Shri Panchanan Bhattacharji, the President of the Union who represented these applicants, has prayed for permission to withdraw the cases.

Heard the learned representatives of both parties. None presses for proceeding with these complaints. Therefore, in consideration of the petitions the cases are disposed of being withdrawn

AWARD

The Government of Wost Bengal, by Order No.4046-I.R. TR/11L 344/63. dated 26th September. 1963. had referred the following industrial dispute between Messrs. Sri Ganesh Properties (P) Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company). 12B Lower Chitpore Road. Terette Bazar, Calcutta-1. and their workmen represented by Sri Ganesh Properties Karmachari Sangh (hereinafter referred to as the Union) to this Tribunal for adjudicaltion.

lasues

- (1) Wages and Dearness Allowance.
- (2) Permanency.
- (3) Retiring benefit.

After the service of the usual notices, the workmen represented by the Union had submitted a written statement, and the Company had also filed a written statement. It has been stated in the written statement filed on behalf of the Union that the market known as Terette Bazar is a big market consisting of large number of shops, godowns and residential flats, and that there is a four-storied masonic structure. The owners are Sarbashri Muralidhar Saraf, Radheshyam Saraf, Mannalal Jajodia and Gopi Kissen Acharia who were all Directors of Sri Gauesh Properties (P) Ltd. From the market, these persons collect nearly seventy thousand as rent per month. In accordance with the direction of the Hön ble High Court in Calcutta in matter No. CA 32 of 1961, a Board of Management has been constituted consisting of the aforesaid four persons, and also Shri S. A. Masud, Bar-at-Law, who had been appointed as Chairman of the Board of Management. It is said that after Shri Masud became a Judge of the High Court, Shri P. P. Ghosh, Bar at-Lav appointed the Chairman of the Board of in his place. It is further alleged that they ployees of the Company had contributed to perity of the Company as a result of which the has accumulated large sums of money the not even paving the subsistence wages to the and are also not granting them retiring bear are 35 persons who are the employees and or 1962, they had appealed to the Company Chairman of the Board of Management but of the service conditions, in particular an increased wages, dearness allowance bole facilities and retiring benefits. There has been no response. The Union called Sn Con perties Karmachari Sangh was registered 1962, and as the Company did not put heed to the able demands of the employees the employees their union submitted the charter of demands Company on 15th June 1962. The manager not pay any heed to the charter of demands and ingly, the workmen had assembled in a general on 22nd July 1962 and expressed then disast regarding the callous and indifferent autual Company. There was a discussion with the g on 27th July 1962, but without any residence ployees again assembled on 26th August 1962 they had expressed their grievances Before 24th August 1962 the employees tried to lead a tion in order to discuss the que to of the dispute, but again without any result h stated that all the employees have to remain for 24 hours, that the employees are paid meagre wages, that even in December 1963 md allowance was paid to neutralise the use mit of commodities, that the Company does not n workmen permanent though they have worke fairly long period and that though there had of conciliation proceedings at Government i settlement was arrived at due to the adaman of the Company. The workmen theret is a the grades and scales of pay and also deamer ance may be introduced with retro-pertive of the date of demand, that the temporary empe be made permanent on the completion of st service, that a scheme for gratuity may be the rate of one month's pay last drawn bet of service and that the provident fund may be at the rate of 10 per cent contribution he both the ployers and the employees for all guades of me

For the present purpose, it is not necessary in all the defences in the written statement field of the Company. It will be sufficient to safe it has been alleged that the Territe Bara regivith some structures belonged to Maharaja of Bara that the Company had taken on lease the prosent the year 1948 and had constructed a new magneture being partly 1, 2, 3 and 4-storeved at a rest of 22 lacs, that the Company does not carry of and 21 trial business or undertaking as defined under $2(j)$ of the Industrial Disputes Act and that the ployees of the Company are employed as domest years and are not workers within the meaning Industrial Disputes Act.

The only question which now are a for consider is whether the Company carries on any business of taking as defined in action 2(j) of the Industral putes Act. and whether the disputes regard

m mentioned in the erder of reference can in the mances he regarded as industrial disputes metron 2(k) of the Act.

Findings

the case was opened by Shri Roy on behalf of or the case was opened by Shri Roy on behalf of the Comor submitted by Shri Sen that the preliminary nt was she decided at first on taking evidence. It segred that it it is found by this tribunal that pagan does not carry on any industry and there is pumpany and there is no midus that dispute, the tribunal cannot decide inter mentioned in the order of reference by the mment of West Bengal. I agree with Shri Sen the question mentioned above should be heard at genminary hearing, as if it is decided in favour comployers, this tribunal would have no jurisdicto decide the other questions which have been med to this tribunal. If, however, the question acred in favour of the employees, then a further wichave to be given for decision on the question generace for adjudication. Accordingly, at this evidence has been led bearing on the question for-Indabove It appears to me that there is not difference between the evidence of O.P.W.1 Shri herer and P.W.1 Shri Misra. It would appear prive sky the market together with some strucbelong to the Maharaja of Burdwan, and that in Manesh Properties (P) Ltd. had taken a lease of importies and had subsequently constructed some neures thereon Actually the evidence shows that me the bazar or market, there are 3-storeyed structhat there are some residential flats and that there tase some shop rooms and that all these flats and moons have been let out to different persons. It the appears from the evidence that some of the perway monthly rents and the other persons pay daily at The Memorandum and the Article of Associanot the Company (Ext.A) shows that the properties r agained by way of lease and that the lessee had, tralia right to construct structure and to let out on # 11 to grant licenses, easement rights and other as with regard to the property. The business, if an be so called, is the business of acquisition and mement of the leasehold property. Now for the per of running the business, as I have mentioned with Company had engaged some durwans, sweepthere mistries, bearers and a plumber. It is quite her from the evidence given in this case that these was have been employed for the purpose of proper weement of the leasehold properties and also for the loss of preservation of the properties. Some of durwans have to open and close the gates and to see the disturbance or breach of peace occurs on the shold properties, some other durwans are engaged he purpose of collecting rents from different persons for going the rent bills for the purpose and the durwans have to do odd jobs, like going to the and the Income Tax Department. The sweepers howeep the privies and the yard of the market. electric mistries are to look after the electric inshous on the leasehold property, and the plumber attend the pipes laid on that property. The duty bearer is to supply drinking water to the clerks other persons. The learned lawyer Shri Roy had that in the circumstances, it can be said that has been contribution on the part employees towards the management of the property, and that because of the contribution, the Company is earning profits and is able to realise the income of the property. It may be conceded that the employees do certain works which facilitate the proper manages ment of the leasehold property but as Mr. Sen has emphasised in his argument, the income is really derived because of the leasehold interest of the employers in the property. It was submitted by the learned Counsel. Shri Sen that the work done by the employees forms insignificant part towards the management of the property. It was pointed out that previously the Managing Directors used to manage properties and I ave a right to let out different portions on rent and to get income from the property, and that after the order of the Hon'ble High Court constitution the Board of Management, it is only the Board of Management which is really managing the property in question. I think that there is considerable force in the submission of the learned Counsel. I think that having regard to the business of the employers, the works done by the employees really form insignificant or small part in the matter of managing the leasehold property. My attention has been drawn by the learned Counsel to the ruling reported in 1963 (II) L L.J., 335 A.I R 1963, S. C. 1873 (University of Delhi vs Ram Nath). Their Lordships of the Supreme Court had, inter alia, observed that like all educational institutions, University of employs subordinate staff, such as, peons, drivers employed for driving college buses run for the convenience of students, etc. and this subordinate staff does the work assigned to them; but in the main scheme of imparting education, this subordinate staff play such a minor, subordinate and insignificant part that it would be unreasonable to allow this work to lend its industrial colour to the principal activity of the University which is imparting education. It was further observed that the work of promoting education is carried on by the University and its teachers and if the teachers are excluded from the purview of the Act, it would be unreasonable to regard the work of imparting education as industry only because its minor, subsidiary and incidental work may seem to pertake all the character of service which may fall under section 2(1). Their Lordships had relied on the ruling reported in A.I.R. 1960, S. C. 675 (Corporation of the City of Nagpur vs. its employees) = 1960 (1) L.L.J., 523. The learned lawyer Shri Roy had referred to the ruling reported in A.I.R. 1961, S.C. 484 1960 (II) L.L.J., 728. That ruling has been referred to and distinguished in the ruling reported in A.I.R. 1963 S.C. 1873 Their Lordships have been pleased to point out that the employer was engaged in industry and the research department or section was not purely an educational institution and was really connected with the industry of the employer. Reference has also been mad by the learned Counsel to the ruling reported in A.I.R. 1962 S.C., 1880 (National Union of Commercial Employees vs. M.R. Moher). This ruling was also rebed on by Shri Roy on behalf of the word men. That ease related to the question whether the Solicitors' Firm can be regarded to be an industry. Their Lordships after referring to the definition in section ? (j) of the Act had been pleased to observe that looking at the question in broad and general way it is not easy to conceive that a liberal profession l'Ic that of an Attoricy could have been intended by the Legalature to fall within the definition of industry under section 2(j) that a very concept of liberal profession has its own special and distinctive feature which do not readily permit the inclusion of the liberal profession into the four corners of the Industrial Laws, that the essential basis of an industrial dispute is that it is a dispute arising between the capital and labour in enterprises where capital and labour combine to produce commodities or to render services, that this essential basis would be absent in the case of liberal profession, that a person following a liberal profession does not carry on his profession in any intelligible sense with the active co-operation of his employees and that the principal, if not the sole, capital which brings into his profession is his special or peculiar and intellectual and educational equipment. Their Lordships had also pointed out that superficially considered the Solicitors' Firm is, no doubt, organised as an industrial concern would be organised, that there are different categories of servants employed by a firm, each category being assigned separate duties and functions, that it must be remembered, however, when a service is rendered by Solicitor functioning either individually or working with partners, his service is essentially individual, that it depends upon the professional equipment, knowledge and efficiency of the Solicitor concerned and that subsidiary work which is purely of an incidental type and which is intended to assist the Solicitor in doing his job has no direct relation to the professional service ultimately rendered by the Solicitor. Lastly, it was observed that the work of the clerk who types correspondence or that of the accountant who keeps accounts has no direct or essential nexus or connection with the advice which it is the duty of the Solicitor to give to his client, and that there is, no doubt, a kind of co-operation between the Solicitor and his employees, but that co-operation has no direct or immediate relation to the professional service which the Solicitor renders to his clients. Their Lordships have approved of the rulings reported in A.I.R. 1958, Calcutta 460, and A.I.R. 1958, Calcutta 465. It would appear therefore that where the work done by the employees is of a subsidiary or minor or incidental nature, it cannot be said that there was contribution of the employees in the main activity in which the employer is engaged. The learned Counsel had also referred me to the ruling reported in A.I.R. 1961, S.C. 95 at page 97 (N.R. Mukherjee vs. A.H. Just). It was pointed by their Lordships that one of the important questions was whether the professional income of the firm or chartered accountant is carned solely by the efforts of the partners or whether the main and important part of the professional work of the firm is carried on by audit clerks and other chartered accountants who are employed by the firm. The point has been elaborately discussed by Mr. Justice Banerjee J. in the case reported in A.I.R. 1963, Calcutta 310-67 C.W.N. 232 (Rabindra Nath Sen vs. First Industrial Tribunal, West Bengal). His Lordship has been pleased to point out that the services rendered in auditing by the employees of the chartered accountant were not wholly of that subsidiary type, which a Solicitor receives from a stenographer, typist, account clerk, correspondence clerk or manual servant and that the services rendered by the audit group of clerks had a direct bearing on the preparation of the report, that keeping in view the cooperation which the petitioners obtained from their employees in the matter of auditing, the petitioners carried on an industry, and that to a dispute between the petitioners and their employees, the Industrial Disputes Act did apply. It is only necessary to mention the latest case reported in A.I.R. 1964, S.C., 903 (Harinagar Cane Firm vs. State of Bihar). Their Lordships of the Supreme Court had referred to an the rulings which I have referred to above and be pleased to hold that the agricultural operation of on by Limited Co. formed for that purpose is an und within the section 2(j) of the Act. In that case, pointed out that there had been co-operation be capital and labour in producing goods and the the agricultural operation for which the Com was formed could be regarded to be an industry in present case, however, the works undertaken by durwans and others are of a very subsidiary ming incidental nature, and it cannot be said that the ployees by their works had substantial control to the earning of the income from the leasehold perty, or towards the management of the keep property itself, so that proper income can be de from the leasehold property. The employers can derive income from the property if they let out por of the property to different persons at suntable 1 In view of the incidental and subsidiary nature of work and also in view of the work in which the ployer is engaged, I do not think that the work as regarded as an industry under section 2(j) of the and therefore the alleged disputes between the eng ers and the employees cannot be regarded to be m trial disputes. This question is decided accords

In view of my above finding, I do not thuk the bunal has jurisdiction to decide the matters  $\tau$  have been referred to this tribunal for adjudical The reference therefore is bad in law and not maintable. This is my award.

Present:

Shri R. BHATTACHARYA, M.A., LL.B., Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the workmen: Shri P. Ghosh.

For the Company: Shri J. N. Chatterjee, Adviser to the Indian Engineering Association.

This reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act arises out of Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 6640-I.R./IR/10L-196/64, dated 17th December 1964, and the Corrigendum No. 1084-I.R./IR/10L-196/64, dated 15th March 1965. It relates to an industrial dispute between Messrs. Mackintosh Burn Limited (described hereinafter as the Company), Gillanders House, 8 Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta-1, and their workmen represented by the Mackintosh Burn Mazdoor Union (hereinafter referred to as the Union), 35B Wellington Street, Calcutta-13. The issue for adjudication relates to tiffin allowance for the plumbers, pipe-fitters and their helpers belonging to the Head Office of the company at 8 Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta.

Both the parties have submitted their written statements. In short, the case of the union is that the company employs 350 men in the Head Office them there are 180 employees working as pipe-fitters and their helpers. The company has tiffin allowance to the members of the substaff at the rate of .50 paise for every working .75 paise for each member of the clerical staff per day and Re. 1 for each overseer for each working the staff at the rate of .50 paise for each member of the clerical staff per day and Re. 1 for each overseer for each working the staff of the staff of the staff of .50 paise for each member of the clerical staff per day and the staff of the staff of .50 paise for each members and the clerical staff per day and the staff of .50 paise for each members and the staff of .50 paise for each members of the clerical staff per day and staff per staff of .50 paise for each members of the clerical staff per day and the staff of .50 paise for each members of the company working day without any discrimination.

The Company in its written statement resistant claim of the Union. The main case of the Com is that the plumbers, pipe-fitters and helpers are outdoor works, that the Company ex-gratia gran allowance to the Head Office staff by way of allowance as the service conditions of the Head 0 staff are entirely different from manual workness plumbers, pipe-fitters and helpers. These persons getting statutory leave under the Factores Act when they are sent outside for out door work are allowed house rent and also supplied utensis cooking. The question of further allowance dues arise when the plumbers, fitters and helpers are also recess for lunch on every working day lt has l further alleged that the demand for tiffin allows not an industrial dispute and the matter by discretionary with the management. According the company there has not been any discrement in the matter of tiffin allowance.

At the time of hearing both the parties has deed to adduce any evidence in this case and they proposed to place their submissions before this lith on some submitted facts. Admitted facts as follows:

The Head Office of the Company is situated at Dalhousie Square area. Plumbers, pipe-fitten and helpers belong to the Head Office of the Company is situated at the Dalhousie Square area. although they are directed from the Head Office go to their duties outside the office. They are ma labourers no doubt. There are 50 other members the subordinate staff including drivers. They do get any tiffin allowance. Only the members of clorical staff and the Overseers get the tiffm allow for each working day and this allowance is paid with their monthly wages. Plumbers, pipe fitters their holpers do not get any tifin allowance is written statement of the union it is stated that number of plumbers, pipe-fitters and their helps 180 but at the time of argument Shri J. N. Chatte on behalf of the Company, has stated that in there are 181 employees designated as plumbers fitters and helpers. Of this 181 plumbers, pipes and helpers some are permanent and some are tempe There are, however, no casual labourers amongst t It is further admitted that most of the offices u Dalhousie Square area pay tiffin allowance to clerical staff. There are some offices which pay allowance to the clerical staff as well as to the ordinate staff including peons, chaprasis, swe and other manual labourers. There are some of again which pay tiffin allowance to the clerical and not to the subordinate staff. It is further at that the financial position of the Company has been paying profit to the workmen all along and for the year 1964 to the extent of two and half months' wages to the extent of two and half months' wages a gren. At the time of hearing, the Company a gren the fact that the Present object is considered the fact that the Present object is considered the second disputes.

ompany has introduced tiffin allowance to some belonging to the Hoad Office. These workers are the clerks and the overseers. mpaily has not considered the case of the of the subordinate staff favourably. on behalf of the Company has submitted most of the business concerns in the Dalhousie the subordinate staff do not get any such privilege. the company according to this principle has allowed allowance to the clerical staff and the overseers de and the overseers are admittedly workmen members of the subordinate staff are also workmen. la these workmen belong to the Head Office of the man; It is not at all decent to make any dismaton in the matter of tiffin allowance between the the category of the clerical staff and the tmen in the subordinate staff. This is not only n or unjust but it is also creates disharmony and stafation amongst the workmen. Admittedly. e of the offices in the Dalhousie Square area pay allowance to the members of the subordinate in luding the manual labourers along with the her of the clerical staff. In the Company we get sommen designated as plumbers, pipe-fitters and and besides these workmen there are only 50 e belonging to the subordinate staff including co Of course, in the present reference I am not good with other members of the subordinate except plumbers, pipe-fitters and helpers. In reference also I am not expressing any opinion ring 50 others of the subordinate staff. It would at fair and equitable if plumbers, pipe-fitters and is he allowed tiffin allowance along with the clerical and the overseers. The admitted fact is that derk is paid .75 paise as tiffin allowance for each ing day along with their monthly wages. We take it that on the average there would be 22 ng days in every month. If I fix 25 paise as tiffin wer for each of the plumbers, pipe-fitters and " it would be inconformity with the tiffin allowgranted to the members of the clerical staff. As it of this provision the company is to incur further * towards the tiffin allowance for these persons restent of about a little less than Rs. 12,000 het bonus every year. But the company will not lose whing to pay tiffin allowance to these workmon was in that case at best the amount of profit bonus at he a little less. The financial position of the mpany will, therefore, not be affected adversely to miterest of the management. I understand from parties that the plumbers, pipe-fitters and helpers the employment of the company are either permant imporary. I am also told that none of them are labourers In the circumstances, there can be reason to make any discrimination between rencal staff and the plumbers, pipe fitters and For ends of justice I, therefore, allow tiffin Mance in their favour at the rate of .25 paise per working day to be paid in cash along with their monthly wages. The company shall pay the tiffin allowance to these persons on and from 1st of June, 1965

AWARD

This is an application under section 33 A. Industrial Disputes Act. by Shri Dayaram Singh, an employee of the Company O. P., Messrs, Bombay Steel Rolling Mills Ltd., complaining of his alleged wrongful and illegal removal from service in contravention of the relevant provisions of section 33, Industrial Disputes. Act, during the pendency of the adjudication proceeding of another dispute between the Company and its work men. referred to this Tribunal by G. O. No. 3537-IR dated the 6th August, 1962.

The Company appeared in response to the notice issued by the Tribunal and filed its written statement against the workman's petition.

After necessary preliminary proceedings and some adjournments, the case was finally fixed for hearing on 22nd May. 1965. On that date, the parties filed, a joint petition stating that the dispute had been settled out of court and so, praying for a "no dispute" award. I have heard the representatives of the parties and considered the joint application. The application is signed by the authorised representatives of both the parties, Shri A. L. Roy, General Secretary. Paharpur Steel Rolling Mills and Engineering Workers' Union, for the workmen, and Shri G. D. Aggarwal, Deputy Works Manager of the Company, for the Company.

I have considered the terms of compromise. These appear to be quite lawful and fair. I am further statisfied after hearing the representatives of the parties that there has been a bona fide settlement of the present dispute between the parties and after the settlement, there is no dispute subsisting.

In the result, I accept the joint petition of compromise and dispose of the case by a "no dispute" award. A copy of the joint petition is made a part of the award as an Annexure
